(1) In the case of tax-free alcohol and distilled spirits, the bond, Form 30, 30½, 1571, or 1432–A, shall be extended to be liable for an amount equal to the tax, together with interest, if such alcohol or distilled spirits are transported, used, or sold contrary to law or regulations now or hereafter in force.

These requirements shall not apply where specially denatured alcohol, tax-free alcohol, or tax-free distilled spirits are withdrawn by the United States or any governmental agency thereof and are transported in tank trucks operated by employees of the United States.

(c) Present permits and bonds. Basic permits and bonds now held by motor carriers, and by consignors and consignees which authorize the transportation of tax-free alcohol and specially denatured alcohol, may, on application and the filing of consents of surety, be modified to authorize tank truck shipments of specially denatured alcohol, tax-free alcohol, and tax-free distilled spirits, and to contain an undertaking to be liable for the tax, or an amount equal to the tax, as provided in subparagraph (1) or (2) of paragraph (b), as the case may be. The consent of surety (or, if preferred, a new bond) must be modified so that the principal and surety will be responsible to the extent of $50,000 on each tank truck used, and not more than $200,000 for the total of all tank trucks used. (Secs. 3108 (a), 3124 (a) (6), 3176, I.R.C. Act of January 24, 1942)

The number of the cap seal will be recorded on Form 1520, 1440, or 1468D, and on Form 1439, 1453, or 1473, as the case may be. The storekeeper-gauger will place the Form 1439, 1453, or 1473, as the case may be, in a sealed envelope addressed to the consignee, and give the same to the driver of the tank truck for delivery to the consignee. The Form 1439, 1453, or 1473 will be forwarded by the consignee immediately to the District Supervisor of the district in which the consignor is located. (Secs. 3108 (a), 3124 (a) (6), 3176, I.R.C., Act of January 24, 1942)

§ 171.44 Action by District Supervisor. The District Supervisor will check the forms daily against the Form 1520 or 1440, and, in the case of specially denatured alcohol, Form 1473, and make any inquiry which he deems necessary with respect to any discrepancy. In the event of failure to receive Form 1439, 1453, or 1473 from the consignee within the time normally required for the truck to make the shipment and the form to be sent by mail, the District Supervisor will also make an appropriate investigation. (Secs. 3108 (a), 3124 (a) (6), 3176, I.R.C., Act of January 24, 1942)

§ 171.45 Accounting. The distilled spirits, alcohol, and specially denatured alcohol shipped, transported, and received under these regulations will be accounted for in accordance with the applicable provisions of Regulations 3, 4, 5, and 10, and Treasury Decision 5111, relating to shipments by tank cars. (Secs. 3108 (a), 3124 (a) (6), 3176, I.R.C., Act of January 24, 1942)

(4) No Person engaged in the manufacture of articles of the types set forth on Schedule "A" herein shall use in the manufacture of any of the articles listed on the said Schedule "A" any particular construction of cotton duck in the manufacture of any particular article in which the use of the said construction is prohibited by the terms of the said Schedule "A".

(5) On or after April 1, 1942, no Person engaged in the manufacture of any of the articles of the types set forth on Schedule "A", unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, shall deliver any cotton duck product to any Person, and no Person shall, on or after April 1, 1942, unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, accept delivery of any article of the type set forth on Schedule "A", unless and until the Person who is to receive delivery of such article shall have first filed with his vendor a certificate signed by such Person or on behalf of such Person by an individual authorized to sign for such Person, in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies to his vendor and to the War Production Board that the undersigned is engaged in the ---------- industry; the undersigned requires delivery of the product listed on purchase order No. ---------- in the month of ---------- for actual use by the undersigned within sixty days from the receipt thereof by the undersigned; that his estimate of the time within which he will put the said articles into actual use is based upon the actual experience of the undersigned in the calendar years 1940 and 1941; and the undersigned further certifies that to the knowledge of the responsible officials and technicians of the undersigned there is no substitute not made from cotton duck obtainable for such actual use.

Any Person accepting delivery of any article of the type set forth on Schedule "A" and intending to resell the same, either in the form in which he received it or incorporated in any other product, shall, in the certificate to be filed with his vendor as provided above in this subparagraph, substitute the words "for resale" in the place of the words "for actual use" and the words "resell the said articles" in place of the words "put the said articles into actual use." No such Person shall resell any such cotton duck products except to a Person filing with him a proper certificate in the form specified above. Any manufacturer filing the certificate required by this subparagraph shall fill in the blank appearing in the certificate form immediately before the word "industry" by specifying the principal products he produces by the use of the cotton duck products to be delivered to him by his vendor.

(6) Any Person with whom any certificate is filed pursuant to this Order is entitled to rely upon the facts stated in any such certificate in the absence of knowledge or reason to have knowledge that the facts stated in such certificates are incomplete, misleading, or untrue.

(h) Control of stocks of cotton duck and certain cotton duck products. Control is hereby taken of the distribution and use of the cotton duck products listed on Schedule "A" and of cotton duck. Any cotton duck or any such cotton duck product at any time hereafter in the inventory of any Person shall be sold and delivered by such Person if and as specifically directed in any Order of the Director of Industry Operations, which may be issued whenever the Director of Industry Operations shall determine that a shortage of such cotton duck or such cotton duck product for defense, for private account, and for export, exists and that it is necessary or appropriate so to allocate such cotton duck or such cotton duck product in the public interest, or to promote the national defense, by so directing its sale and delivery by such Person. Any such sale shall be made at the established prices and terms of sale and payment therefor. No Person shall dispose of or use any cotton duck or cotton duck product which is the subject of such an Order in any manner inconsistent with the terms of any such Order.

(i) Other allocations of cotton duck. Applications for specific authority to purchase, accept delivery of, or use cotton duck or any cotton duck product otherwise than as permitted by paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g), may be made to the Director of Industry Operations by the Person desiring to use such cotton duck or such cotton duck product on Form PD–329, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed as appropriate for particular applications. Any such application shall, among other things, set forth a statement of the technical necessity for the use of cotton duck in the manner and to the extent that application therefor is made. Such application shall also summarize the efforts made by the Applicant to use substitutes, and shall contain a statement of the reasons why the Applicant contends that the use of cotton duck in the manner and the extent that application therefor is made will promote the national defense or will be in the public interest. The Director of Industry Operations will allocate cotton duck to such Applicant in the manner and to the extent that he determines to be in the public interest or to promote national defense. Such allocations of cotton duck shall take precedence over any preference rated orders.

(j) Appeals. Any Person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of cotton duck conserved, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference M–91, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(k) Reports. On or before the 15th day of March, 1942, and on or before the 15th day of each calendar month thereafter, each Person with whom one or more certificates have been filed pursuant to subparagraph (g) (5) hereof shall file with the War Production Board a tabulation showing the number and kind of cotton duck products delivered by him during the calendar month immediately preceding to each type of industry specified in each such certificate filed with him. All Persons affected by this Order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such other reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time.

(l) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference M–91.

(m) Records. All Persons affected by this Order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(n) Modification of telegraphic orders. The telegraphic orders issued January 15, 30, February 9, and 19, 1942, are hereby amended, as of the date of the issuance of this Order, in accordance with the terms of this Order. Purchase orders with preference ratings made subject to review under the telegram of January 30, 1942, which, however, comply with the provisions of paragraph (d) hereof, may be filled without further review.

(o) Violations. Any Person who willfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80).

(p) Effective date. This Order shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. PART 1117—GAS MASKS

General Limitation Order L-57 to Restrict the Production of Unapproved Gas Masks and Anti-Gas Devices

Whereas, the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of materials used in the manufacture of Gas Masks and Anti-Gas Devices, and the present supply of these materials will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements unless steps are taken to prevent waste by curtailing the manufacture and distribution of Unapproved Gas Masks and Unapproved Anti-Gas Devices for civilian sale and use.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1117.1 General Limitation Order L-57—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Gas Mask" means any mask, hood, shield, canister, or other device adapted, claimed or purported to be adapted for use by civilians for individual protection against enemy attack, or held or advertised for sale for such use.

(2) Any Gas Mask shall be presumed to be an "Unapproved Gas Mask" within the meaning of this Order unless it affirmatively appears:

(i) That it is manufactured according to specifications of the Chemical Warfare Service of the United States Army on actual order for use by military, naval, or air forces, or by the Office of Civilian Defense, or by any other agency of the United States Government, or for use by any foreign government, under a Defense Order as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, or to be supplied to Civilians by any of the foregoing; or

(ii) That it is manufactured according to specifications established and used in the manufacture of masks for fire-fighting, mining, industrial, scientific, or other like non-military uses, and is sold for such purposes, and is not claimed, purported, advertised to be or offered for sale as a Gas Mask for protection against enemy attack.

(3) "Anti-Gas Device" means any canister or other device adapted, claimed or purported to be adapted for use by civilians as a collective protector in buildings or shelters against enemy gas attack, or held or advertised for sale for such use.

(4) Any Anti-Gas Device shall be presumed to be an Unapproved Anti-Gas Device within the meaning of this Order unless the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) (2) (i) affirmatively appear.

(5) "Put into Production" means to begin the assembly of component parts.

(6) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part assembly, or product of any kind.

(b) General restrictions. From the effective date of this Order:

(1) No person shall manufacture, purchase, or sell an Unapproved Gas Mask or Unapproved Anti-Gas Device;

(2) No person shall receive delivery of any Laminated Cloth, Laminated Glass or Plastic Lenses, Metal Buckles or Buttons, Primary or Activated Charcoal, Rubber, Synthetic Rubber, Webbing or Duck to be physically incorporated in any Unapproved Gas Mask or Unapproved Anti-Gas Device.

(3) No person shall sell or deliver any Laminated Cloth, Laminated Glass or Plastic Lenses, Metal Buckles or Buttons, Primary or Activated Charcoal, Rubber, Synthetic Rubber, Webbing, or Duck to any person if he knows or has reason to believe that such Materials are to be used in the manufacture of any Unapproved Gas Masks or Unapproved Anti-Gas Devices, in violation of this Order, or any other and further Orders of the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Records. All persons affected by this Order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(d) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this Order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(e) Reports. Reports shall be made at such times, on such forms, and with respect to such matters as shall be prescribed by the War Production Board. Persons who have manufactured or sold any Unapproved Gas Masks or Unapproved Anti-Gas Devices since January 1, 1941 or who on the effective date of this Order had in their possession or under their control more than ten Unapproved Gas Masks or Unapproved Anti-Gas Devices shall forthwith report such fact (and the details thereof), in writing to said War Production Board, on Form PD-328.

(f) Violations and false statements. Any person who violates this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies any records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(g) Application of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision thereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

He shall submit such further information as the Board may require and shall make such Mask or Device available for tests and inspection as may be required. The Board may test and inspect such Mask or Device through the agency of the Chemical Warfare Service of the United States Army and may consult with the Office of Civilian Defense, and may issue such orders with respect to the completion or sale of such mask or device as in its opinion may be consistent with the requirements of defense.

(2) Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Effective date. This Order shall take effect on the date of issuance. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

SAN DIEGO—DESIGNATION OF THE SAN DIEGO DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations within the defense-rental area described below;

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.1 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "San Diego Defense-Rental Area":

In the State of California, in the County of San Diego the Judicial Townships of Encinitas, National, and San Diego in their entireties, and that part of the Judicial Township of El Cajon lying west of the Cleveland National Forest.*

*§§ 1388.1 to 1388.5, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2nd Sess.

§ 1388.2 Necessity. The necessity for the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area is as follows:

The designated area is and has been the location of establishments of the armed forces of the United States and war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities, the influx of production workers and their families, and of the families of military and naval personnel have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. The President has found that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in the San Diego area under Public No. 849, 76th Congress, 3d session (Lanham Act); Public No. 9, 77th Congress, 1st Session; and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). He has also allocated funds to the Navy Department for the construction of housing units under Public No. 781, 76th Congress, 3d Session, upon certification by the Secretary of the Navy that such housing was important for purposes under his jurisdiction and necessary to the national defense program. San Diego has been placed on the list of Defense Housing Areas in which builders may secure priority ratings on critical materials for residential construction.

Surveys in the San Diego area have reported low vacancy ratios for rental housing accommodations, indicative of the abnormality of the local market. New construction in this area by private industry and by the Government has not been sufficient to restore a normal rental market for housing accommodations.

Defense activities have resulted in substantial and widespread increases in rents, affecting most of the rental housing accommodations in the San Diego area. Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the San Diego area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.3 Recommendations. It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941 defense activities already had resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the designated area inconsistent with the purposes of the Act. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within such area on or about January 1, 1941; and it is his judgment that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act is on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes, and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on January 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on January 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on January 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the San Diego Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on January 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the San Diego Defense-Rental Area on January 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after January 1, 1941, or changed after January 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to January 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of California or any political subdivision thereof, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to January 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on January 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the San Diego Defense-Rental Area on January 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possessions, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.4 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by state or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

§ 1388.5 Effective date. This designation and rent declaration (§§ 1388.1 to 1388.5, inclusive) is effective March 2, 1942.*

Issued this 2d day of March 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

WATERBURY—DESIGNATION OF THE WATERBURY DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulations or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations within the defense-rental area described below:

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.51 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "Waterbury Defense-Rental Area":

In the State of Connecticut, in the County of Litchfield the Towns of Plymouth, Thomaston, and Watertown; and in the County of New Haven the Towns of Beacon Falls, Cheshire, Middlebury, Naugatuck, Prospect, Waterbury, and Wolcott.*

*§§ 1388.51 to 1388.55, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1388.52 Necessity. The necessity for the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area is as follows:

The designated area is and has been the location of war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities and the influx of production workers and their families have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. The President has found that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in the Waterbury area under Public No. 849, 76th Congress, 3d Session (Lanham Act) and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). Waterbury has been placed on the list of Defense Housing Areas in which builders may secure priority ratings on critical materials for residential construction.

Surveys in the Waterbury area have reported low vacancy ratios for rental housing accommodations, indicative of the abnormality of the local market. New construction in this area by private industry and by the Government has not been sufficient to restore a normal rental market for housing accommodations.

Defense activities have resulted in substantial and widespread increases in rents, affecting most of the rental housing accommodations in the Waterbury area. Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the Waterbury area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.53 Recommendations. The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the designated area on or about April 1, 1941. It is his judgment that prior to April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act, but did result in such increases commencing on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on April 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the Waterbury Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on April 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Waterbury Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after April 1, 1941, or changed after April 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of Connecticut or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on April 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Waterbury Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.54 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

In the State of Connecticut, in the County of Hartford the Towns of Berlin, Bloomfield, Bristol, East Hartford, East Windsor, Farmington, Glastonbury, Hartford, Manchester, New Britain, Newington, Plainville, Rocky Hill, Southington, South Windsor, West Hartford, Wethersfield, Windsor, and Windsor Locks; in the County of Middlesex the Towns of Cromwell, Middlefield, Middletown, and Portland; in the County of New Haven the Towns of Meriden and Wallingford; and in the County of Tolland, the Town of Vernon.*

The designated area is and has been the location of establishments of the armed forces of the United States and war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities, the influx of production workers and their families, and of the families of military personnel have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. The President has found that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in a number of localities in the Hartford-New Britain area under Public No. 671, 76th Congress, 3d Session; Public No. 849, 76th Congress, 3d Session (Lanham Act); Public No. 9, 77th Congress, 1st Session; and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). It is his judgment that prior to April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act, but did result in such increases commencing on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on April 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the Hartford-New Britain Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on April 1, 1941.

(b) Provisions consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Hartford-New Britain Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after April 1, 1941, or changed after April 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of Connecticut or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on April 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Hartford-New Britain Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.254 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by state or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

COLUMBUS—DESIGNATION OF THE COLUMBUS, GEORGIA, DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations within the defense-rental area described below;

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.301 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "Columbus, Georgia Defense-Rental Area":

In the State of Georgia, the County of Muscogee in its entirety; and in the State of Alabama, in the County of Russell, Election Precinct One, including the City of Phenix City.*

*§§ 1388.301 to 1388.305, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2nd Sess.

§ 1388.302 Necessity. The necessity for the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area is as follows:

The designated area is and has been the location of establishments of the armed forces of the United States. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities and the influx of the families of military personnel have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. The President has found that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in the Columbus area under Public No. 671, 76th Congress, 3d Session; Public No. 849, 76th Congress, 3d Session (Lanham Act); and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). Columbus has been placed on the list of Defense Housing Areas in which builders may secure priority ratings on critical materials for residential construction.

Surveys in the Columbus area have reported low vacancy ratios for rental housing accommodations, indicative of the abnormality of the local market. New construction in this area by private industry and by the Government has not been sufficient to restore a normal rental market for housing accommodations.

Defense activities have resulted in substantial and widespread increases in rents, affecting most of the rental housing accommodations in the Columbus area. Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the Columbus area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.303 Recommendations. It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941 defense activities already had resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the designated area inconsistent with the purposes of the Act. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within such area on or about January 1, 1941; and it is his judgment that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act is on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on January 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on January 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on January 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the Columbus, Georgia Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on January 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Columbus, Georgia Defense-Rental Area on January 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after January 1, 1941, or changed after January 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to January 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the States of Georgia or Alabama, or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to January 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on January 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Columbus, Georgia Defense-Rental Area on January 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.304 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by state or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

Issued this 2d day of March 1942.

Administrator.

WICHITA—DESIGNATION OF THE WICHITA DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations within the defense-rental area described below;

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.451 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "Wichita Defense-Rental Area":

§ 1388.452 Necessity. The necessity for the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area is as follows:

The designated area is and has been the location of war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities and the influx of production workers and their families have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. The President has found that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in the Wichita area under Public No. 849, 76th Congress, 3d Session (Lanham Act), and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the Wichita area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.453 Recommendations. It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941 defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the designated area inconsistent with the purposes of the Act. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within such area on or about July 1, 1941; and it is his judgment that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act is on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on July 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on July 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on July 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the Wichita Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Wichita Defense-Rental Area on July 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after July 1, 1941, or changed after July 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to July 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of Kansas or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to July 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on July 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Wichita Defense-Rental Area on July 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.454 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by state or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may be regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

DETROIT—DESIGNATION OF THE DETROIT DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations within the defense-rental area described below;

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.501 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "Detroit Defense-Rental Area":

* §§ 1388.501 to 1388.505, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. No. 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1388.502 Necessity. The necessity for the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area is as follows:

The designated area is and has been the location of establishments of the armed forces of the United States and war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities, the influx of production workers and their families, and of the families of military and naval personnel have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. The President has found that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in localities in the Detroit area under Public No. 849, 76th Congress, 3d Session (Lanham Act), and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). Localities in the Detroit area have been placed on the list of Defense Housing Areas in which builders may secure priority ratings on critical materials for residential construction.

Surveys in the Detroit area have reported low vacancy ratios for rental housing accommodations; indicative of the abnormality of the local market. New construction in this area by private industry and by the Government has not been sufficient to restore a normal rental market for housing accommodations.

Defense activities have resulted in substantial and widespread increases in rents, affecting most of the rental housing accommodations in the Detroit area. Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the Detroit area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.503 Recommendations. The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the designated area on or about April 1, 1941. It is his judgment that prior to April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act, but did result in such increases commencing on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on April 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the Detroit Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on April 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Detroit Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after April 1, 1941, or changed after April 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of Michigan or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on April 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Detroit Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.504 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by state or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

Issued this 2d day of March 1942.

Administrator.

CLEVELAND—DESIGNATION OF THE CLEVELAND DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommmodations within the defense-rental area described below;

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.751 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "Cleveland Defense-Rental Area":

In the State of Ohio, the County of Cuyahoga in its entirety; and in the County of Lake the Township of Willoughby and those parts of the Township of Kirtland included within the corporate limits of the Villages of Waite Hill and Willoughby.*

*§§ 1388.751 to 1388.755, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1388.753 Necessity. The necessity for the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area is as follows:

The designated area is and has been the location of war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities and the influx of production workers and their families have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. The President has found that an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in the Cleveland area under Public No. 849, 76th Congress, 3d Session (Lanham Act), and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). Cleveland has been placed on the list of Defense Housing Areas in which builders may secure priority ratings on critical materials for residential construction.

Surveys in the Cleveland area have reported low vacancy ratios for rental housing accommodations, indicative of the abnormality of the local market. New construction in this area by private industry and by the Government has not been sufficient to restore a normal rental market for housing accommodations.

Defense activities have resulted in substantial and widespread increases in rents, affecting most of the rental housing accommodations in the Cleveland area. Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the Cleveland area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.752 Recommendations. It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the designated area inconsistent with the purposes of the Act. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within such area on or about July 1, 1941; and it is his judgment that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act is on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on July 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on July 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on July 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on July 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area on July 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after July 1, 1941, or changed after July 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to July 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of Ohio or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to July 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on July 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Cleveland Defense-Rental Area on July 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.754 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by state or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

Administrator.

RAVENNA—DESIGNATION OF THE RAVENNA DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations within the defense-rental area described below:

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.801 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "Ravenna Defense-Rental Area":

In the State of Ohio, the County of Portage in its entirety.*

The designated area is and has been the location of war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities and the influx of production workers and their families have resulted in an acute shortage of rental housing accommodations in the local market. Defense activities have resulted in substantial and widespread increases in rents, affecting most of the rental housing accommodations in the Ravenna area. Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the Ravenna area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.803 Recommendations. The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the designated area on or about April 1, 1941. It is his judgment that prior to April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act, but did result in such increases commencing on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of Ohio or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on April 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Ravenna Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Hampton Roads Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941:

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

PUGET SOUND—DESIGNATION OF THE PUGET SOUND DEFENSE-RENTAL AREA AND RENT DECLARATION RELATING TO THAT AREA

The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 provides that whenever in the judgment of the Administrator such action is necessary or proper in order to effectuate the purposes of that Act, he shall issue a declaration setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization or reduction of rents for any defense-area housing accommodations within a particular defense-rental area; and that if within sixty days after the issuance of any such recommendations rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of that Act; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations in the area described below inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942; and

In the judgment of the Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of said Act to issue this declaration, setting forth the necessity for, and recommendations with reference to, the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations within the defense-rental area described below;

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by said Act, this designation and rent declaration is issued.

§ 1388.951 Designation. The following area is designated by the Administrator as an area where defense activities have resulted in an increase in the rents for housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and shall constitute a defense-rental area to be known as the "Puget Sound Defense-Rental Area":

In the State of Washington, the County of Kitsap in its entirety and those parts of the Counties of King and Pierce lying west of the Snoqualmie National Forest.*

*§§ 1388.951 to 1388.955, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1388.952 Necessity. The necessity for the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area is as follows:

The designated area is and has been the location of establishments of the armed forces of the United States and of war production industries. The increase in employment reflecting the expansion of defense activities, the influx of production workers and their families, and of the families of military and naval personnel have resulted in an acute shortage of housing exists or impends in a number of localities in the Puget Sound area under Public No. 671, 76th Congress, 3d Session; Public No. 849, 76th Congress 3d Session (Lanham Act); Public No. 9, 77th Congress, 1st Session; and Public No. 24, 77th Congress, 1st Session (Title VI, National Housing Act). He has also allocated funds to the Navy Department for the construction of housing units under Public No. 781, 76th Congress, 3d Session, upon certification by the Secretary of the Navy that such housing was important for purposes under his jurisdiction and necessary to the national defense program. A number of localities in the Puget Sound area have been placed on the list of Defense Housing Areas in which builders may secure priority ratings on critical materials for residential construction.

Surveys in the Puget Sound area have reported low vacancy ratios for rental housing accommodations, indicative of the abnormality of the local market. New construction in this area by private industry and by the Government has not been sufficient to restore a normal rental market for housing accommodations.

Defense activities have resulted in substantial and widespread increases in rents, affecting most of the rental housing accommodations in the Puget Sound area. Official governmental surveys of rental change conducted in this area have shown a marked upward movement in the general level of residential rents during the past two years. By reason of these substantial increases the rents prevailing in the Puget Sound area are not generally fair and equitable.*

§ 1388.953 Recommendations. The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the designated area on or about April 1, 1941. It is his judgment that prior to April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act, but did result in such increases commencing on or about that date. The Administrator has considered, so far as practicable, relevant factors deemed by him to be of general applicability, including fluctuations in property taxes and other costs. It is the judgment of the Administrator that the recommendations hereinafter set forth are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Recommendations with reference to the stabilization and reduction of rents for defense-area housing accommodations in said defense-rental area are as follows:

(a) Maximum rents for housing accommodations should be:

(1) For housing accommodations rented on April 1, 1941 the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(2) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 but rented at any time within the six months ending on that date, the last rent prior to said date.

(3) For housing accommodations not rented on April 1, 1941 nor within the six months ending on that date, the first rent after that date, but in no event more than the rent generally prevailing in the Puget Sound Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on April 1, 1941.

(b) Provision consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 should be made for the determination, adjustment, and modification of the maximum rent for the following classifications of housing accommodations, but in principle maximum rents for such housing accommodations should not be greater than the rent for comparable accommodations prevailing in the Puget Sound Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941:

(1) For housing accommodations completed and first rented after April 1, 1941, or changed after April 1, 1941 in any manner resulting in an increase or decrease in the number of units in such accommodations, or substantially altered by an improvement or deterioration subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(2) For housing accommodations owned by the United States or any agency thereof or by the State of Washington or any political subdivision thereof, or agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) For substantial increase or decrease of services in connection with housing accommodations subsequent to April 1, 1941.

(4) In cases where the rent on April 1, 1941 was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between landlord and tenant or was determined by a written lease which had been in force for six months or more on said date and such rent was greater or less than the rent for comparable accommodations in the Puget Sound Defense-Rental Area on April 1, 1941.

(c) Appropriate provision should be made with respect to evictions, other actions relating to the recovery of possession, and the modification of services; and appropriate provision should be made to prevent the circumvention or evasion of maximum rents by any method whatever.*

§ 1388.954 Maximum rent regulation. If within sixty days after the issuance of this declaration, rents for any such accommodations within such defense-rental area have not in the judgment of the Administrator been stabilized or reduced by state or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the foregoing recommendations, the Administrator may by regulation or order establish such maximum rent or maximum rents for such accommodations as in his judgment will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.*

Issued this 2d day of March 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

PART 3—RULES GOVERNING STANDARD AND HIGH-FREQUENCY BROADCAST STATIONS

MEMORANDUM OPINION IN THE MATTER OF POLICY AND PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING STANDARD BROADCAST APPLICATIONS

Because of the present war emergency the Commission is called upon to formulate a policy and procedures for the future handling of standard broadcast station applications. The effective conduct of the war is, of course, a paramount consideration for all of us. The requirements of the armed services have created a shortage of the critical materials and skilled personnel required for the construction, operation, and maintenance of radio broadcast stations. This must inevitably affect plans for the increase or improvement of broadcast facilities.

However, it is not clear at this time that the expansion of broadcasting should be entirely eliminated for the duration of the war. For the best war effort, it is important that there be adequate broadcast facilities throughout the nation. The three governmental agencies concerned with this problem—the Defense Communications Board, the War Production Board, and the Federal Communications Commission—are in agreement that, so far as possible, every part of the country should receive a good radio service. We have not yet reached that goal.

It follows that the scarce materials and limited personnel available to the broadcast services should be carefully conserved to meet this basic need. The public interest clearly requires such conservation and the Commission must apply the test of public interest in exercising its licensing functions. The problem as to materials is, of course, primarily the concern of the War Production Board. On January 30, 1942, the Commission announced in a press release that at the request of the Defense Communications Board, pending the adoption of a specific policy by that Board and the War Production Board, the Commission would make no further grants for the construction of stations or authorize changes in existing standard broadcast transmitting facilities where all or a substantial part of the proposed new primary service area already receives primary service from one or more other stations. The Defense Communications Board, on February 12, made its further specific recommendations to the Commission and to the War Production Board. Cooperating with both those Boards, the Commission has now worked out a policy and procedures for the handling of new and pending standard broadcast applications.

Under the policy adopted, the Commission will grant no standard broadcast station application unless a showing is made that:

(1) Construction (if any) pursuant to the grant will not involve the use of materials of a type determined by the War Production Board to be critical; or

(2) Where the application is for a new standard broadcast station, the station will provide primary coverage of an area no substantial part of which already receives primary service [1] from one or more standard broadcast stations; or

(3) Where the application is for a change in the facilities of an existing standard broadcast station, the change will result in a substantial new primary service area no substantial part of which is already provided with primary service [1] from one or more standard broadcast stations.

The Federal Communications Commission Standards of Good Engineering Practice will be used as a guide in the determination of primary service. For the time being, requests involving essential requirements for repair or maintenance will be treated as heretofore.

Applications not heretofore acted upon which do not fall within one of the three described categories will be designated for hearing upon appropriate issues. In cases heretofore designated for hearing, where notice of issues has already been announced, specific issues appropriate to the new policy will be added. Cases which have already been heard will, when necessary to apply the new policy, be redesignated for hearing upon issues under this policy. Cases in which proposed findings have already been issued will be determined as heretofore.

Applicants who consider that their applications satisfy the new requirements may wish to support their applications by filing a proper petition supported by affidavit setting forth detailed data on this point.

In cases where an application has heretofore been granted subject to approval of a further application to be filed by the applicant, such further application will not be granted unless the proposal meets the requirements set forth above, or the applicant has, pursuant to the grant, actually commenced construction or made substantial expenditures for materials or equipment prior to the date hereof.

The Communications Act contemplates that construction permits should not be issued or allowed to remain outstanding where there is no reasonable prospect of completion of the proposed construction within a reasonable period of time. Hence, requests for extensions of completion dates under standard broadcast authorizations will not be granted by the Commission unless the applicant can by proper petition show that the proposed construction meets the requirements set forth above, or that the applicant has actually commenced construction prior to the date hereof and has available all the critical materials and equipment necessary to the completion thereof. However, requests for extension of completion dates under authorizations issued in cases where proposed findings are now outstanding will be granted if the requirements set forth above are met, or if the applicant has available all critical materials and equipment necessary for completion.

The foregoing requirements may be waived where changes in facilities are required to be made by an agency of the Federal Government.

Special policies are now being developed with respect to experimental operation, frequency modulation and television stations, facsimile, and auxiliary broadcast services, taking into account the technical experimental benefits to be gained especially insofar as they may assist the war effort. Applications involving international broadcast stations will be considered and acted upon in accordance with policies worked out in cooperation with other Governmental agencies concerned with this field.

Secretary.

[Docket No. A-1289]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 2 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 2

[Docket No. A-1289 Part II]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 2 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF THE CLINTON NO. 1 MINE (STRIP), MINE INDEX NO. 2318, OF THE UNION COLLIERIES COMPANY

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1289 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1289, AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1289 PART II

The original petition in the above-entitled matter which was filed with this Division requests the issuance of orders establishing temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2.

As indicated in an order issued today in Docket No. A-1289, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of relief prayed for by the original petitioner, except as to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coal produced by the Clinton No. 1 Mine (Strip), Mine Index No. 2318, of the Union Collieries Company, a code member in District No. 2, for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments.

The original petition of District Board 2 proposes the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the said Clinton No. 1 Mine (Strip), Mine Index No. 2318, of the Union Collieries Company, for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments. District Board 3 has filed a motion for permission to file a petition of intervention and protest together with a petition of intervention and protest and a motion for severance of docket and other relief. The said petition of intervention alleges in substance that the price classifications and minimum prices proposed for the coals of this mine would deprive certain producers in District No. 3 of their fair competitive opportunities and would disrupt the coordination of minimum prices between such producers and producers in District No. 2, and prays that such price classifications and minimum prices shall not be temporarily established therefor without an informal conference, pursuant to § 301.106 (d) of the Rules and Regulations in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, and that they shall not be permanently established without a hearing.

Upon the basis of the said petition of intervention and protest, it appears that District Board 3 should be given permission to intervene in this proceeding and that the price classifications and minimum prices proposed for the coals of the said mine should not be temporarily established without an informal conference and should not be permanently established without a hearing. It further appears that the portion of the original petition in Docket No. A-1289 relating to the coals of the said Clinton No. 1 Mine (Strip), for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments, and the said petition of intervention should be severed from the remainder of the said original petition and designated as Docket No. A-1289 Part II, and that a hearing should be scheduled thereon. An informal conference has heretofore been scheduled as to the price classifications and minimum prices proposed for the coals of the said mine as a matter of temporary relief.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That that portion of Docket No. A-1289 relating to the coals of the Clinton No. 1 Mine (Strip), Mine Index No. 2318, of the Union Collieries Company, be, and it hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1289 and designated Docket No. A-1289 Part II.

It is further ordered, That the said motion of District Board 3 to intervene in Docket No. A-1289 Part II be, and it hereby is, granted.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1289 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Division be held on March 31, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Division, 734 15th Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Shipman or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and submit to the undersigned proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 26, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Clinton No. 1 Mine (Strip), Mine Index No. 2318, of the Union Collieries Company, a code member in District No. 2, for all shipments except truck, and for truck shipments; and more particularly, for the establishment of price classifications "L," "L," "J," "J," "J," "J," "K," "K," "K" for the coals of the said mine in Size Groups 1 to 9, inclusive, respectively, for all shipments except truck, and minimum prices of 275, 265, 255, 240, 215, 210, 210, 220, 180, 170, and 160 cents per net ton for the coals of the said mine in Size Groups 1 to 11, inclusive, respectively, for truck shipments.

Dated: March 2, 1942.

Whereas section 12 (a) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (Act of June 25, 1938, c. 676, 52 Stat. 1060, U. S. Code, title 29, sec. 201) prohibits the shipment or delivery for shipment of goods in commerce, as defined in the act, which are produced in establishments situated in the United States in or about which within 30 days prior to the removal of such goods therefrom any oppressive child labor has been employed; and

Whereas section 3 (l) of the said act which defines oppressive child labor provides in part as follows:

(l) "Oppressive child labor" means a condition of employment under which (1) any employee under the age of sixteen years is employed by an employer * * * in any occupation, or (2) any employee between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years is employed by an employer in any occupation which the Chief of the Children's Bureau in the Department of Labor shall find and by order declare to be particularly hazardous for the employment of children between such ages or detrimental to their health or well-being; * * *

Whereas the Chief of the Children's Bureau issued on November 3, 1938, a regulation prescribing the procedure governing determinations of hazardous occupations; [1] and

Whereas pursuant to the said regulation, an investigation has been conducted with respect to the hazardous nature of occupations involving exposure to radioactive substances with special reference to the employment of minors between 16 and 18 years of age; and

Whereas a report of the investigation, entitled "Occupational Hazards to Young Workers, Report No. 6; Radioactive Substances," has been submitted to the Chief of the Children's Bureau, copies of which will be sent upon request directed to the Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., showing that:

1. A hazard to health because of exposure to radioactive substances is associated with the manufacture and application of self-luminous compound and the manufacture of incandescent mantles.

2. Ingestion or inhalation of radioactive substances may result in profound anemia, radiation osteitis, malignant tumors of bones or lungs, and death. External radiation of the body may result in skin lesions and anemia.

3. In spite of great improvements in safe practices since the many deaths from radium poisoning in the earlier days of the self-luminous dial-painting industry, there continues to be some hazard in this industry at the present time.

4. Reported measurements of radioactivity in the air of a large plant which manufactures incandescent mantles and which is believed to be representative of the industry showed concentrations of radioactive gas which were from 23 to 400 times as great as the maximum permissible limit recommended by some authorities and as much as 4 times the most liberal proposed maximum permissible limit.

5. The hazard of exposure to radioactive substances is present in all occupations in workrooms in which radium is stored or used in the manufacture of self-luminous compound, and in which self-luminous compound is made, processed, or packaged; in all occupations in workrooms in which self-luminous compound is stored, used, or worked upon; and in all occupations in workrooms in which incandescent mantles are made from fabric and solutions containing thorium salts, or are processed or packaged.

6. The hazard is greater for young persons because they are not as likely as older persons to possess the qualities of carefulness, neatness, forethought, and attention to personal hygiene that are essential in the observance of safe practices.

7. The opinion was generally held by the employers interviewed that minors under 18 years of age should not be employed in self-luminous dial-painting plants or departments. While employers generally believed that there is little hazard associated with occupations in modern dial-painting plants or departments, the opinion expressed by several employers that minors of 16 and 17 years are less reliable than older workers is added reason to believe that persons under 18 are less likely to observe rules for safe practice conscientiously.

8. Industrial hygienists and other experts who have studied the hazard of exposure to radioactive substances are agreed that it would be desirable to adopt an 18-year minimum-age standard for employment in occupations hazardous because of exposure to radioactive substances; and

Whereas the Chief of the Children's Bureau, under the authority of section 3 (l) of said act proposes to issue a finding and order in the form set forth below relating to occupations involving exposure to radioactive substances,

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held on March 25, 1942, commencing at 10 a. m. in room 7129, United States Department of Labor Building, Fourteenth Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington, D. C., before a presiding officer to be designated hereafter, at which interested parties will be given opportunity to appear and to be heard with respect to the said report and proposed finding and order. All parties desiring to appear at the hearing are requested to notify the Children's Bureau at least 5 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. Any interested party who is unable to appear in person or by representative may submit a written comment or brief to the Children's Bureau not later than the day prior to the date fixed herein for said hearing in order that the same may be made part of the record of the hearing.

PROPOSED FINDING AND ORDER

Part 422—Occupations Particularly Hazardous for the Employment of Minors Between 16 and 18 Years of Age or Detrimental to Their Health or Well-Being § 422.6 Occupations involving exposure to radioactive substances—(a) Finding and Declaration of Fact. By virtue of and pursuant to the authority conferred by section 3 (l) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 [2] and pursuant to the regulation prescribing the procedure governing determinations of hazardous occupations; [3] an investigation having been conducted with respect to the hazards for minors between 16 and 18 years of age in employment in occupations involving exposure to radioactive substances; and a report of the investigation having been submitted to the Chief of the Children's Bureau;

Now, therefore, I, Katharine F. Lenroot, Chief of the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor, hereby find and declare that the following occupations involving exposure to radioactive substances are particularly hazardous for minors between 16 and 18 years of age:

Any work in any workroom in which (a) radium is stored or used in the manufacture of self-luminous compound, (b) self-luminous compound is made, processed, or packaged, (c) self-luminous compound is stored, used, or worked upon, or (d) incandescent mantles are made from fabric and solutions containing thorium salts, or are processed or packaged.

(b) Definitions. As used in this section—

(1) The term "self-luminous compound" shall mean any mixture of phosphorescent material and radium, mesothorium, or other radioactive element.

(2) The term "workroom" shall include the entire area bounded by walls of solid material and extending from floor to ceiling.

This order shall not justify noncompliance with any Federal or State law or municipal ordinance establishing a higher standard than the standard established herein. This order shall become effective on May 1, 1942, and shall be in force and effect until amended or repealed by order hereafter made and published by the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

Such forward position lights shall be spaced laterally as far apart as practicable. One rear position light shall be installed on the airplane at the rear and as far aft as possible and shall show a light visible aft throughout a dihedral angle of 140 degrees bisected by a vertical plane through the longitudinal axis of the airplane. Such light shall emit (a) in the case of a non-air carrier airplane, a continuous white light and (b) in the case of an air carrier airplane, alternate red and white flashes as specified in § 15.2015. In lieu of such single rear position light, an air carrier airplane may carry two rear position lights, one red and one white, spaced as closely as possible to each other with one unit above the other and in combination emitting the red and white flashes specified in § 15.2015.

PART 15—AIRCRAFT EQUIPMENT AIRWORTHINESS

REQUIREMENTS FOR POSITION LIGHTS

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of February 1942.

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 205 (a) and 601 of said Act, and finding that its action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of, and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under, said Act, the Civil Aeronautics Board amends the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

1. By striking the title of § 15.2014 and inserting in lieu thereof the title, Non-air carrier airplane rear position lights.

2. By adding a new section after § 15.2014 to read as follows:

§ 15.2015 Air carrier airplane rear position lights. Air carrier airplane rear position lights shall emit an alternate aviation red and aviation white flash repeated at a frequency of 40 cycles a minute; each cycle shall have the following characteristics: 150 degrees white—10 degrees dark—150 degrees red—50 degrees dark. A tolerance of plus or minus 10% will be allowed in the above figures. Both white and red lights shall be fitted with 32 candlepower lamps. The red and white units of the light may be separate units spaced as closely as possible. Each color of light shall be completely visible in dihedral angle A. If separate red and white units are used, certificated white tail lights may be converted into such units as follows: (a) the candlepower of the lamps shall conform to the requirements of this section, (b) the clear cover glass for the intended red unit shall be replaced by a red cover glass of the same design. No photometric tests of such converted lights will be considered necessary when the above changes are made. PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

[Docket No. A–1031 Part II]

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF THE GREEN RIVER COAL MINE (MINE INDEX NO. 230) IN DISTRICT NO. 9 FOR SHIPMENTS ORIGINATING AT BEAVER DAM, KENTUCKY

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on August 28, 1941, by District Board 9, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition requests that the classifications and minimum prices heretofore established for the coals of the Green River Coal Mine (Mine Index No. 230) be made effective for an additional shipping point. The petition contained a prayer for temporary relief.

District Board 10 intervened, requesting that no relief be granted that would disturb the competitive opportunities of code members in District 10.

Pursuant to Orders duly issued, and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on December 18 and 19, 1941, before Floyd McGown, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof, in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. The original petitioner and District Board 10 appeared. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived and the matter thereupon was submitted to the undersigned who has considered the record of the proceeding.

District Board 9 requests that the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established for the coals of the Green River Coal Mine, Mine Index No. 230, be made effective for shipments from Beaver Dam, Kentucky, over the Illinois Central Railroad, in addition to the present shipping points established for the mine at Drakesboro and Bowling Green, Kentucky, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. From the evidence, it appears that the mine is located approximately 22 miles from Bowling Green and some 40 miles from Drakesboro. Beaver Dam is about 23 miles from the mine; Beaver Dam is the nearest shipping point to the mine on the Illinois Central Railroad.

T. J. Hoffman, a member of District Board 9, testified that although certain destinations could be reached over the Illinois Central Railroad at lower freight rates than if shipments were made over the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, there were destinations which are served only by the Illinois Central Railroad. Since other producers in the District have been accorded a similar privilege of shipping over both railroads, the witness was of the opinion that in order for the operator of the Green River Coal Mine to compete with the other mines he should be granted an additional shipping point on the Illinois Central Railroad. The witness estimated that the mine produces only about 40 tons of coal per day during the winter months and that it closes down during the summer. He expressed the belief that only an occasional car of coal would be loaded at Beaver Dam. While the amount of coal which the producer has in the past shipped from Beaver Dam, or the destinations to which it was shipped, was not shown, the witness expressed the belief that the producer did ship some coal from this point prior to October 1, 1940.

There was no evidence offered in opposition to the relief requested, except that the testimony of W. Y. Wildman, a witness for District Board 10 in Docket No. A–1051, was incorporated in the record by reference. In Docket No. A–1051, witness Wildman opposed the granting of additional shipping points to certain code members in District 9, principally on the ground that the policy, if extended to District 10, would there lead to harmful results. It is sufficient to note that the requests in Docket No. A–1051 were in many respects similar to the request made here, and the undersigned, after a consideration of the record, found that the additional shipping points therein requested should be granted.

Therefore, upon the basis of the evidence I find and conclude: (1) that in order to preserve fair competitive opportunities for the coals of the Green River Coal Mine, Mine Index No. 230, provision should be made for shipment of those coals from Beaver Dam, Kentucky over the Illinois Central Railroad at the prices heretofore established for said coals, and that the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 9 for All Shipments Except Truck should be amended accordingly; (2) that such amendment of the District 9 Price Schedule is required in order to effectuate the purposes of sections 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act and to comply with the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That commencing fifteen (15) days from the date hereof § 329.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

Dated: February 23, 1942.

PART 980—RAYON YARN

Supplementary Order M–37–c To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Rayon Yarn

Whereas the national defense requirements have created a shortage of rayon yarn, as hereinafter defined, for defense, for private account, and for export, and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 980.4 Supplementary order M–37–c—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(b) Additional definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Rayon yarn" means continuous filament rayon yarn made by the viscose, cuprammonium, or acetate process.

(2) "Fine rayon yarn" means rayon yarn of 300 deniers or finer.

(3) "Reserved domestic yarn" means fine rayon yarn set aside for domestic consumption pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

(4) "Yarn-dyed silk" means silk which was fast dyed before being woven or knitted.

(5) "Producer" means any person who produces rayon yarn.

(6) "Domestic manufacturer" means any person consuming silk, nylon, or rayon in the first six months of the year 1941.

(7) "Jobber" means any person purchasing and reselling silk, nylon or rayon yarns.

(8) "Merchant yarn converter" means any person who does merchant throwing, repackaging, waxing, dyeing or any similar converting function on yarn owned by him.

(9) "Fabric converter" means any person who prior to July 26, 1941, bought silk, nylon or rayon, and caused it to be woven or knit for him on commission.

(10) "Basic monthly poundage," for any month, means a poundage in terms of 100 denier rayon yarn equal to the monthly average number of pounds of raw silk (or its thrown silk equivalent) and/or nylon consumed by a person during the first six months of the year 1941, minus the poundage of raw silk and/or nylon scheduled to be consumed by such person during such month. In applying the above definition to a domestic manufacturer, the poundage consumed shall refer to the poundage consumed by such domestic manufacturer on his own machinery. In the case of a jobber or merchant yarn converter, it shall refer to the poundage sold by such jobber and, in the case of a fabric converter, it shall refer to the poundage knit or woven by others for his account.

(11) "The equivalent of the basic monthly poundage" means a poundage calculated as follows: divide the basic monthly poundage by 100 and multiply the result by the denier desired, but in no event by more than 200.

(12) "Foreign manufacturer" means any manufacturer resident outside of the jurisdiction of the United States.

(13) "Basic quarterly eligibility," for any quarter, means the poundage in terms of 150 denier rayon yarn which a foreign manufacturer shall be eligible to cause to be exported during each calendar quarter as determined by the Board of Economic Warfare.

(14) "The equivalent of the basic quarterly eligibility" means a poundage calculated as follows: divide the basic quarterly eligibility by 150 and multiply the result by the denier desired, but in no event by more than 200.

(15) "Export yarn" means fine rayon yarn set aside for export pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

(c) Directions with respect to export orders. (1) On and after April 1, 1942, each producer of viscose or acetate yarn shall, notwithstanding any preference rating which may be served upon him, each day set aside, to the extent that he possesses active spindles capable of producing fine rayon yarn, an amount of such yarn equal to the production of 4% of the total number of his active spindles producing viscose and acetate rayon yarn, respectively. The yarn thus set aside shall be known as "export yarn," and shall be set aside, as nearly as practicable, in such denier sizes as will fill the producer's orders on hand for such yarn at the time the producer sets his production schedule.

(2) Export yarn shall be disposed of to or for the account of foreign manufacturers holding export licenses issued by the Board of Economic Warfare, showing their basic quarterly eligibility, and the amount thereof to be covered by the particular license.

(3) Each producer shall open his books for the booking of orders for export yarn for the quarter beginning April 1, 1942, on the effective date of this paragraph, and, thereafter, not les sthan 45 days prior to the commencement of each calendar quarter. Each producer shall continue to book orders for any unsold or unreleased export yarn until the close of the calendar quarter. Each foreign manufacturer placing an order with a particular producer shall exhibit to the producer an export license for at least the amount of the said order, and each producer accepting an order for all or a portion of the basic quarterly eligibility or for all or a portion of the equivalent of the basic quarterly eligibility shall endorse on the said license the following:

Orders placed pursuant to the within license have been accepted by the undersigned in the amount of _____ pounds of the basic quarterly eligibility shown thereon.

Name of producer

By_____ Authorized signer

Date_____

Each license may be successively endorsed until the total amount for which it was issued has been booked.

(4) No producer shall sell or deliver any export rayon yarn to or for the account of any foreign manufacturer in excess of the equivalent of the basic quarterly eligibility shown on such foreign manufacturer's export license, less the amounts thereof covered by any prior endorsements thereon by any rayon producer.

(5) All export yarn set aside from the production of any one month pursuant to the provisions of this Order, and which has not been delivered or booked prior to the end of the month succeeding such month, shall thereupon be immediately available for sale to any person without restriction hereunder, subject only to § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(6) A foreign manufacturer may place orders for export yarn either directly or through an agent, but no foreign manufacturer shall resell any export yarn in yarn form, unless specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

[1] 7 F.R. 29.
[2] 7 F.R. 514.

(d) Directions with respect to residual supply—(1) Viscose and cuprammonium yarn. (i) On and after April 1, 1942, each producer of viscose or cuprammonium yarn shall, after providing for defense and other rated orders in accordance with the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, each day set aside, to the extent that he possesses spindles capable of producing fine viscose or cuprammonium rayon yarn, an amount of such yarn equal to the production of 17% of the total number of his remaining spindles producing viscose or cuprammonium yarn of any denier, excluding from such total the number of spindles the production from which is equivalent to that required for filling defense and other rated orders and for producing export yarn. The reserved domestic yarn thus set aside shall be selected in various denier sizes so as to yield an average denier equal to the average denier of the fine rayon yarn heretofore set aside by the producer for silk replacement. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall be deemed to prevent any producer from setting aside yarn so as to yield a finer average denier.

(ii) The reserved domestic yarn so set aside shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) An amount of reserved domestic yarn equal to the production of 1.0% of the total number of spindles referred to in paragraph (d) (1) (i) above, shall be reserved and held by the producer for disposition according to specific allocations to be issued by the Director of Industry Operations.

(b) An amount of reserved domestic yarn equal to the production of 1.0% of the total number of spindles referred to in paragraph (d) (1) (i) above, shall be subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) (4) of this Order, be made available immediately and without further Governmental action, to domestic manufacturers for manufacture of products other than hosiery to replace their former consumption of yarn-dyed silk.

(c) An amount of reserved domestic yarn equal to the production of 15.0% of the total number of spindles referred to in paragraph (d) (1) (i) above, shall, subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) (4) of this Order, be made available immediately and without further Governmental action, to domestic manufacturers for the manufacture of hosiery, to replace their former consumption of silk and nylon.

(2) Acetate yarn. (i) On and after April 1, 1942, each producer of acetate yarn shall, after providing for defense and other rated orders in accordance with the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, each day set aside to the extent that he possesses spindles capable of producing fine acetate rayon yarn, an amount of such yarn equal to the production of 6% of the total number of his active spindles producing acetate yarn of any denier, excluding from such total the number of spindles the production from which is equivalent to that required for filling defense and other rated orders, and for producing export yarn. The reserved domestic yarn thus set aside shall be selected in various denier sizes so as to yield an average denier equal to the average denier of the fine rayon yarn heretofore set aside by the producer for silk replacement. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall be deemed to prevent any producer from setting aside yarn so as to yield a finer average denier.

(ii) The reserved domestic yarn so set aside shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) An amount of reserved domestic yarn equal to the production of 0.5% of the total number of spindles referred to in paragraph (d) (2) (i) above, shall be reserved and held by the producer for disposition according to specific allocations to be issued by the Director of Industry Operations.

(b) An amount of reserved domestic yarn equal to the production of 5.5% of the total number of spindles referred to in paragraph (d) (2) (i) above shall, subject to the limitations of subparagraph (d) (4) of this Order, be made available, immediately and without further Governmental action, to domestic manufacturers of any textile product to replace their former consumption of silk and nylon.

(3) Any allocation made by the Director of Industry Operations pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) (ii) (a) or (d) (2) (ii) (a) above will be evidenced by an order, the original and two signed duplicates of which will be forwarded to the purchaser applying for relief. The purchaser shall forward the two duplicates to the producer or jobber holding the yarn which has been allocated, together with the purchaser's order therefor. The purchaser's order shall be accepted except under circumstances in which defense orders may be rejected pursuant to § 944.2 of Priorities Regulation No. 1. If a purchaser's order is rejected, the provisions of § 944.3 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 shall apply as if such order were a defense order. If, for any reason, the producer or jobber is unwilling to sell and deliver the yarn pursuant to the allocation order, he shall immediately notify the Director of Industry Operations by letter, reference M–37–c, stating the reasons for his unwillingness.

(4) No producer, jobber, merchant yarn converter, or fabric converter shall deliver any reserved domestic yarn to or for the account of any domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter as the case may be, unless:

(i) Such delivery has been specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations; or

(ii) Such producer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter delivering such reserved domestic yarn shall have first received from the domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter purchasing such reserved domestic yarn, a certificate in form to be prescribed by the Director of Industry Operations, accompanied by such copies thereof as the Director of Industry Operations may prescribe. Each person shall file one set of such certificates for each of the following capacities in which reserved domestic yarn is to be received by him:

(a) As a domestic manufacturer replacing silk and nylon formerly consumed on his own machinery.

(b) To replace silk and nylon formerly sold by him as the jobber or merchant yarn converter.

(c) As a fabric converter to replace silk and nylon formerly sent out by him for commission weaving or knitting: Provided, however, That any such fabric converter shall attach to each set of such certificates filed by him the sets of the same certificate received by him from each commission weaver or knitter by whom such reserve yarn is to be woven or knit, as the case may be;

Provided, That deliveries shall not be made if the person delivering the reserved domestic yarn knows, or has reason to know that such yarn, if delivered, will result in the receipt by the domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter, as the case may be, of an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of such recipient's equivalent of the basic monthly poundage for that month or, together with stocks on hand, will increase such recipient's inventory of reserved domestic yarn in the aggregate to above such equivalent. The person delivering reserved domestic yarn shall be entitled to rely upon any facts stated in any certificate filed with him in the absence of actual knowledge or reason for knowledge to the contrary.

(5) In making sales or deliveries of any rayon yarn, no person shall make discriminatory cuts in amounts or quantities between former customers and new customers, or between new customers, who meet such person's regularly established prices and terms, and no person shall discriminate between such former customers, new customers and his own consumption of such rayon yarn in any capacity.

(6) After providing for all deliveries under defense and other rated orders and export orders, and after setting aside the amounts of fine rayon yarn specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, each producer may sell and deliver rayon yarn without limitation, subject only to § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(7) No domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter shall accept delivery of reserved yarn, unless such delivery is authorized as provided in subparagraph (4) above.

(8) No domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter shall order, purchase, or receive from all sources for delivery in any one calendar month an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of the equivalent of his basic monthly poundage for that month.

(9) No domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter shall own, control, or otherwise hold as inventory at any time an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of the equivalent of his basic monthly poundage for that month. For the purpose of this provision, inventory shall include all reserved domestic rayon yarn owned, controlled, or otherwise held by the domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter up to the time that it is placed on the knitting machine, loom, or other similar fabricating machine.

(10) No reserved yarn shall be resold in yarn form by a domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter, except upon the specific authorization by the Director of Industry Operations. The exchanging of yarn by a domestic manufacturer, jobber, merchant yarn converter or fabric converter shall be deemed reselling. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a jobber may resell reserved yarn in yarn form or after converting by him as a merchant yarn converter, but with respect to such resale he shall, unless the Director of Industry Operations specifically authorizes otherwise, be subject to the restrictions of subparagraphs (4) and (5) above applicable to a producer, and resales shall be made for only the purposes for which such yarn was originally set aside by the producer.

(11) All reserved rayon yarn set aside from the production of any one month pursuant to the provisions of Supplementary Order M–37–a, as amended, and all reserved domestic yarn set aside from the production of any one month pursuant to the provisions of this Order, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of this Order or shall be held by the producer until disposed of, specifically allocated or released by the Director of Industry Operations.

(12) In the event that knitting machines, looms or similar fabricating machines which consumed the basic monthly poundage of the domestic manufacturer in the first half of 1941, are or have been moved from one location to another, scrapped, their operation discontinued, or their ownership or operation changed, the person or persons concerned shall immediately advise the Director of Industry Operations who shall thereupon take any necessary action in connection therewith, including any appropriate revisions of the basic monthly poundage, and the assignment of appropriate basic monthly poundages to any new owners or operators thereof.

(e) Doubtful cases. Whenever there is reasonable doubt as to the eligibility of any person to receive reserved yarn hereunder, the matter should be referred for determination to the Director of Industry Operations, by a letter addressed to the War Production Board, Reference M–37–c, stating all pertinent facts.

(f) Appeals. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of rayon yarn conserved, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense work to defense work, may appeal to the Director of Industry Operations, by letter or telegram, or on such forms as may be prescribed, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers himself entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, including the assignment, for such period or periods of time as he may determine, of basic monthly poundages or of increases in the basic monthly poundage, as the case may be.

(g) Reports and records. (1) Each producer and jobber shall file with the War Production Board, at the time to be specified thereon, reports on Forms to be prescribed by the Director of Industry Operations, setting forth the information called for therein.

(2) All persons operating under this Order shall keep and preserve such records f,or not less than two years, as will clearly and adequately show their methods and rates of operation hereunder. Such information shall include a complete file of invoices covering the delivery of any and all yarn under this Order.

(3) Each person shall promptly forward to the Allocation and Appeals Section, Textile Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., one duplicate of every certificate furnished to him by a purchaser pursuant to paragraph (d) (4) (ii) hereof and one duplicate of every allocation order furnished by a purchaser pursuant to paragraph (d) (3), endorsed as follows: "Supplied by our order No. --------," filling in the number of such supply order; together with a copy of the producer's or jobber's letter accepting the purchaser's order. He shall also preserve and keep available for inspection by the Government, during reasonable business hours, the original or a signed duplicate of every such certificate.

(h) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference, M–37–c.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, or who fails to endorse an export license when required by the terms hereof so to do, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(j) Effective date. This Supplementary Order shall take effect April 1, 1942, except that paragraph (c) (3) shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. IN THE MATTER OF THE OHIO PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY AND OHIO RIVER POWER, INC.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of March, A. D. 1942.

Applications and declarations having been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The Ohio Public Service Company and Ohio River Power, Inc.; and

Such applications and declarations concerning the following:

The Ohio Public Service Company proposes to sell certain of its real estate known as the Dille's Bottom power site, located in the County of Belmont, Ohio, together with certain easements and rights-of-way at the value thereof as carried on the books of the Company on December 31, 1941, to wit, $379,840.62, to a new Ohio company known as Ohio River Power, Inc., all of whose stock will be owned by The Ohio Public Service Company. The Property will be conveyed free and clear of all liens and the purchase price will be cash.

The Ohio Public Service Company proposes to acquire from the Power Company all of its common stock, to wit, 5,000 shares of the par value of $100 per share, and to pay therefor the sum of $500,000 in cash. The Power Company proposes to use the proceeds received from the said subscription to pay for the Property acquired, and the balance of approximately $120,000 will be placed in the treasury of the Power Company.

The Ohio Public Service Company proposes to advance to the Power Company from time to time on open account and without interest, sums of money (not in excess, however, of $250,000 in the aggregate) as the Power Company may from time to time require to pay capital expenses incurred subsequent to December 31, 1941 in the development of the Property and prior to the receipt of funds therefor from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The Power Company is applying to Reconstruction Finance Corporation for a loan sufficient to enable the Power Company to complete a plant on the Property, and initially to install therein a 50,000 K. W. turbo-generating unit, two boilers with a capacity of 350,000 pounds of steam per hour for each unit, together with auxiliaries for a pulverized coal-fired condensing steam electric plant, and to construct a transmission line from such plant to the transmission system of the Company at Alliance, Ohio. The terms and conditions of the loan to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the securities to be issued by Ohio River Power, Inc. and any guarantee thereof by The Ohio Public Service Company are to be supplied by amendment.

By an amendment to such applications and declarations The Ohio Public Service Company and Ohio River Power, Inc. have requested the Commission to issue an interim order permitting The Ohio Public Service Company to forthwith purchase and Ohio River Power, Inc. to sell 250 shares of common stock of the Ohio River Power, Inc. for a cash consideration of $25,000 in order to facilitate Ohio River Power, Inc. in making application to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for such loan.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said declarations and applications, and that said declarations shall not become effective or said applications be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission, and that at said hearing there be considered, among other things, the various matters hereinafter set forth:

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on March 19, 1942 at 10 o'clock A. M. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Penn Athletic Club Building, corner 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why the declarations as filed shall become effective;

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside in the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under Section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice;

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of issues presented by said applications and declarations as filed or as amended, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers or to prevent the circumvention of the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or any rules, regulations or orders thereunder, to impose any conditions regarding the consideration to be received for such sale, the maintenance of competitive conditions, fees and commissions, accounts, disclosure of interest, and similar matters with respect to the (1) sale by The Ohio Public Service Company to Ohio River Power, Inc. of such assets of The Ohio Public Service Company and (2) the issue and sale to The Ohio Public Service Company of the securities to be issued by Ohio River Power, Inc.

2. Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers or to prevent the circumvention of the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or any rules, regulations or orders thereunder, to impose any conditions regarding the proposed advances to Ohio River Power, Inc. by The Ohio Public Service Company.

3. Whether the issue and sale of common stock and the issue of securities by Ohio River Power, Inc. in connection with the loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and any guarantee thereof by The Ohio Public Service Company are solely for the purpose of financing the business of such companies and have been expressly authorized by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, and whether any terms or conditions with respect thereto should be imposed.

4. Whether the accounting entries to be made in connection with any or all of such proposed transactions comply with the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

5. Whether the terms and conditions of any or all of the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

6. Whether all actions proposed to be taken comply with the requirements and standards of such Act and rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder and whether terms and conditions are necessary to be imposed to insure such compliance.

7. Whether the proposed acquisition of assets by Ohio River Power, Inc. has been expressly authorized by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and whether the proposed acquisition of the common stock of Ohio River Power, Inc., by The Ohio Public Service Company will unduly complicate the capital structure of the holding company system of which such companies are a part or will be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers or the proper functioning of such holding company system.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarants or applicants and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers.

It is further ordered, That such notice shall be given further by general release of the Commission distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Further notice shall be given to all persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, not later than two weeks prior to the date hereinbefore fixed for the hearing, of a copy of this Notice of and Order for Hearing.

It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect to the Commission on or before the sixteenth day of March 1942.

IN THE MATTER OF NORTHERN STATES POWER COMPANY (DELAWARE)

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C. on the 4th day of March, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above-named party;

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 13, 1942, at 5:30 P. M., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt the transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized below:

Northern States Power Company (Delaware), a registered holding company, proposes to solicit proxies to secure a quorum necessary to conduct the annual stockholders' meeting held on May 13, 1942, and in connection therewith said company proposes, in addition to bearing the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing proxies, proxy statements, and accompanying data, to expend the estimated amount of $6,000, $5,000 for telephone tolls and fees or salaries and out-of-pocket expenses of specially engaged employees to solicit proxies by personal interview or by telephone, and $1,000 for the services of experts to be used in the solicitation of the proxies.

Northern States Power Company (Delaware) states in its declaration that (a) it is expected that eleven directors will be elected for the ensuing year at the above referred to annual meeting and that it does not know of any other matter that may be presented at the meeting; (b) because of the diversity of holdings of its stock, it is necessary for it to solicit proxies to secure a quorum necessary to conduct the meeting; (c) the solicitation of proxies during the year 1941 indicates that the actual expenses may be substantially less than the estimated sum of $6,000; and (d) that it does not, at this time, know of any contest which has arisen or may arise with respect to the subject matter of such solicitation.

By the Commission.

CHAPTER IV—FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION

PART 411—1942 COTTON CROP INSURANCE CONTRACT REGULATIONS [1]

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation by the Federal Crop Insurance Act of 1938, approved February 16, 1938, as amended, the 1942 Cotton Crop Insurance Contract Regulations are amended as follows:

(1) Section 411.1 of said regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 411.1 Application for insurance. Application for insurance on a form prescribed by the Corporation for such purpose, may be made by any person to cover his interest as landlord, owner, tenant, or sharecropper in cotton to be grown in 1942. An application shall cover each insurance unit in the county, in which the applicant has an interest in the cotton crop at the beginning of the planting thereof: Provided, however, That if an applicant has an interest in both American Upland cotton and American Egyptian cotton, such applicant may elect to omit from the insurance contract the insurance units on which American Egyptian cotton will be planted. Applications must be submitted to the office of the county committee on or before the closing date. Secs. 506 (e), 507 (c), 509, 516 (b); 52 Stat. 73, 74, 75, 77; 7 U.S.C. 1506 (e), 1507 (c), 1508, 1509, 1516 (b), as amended by 55 Stat. 255.)

(2) Section 411.30 of said regulations is amended by the addition of the following new paragraph which is as follows:

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section, the average yield of American Egyptian cotton per acre for the farm shall be determined without reference to the years 1934 or 1935. If reliable and applicable records of the actual average yield of American Egyptian cotton are available for at least four years of the period 1936–40, the county committee shall appraise the yield for one year in conformity with the method for appraising yields provided for in paragraph (a) of this section and determine the simple average of the annual yields per acre for such period. If reliable and applicable records of actual average yields are not available for at least four of the years 1936–40, the average yield shall be determined by comparison with a "key farm" in conformity with the method for such comparison provided for in paragraph (b) of this section. (Secs. 506 (e), 507 (c), 509, 516 (b); 52 Stat. 73, 74, 75, 77; 7 U.S.C. 1506 (e), 1507 (c), 1508, 1509, 1516 (b), as amended by 55 Stat. 255)

(3) Section 411.31, paragraph (a) of said regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 411.31 Determination of premium rates for insurance. (a) For all farms in the county for which the average yield is established under paragraph (a), (c), (d), or (f) of § 411.30 the premium rate, for lint cotton insurance only, shall be determined (1) by obtaining the average loss cost, that is, the simple average of the extent to which the yield on the farm during each year of the period 1934–40 (or the period 1936–40 where determining premium rates for insurance on American Egyptian cotton) fell below 75 percent of the average yield for the farm to be insured, and (2) by averaging such figure with the county check premium rate for 75-percent insurance of the average yield, giving a weight of three to the average farm loss cost and a weight of one to the county check premium rate, or equal weights to each such figure where the Corporation determines that such procedure more adequately reflects the risks to be incurred on the farms in the county. The same method of weighting shall be used for all farms in

CHAPTER IX—WAR PRODUCTION BOARD

PART 904—PROCUREMENT

Directive No. 2

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9024 of January 16, 1942, and Executive Order No. 9040 of January 24, 1942, the following policy is prescribed for all Departments and Agencies now or hereafter authorized by the President to exercise the powers set forth in Title II, section 201 of the First War Powers Act, 1941 (Public No. 354, 77th Congress):

[1] 7 F.R. 600.

§ 904.1 Placing supply contracts. (a) Except as hereinafter provided, all such Departments and Agencies shall place all supply contracts relating to war procurement by negotiation: Provided, That where consistent with the required speed of war procurement, notification of the proposed procurement shall be given to qualified possible contractors and quotations secured from them. The procedure provided by section 3709 of the Revised Statutes (41 U.S.C. section 5) shall be used only upon the specific authorization of the Director of Purchases of the War Production Board, or of such person or persons as he may designate.

(b) (1) In placing such contracts, particular regard shall be paid to the following considerations:

(i) Primary emphasis shall be upon securing delivery in the time required by the war program.

(ii) In so far as it will effectuate the policy set forth in subparagraph (i) above, such contracts shall be placed so as to conserve, for the more difficult war production problems, the facilities of concerns best able, by reason of engineering, managerial, and physical resources, to handle them. Accordingly, contracts for standard or other items which involve relatively simple production problems shall be placed with concerns, normally the smaller ones, which are less able to handle the more difficult war production problems.

(iii) Subject to the considerations stated in subparagraphs (i) and (ii), such contracts shall be placed with concerns needing to acquire the least amounts of additional machinery and equipment for performance of the contracts. Accordingly, as an essential part of each negotiation, procurement officials shall secure from prospective contractors statements listing all additional machinery and equipment which will be needed for performance of the contract.

(2) Authority to depart from this policy may, upon specific request, be granted by the Director of Purchases of the War Production Board, or by such person or persons as he may designate for this purpose. (E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329, E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 201, Pub. Law 354, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

PART 1080—TEAK

General Preference Order No. M-83 To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Teak

Whereas the national defense requirements have created a shortage of teak, for defense, for private account, and for export, and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of teak:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1080.1 General Preference Order M-83—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Teak" means wood of the species Tectona grandis in the form of logs, hewn timbers, or lumber, including boards, planks, dimension, squares, cants, flitches, timbers and other sawed forms, whether rough or dressed.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling teak.

(b) Application of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(c) Restrictions on use and delivery of teak. Notwithstanding anything contained in Priorities Regulation No. 1 to the contrary, unless otherwise specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, after the effective date of this Order, no dealer shall sell or deliver and no person, except an importer acting as such, shall buy or accept delivery of teak, and no person shall use or process into veneer, plywood or other products any teak, except upon orders by or on behalf of the Army or the Navy of the United States, or unless such teak is to be physically incorporated in material or equipment to be delivered to the Army or the Navy of the United States.

(d) Appeals. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of teak conserved, or that compliance with this Order, would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference: M–83, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(e) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–83.

(f) Violations. Any Person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(g) Effective date. This Order shall take effect immediately. Issued this 5th day of March 1942. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. CHAPTER XI—OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

PART 1362—CERAMIC PRODUCTS

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO REVISED PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 75 [1]—DEAD-BURNED GRAIN MAGNESITE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been prepared and is issued simultaneously herewith.[2]

Section 1362.1 is amended, a new paragraph (d) is added to § 1362.8 and a new § 1362.9a is added as set forth below:

§ 1362.1 Maximum prices for maintenance grades of dead-burned magnesite. (a) On and after January 28, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver maintenance grades of dead-burned grain magnesite, and no person shall buy or receive maintenance grades of dead-burned grain magnesite in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum price established in this Section; and no person shall offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of maintenance grades of dead-burned grain magnesite to a purchaser if prior to January 23, 1942, such grain magnesite had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(b) The maximum price for domestic shipments of maintenance grades of domestic dead-burned grain magnesite in bulk shall be $22.00 a ton f. o. b. Chewelah, Washington. A delivered price in excess of the maximum f. o. b. Chewelah price may be charged, consisting of such maximum price plus the transportation charge computed at the carload rate from Chewelah to the point of delivery designated by the purchaser. Where the purchaser requests delivery from stocks accumulated at some point other than the place of production, a delivered price in excess of the maximum f. o. b. Chewelah price may be charged, consisting of such maximum price plus the transportation charge computed at the railroad carload rate from Chewelah to the point of accumulation and from such point to the place of delivery designated by the purchaser, and $1.00 a ton.

(c) The maximum price for domestic shipments of maintenance grades of domestic dead-burned grain magnesite in bags or sacks shall be the maximum price stated in paragraph (b) of this section, plus $4.00 a net ton.

(d) The maximum f. a. s. price for export shipments of maintenance grades of domestic dead-burned grain magnesite shall be the maximum price for delivery to the export dock computed in accordance with paragraph (b) hereof, plus $7.50 a net ton where the product is packed in double jute sacks or $12.50 a net ton where the product is packed in wooden barrels. Where the export sale is consummated on a c. i. f. or c. & f. basis, the maximum price shall be that price which yields the seller the same net realization as he is permitted by this paragraph when he sells on an f. a. s. basis.

(e) The following exception to the maximum price set forth in paragraph (b) of this section has been granted: In sales by the Westvaco Chlorine Products Corporation from its Patterson plant and stocks at Permanente to its regular customers located in California, the maximum price shall be $32.00 a ton f. o. b. Chewelah, Washington. Additions for delivered prices and sales in bags or sacks shall be the same as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section. This exception is subject to the terms and conditions contained in a letter from the Office of Price Administration to said company, dated February 9, 1942.

(d) "Maintenance grades of domestic dead-burned grain magnesite" means standard commercial grain magnesite which is virtually run of the kiln and which is not re-processed after leaving the kiln.

§ 1362.9a Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (§§ 1362.1, 1362.8 (d) and 1362.9a) to Revised Price Schedule No. 75, shall become effective March 5, 1942. Until such date Revised Price Schedule No. 75 continues in effect as if not amended by Amendment No. 1. Firm commitments entered into before March 5, 1942 for the sale of dead-burned grain magnesite at prices not exceeding the maximum prices established by Revised Price Schedule No. 75 prior to the effective date of Amendment No. 1 may be completed at contract prices.

NOTICE OF REPORT AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE MARKETING ORDER, AS AMENDED, AND THE TENTATIVELY APPROVED MARKETING AGREEMENT REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE LOWELL-LAWRENCE, MASSACHUSETTS, MILK MARKETING AREA, PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ADMINISTRATION

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a) General Regulations, Surplus Marketing Administration, Department of Agriculture, notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk in the Solicitor's Office of the Department of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the Department with respect to proposed amendments to the marketing order, as amended, and the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, milk marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0312, South Building, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Order No. 34, regulating the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, marketing area, was issued by the Secretary, February 6, 1939, and became effective February 12, 1939. Since that time, it has been amended on three separate occasions, effective dates being February 4, 1940, August 1, 1941, and November 1, 1941.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This proceeding formally began with a petition dated December 1, 1941, from the New England Milk Producers' Association, asking that the Secretary hold a hearing on proposed amendments to the order. After receipt of this petition, all handlers and the Massachusetts Milk Control Board were notified by letter of the pending petition and were requested to submit any additional proposals for amendment not later than December 29, 1941. Notice of hearing was issued January 14 for a hearing that was held at Andover, Massachusetts, on January 21, 1942. The notice included ten separate proposed amendments to the order, some of which had been proposed by producers, some by handlers, and some by the Dairy Division.

The principal issues with which the taking of testimony was concerned were:

1. The request for an increase in Class I price;

2. Various proposals to revise the provisions of classifying milk including transferring buttermilk and cultured skim milk from Class II to Class I and two proposals allowing all normal plant shrinkage as Class II rather than Class I milk;

3. A proposal to change from the individual-handler to the market-wide type of pool; and

4. A proposal to revise the pricing of Class I milk sold outside of the marketing area.

From the testimony received, it is evident that producers are anxious to have a higher Class I price although the supply of milk for the market continues to be ample. The increasing impracticability of administering the present provision that requires handlers to pay the prevailing price for Class I milk sold outside of the marketing area indicates a need for revising this provision to provide for the pricing of all Class I milk wherever sold at the Lowell-Lawrence marketing area price. Handlers object strenuously to the provision made effective August 1, 1941, which requires them to pay the Class I price for plant shrinkage associated with the handling of Class I milk, principally, because it increases their handling costs slightly. No inequity among handlers was shown to result from the present arrangement.

It is concluded on the record that an amendment be issued and a marketing agreement offered to the handlers which will provide changes in Order No. 34 as follows:

1. Buttermilk and cultured skim milk to be Class I rather than Class II milk;

2. The present Class I price which will otherwise automatically be reduced 37 cents per hundredweight on April 1, 1942, to be continued through the flush production season of this year with no reduction and to April 1, 1943;

3. The formula providing a value for the skim milk portion of Class II milk to be revised to make use of price quotations for dry skim milk powder that are published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture rather than those published by the "Producers' Price Current"; and

4. The applicable marketing area Class I price to be paid for all Class I milk whether distributed within or outside the marketing area.

The proposed amendment and the proposed marketing agreement, as amended, are recommended as the detailed means by which the above conclusions may be put into effect.

This report filed at Washington, D. C., the 4th day of March 1942.

Approved:

[SEAL] ROY F. HENDRICKSON,
Administrator.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE MARKETING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE LOWELL-LAWRENCE, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA, AFFECTING §§ 934.3 AND 934.4, THEREOF [1]

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held at Andover, Massachusetts, on January 21, 1942, such findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the hearing on the order and the various amendments thereto, and being in addition to the other findings made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of the order or the various amendments thereto (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to §§ 2 and 8 (e) of said act, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 602, 608e, are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this amendment to said order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order, as amended by this amendment, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to handlers defined in a marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment to the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of the order, as so amended, tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Provisions

1. Delete § 934.3 (b) (2) (i) and substitute therefor the following:

(i) as being sold, distributed, or disposed of other than as or in milk which contains ½ of 1 percent or more, but less than 16 percent of butterfat, and other than as chocolate or flavored whole or skim milk, buttermilk, and cultured skim milk, and.

2. In § 934.4 (b) (1) delete the date "1942" and substitute therefor the following: "1943".

3. Delete part (a) of the proviso in § 934.4 (c) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) compute the average of all the dry skim milk powder quotations for "human

NOTICE OF REPORT AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2 TO MARKETING ORDER NO. 4, AS AMENDED, AND THE TENTATIVELY APPROVED MARKETING AGREEMENT REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MILK MARKETING AREA. PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ADMINISTRATION

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a) General Regulations, Surplus Marketing Administration, Department of Agriculture, notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk in the Solicitor's Office of the Department of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the Department with respect to a proposed amendment to Order No. 4 and the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, milk marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0312, South Building, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Order No. 4, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area, was issued by the Secretary, February 7, 1936, and became effective Febraury 9, 1936. The order was suspended on August 1, 1936, and reinstated and amended on July 1, 1937. Since that time, it has been amended on four separate occasions, effective dates being January 16, 1939, February 4, 1940, August 1, 1941, and October 28, 1941.

This proceeding formally began with a petition dated November 27, 1941, from several producers' cooperatives active in the Boston marketing area asking that the Secretary hold a hearing on proposed amendments to the order. After receipt of this petition all handlers and the State milk control boards that would be affected were notified by letter of the pending petition and were requested to submit, not later than December 29, 1941, petitions for any additional amendments desired. Notice was issued January 14 of a hearing that began at Montpelier, Vermont, on January 19, and which was continued in Boston, Massachusetts, January 20 and 26. The notice included twenty-one separate proposed amendments to the order, some of which had been proposed by producers, some by handlers, and some by the Dairy Division, either on its own behalf or on behalf of the administrator of Order No. 4.

The hearing, which lasted three days, covered 690 typewritten pages of testimony with 51 separate exhibits. The time for filing of briefs was set at the close of the hearing to expire at midnight, February 8, 1942.

The principal issues with which the taking of testimony was concerned were:

1. A request for an increase in Class I price;
2. Proposals to revise the classification provisions, which included a proposal to transfer buttermilk and cultured skim milk from Class II to Class I, and two proposals to classify all normal plant shrinkage as Class II rather than as Class I milk;
3. Several proposals to revise freight and receiving plant handling allowances on both Class I and Class II milk;
4. Proposals to revise the pricing of Class I milk sold outside of the marketing area;
5. Proposals to revise both the level of and the character of the Class II price formula;
6. Proposals to delete or revise the provisions pertaining to payments to cooperative associations for marketing services from the market-wide pool; and
7. A proposal to increase the maximum rate of assessment for costs of administering the order.

From the testimony received, it is evident that producers are anxious to have a higher Class I price although the supply of milk for the market continues to be ample. An increasing impracticability of administering the present provision that requires handlers to pay the prevailing price for Class I milk sold outside of the marketing area and the lack of justification for using the Federal order to require handlers to pay different Class I prices from those in effect for Boston for milk sold in other markets indicate a need for revising this provision to provide for pricing at the applicable Boston marketing area price of all Class I milk, wherever sold.

Handlers object strenuously to the provision made effective August 1, 1941, which requires them to pay the Class I price for plant shrinkage associated with the handling of Class I milk, principally, because it increases their handling costs slightly. No inequity among handlers was shown to result from the present arrangement. The arrangement made effective August 1, 1941, for allowing payments to cooperative associations that meet certain qualifications from the equalization funds used to balance the market-wide pool was strenuously opposed by several individual producers, certain cooperatives who are not on the qualified list, and by the principal Boston handlers. In all the testimony objecting to the payment plan, little evidence was received which had not already been considered at one or more hearings held in the past.

It is concluded from the record that an amendment be issued and a marketing agreement offered to the handlers which will provide changes in Order No. 4 relating to seven of the proposed amendments as follows:

1. Buttermilk and cultured skim milk to be Class I rather than Class II milk;
2. The present Class I price which will otherwise automatically be reduced 37 cents per hundredweight on April 1, 1942, to be continued through the flush production season of this year with no reduction, and until April 1, 1943;
3. The Class II price for milk delivered directly from producers' farms to plants in the marketing area to be increased 14 cents per hundredweight to reflect the full amount of freight costs of transporting fluid milk from country plants to Boston;
4. The formula providing a value for the skim milk portion of Class II milk to be revised to make use of price quotations for dry skim milk powder that are published by the United States Department of Agriculture rather than those published by the "Producers' Price Current";
5. The Boston marketing area Class I price for the mileage zone of the plant where milk is first received to apply to all Class I milk whether distributed within or outside the marketing area;
6. The provisions pertaining to payments to cooperative associations from the market-wide pool to be revised for clarity and to facilitate the administration of the plan; and
7. The maximum assessment for cost of administration of the order to be increased from 2.0 cents to 2.5 cents per hundredweight of milk received from producers.

The proposed amendment No. 2 and the proposed marketing agreement are recommended as the detailed means by which the above conclusions may be put into effect.

This report filed at Washington, D. C., the 4th day of March 1942.

[SEAL] ROY F. HENDRICKSON,
Administrator.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO 2 TO THE ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA, AFFECTING §§ 904.3, 904.4, 904.7, 904.8, 904.9, AND 904.10 THEREOF [1]

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held in Montpelier, Vermont, on January 19, 1942, and at Boston, Massachusetts, on January 20 and 26, 1942, such findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the hearings on the order and the various amendments thereto, and being in addition to the other findings made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of the order or the various amendments thereto (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to Secs. 2 and 8 (e) of said act, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 602, 608e, are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this amendment to said order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order, as amended by this amendment, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to handlers defined in a marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment to the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of the order, as so amended, tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

§ 904.9 Payments to cooperative associations—(a) Eligibility of cooperative associations. Upon application to the Secretary, any cooperative association duly organized under the laws of any State which he determines, after appropriate inquiry or investigation, to be conforming to the provisions of such laws and of the Capper-Volstead Act, as amended, as to character of organization, voting requirements, dividend payments, dealing in products of nonmembers; to be operating as a responsible producer-controlled marketing association exercising full authority in the sale of the milk of its members; to be systematically checking the weights and tests of milk delivered by its members to plants other than those which may be operated by itself; to guarantee payments to its producers; to be maintaining, either individually or in collaboration with other qualified cooperative associations, a competent staff for dealing with marketing problems and providing information to its members with whom close working relationships are constantly maintained; to be collaborating with other similar associations in activities incident to the maintenance and strengthening of collective bargaining by producers and the operation of a plan of uniform pricing of milk to handlers; and to be complying with all provisions of this order applicable to such cooperative association, shall be entitled to receive payments in the amount and under the conditions herein specified from the date of qualification, as fixed by the Secretary, until it has been found by the Secretary after notice and opportunity for a hearing, that it has failed to continue to meet any condition or to maintain and exercise the authority or to perform any of the functions required by this section for the receipt or use of such payments.

producers; and that in cases where two or more of such cooperative associations participate in the marketing of the same milk, payment under this paragraph shall be available only to the association which the individual producer has made his exclusive agent in the marketing of such milk.

(2) Any such cooperative association shall receive an amount computed at the rate of 5 cents per hundredweight on Class I milk received from producers at a plant operated under the exclusive control of member producers or member associations which is sold to proprietary handlers and for which it accounts to the market administrator under § 904.8 (b) (3). This amount shall not be received on milk sold to stores, to handlers in which the cooperative, or any of its member or affiliated associations, or any other qualified association, has any ownership or control, or to a handler with which the cooperative has such sales arrangements that its milk not sold as Class I milk to such handler is not available for sale as Class I milk to other handlers.

(b) Payment to qualified cooperative associations. The market administrator shall, upon notice of the filing of an application, set aside each pay period from the cash balance credited pursuant to § 904.7 (b) (6) such sum as he estimates is ample to make payments to the applicant and hold it in reserve until the Secretary has ruled upon said application and shall, upon claim, in form as prescribed by him, submitted not later than the tenth day of the second month subsequent to the delivery period to which the claim applies or in which the Secretary's ruling is made, make payments authorized under paragraph (a), or issue credit therefor out of the said cash balance, subject to verification of the receipts and other items on which the amount of such payment is based.

(c) Reports. Each cooperative association qualified to receive payments pursuant to this section shall, from time to time, as requested by the market administrator, make reports to him with respect to the use of such payments and the performance of any service or function set forth as the basis for such payment, and shall file with him a copy of its balance sheet and operating statement at the close of each fiscal year.

(d) Suspension. The market administrator shall suspend payments upon request by the Secretary or such officer of the Department of Agriculture as he may designate, or upon his own initiative, by giving written notice to such association whenever there is reason to believe that a beneficiary of such payments is no longer qualified. Such suspended payments shall be segregated and held in reserve until the Secretary has, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, ruled upon the performance of the cooperative and either ordered the suspended payment to be paid to it in whole or in part, or disqualified such cooperative, in which event the balance of payments held in reserve shall be added to the cash balance, if any, in his hands pursuant to § 904.8 (b) (3).

(e) Authorized member deductions. In the case of producers whose milk is received at a plant not operated by a cooperative association of which such producers are members and which is qualified to receive payments pursuant to this section, each handler shall make such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers pursuant to § 904.8 as may be authorized by such producers and, on or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the association in whose favor such authorizations were made.

8. In § 904.10, delete "2.0 cents" and substitute therefor the following: "2.5 cents."

(3) Approval of Under Secretary of War required in certain cases. Requests for advance payments in excess of 50 percent of the contract price of any contract and for advance payments on all contracts amounting to $5,000,000 or more, as well as any cases in which there are substantial departures from approved contract provisions, will be submitted through the chief of the supply arm or service concerned for approval of the Under Secretary of War.

Minor deviations in contracts and supplemental agreements from standard contract provisions covering advance payments that will expedite the negotiation and the awarding of defense contracts, or of production thereunder, may be made without prior approval of the Under Secretary of War.

(4) Performance bonds on principal contracts. Where a performance bond on the principal contract has been required and advance payments are provided for by supplemental agreement, or where an advance payment bond is furnished as additional security, the official authorized to approve the advance payments may use his discretion as to whether the actual making of such payments should be withheld pending the approval by The Judge Advocate General of a consent of surety on a preexisting bond or his approval of the applicable advance payment bond. In order to establish its exemption it is necessary that every organization claiming exemption file with the collector for the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office of the organization an affidavit or a questionnaire as set forth below. An organization claiming exemption under section 101 (1), (3), (4), except a bona fide credit union, (6), (7), (8), (9), (10, (12), (14), or (16) shall file the form of questionnaire appropriate to its activities, filled out in accordance with the instructions on the form or issued therewith. Copies of the following questionnaire forms may be obtained from any collector: For corporations claiming exemption under section 101 (6), Form 1023; under section 101 (1), (3), (7), or (8), Form 1024; under section 101 (9), Form 1025; under section 101 (10), (14), or (16), Form 1026; under section 101 (4), except bona fide credit unions, Form 1027; and under section 101 (12), Form 1028. All other organizations claiming exemption, including bona fide credit unions, shall file an affidavit showing the character of the organization, the purpose for which it was organized, its actual activities, the sources of its income and the disposition of such income, whether or not any of its income is credited to surplus or may inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and in general all facts relating to its operations which affect its right to exemption. To each such affidavit or questionnaire shall be attached a copy of the articles of incorporation, declaration of trust, or other instrument of similar import, setting forth the permitted powers or activities of the organization, the by-laws or other code of regulations, and the latest financal statement showing the assets, liabilities, receipts, and disbursements of the organization. An organization claiming exemption under section 101 (5), (6), except organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, (7), (8), (9), or (14), shall also file with the other information specified herein a return of information on Form 990 relative to the business of the organization for the last complete year of operation.

The words "private shareholder or individual" in section 101 refer to individuals having a personal and private interest in the activities of the corporation. Although religious or apostolic associations or corporations exempt under section 101 (18) are relieved from paying the tax, they are required to file returns of income (see § 19.101 (18)-1).

In the case of the particular classes of organizations listed below, the following additional information shall be embodied in or attached to, and made a part of, the affidavit or questionnaire referred to above:

(a) Mutual insurance companies shall submit (1) copies of the policies or certificates of membership; (2) if any substantial amount of income is claimed to be held for the payment of losses or expenses, a statement based upon a reliable table of loss experience demonstrating that the amount so held for the payment of losses is reasonably necessary; or in the case of expenses, a statement based upon reliable statistics showing that the expenses were incurred or that in all probability they will be incurred;

(b) In the case of holding companies claiming exemption under section 101 (14), if the organization for which title is held has not been specifically notified in writing by the Bureau of Internal Revenue that it is held to be exempt under section 101, the holding company shall submit the information indicated herein as necessary for a determination of the status of the organization for which title is held.

The collector, upon receipt of the affidavit, or questionnaire, and other papers, will examine them as to completeness and will forward completed documents to the Commissioner for decision as to whether the organization is exempt. In addition to the information specified herein, the Commissioner may require any additional information deemed necessary for a proper determination of whether a particular organization is exempt under section 101, and when deemed advisable in the interest of an efficient administration of the internal revenue laws he may in the cases of particular types of organizations provide additional questionnaires or otherwise prescribe the form in which the proof of exemption shall be furnished.

When an organization has established its right to exemption, it need not thereafter make a return of income or any further showing with respect to its status under the law, unless it changes the character of its organization or operations or the purpose for which it was originally created, except that every organization exempt or claiming exemption under section 101 (5), (6), except organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, (7), (8), (9), or (14), shall file annually returns of information on Form 990 with the collector for the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office of the organization. The first return of information on Form 990 required by this regulation shall be for the taxable year ending in 1941 and shall be filed on or before May 15, 1942. The returns for subsequent taxable years shall be filed on or before the first day of the third month following the close of the taxable year. See § 19.101 (18)–1 with respect to returns by religious or apostolic associations or corporations exempt under section 101 (18). See also sections 275 (a) and 276 (a) with respect to the statute of limitations.

Collectors will keep a list of all organizations held to be exempt to the end that they may occasionally inquire into their status and ascertain whether or not they are observing the conditions upon which their exemption is predicated.

The exemption under section 101 referred to in this section and §§ 19.101 (1)–1 to 19.101 (13)–1, inclusive, from filing returns of income does not apply to returns of information (see sections 147 to 149, inclusive.)

PAR. 2. The foregoing provisions relative to proof of exemption under section 101 of the Internal Revenue Code are hereby made applicable in the case of any organization which claims exemption under the Revenue Act of 1938, 1936, 1934 or 1932 and which has not proven exemption under the corresponding provisions of Regulations 101 [Part 9, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1939 Sup.], 94 [Part 3, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations], 86, or 77. The foregoing provisions relative to the filing annually of returns of information on Form 990 are hereby made applicable to organizations held exempt under the sections of the Revenue Act of 1938, 1936, 1934 or 1932 which correspond to section 101 (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), or (14) of the Internal Revenue Code.

PART 327—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 7

ORDER AMENDING ORDER GRANTING PERMANENT RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS PRODUCED IN DISTRICT NO. 7, FOR WHICH PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES HAVE NOT HERETOFORE BEEN ESTABLISHED; OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 7, FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF MINIMUM PRICES FOR LOW VOLATILE SIZE GROUP 8 SCREENINGS PRODUCED AT THE ROBIOUS MINE OF THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERS, INC., AND ORDERS NOS. 303 AND 305 OF THE DIRECTOR

In an Order, dated September 6, 1941, 6 F.R. 5067, Granting Permanent Relief in the above-entitled matters, price classifications and minimum prices were established for the coals of certain mines in District No. 7, including the Vance Mine (Mine Index No. 711) of Richard Vance.

District Board No. 8 subsequently filed an original petition in Docket No. A-1283 requesting the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8, including therein the Crozier Red Ash Mine (Mine Index No. 5205) of J. B. Crozier (Crozier Red Ash Coal Co.) which is the same mine as the Vance Mine (Mine Index No. 711), records of the Division indicating that J. B. Crozier succeeded Richard Vance as owner thereof, and by a letter dated February 5, 1942, District Board No. 7 has indicated that a subsequent investigation discloses that this mine is located in District No. 8.

In an Order Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief issued this day in Docket No. A-1283, price classifications and minimum prices are established inter alia for the coals of the Crozier Red Ash Mine (Mine Index No. 5205) of J. B. Crozier (Crozier Red Ash Coal Co.), to become effective fifteen (15) days from the date thereof, and it thus appears that the said Order of September 6, 1941, in the above-entitled matter should be revoked as to Mine Index No. 711.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That commencing fifteen (15) days from the date hereof the prices as set forth in Supplement T, § 327.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area), established by the said Order of September 6, 1941, in the above-entitled matter for the coals of the Vance Mine (Mine Index No. 711) for truck shipments be revoked.

And it is further ordered, That in all other respects the said Order of September 6, 1941, in the above-entitled matter be, and it hereby is, continued in full force and effect, unless otherwise ordered.

Dated: March 5, 1942.

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

ORDER CORRECTING TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 8 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 8

In an Order dated November 22, 1941, 6 F.R. 6592, granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the above-entitled proceeding, the following typographical errors occurred:

In § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) in Supplement T–I annexed to and made a part of the aforementioned Order, 205 cents was erroneously listed as the effective minimum price of the coals of Mine Index No. 3763 of Edward Branham in Size Group 6. The correct price is 200 cents.

Also in § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) in the aforementioned Supplement T–I, the Mine Index Number of the Pigg Mine of Ben Pigg was written as Mine Index No. 3616. The correct Mine Index No. is 3676.

In § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) in the aforementioned Supplement T–I, the Mine Index Number of the Kinder Mine of Thompson Kinder was written as 3671. The correct Mine Index No. is 3631.

In § 328.11 (Alphabetical list of code members) in Supplement R–I and in § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) in Supplement T–I, annexed to and made a part of the aforementioned Order, the Mine Index Number of the Austin Nickels Coal Co. Mine of Austin Nickels (Austin Nickels Coal Co.) was written as Mine Index No. 3677. The correct Mine Index No. is 3687.

It appears that these typographical errors should be corrected as set forth above.

Accordingly, it is so ordered.

Dated: February 28, 1942.

PART 331—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 11

ORDER GRANTING CONDITIONALLY FINAL RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 11 FOR THE REVOCATION OF THE DEDUCTION FOR FREIGHT RATE DIFFERENCES ON SHIPMENTS INTO MARKET AREA 33 PERMITTED THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NO. 55 IN THE SCHEDULE OF EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR DISTRICT NO. 11, FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting that the deduction for freight rate differences permitted the coals of the Lone Star Mine (Mine Index No. 55) of the Lone Star Coal Company, Incorporated, a code member in District No. 11, on shipments to Market Area 33 be deleted from the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11, For All Shipments Except Truck. This deduction of 10 cents appears on the chart setting forth deductions for shipments to Market Area 33 in § 331.9 (Adjustments in f. o. b. mine prices) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11, For All Shipments Except Truck.

It appears that the schedule of deductions for freight rate differences for coal shipped from mines in District No. 11 to all destinations in Market Area 33 was established in General Docket No. 15 upon a basis of a freight rate of 53 cents per net ton enjoyed by certain mines in District No. 11. All mines which had freight rates on such shipments in excess of 53 cents per ton were permitted an absorption not exceeding 10 cents per ton in order to coordinate with the mines enjoying the lower freight rate of 53 cents per ton. The Lone Star Mine (Mine Index No. 55) enjoys a freight rate on shipments to Market Area 33 of 53 cents per ton which rate was established in Supplement 30 to Illinois Freight Rate Association Tariff Bureau, Freight Tariff 9–B, I. C. C. No. 292, I. R. C. No. 67, issued by R. A. Sperry, Agent, effective July 12, 1937.

It appears, therefore, that the establishment of a freight rate deduction of 10 cents for the coals of Mine Index No. 55 was the result of a typographical error and that this error should be corrected;

Now, therefore, it is ordered That, Commencing fifteen (15) days from the date hereof, the chart setting forth deductions for shipments to Market Area 33 appearing in § 331.9 (Adjustments in f. o. b. mine prices) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11, For All Shipments Except Truck, be amended by deleting therefrom the deduction of 10 cents for Mine Index No. 55.

It is further ordered, That applications to stay, terminate, or modify this order may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date hereof pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become final sixty (60) days from the date hereof unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 4, 1942.

Acting Director.

PART 1109—MICA

Conservation Order No. M–101 Curtailing the Use of Mica

Whereas national defense requirements have created a shortage of certain types of Mica for the combined needs of defense, private account and export; and the supply of such Mica now is and will be insufficient for defense and civilian requirements unless its use in the manufacture of many products where such use is not absolutely necessary for the defense or essential civilian requirements is curtailed or prohibited as hereinafter provided;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1109.1 Conservation Order M–101—(a) Definitions. (1) "Block Mica", as hereinafter used, means mica in block form, and all mica either cut or split to specified size or thickness therefrom.

(2) The term "of a quality better than heavy-stained", as hereinafter used, means that the mica in question contains no mineral inclusions. The term "heavy-stained" means that the mica in question contains mineral inclusions.

(3) "To put into process" means to use or assemble mica, or to make any change in the form, shape or size of mica from that form, shape or size in which it was received by the person making the change.

(b) Restrictions on use of block mica. On and after the effective date of this Order, no person shall put into process any Block Mica of a quality better than heavy-stained except when such Block Mica is to be physically incorporated into any article which is being produced for delivery under a contract or subcontract for the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development or for any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," (Lend-Lease Act), and then only when in any such case the use of Block Mica of a quality better than heavy-stained is required by the specifications of the prime contract.

(c) Forms. Each person putting into process after the effective date hereof any Block Mica of a quality better than heavy-stained pursuant to paragraph (b) hereof or following the granting of an appeal, shall make a report on Form PD–325 covering the putting into process of such Block Mica for each week in which such putting into process takes place. Such reports shall be filed with the War Production Board within 7 days of the end of the week for which the report is made.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Appeals. Any Person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of Block Mica of a quality better than "heavy-stained" Block Mica conserved, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair defense work may appeal to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference M–101 setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(2) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(3) Applicability of Order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this Order shall apply to the putting into process of material in all articles hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof. Insofar as any other Order of the Director of Priorities or of the Director of Industry Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the putting into process of Block Mica of a quality better than "heavy-stained", the limitations of such other Order shall be observed.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed be addressed to: War Production Board, Mica-Graphite Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref: M–101.

(5) Violations or false statements. Any Person who violates this Order, or who wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this Order, or by the Director of Industry Operations, or who otherwise wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Industry Operations or to the War Production Board or its Chairman, may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director of Industry Operations from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director of Industry Operations may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(6) Effective date. This Order shall take effect upon the date of issuance and shall continue in effect until revoked by the Director of Industry Operations. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. PART 1112—OFFICE MACHINERY

General Limitation Order L–54—Temporarily Restricting Delivery of New and Used Typewriters

Whereas the conduct of this war requires a heavy increase in the production of war material, it is necessary to convert existing facilities to secure increased production thereof; and the production of typewriters is to be curtailed; and

Whereas the requirements of war have created a shortage for defense, private account and export of metals and other materials used by typewriter manufacturers; and

Whereas it is necessary to take the measures hereinafter set forth in the public interest, to promote the defense of the United States, to secure increased production of war material, and to insure an adequate supply of typewriters for war and essential civilian requirements:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1112.1 General Limitation Order L–54—(a) Prohibition of deliveries of new and used typewriters. On and after the date of issue of this order, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, or of any preference rating certificate, no person shall physically deliver to any other person any new or used typewriter except as follows:

(1) Unless expressly authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, a new typewriter may be physically delivered, only as follows:

(i) To any consignee, if actually in transit at the time this order takes effect;

(ii) To any Manufacturer of typewriters located in the United States; or

(iii) To any dealer or distributor by any other dealer or distributor.

(2) Any used typewriter may be physically delivered to any person who presents such certificate and complies with such conditions as may be prescribed by the Office of Price Administration.

Pending the issuance of rules and regulations by the Office of Price Administration, rationing the sale, transfer, or other disposition of used typewriters, physical deliveries of used typewriters may be made as follows:

(i) To any of the persons in categories (i), (ii), (iii), above;

(ii) To any person for repair, and to return a repaired typewriter to the owner;

(iii) To return a leased typewriter to the lessor, or to extend for a period expiring not later than April 1, 1942, any lease in effect at the time this order takes effect;

(iv) To any person who in good faith has lent money on the security of a typewriter, or has financed the sale of a typewriter and who repossesses or otherwise acquires the same in conformity with the terms of an agreement of loan or sale;

(v) By any user who possesses only one typewriter, to any person.

(b) The term "used typewriter" means any portable or non-portable typewriter (including noiseless and electric types) which at any time has been delivered to any person acquiring it for use, and includes rebuilt typewriters.

The term "new typewriter" means any portable or non-portable typewriter (including noiseless and electric types) which has not yet been delivered to any person acquiring it for use, but does not include rebuilt typewriters.

(c) Communications. All communications concerning this Order shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C.; Ref.: L-54.

[Docket No. A-1297, Part II]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 13 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS PRODUCED BY THE CONNELLSVILLE DRIFT MINE, MINE INDEX NO. 1466, OF THE PLATEAU COAL & COKE CO., IN SIZE GROUP 11 FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK; PRODUCED BY MINES HAVING MINE INDEX NOS. 113, 136, 141, 193, 198, 221, 298, 301, 317, 339, 342, 356, 367, 386, 744, 1059, 1128, 1215, 1271, 1276, 1318, 1360, AND 1433, IN SIZE GROUP 20 FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK; AND PRODUCED BY THE JEFFERSON NO. 1 MINE, MINE INDEX NO. 1458, OF W. P. HEADRICK, IN SIZE GROUP 23 FOR TRUCK SHIPMENTS

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1297 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1297, ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF IN PART IN DOCKET NO. A-1297 PART II, AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1297 PART II

The original petition in the above-entitled matter which was filed with this Division requests the issuance of orders establishing temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13.

As found in an order issued in Docket No. A-1297, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the relief prayed for by the petitioner except as to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices of the coals produced by The Connellsville Drift Mine, Mine Index No. 1466, of the Plateau Coal & Coke Co., in Size Group 11, for all shipments except truck; produced by mines having Mine Index Nos. 113, 136, 141, 193, 198, 221, 298, 301, 317, 339, 342, 356, 367, 386, 744, 1059, 1128, 1215, 1271, 1276, 1318, 1360, and 1433, in Size Group 20, for all shipments except truck; or produced by the Jefferson No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 1458, of W. J. Headrick, in Size Group 23, for truck shipments.

The petition of District Board No. 13 proposes a minimum price of $2.90 in Size Group 11 for all shipments except truck for the Connellsville Drift Mine, Mine Index No. 1466, of the Plateau Coal & Coke Co. It appears, however, that the coals of no mine in District 13 have a minimum price of $2.90 in Size Group 11, for all shipments except truck, and that the original petition has not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the establishment of this minimum price upon a temporary and conditionally final basis.

The petition of District Board 13 proposes a minimum price of $2.80 in Size Group 20, for all shipments except truck, for the coals produced by the mines having Mine Index Nos. 113, 136, 141, 193, 198, 221, 298, 301, 317, 339, 342, 356, 367, 386, 744, 1059, 1128, 1215, 1271, 1276, 1318, 1360, and 1433. It appears, however, that the coals of no mine in District 13 have a minimum price of $2.80 in Size Group 20, for all shipments except truck, and that the original petition has not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the establishment of this minimum price upon a temporary and conditionally final basis.

The petition of District Board No. 13 proposes a minimum price of $2.25 in Size Group 23, for truck shipments, for the coals of the Jefferson No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 1458, of W. P. Headrick. It appears, however, that the coals of no mine in the Jefferson Seam have a minimum price lower than $2.50 in Size Group 23, for truck shipments, and that the original petition has not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the establishment of the minimum price proposed.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1297 relating to the coals produced by the Connellsville Drift Mine, Mine Index No. 1466, of the Plateau Coal & Coke Co., in Size Group 11, for all shipments except truck; produced by the mines having Mine Index Nos. 113, 136, 141, 193, 198, 221, 298, 301, 317, 339, 342, 356, 367, 386, 744, 1059, 1128, 1215, 1271, 1276, 1318, 1360, and 1433, in Size Group 20, for all shipments except truck; and produced by the Jefferson No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 1458, of W. P. Headrick, in Size Group 23, for truck shipments, respectively, be and the same hereby is severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1297 and designated as Docket No. A-1297 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1297 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on April 2, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Floyd McGown or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the undersigned proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 28, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of interveners or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

PETITION OF RIMERSBURG COAL MINING COMPANY, INC., FOR PERMISSION TO SELL 17 CARLOADS OF SLACK COAL TO THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD FOR RAILROAD FUEL USE AT A PRICE OF $1.50 PER NET TON F. O. B. THE MINE

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER CONCERNING PRAYER FOR TEMPORARY RELIEF

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was filed on February 3, 1942, with this Division by the Rimersburg Coal Mining Company, Inc., a code member in District 1, requesting permission to sell to the Pennsylvania Railroad for locomotive fuel use sixteen 70-ton railroad carloads of 2" nut and slack coal and one 70-ton railroad carload of 1¼" slack coal, produced at its Fox Mine (Mine Index No. 2989), presently loaded and unbilled at the petitioner's mine, at an f. o. b. mine price of $1.50 per net ton.

Pursuant to the request of the petitioner for temporary relief and pursuant to the provisions of Section 301.106 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure in 4 II (d) cases, and pursuant to due notice to all interested persons, an informal conference concerning the prayer for temporary relief was held by this Division on February 18, 1942.

The original petitioner, District Boards Nos. 2 and 3, and the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel were represented at the conference. The record of the conference was submitted to the undersigned.

From the record the following appears: Early in December 1941, the Central-West Coal Company, sales agent of the petitioner, advised the petitioner that it expected to be able to dispose of approximately twenty 70-ton railroad carloads of slack coal, for shipment to the lakes. Relying upon this advice, the petitioner loaded the twenty carloads at its Fox Mine. For some reason, the steamer was not available and petitioner was not able to dispose of the twenty carloads of coal for shipment over the lakes, and the twenty cars remained on hand as unbilled coal. Excessive rains and snows raised the moisture content considerably and, when this was followed by heavy freezes, the coal froze in the cars, practically into a solid frozen mass. Petitioner exerted special effort to make sales of the coal in question and succeeded in disposing of 3 carloads in that condition but the purchasers declined to accept further shipments, and at the time of filing the original petition the petitioner had 17 cars on hand unbilled. It has made special effort to dispose of the 17 cars and has been unable to do so, with the exception that the Pennsylvania Railroad, in order to release the railroad equipment and in consideration of the condition of the coal, has agreed to purchase it at $1.50 per net ton f. o. b. the mine. It appears that the coal is crop coal.

District Boards 1 and 6 indicated by telegraph to the Division that they have no objection to granting the relief requested. District Board 3 participated actively in the conference in opposition to the relief requested. District Board 2 and the Consumers' Counsel were favorable to granting the relief prayed for by the petitioner.

It appears that the principal basis for the opposition is the fear that the granting of the relief requested will establish a precedent for the granting of similar relief under similar and related circumstances, and that such precedent would be unwise. It further appears that there is little likelihood of the petitioner being able to move the coal until the cold weather is over, unless it disposes of it to the railroad which has facilities for thawing frozen coal. It also appears that it would be desirable to release the railroad equipment involved, and there appears no way in which such equipment can be released unless at exorbitant expense to the petitioner.

The granting of temporary relief in this case should not and will not be permitted to serve as a precedent unless for guidance in peculiarly abnormal situations such as are presented in this record. Consequently, the granting of relief on the particular facts and circumstances disclosed by this record will not serve as a precedent for reducing the prices of slack coal ordinarily produced and stored in or about the mine, or otherwise. The coal in question was not "stored" in any point of view. The petitioner loaded the coal into cars with the understanding that the coal was sold. In this he was wrong.

It appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in this proceeding, and that injury is imminent unless such relief is granted. It further appears that the granting of the temporary relief requested would not injure or place at any disadvantage any of the petitioner's competitors or code members generally.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, temporary relief is granted as follows: Rimersburg Coal Mining Company, Inc., a code member in District No. 1 is authorized to sell to the Pennsylvania Railroad sixteen 70-ton carloads of 2" nut and slack coal and one 70-ton carload of 1¼" slack coal (which coal is now loaded in these seventeen cars and is in a frozen state) produced at its Fox Mine (Mine Index No. 2989) at a price of not less than $1.50 per ton f. o. b. the mine.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted, may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to Section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: March 4, 1942.

(b) Verification of reports and payments. The market administrator shall verify all reports and payments of each handler by audit of such handler's records, and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose disposition of milk such handler claims classification. Each handler shall keep adequate records of receipts and utilization of milk and shall make available to the market administrator or his representatives during the usual hours of business such records and facilities as will enable the market administrator to:

(1) Verify the receipts and disposition of all milk required to be reported pursuant to this section, and, in case of errors or omissions, ascertain the correct figures;

(2) Weight, sample, and test for butterfat content the milk received from producers and any product of milk upon which classification depends; and

(3) Verify the payments to producers prescribed in section 8.

SEC. 4. Classification of milk—(a) Basis of classification. All milk received by a handler from producers, associations of producers, and other handlers, including milk produced by him, if any, and including milk or cream purchased or received from sources other than producers or handlers, if any, shall be reported by the handler in the classes set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, subject to the following conditions: (1) Milk or skim milk delivered by a handler to another handler shall be classified as Class I milk, and cream so delivered shall be classified as Class II milk: Provided, That if a different classification is agreed upon in written reports to the market administrator then the milk, skim milk, and cream shall be classified according to such agreement: Provided, That in no event, the amount so reported in any class be greater than the amount used in that class by the receiving handler. (2) Any milk moving from the plant of a handler to the plant of a nonhandler who distributes fluid milk shall be classified as Class I milk and any cream moved to such nonhandler shall be classified as Class II milk except for milk and cream in excess of the amount of Class I or Class II milk distributed by such nonhandler. (3) Any milk or cream moving from the plant of a handler to the plant of a nonhandler who does not distribute fluid milk shall be classified according to its use by such nonhandler, subject to verification by the market administrator. (4) Milk that has moved from a plant, which has been determined by the market administrator as not regularly furnishing milk for Class I use and as not receiving milk from producers, to a handler's plant at which milk is received from producers shall be classified in the lowest class for which such handler has milk: Provided, That, upon satisfactory evidence to the market administrator, that such milk was needed and used in a higher classification, then such milk may be prorated on the basis of such handler's utilization of all milk. (5) Milk received by a handler in the form of cream from a nonhandler shall be prorated to and on the basis of such handler's Class II, Class III, and Class IV milk. (6) Any milk or cream subject to Order 41, as amended, and received by a handler shall be classified as Class I or Class II milk respectively.

(b) Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk disposed of in the form of fluid milk, including bulk milk disposed of to hotels, restaurants, and other retail food establishments, but excluding bulk milk disposed of to bakeries, soup companies, and candy manufacturing establishments which do not distribute fluid milk, and all milk not accounted for as Class II milk, Class III milk, or Class IV milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk, except skim milk, disposed of in the form of flavored milk and flavored milk drinks, and all milk the butterfat from which is disposed of in the form of sweet or sour cream, cottage cheese, and buttermilk.

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which is used to produce a milk product other than one of those specified in Class II and Class IV, and all bulk milk disposed of to bakeries, soup companies, and candy manufacturing establishments, which do not distribute fluid milk.

(4) Class IV milk shall be all milk the butterfat from which is used to produce butter and cheese, except cottage cheese, and all milk accounted for as actual plant shrinkage: Provided, That such plant shrinkage shall not exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers.

(c) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. In establishing the classification of milk as required in paragraph (b) of this section, the responsibilities of handlers in establishing the classification of milk received by them shall be as follows:

(1) In establishing the classification of any milk received by a handler from producers, the burden rests upon the handler who receives the milk from producers to account for the milk and to prove to the market administrator that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

(2) With respect to milk, or skimmed milk, disposed of to another handler, the burden rests upon the handler who purchased the milk from producers to account for the milk, or skimmed milk, and to prove to the market administrator that such milk, or skimmed milk, should not be classified as Class I milk: Provided, That if verification by the market administrator discloses a higher utilization than that reported pursuant to section 3 (a) (1) for milk purchased by a handler from a cooperative association, the market administrator shall notify the purchasing handler and such handler shall within 5 days after notification by the market administrator make adjustment to such cooperative association on the basis of such higher utilization as verified by the market administrator.

(d) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period, each handler shall compute, in the manner and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, the amount of milk in each class, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, as follows:

(1) Determine the total pounds of milk (a) received from producers, (b) produced by him, if any, (c) received from other handlers, if any, (d) received from other sources, if any, and (e) add together the resulting amounts.

(2) Determine the total pounds of butterfat received as follows: (a) multiply the weight of the milk received from producers by its average butterfat test, (b) multiply the weight of the milk produced by him, if any, by its average butterfat test, (c) multiply the weight of the milk received from other handlers, if any, by its average butterfat test, (d) multiply the weight of the milk received from other sources if any, by average butterfat tests, and (e) add together the resulting amounts.

(3) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class I as follows: (a) convert to quarts the quantity of milk disposed of in the form of milk except such milk as is used for purposes for which no approval by health authorities in the marketing area is necessary, and multiply by 2.15, (b) multiply the result by the average butterfat test of such milk, and (c) if the quantity of butterfat so computed when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk, Class III milk, and Class IV milk, computed pursuant to subparagraphs (4) (b), (5) (b), and (6) (c) of this paragraph, is less than the total pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be divided by 3.5 percent and added to the quantity of milk determined pursuant to (a) of this subparagraph.

(4) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class II as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test, (b) add together the resulting amounts, and (c) divide the result obtained in (b) of this subparagraph by 3.5 percent.

(5) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class III as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III milk by its average butterfat test, (b) add together the resulting amounts, and (c) divide the result obtained in (b) of this subparagraph by 3.5 percent.

(6) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class IV as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class IV milk by its average butterfat test, (b) add together the resulting amounts, (c) subtract the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk, computed pursuant to subparagraphs (3) (b), (4) (b), and (5) (b) of this paragraph, and the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (b) of this subparagraph, from the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, which resulting quantity shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purposes of this paragraph (but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers by the handler) and shall be added to the result obtained in (b) of this subparagraph, and (d) divide the result obtained in (b) of this subparagraph by 3.5 percent.

(7) Determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(i) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from other handlers and used in such class.

(ii) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from sources other than producers and handlers and used in such class.

(iii) Subtract pro rata out of the remaining milk in each class the quantity of milk received from the handler's own farm.

(iv) Except as set forth in paragraph (e) of this section, the result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in each class.

(e) Reconciliation of utilization of milk by classes with receipts of milk from producers. (1) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, is less than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall increase the total pounds of milk in Class IV for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler, which result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in each class.

(2) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, is greater than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk in Class IV for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler, which result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in each class.

SEC. 5. Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. (1) Except as set forth in paragraph (e) of this section and subject to the differentials set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, each handler shall pay, at the time and in the manner set forth in Section 8, for milk purchased or received by such handler at any plant located not more than 70 miles by rail or highway, whichever is the shorter, from the City Hall in Chicago, Illinois, not less than the prices set forth in this paragraph. Any handler who purchases or receives, during any delivery period, milk from a cooperative association which is also a handler shall, on or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period, pay such cooperative association in full for such milk at not less than the minimum class prices, with appropriate differentials, applicable pursuant to this section.

(2) Class I milk—The price per hundredweight for Class I milk during each delivery period, except the delivery periods of May and June, shall be the price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, plus 70 cents; and during the delivery periods fo May and June the price per hundredweight for Class I milk shall be the price determined pursuant to paragraph (b), plus 50 cents: Provided, That with respect to Class I milk disposed of under a program approved by the Secretary for the sale or disposition of milk to low-income consumers, including persons on relief, the price shall be $2.20 per hundredweight.

(3) Class II milk—The price per hundredweight for Class II milk during each delivery period, except the delivery periods of May and June, shall be the price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, plus 32 cents; and during the delivery periods of May and June the price per hundredweight for Class II milk shall be the price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, plus 20 cents.

(4) Class III milk—The price per hundredweight for milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat during each delivery period shall be the average, computed by the administrator, of prices, as reported to the United States Department of Agriculture, paid during such delivery period to farmers at each of the places or evaporated milk plants where milk is purchased or received for evaporating purposes listed in this subparagraph and for which prices are reported, but in no event shall such price be less than the price computed pursuant to the formula set forth in paragraph (b) of this section.

(5) Class IV milk—Multiply by 3.5 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and add 20 percent: Provided, That such price shall be subject to the following adjustments: (1) add 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption is above 5½ cents per pound, or (2) subtract 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of such dry skim milk is below 5½ cents per pound. For purposes of determining this adjustment the price per pound of dry skim milk to be used shall be the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, as published by the United States Department of Agriculture for a Chicago area during the delivery period, including in such average the quotations published for any fractional part of the previous delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such dry skim milk for the previous delivery period. In the event the United States Department of Agriculture does not publish carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, shall be used. In the latter event the Class IV price shall be subject to the following adjustments: (1) add 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, is above 7½ cents per pound, or (2) subtract 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that such price of dry skim milk is below 7½ cents per pound.

(b) Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I and Class II prices. The basic formula price to be used in determining the Class I and Class II prices, set forth in this section, per hundredweight of milk shall be the price for Class III milk, determined pursuant to subparagraph (4) of paragraph (a) of this section, or that derived from the following formula, whichever is higher:

(1) Multiply the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter at Chicago for said delivery period as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture by six (6).

(2) Add 2.4 times the average weekly prevailing price per pound of "Twins" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin: Provided, That if the price of "Twins" is not quoted on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange the weekly prevailing price of "Cheddars" shall be deemed to be the prevailing price for "Twins" and shall be used in determining the price pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) Divide by seven (7), the sum so determined being hereafter referred to in this paragraph as the "combined butter and cheese value."

(4) To the combined butter and cheese value add 30 percent thereof.

(5) Multiply the sum computed in subparagraph (4) above by 3.5.

(c) Butterfat differential to handlers. If any handler has purchased or received milk from producers containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat, such handler shall add or deduct, per hundredweight of milk, for each one-tenth of 1 percent butterfat above or below 3.5 percent, an amount computed as follows: to the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which the milk was received, add 20 percent and divide the result obtained by 10.

(d) Location adjustments to handlers. (1) With respect to milk purchased or received from producers at a plant located more than 70 miles by rail or highway, whichever is the shorter, from the City Hall in Chicago, Illinois, which is classified as Class I milk or Class II milk, there shall be deducted 2 cents per hundredweight and ¼ cent per hundredweight, respectively, for each additional 15 miles or part thereof that such plant is located in excess of 70 miles from the City Hall in Chicago, Illinois: Provided, That no such deduction shall apply to unaccounted for milk classified as Class I milk pursuant to Section 4 (d) (3) and such milk shall be considered to have been received at the most distant plant at which the handler received milk from producers: Provided, That if any handler can prove to the market administrator that the l. c. l. freight rate, approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, or the State authorities having the power to fix intrastate rail rates, for the movement of cream in 40-quart cans from the shipping point for the plant where such milk is received from producers to the marketing area is greater than ¼ cent per hundredweight of milk, such actual freight rate shall be allowed such handler on Class II milk, but in no case shall such rate exceed ½ cent per hundredweight of milk. There shall be no location adjustment to handlers with respect to Class III milk or Class IV milk.

(2) For purposes of this paragraph, Class I milk shall be considered to be that milk purchased or received from producers at plants located nearest to the marketing area from which whole milk is shipped to the marketing area: Provided, That when actual shipments of milk by any handler from two or more plants located in different zones are shown to be in excess of such handler's Class I milk, the location adjustments on Class I milk, as provided in this section shall be applied to such milk, up to and including 110 percent of such handler's Class I milk. Class II milk shall be considered to be that milk purchased or received from producers at plants located nearest to the marketing area, after accounting for Class I milk, from which whole milk or cream is shipped to the marketing area: Provided, That upon proof satisfactory to the market administrator that Class II milk was received from producers at a more distant plant, location adjustment shall be allowed from the plant at which such Class II milk was received from producers.

(e) Sales outside the marketing area. (1) The price to be paid by a handler for Class I milk disposed of outside the marketing area, in lieu of the price otherwise applicable pursuant to this section and except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, shall be the price, as ascertained by the market administrator, which is being paid for milk of equivalent use in the market where such milk is disposed of: Provided, That in the event such Class I milk is disposed of outside the 70-mile one, such Class I price as ascertained by the market administrator shall be subject to a transportation adjustment of 2 cents per hundredweight of such milk for every 15 miles or fraction thereof up to and including 105 miles and thereafter 1 cent for every 10 miles or fraction thereof from the shipping point for the plant where such milk is received from producers to the market where such milk is utilized as Class I milk: Provided further, That such Class I price as ascertained by the market administrator, less the adjustment for transportation, shall not be lower than the Class I price f. o. b., 70-mile zone as set forth in Section 5 (a) (2) minus 20 cents.

(2) The price to be paid by a handler for Class I milk disposed of outside the marketing area for which no price can be ascertained on the basis provided for in paragraph (1) of this subsection, and for Class I milk disposed of to Government institutions and establishments on a basis of bids, shall be the price for Class I milk set forth in Section 5 (a) (2) applicable for the plant at which such milk is received from producers, which price shall not be subject to adjustment for transportation as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

SEC. 6. Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers.

(1) No provision hereof shall apply to a handler who is also a producer and who purchases or receives no milk from producers or an association of producers, except that such handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(2) In computing the value of milk for any handler pursuant hereto, the administrator shall consider any milk or cream received in bulk by such handler from a handler who is also a producer as described in this section as a receipt from a producer.

(b) Payment for milk received from sources determined as other than from producers or other handlers. If any handler has received milk from sources determined by the market administrator to be other than producers or handlers, the difference between the value of such milk, according to its use, as computed pursuant to Section 4 and the price paid for such milk shall be paid to producers if such use value is greater than the price paid.

(c) Payment for excess milk or butterfat. In the event that a handler, after subtracting receipts from his own production, receipts from other handlers, and receipts from sources determined as other than producers or other handlers, has disposed of milk and/or butterfat in excess of the milk and/or butterfat which has been credited to his producers as having been delivered by them, the value of such milk and/or of the milk equivalent of such butterfat in accordance with its utilization shall be added to such handlers' obligations to producers pursuant to section 7 in the computation of the uniform price for the next subsequent delivery period.

SEC. 7. Determination of minimum prices to be paid to producers—(a) Computation of value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute the value of milk received by each handler from producers by (i) multiplying the quantity of such milk in each class as determined pursuant to § 956.4 by the price applicable pursuant to section 5, (ii) adding together the resulting values of each class, and (iii) adding any amount computed to be paid pursuant to section 6.

(b) Computation of uniform price for each handler. The market administrator shall compute for each handler the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received at such handler's plant, as follows:

(1) Add to the value computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section the total amount of the location adjustments applicable pursuant to section 8 (c).

(2) Add or subtract the moneys resulting from the fractional cents used in adjusting previous month's price to the nearest cent.

(3) Divide by the hundredweight of milk received from producers.

(4) Adjust the resulting price to the nearest cent.

SEC. 8. Payment for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall pay each producer, for milk purchased or received during the delivery period, an amount of money representing not less than the total value of such milk, at the uniform price per hundredweight, computed pursuant to Section 7 (b) and subject to the location adjustments and butterfat differential set forth in this section.

(b) Butterfat differential to producers. The price paid to producers shall be plus or minus, as the case may be, 4 cents per hundredweight for each one-tenth of 1 percent above or below 3.5 percent average butterfat content of milk delivered by any producer during any delivery period.

(c) Location adjustments to producers. In making payments to producers pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, handlers shall deduct with respect to all milk purchased or received from producers at a plant located more than 70 miles by rail or highway, whichever is the shorter, from the City Hall in Chicago, Illinois, the amount specified as follows:

	Cents per hundredweight
Within 71 to 85 miles	2
Within 85.1 to 100 miles	4
Within 100.1 to 115 miles	6
Within 115.1 to 130 miles	8
Within 130.1 to 145 miles	10
Within 145.1 to 160 miles	12
Within 160.1 to 175 miles	14

For each 15 miles or part thereof beyond 175 miles from the City Hall in Chicago, Illinois, an additional ½ cent per hundredweight.

SEC. 9. Expense of administration—(a) Payments by handlers. As his pro rata share of the expense of the administration hereof each handler, except those handlers exempt from the provisions hereof as set forth in Section 6 (a), shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, a sum not exceeding 2 cents per hundredweight with respect to all milk purchased or received by him during such delivery period from producers, or produced by him, the exact sum to be determined by the market administrator: Provided, That each handler which is a cooperative association shall pay such pro rata share of expense of administration only on that milk of producers actually received at a plant of such cooperative association, or caused to be delivered by such cooperative association to a plant from which no milk or cream is disposed of in the marketing area.

(b) Suits by market administrator. The market administrator may maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of expense set forth in this section.

SEC. 10. Marketing services—(a) Marketing service deduction. In making payments to producers pursuant to section 8, each handler, with respect to all milk received from each producer during each delivery period, at a plant not operated by a cooperative association of which such producer is a member, shall, except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, deduct 3 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the market administrator shall determine to be sufficient, and shall, on or before the 18th day after the end of such delivery period, pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk received from such producers and in providing for market information to such producers. The market administrator may contract with an association or associations of producers for the furnishing of the whole or any part of such services to, or with respect to the milk received from, such producers.

(b) Marketing service deductions with respect to members of a producers' cooperative association. In the case of producers whose milk is received at a plant not operated by a cooperative association of which such producers are members and for whom a cooperative association is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall, in lieu of the deductions specified in paragraph (a) of this section, make such deductions from payments made pursuant to section 8 as may be authorized by such producers, and pay over on or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period such deductions to the associations rendering such service of which such producers are members. (The following provisions would apply only to the proposed marketing agreement.)

SEC. 11. Effective time, suspension, or termination of marketing agreement, as amended—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended, or terminated, pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Termination. The Secretary may terminate this agreement (order) whenever he finds that this agreement (order) obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This agreement (order) shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (a) continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary, (b) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct, and (c) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

SEC. 12. Liability—(a) Liability of handlers. The liability of handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

Additional copies of this notice of hearing may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 0312, South Building, Washington, D. C., or may be there inspected.

IV

It being the duty of the Commission, pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Act, to require, by order, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that each registered holding company and each subsidiary company thereof, shall take such action as the Commission shall find necessary to limit the operations of the holding company system, of which said company is a part, to a single integrated public utility system and to such other businesses as are reasonably incidental or economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of such integrated public-utility system, and to such additional integrated public-utility system or systems which the Commission finds to be in compliance with the standards of subsections (A), (B) and (C) of section 11 (b) (1); and

It is hereby ordered, That the proceedings here involved be consolidated for hearing and that a hearing be held thereupon at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on such day by the hearing room clerk, at 10:00 A. M. on the 24th day of March, 1942, at which hearing the above named parties shall be given an opportunity to be heard as to:

1. Whether or not the plan, as submitted or as modified, pursuant to section 11 (e) of said Act is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby.

2. Whether any of the acquisitions of securities or utility assets contemplated by said plan will be detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of Section 11 of said Act, and whether such acquisitions will serve the public interest by tending towards the economical and efficient development of an integrated public-utility system.

3. Whether the non-utility operations and businesses of said holding company system are reasonably incidental, or economically necessary or appropriate to the public utility operations of such system.

4. Whether the allegations of paragraphs numbered II and III hereof, inclusive, are true and accurate.

5. What order, if any, should be entered pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of said Act requiring that said Lone Star Gas Corporation and/or its above named subsidiaries limit the operations of their holding company system to a single integrated public-utility system and to such other businesses as are reasonably incidental or economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of such integrated public utility system.

The Commission reserves the right if at any time it may appear conducive to an orderly and economical disposition of any one or all of the matters here involved to order a separate hearing concerning any such matter, to close the record with respect to any such matter, or to take appropriate action on any such matter prior to closing the record on other matters.

It is further ordered, That the above-named parties, respondents herein, file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before March 21, 1942 their respective answers admitting, denying or otherwise explaining their respective positions as to each of the allegations of paragraphs II and III hereof.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice; and

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order, by registered mail, to the above named parties; and that notice of said hearing shall be and hereby is given to all security holders of Lone Star Gas Corporation and its above named subsidiaries, to all consumers of said corporation, to all States, municipalities, or subdivisions thereof, in which are located any of the utility assets of the holding company system of Lone Star Gas Corporation or under the laws of which any of said companies are incorporated, to all state commissions, state security commissions and all agencies, authorities or instrumentalities of one or more states, municipalities, or other bodies politic or subdivisions thereof having jurisdiction over Lone Star Gas Corporation or its above named subsidiaries or of any of the business affairs of any of them, and to all other persons, such notice to be given by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

IN THE MATTER OF GREAT LAKES UTILITIES COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING OF AMENDED PLAN AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARINGS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of March 1942.

Great Lakes Utilities Company (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "Great Lakes"), a registered holding company, having on December 17, 1941 filed a Plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act for the purpose of enabling Great Lakes and its subsidiaries to comply with the provisions of Section 11 (b) of said Act, and the Commission having instituted proceedings involving the Great Lakes holding-company system under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the Act, the hearings in these proceedings and in the proceedings in respect of the section 11 (e) Plan having been consolidated (Holding Company Act Release No. 3243, January 5, 1942); and

Great Lakes having filed an amended Plan dated March 1, 1942 under section 11 (e) in substitution for the earlier Plan, the amended Plan being necessary because of the anticipated sale by Great Lakes prior to May 1, 1942 of its interest in Gas Corporation of Michigan, Virginia Gas & Utilities Company and Martinsville Gas Company; if this expectation is realized, approximately $1,000,000 in cash will be available on May 1, 1942 for application on the bonded indebtedness. The amended Plan may be briefly summarized as follows:

(1) Extension of the maturity date of the First Lien Collateral Trust Bonds, 5½%, Series due 1942, outstanding with the public in principal amount of $1,582,500, for one year, or upon inability earlier to accomplish the necessary liquidation of assets, for two years.

(2) Diligent efforts by Great Lakes to liquidate its assets, the proceeds thereof and any other available cash to be applied ratably to the payment of the principal and interest on such bonds and to payment of necessary expenses.

(3) Distribution to the stockholders (whose interest is presently represented by Voting Trust Certificates) of any cash (or other assets if by that time not reduced to cash) remaining after payment in full of the principal and interest on said bonds and of any other liabilities, and the subsequent dissolution of Great Lakes.

The application states that the amended Plan is subject to approval by the Commission and, on application by the Commission at the request of the Company, by the United States District Court having jurisdiction thereof under section 11 of the Act; and

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of said Act, before approving any Plan thereunder, to find, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that such Plan, as submitted or as modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11, and fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on March 19, 1942 at 10:00 A. M. at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the hearing room to be assigned for such purpose by the hearing room clerk. At such hearing cause shall be shown why such amended Plan should be approved by the Commission and why orders should not be entered pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of said Act requiring Great Lakes to take such action as the Commission deems necessary and appropriate to comply with the pertinent statutory requirements;

Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the Great Lakes Utilities Company, to all security holders of Great Lakes and to any other interested persons, said notice to be given to said company by registered mail and to all other persons by a general release of this Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

It is further ordered, That Great Lakes give notice of this hearing to each holder of Voting Trust Certificates and to each holder of First Lien and Collateral Trust Bonds of Great Lakes (in so far as the identity of such security holders is known or available to Great Lakes) by mailing to each of said persons a copy of this notice at his last-known place of address at least ten days prior to the date of this hearing.

It is further ordered, That Edward C. Johnson or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rule of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said amended Plan or proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) involving this holding-company system otherwise to be considered, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed amended Plan is necessary to effectuate the provisions of Section 11 of said Act.

2. Whether such Plan is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby.

3. Whether transactions incidental to consummation of such Plan comply with the requirements of all other applicable standards of said Act.

4. What orders, if any, should be entered pursuant to Section 11 (b) (1) of the Act, requiring Great Lakes to divest itself of its interest in any or all of its subsidiaries or the properties thereof.

5. What orders, if any, should be entered pursuant to Section 11 (b) (2) of the Act, requiring Great Lakes to take such steps as the Commission shall find necessary to ensure that the corporate structure or continued existence of any company in the holding-company system does not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the structure, or unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among the security holders, of such holding-company system.

6. What conditions, if any, should be imposed by the Commission, in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, these proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) and in respect of the application for approval of said amended Plan filed under Section 11 (e).

By the Commission.

8. Within the limitations of such funds as may be available to the Office of Civilian Defense, the Director may arrange with other public or private agencies for such research or development work, in addition to that of the War Department in connection with the procurement of equipment, as he may deem advisable in order better to provide for the adequate protection of persons and property from bombing attacks, sabotage or other war hazards.

9. The Director of Civilian Defense shall make available the facilities, supplies, and services of the Office of Civilian Defense in such localities in the United States, its territories and possessions as he shall determine to be in need of, but unable to provide, adequate protection of persons and property from bombing attacks, sabotage or other war hazards. To such extent as may be practicable, all such property shall be clearly and distinctly marked as the property of, or property under the control of, the United States Government, Office of Civilian Defense. It shall be the duty of the Director of Civilian Defense to report to the Attorney General for appropriate prosecution under the applicable provisions of the Federal Criminal Code any theft, unlawful use, injury to or depredation committed against any such property.

11. The equipment, facilities and supplies of, or under the control of, the Office of Civilian Defense shall be made available in any locality only by loan to duly constituted civil authorities of any state, territory, municipality or other political subdivision comprising or situated within such locality, and any such authority may distribute the same to responsible and qualified individuals or organizations, in accordance with regulations issued by the Director of Civilian Defense; provided that it shall be a condition of all such loans that the civil authority to which each loan is made shall give assurance to the Director that the property loaned shall be adequately protected and maintained, that it shall not be used otherwise than for the protection of persons or property from bombing attacks, sabotage or other war hazards or for training or instruction incidental to such use, and that such property unless lost, destroyed or consumed in the course of such use shall be returned to the United States Government at any time upon order of, or pursuant to rules or regulations prescribed by, the Director of Civilian Defense.

12. The Director of Civilian Defense may prescribe insignia, arm bands and other distinctive articles which may be worn by persons engaged in civilian defense activities and may establish rules and regulations for the wearing thereof. 7. The head of any department or agency which uses or controls any facility for wire communication pursuant to the terms of this Order shall ascertain the just compensation for the use or control of such facility and recommend such just compensation in each such case to the President for approval and action by him in accordance with the provisions of subsection (e) of Section 606, as amended, of the Communications Act of 1934.

[SOLID FUELS COORDINATOR FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE]

THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington, Nov. 5, 1941

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY:

As the defense effort progresses it becomes increasingly urgent to assure that the supply of solid fuels will be adequate and that they will be readily available at consuming points when required for military, industrial, and civilian purposes. Difficult problems are already arising with respect to their supply and availability for such uses. These problems require the efficient and carefully coordinated development, production, distribution, utilization, transportation and handling of solid fuels.

You have in your Department extensive information and facilities with respect to solid fuels. I refer particularly to the Bituminous Coal Division, the Bureau of Mines, and the Geological Survey. In addition, in your capacity as Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense you have important functions with respect to oil and gas. It is essential that the handling of solid fuel and of oil and gas problems should be closely coordinated in the present emergency.

I am, therefore, requesting that you as the Secretary of the Interior shall act as solid fuels coordinator for national defense in performing the following duties:

1. Obtain currently from the appropriate defense and other Federal agencies, from the various States and their subdivisions, and from any other sources, private or governmental, information as to the military and civilian needs for solid fuels;

2. Obtain currently from the solid fuels industries and from any other sources, governmental or private, information relating to development, production, supply, availability, distribution, utilization, transportation and handling of solid fuels;

3. Make recommendations to the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board, the Office of Production Management, the Office of Price Administration, the transportation agencies of the Federal Government and to any other appropriate Federal departments and agencies concerning measures relating to the production, storage, pooling, transportation, distribution, marketing and consumption of solid fuels for the purpose of promoting the maintenance of a ready and adequate supply at reasonable prices;

4. In cooperation with the solid fuels and related industries and with consumers of solid fuels, and in coordination with the Office of Production Management, carry on such programs as will promote economy and efficiency in the development, production, distribution, utilization, transportation and handling of solid fuels, and as will facilitate the operation of the solid fuels industries so as to meet the requirements of the national defense program;

5. Advise and make recommendations to the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board, the Office of Production Management, and other appropriate defense agencies with respect to the material, equipment and supplies which will be required by the solid fuels industries in producing, transporting, and distributing the tonnage needed for civilian and defense purposes;

6. Make other recommendations to appropriate Federal departments and agencies concerning measures affecting the supply and availability of solid fuels as may seem necessary from time to time.

In carrying out these responsibilities, the determinations of the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board and of the Office of Production Management will, of course, govern as to the requirements for national defense, direct and indirect, and as to the establishment and administration of priorities and allocations.

The heads of the agencies and departments concerned are being informed of this designation and I am requesting that they inform you in advance of any action proposed which may affect the maintenance of an adequate supply of solid fuels and of all meetings or conferences dealing with these problems.

I anticipate that you will use your present staff in the discharge of these responsibilities to the fullest extent possible. Within the limits of such funds as may be made available, you may make provision for the necessary services and facilities and you may employ necessary additional personnel, including the appointment or designation, with my approval, of an assistant to whom you may make any necessary delegation of functions.

Sincerely yours,

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

The Honorable
THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

(2) The adjusted net income, the dividends received of a class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (b), the interest received of a class with respect to which credit is allowed by section 26 (a), the short-term capital gains and losses and the long-term capital gains and losses as defined in section 117 (a), the net operating loss as defined in section 26 (c) (2) for the purpose of the net operating loss credit, the net operating loss as defined in section 122 (a) for the purpose of the net operating loss deduction, the amount of dividends paid, and the consent dividends credit allowed pursuant to section 28 shall be computed and determined in the case of each affiliated corporation in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if a separate return were filed, except—

(i) The net income used in any such computation shall be the net income of the corporation determined in accordance with the provisions of this section;

(ii) In the computation of the dividends received, there shall be excluded all dividends received from other members of the affiliated group;

(iii) In the computation of short-term capital gains and losses and long-term capital gains and losses, there shall be eliminated any gains or losses arising in intercompany transactions;

(iv) In the computation of the net operating loss as defined, either in section 26 (c) (2) or in section 122 (a), the provisions of this section pertaining to the determination of net income shall apply;

(v) In the computation of dividends paid, there shall be excluded all dividends paid by one member of the group to another; and

(vi) In the computation of the consent dividends credit, no amounts shall be included with respect to consents given by other members of the group.

(3) In no case shall there be included in the consolidated net operating loss carry-over under (b) (6) (iii) and (iv) of this section (relating to net operating losses sustained by a corporation in years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) an amount in excess of the net income of such corporation (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d)) included in the computation of the consolidated net income for the taxable year increased by the separate net short-term and long-term capital gains of such corporation.

(4) If a portion of the consolidated net operating loss carry-over arises pursuant to the provisions of (b) (6) (iii) or (iv) of this section (relating to losses sustained by a corporation prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its come is included in the consolidated return), the consolidated net operating loss deduction shall not be less than the amount of such portion reduced by the amount, if any, by which the net income of such corporation (computed with the exceptions and limitations provided in section 122 (d)) exceeds the normal-tax net income of such corporation (computed without any net operating loss deduction but taking into account any net long-term capital loss), or, in the case of two or more such corporations, the sum of such portions so reduced.

(5) If, in the computation of the consolidated net operating loss carry-over for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated returns of the group, there is involved the net operating loss separately sustained by such corporation for the second preceding taxable year together with a consolidated net operating loss for the taxable year in which such loss or such unused basic surtax credit originated and continuing to the date of the termination of the group, the group had been a single corporation, the common parent corporation; and no net operating loss or unused basic surtax credit attributable to a consolidated return period of a group shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction, the net operating loss credit, or the dividend carry-over of a subsidiary (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction, the consolidated net operating loss credit, or the consolidated dividend carry-over of another affiliated group of which such subsidiary becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group. No part of any unused basic surtax credit of a corporation for a year prior to the first consolidated return period of the affiliated group of which such corporation becomes a subsidiary shall be used in computing the dividend carry-over of such corporation (or the consolidated dividend carry-over of another affiliated group of which such subsidiary becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such unused basic surtax credit which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as attributable to the common parent corporation of the group for a year in which such common parent had no adjusted net income and no other basic surtax credit. No part of any net operating loss sustained by a corporation prior to the first consolidated return period of the affiliated group of which such corporation becomes a subsidiary shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of such corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction of another affiliated group of which such corporation becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such net operating loss which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as having been sustained by the common parent corporation of the group.

(6) If, in the computation of the consolidated dividend carry-over for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of a corporation is included in the consolidated return of the group, there is involved a separate unused basic surtax credit of such corporation for the second preceding taxable year together with a consolidated unused basic surtax credit for the second preceding taxable year, or if, for the second consolidated return period in respect of which the income of two or more members of the affiliated group is included in the consolidated return of the group, there are involved the separate unused basic surtax credits of such corporations for the second preceding taxable year, no portion of the excess of the consolidated adjusted net income over the consolidated basic surtax credit for the first preceding taxable year shall be taken into account more than once in giving effect to the provisions of (b) (15) (ii) and (iv) of this section relating to the computation of that part of the dividend carry-over attributable to the unused basic surtax credit of the second preceding taxable year.

PAR. 13. Section 23.31 is further amended by striking out the paragraph formerly designated as (d) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(f) Net operating loss deduction, net operating loss credit, and dividend carry-over after consolidated return period. The consolidated net operating loss (whether computed for the purpose of the deduction or the credit) or the unused consolidated basic surtax credit of an affiliated group for any consolidated return period of the group shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction, the net operating loss credit, or the dividend carry-over, as the case may be, in the return of the common parent corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction, the consolidated net operating loss credit, or the consolidated dividend carry-over in the consolidated return of another affiliated group of which such common parent becomes a member) for a taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group in the same manner, to the same extent, upon the same conditions, and subject to the same limitations as if, during the taxable year in which such loss or such unused basic surtax credit originated and continuing to the date of the termination of the group, the group had been a single corporation, the common parent corporation; and no net operating loss or unused basic surtax credit attributable to a consolidated return period of a group shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction, the net operating loss credit, or the dividend carry-over of a subsidiary (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction, the consolidated net operating loss credit, or the consolidated dividend carry-over of another affiliated group of which such subsidiary becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period of the group. No part of any unused basic surtax credit of a corporation for a year prior to the first consolidated return period of the affiliated group of which such corporation becomes a subsidiary shall be used in computing the dividend carry-over of such corporation (or the consolidated dividend carry-over of another affiliated group of which such subsidiary becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such unused basic surtax credit which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as attributable to the common parent corporation of the group for a year in which such common parent had no adjusted net income and no other basic surtax credit. No part of any net operating loss sustained by a corporation prior to the first consolidated return period of the affiliated group of which such corporation becomes a subsidiary shall be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of such corporation (or the consolidated net operating loss deduction of another affiliated group of which such corporation becomes a member) for any taxable year subsequent to the last consolidated return period, but any part of such net operating loss which, except for this restriction, might be so used shall be treated as having been sustained by the common parent corporation of the group.

(F) By striking out subdivision (v) (C) of subparagraph (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(C) With respect to distributions from such accumulated earnings and profits made during the taxable year by one member of the affiliated group to another member of the group, such accumulated earnings and profits of the distributee shall be increased in an amount equal to that by which such accumulated earnings and profits of the distributor are decreased.

(viii) In the computation of borrowed capital, there shall be excluded the amount of any outstanding indebtedness of the corporation owing to another member of the affiliated group;

(ix) In the computation of distributions from earnings and profits for the purposes of new capital computations, intercompany distributions shall be disregarded;

(I) By striking from subparagraph (6) the expression "(a) (31) (iii)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(a) (32) (iii)", and by inserting immediately preceding the period at the end of such subparagraph the following: "but with its net income computed subject to the provisions of (b) (1) (i) of this section".

PART 1352—FLOOR COVERINGS

MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 65—RESALE OF FLOOR COVERINGS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator resale prices of wool floor coverings have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to resale prices of wool floor coverings prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation. Price Schedule No. 65, which was issued by the Price Administrator on January 2, 1942, and was effective until March 5, 1942, dealt with the same subject matter as this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this Regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been prepared and is issued simultaneously herewith.[1]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 65 is hereby issued.

§ 1352.51 Maximum distributors' prices for wool floor coverings. On and after March 9, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no distributor shall sell or deliver any unit of wool floor covering at a price higher than the maximum price. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of wool floor coverings to a purchaser, if prior to March 9, 1942 such wool floor coverings had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(a) The maximum price for any unit of wool floor covering purchased and received by the distributor prior to January 2, 1942 shall be:

(1) the highest net price received by the distributor for the sale or delivery during the period October 1–October 13, 1941, inclusive, of an identical unit (or of a unit differing therefrom only in color or pattern) to the same person or a person in the same general class, or if there is no such person, to any person;

(2) or if no sale or delivery of an identical unit (or of a unit differing therefrom only in color or pattern) was made during such period, the maximum price shall be the highest net price received by the distributor for the sale or delivery during the period January 1–September 30, 1941, inclusive, of an identical unit (or of a unit differing therefrom only in color or pattern) to the same person or a person in the same general class, or if there is no such person, to any person;

(3) or if no sale or delivery of an identical unit (or of a unit differing therefrom only in color or pattern) was made during either of such periods, the maximum price shall be a price in line with the maximum price as determined by subparagraphs (1) or (2) of paragraph (a) of this Section, for related types, qualities and grades of wool floor coverings sold by such distributor during the period January 1–October 13, 1941, inclusive, to the same person or a person in the same general class, or if there is no such person, to any person:

Provided, That whenever the aggregate value (upon the basis of actual cost) of the undelivered portion of the units of wool floor coverings purchased and received by the distributor on or before January 1, 1942, becomes reduced to 10% or less of the aggregate value (upon the basis of actual cost) of the undelivered portion thereof on January 1, 1942, the distributor, after mailing to the Office of Price Administration a sworn statement on Form 165:3 (copies of which can be obtained from the Office of Price Administration) setting forth such facts, may sell or deliver any of such units of wool floor coverings at a price not in excess of the maximum price as determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) The maximum price for any other unit of wool floor covering shall be:

(1) the price quoted by the manufacturer of such unit in his current low-basis price list;

(2) or if the maximum price cannot be determined under subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this section, it shall be the price approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration, after the distributor has submitted to it an application containing (i) the name or other designation and the manufacturer of such unit, (ii) the proposed selling price of such unit, and (iii) such other data as the Office of Price Administration may request; and no sale or delivery of such unit shall be made until such approval shall have been given.*

*§§ 1352.51 to 1352.62, inclusive, issued pursuant to Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.

§ 1352.52 Deductions from maximum prices. The maximum price for any unit of wool floor covering, upon which the distributor has received a discount from the manufacturer because such unit is a drop, second, imperfect, trial-run, remnant, mill end, or other similar unit, shall be adjusted by deducting therefrom any such discount.*

§ 1352.53 Sales for export. In the case of sales for export, the maximum price for any unit of wool floor covering shall be determined in accordance with §§ 1352.51 and 1352.52, to apply f. o. b. port of exit, except as provided in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

(a) Where sales are made f. a. s. vessel, f. o. b. vessel, c. & f. destination, c. i. f. destination, or f. o. b. foreign destination, the maximum price may be increased by an amount not in excess of the cost of ocean freight, marine insurance, war risk or other standard charges legally authorized under the terms of sale, to the extent actually incurred by the distributor.

(b) The maximum price for any unit of wool floor covering may be increased by the actual cost of packing for export, if customarily charged as a separate item or where, because of the special character of the packing, additional expense is customarily necessary in order to provide for the safe carriage of the shipment: Provided, That such charge is authorized by the sales contract. In no event shall such charge exceed the actual cost for such packing.

(c) A distributor who sells or delivers for export, any unit of wool floor covering for his own account and risk, may add to the maximum price thereof an amount not in excess of the customary mark-up for a sale or delivery of a similar quality, type, quantity, and packing to the same or a comparable foreign market and to a purchaser of the same general class.

(d) A distributor who sells or delivers any unit of wool floor covering as an export agent, export commission house or export merchant, acting on behalf of and for the account of a foreign principal domiciled abroad and doing business out of headquarters abroad, may add to the maximum price thereof, commissions for buying or usual mark-ups, or charges for documentary and shipping services, not in excess of customary commissions or charges for similar services.*

§ 1352.54 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1352.51 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.*

§ 1352.55 Conditional agreements. No distributor shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1352.51, in the event that this Maximum Price Regulation No. 65 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception under § 1352.60) has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, and the Administrator determines that an exception would be in the public interest pending such consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this Section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment (or for adjustment or exception, as the case may be). Requests for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception under § 1352.60).*

§ 1352.56 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 65 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, or delivery of or relating to wool floor coverings, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.*

§ 1352.57 Records. Every distributor making a sale of wool floor coverings in the course of trade or business or otherwise dealing therein, after March 8, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than two years complete and accurate records of each sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the name, number, or other designation and the manufacturer of each unit, the net price received for each unit and the quantity sold.*

§ 1352.58 Reports. (a) On or before March 25 and on or before the twentieth day of each month thereafter every distributor of wool floor coverings shall submit to the Office of Price Administration a report on Form 165: 4 showing in the detail required by such Form a complete schedule of his inventory and sales of wool floor coverings. Copies of Form 165:4 may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Such distributors shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as the Office of Price Administration may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1352.59 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 65 are subject to the civil and criminal penalties provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 65 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1352.60 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any modification of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 65 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1352.61 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 65, the term:

CHAPTER XIII—OFFICE OF PETROLEUM COORDINATOR FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

[Recommendation No. 33, Amendment]

PART 1500—ADMINISTRATIVE: GENERAL

SPECIAL SUBCOMMITTEES FOR STATISTICAL INFORMATION

To the District Industry Committees, and to all persons in the petroleum industry:

The Congress of the United States has declared the existence of a state of war between the Government and the people of the United States and the Imperial Japanese Government, the Government of Germany, and the Government of Italy.

The diversion, for war and other essential purposes, of a part of the American tanker fleet normally providing transportation of petroleum and petroleum products for the needs of various areas of the United States has resulted in a shortage of tanker tonnage to serve those needs. The exigencies of warfare result in added imperative requirements for petroleum and petroleum products in many areas, reduce the efficiency of operations of tankers remaining in service, and impair the regularity of sailing schedules. These factors threaten, unless counteracted, to result in periods of scarcity of petroleum and petroleum products for essential needs in various areas of the United States dependent on or affected by tanker transportation.

It is imperative in the national interest that all possible steps be taken to avert or alleviate the serious adverse effects on the progress of the war effort and the public generally which such periods of scarcity of petroleum and petroleum products would occasion.

Therefore, pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, Recommendation No. 33 [1] (§§ 1508.17 to 1508.24, inclusive, of this chapter) is hereby amended to read, and the section numbering thereof changed, as follows:

§ 1500.22 Designation of special subcommittees; statistical information. When the General Committee for any District of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense shall find that a problem of petroleum supply or distribution exists which affects two or more of the natural divisions of the industry and therefore does not fall entirely within the jurisdiction of a single district functional committee, or affects two or more of the districts and therefore does not fall entirely within the jurisdiction of a single district, and shall further find that, for these reasons, it is necessary or desirable to designate special committees to analyze facts concerning the problem and to devise and carry into effect plans for the solution of the problem, then the Chairman of the General Committee shall, with the approval of the General Committee and of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense or the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator, designate such special committee with a title descriptive of the functions it is to perform and the area in which it is to operate. Any such special committee may be organized as a subcommittee of the District General Committee, or as a joint subcommittee so designated by the Chairman of the General Committees for two or more districts. Each subcommittee so designated shall obtain, analyze, and keep current all pertinent and available facts, figures, and other data with respect to the available supplies of and the demand for petroleum and petroleum products in the area for which it is designated and with respect to transportation facilities serving said area, and the information obtained by each such subcommittee shall be furnished currently to any other subcommittee so designated.*

*§§ 1500.22 to 1500.29, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in the President's letter of May 28, 1941, to the Secretary of the Interior (6 F.R. 2760).

§ 1500.23 Plans. (a) Each subcommittee designated pursuant to § 1500.22 shall devise and submit, with the approval of the District General Committee, to the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, from time to time as may be necessary or advisable, plans designed to facilitate and assure the distriution of supplies of petroleum and petroleum products available to the area in which such subcommittee is to operate, to meet in such area and in the order of statement, the needs of (1) the military forces of the United States, (2) the war industries, (3) the essential civilian requirements, and (4) other reasonable civilian requirements.

(b) Any plan prepared pursuant to this section may, without limitation as to other necessary or appropriate provisions:

(1) Analyze and determine the amounts of petroleum and petroleum products and the transportation facilities available to the area involved to meet the needs hereinabove described in such area;

(2) Provide for the exchange, loan, sale, lease, or pooling of petroleum products and of the physical facilities for the production and handling thereof wherever and to whatever extent may be necessary to supply in the area involved the amounts of petroleum and petroleum products prescribed pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.*

§ 1500.24 Effectuating plans. The subcommittees designated pursuant to § 1500.22 and all persons affected by any plan formulated in accordance with § 1500.23 shall, upon the approval of any such plan by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense and pursuant to the direction of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense or the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator, carry into effect such plan according to its terms, conditions and intent.*

§ 1500.25 Sale, exchange, and loan of petroleum products under emergency conditions. In cases of an emergency character which may arise pending approval of appropriate plans pursuant to § 1500.23 or which may not be adequately provided for under any such plan, any subcommittee designated pursuant to § 1500.22 or the executive secretary of such subcommittee shall, subject to the direction of the appropriate functional district director of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, coordinate and arrange for the sale, exchange or loan of petroleum and petroleum products among the various operators in said area to accomplish the objectives of §§ 1500.22 to 1500.29, inclusive.*

§ 1500.26 Distribution and division of available petroleum. Sales, exchanges, and loans of petroleum and petroleum products among the several operators pursuant to § 1500.25 shall be made in such manner, at such times, and in such amounts, as will result in the most efficient method of assuring a continuous supply of petroleum and petroleum products to meet war, defense, and essential civilian demands as they arise, and at the same time, so far as is not inconsistent therewith, will provide equal treatment for all operators affected thereby. The operators affected thereby shall comply with such arrangements and shall carry into effect such sales, exchanges, or loans of petroleum and petroleum products. The appropriate functional district director of each district shall promptly submit to the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense a full report on any action taken under the provisions of § 1500.25.*

§ 1500.27 Meetings. Meetings of subcommittees designated pursuant to § 1500.22, and other persons who may be affected, may be held from time to time for the purpose of preparing plans in the manner provided in § 1500.23 and of effectuating the provisions of §§ 1500.25 and 1500.26. The said subcommittees and persons affected may, after receipt of approval of any of the aforesaid plans by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense and of the direction of the Petroleum Coordinator or Deputy Petroleum Coordinator to carry such plan into effect, meet from time to time for the purpose of doing all things necessary to carry into effect any such plan in accordance with the purposes of §§ 1500.22 to 1500.29.

In carrying out their duties, responsibilities and functions, the subcommittees shall consult with the other committees and subcommittees in their respective Districts and in other Districts to the extent that proposals or activities hereunder may effect such other Districts, and to this end all such committees and subcommittees shall supply the said subcommittees with such information, material and assistance as may be necessary and desirable to carry into effect the purposes and intent hereof.*

§ 1500.28 Administration. The subcommittees designated pursuant to § 1500.22 of this chapter may maintain such staff and appoint such persons as they find necessary to carry out their duties, responsibilities and functions. The General Committees of the several Districts and the subcommittees may, from time to time, propose to the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense or to the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator changes in the membership of the said subcommittees and may submit nominations for new members. Operating expenses of the subcommittees shall be met as provided in § 1500.7 (j).*

§ 1500.29 Conflicting provisions. The provisions of §§ 1500.22 to 1500.28 shall supersede and cancel Recommendation No. 5 to the extent that there is any conflict therewith.*

R. K. DAVIES,
Deputy Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense.

[Recommendation No. 32]

PART 1503—PRODUCTION

FORMATION OF DRILLING UNITS

To the State regulatory agencies having jurisdiction over the exploration, development, production, or conservation of petroleum, to the respective Production Committees of the several Districts, to all producers of crude petroleum or natural gas and to all producers of liquid and gaseous hydro-carbons from condensate pools:

In order to facilitate the administration of paragraphs (c) (7) and (c) (8) of § 1047.1 (Conservation Order M-68, as amended[1]), the War Production Board has issued Amendment No. 3[2] of Conservation Order M-68, as amended, which defines the term "uniform well-spacing pattern." Such amendment, as well as the provisos included within such paragraphs, provides that separate property interests within the borders of drilling units of the prescribed size must be first consolidated before wells can be drilled thereon.

In order to avoid the creation of tracts within fields whose owners do not have the opportunity to participate in production, it is necessary that such tracts be consolidated with the adjoining tracts or drilling units within which they would most logically fall, irrespective of whether such consolidations occur prior or subsequent to the formation of such adjoining tracts into drilling units upon which wells are or are to be located. If a portion of the owners in a field fail or refuse to afford the remainder of such owners a reasonable opportunity to participate in the development thereof or the production derived therefrom, those who have been so deprived may apply for exceptions to those Orders which prohibit the use of material to drill wells except in specified instances, by reason of their own willingness to enter into reasonable consolidation agreements and the failure or refusal of the adjoining owners to undertake such consolidations.

To assure the development of the respective fields pursuant to uniform well-spacing patterns and, at the same time, to assure that the drilling units therein be so constructed as to afford all owners a reasonable opportunity to participate in development and production, it is necessary that the formation of drilling units be accomplished in such manner as will effectuate such policy.

Therefore, pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, I do hereby recommend that immediately and until further notice:

§ 1503.25 Formation of drilling units. All persons, natural or artificial, engaged in the exploration for, or development or production of petroleum, shall, in the construction or formation of drilling units pursuant to paragraphs (c) (7) and (c) (8) of Conservation Order M-68, as amended, upon which wells have been or are to be drilled, so construct or form such units as to afford all owners within each field a reasonable opportunity to participate in the development thereof and production derived therefrom. Whenever such participation can only be accomplished by consolidating all or parts of two or more adjoining tracts into a drilling unit or drilling units, such tracts or portions thereof as would not otherwise participate in the development of or production from a field shall be consolidated with the adjoining tracts or drilling units within which they would most logically fall. (President's letter, May 28, 1941, 6 F.R. 2760)

§ 1503.26 Applications for exceptions. Whenever a portion of the owners in a field refuse or fail to afford the remainder of such owners a reasonable opportunity to participate in the development thereof or the production derived therefrom, irrespective of whether such participation would be accomplished by consolidations occurring prior or subsequent to the formation of drilling units within adjoining tracts, those who have been so deprived should file, with the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, applications for consideration by the Division of Industry Operations of the War Production Board, requesting exceptions to those Orders which prohibit the use of material except in specified instances, setting forth, in addition to the information required by the appropriate Form, not only their willingness to enter into reasonable consolidation agreements but the circumstances surrounding the refusal of the adjoining owners to undertake such consolidations. PART 1504—PROCESSING AND REFINING

AVIATION GASOLINE

Pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, to the Secretary of the Interior (6 F.R. 2760) establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, § 1504.2 (Recommendation No. 8 dated August 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 5017) and § 1504.4 (Supplement dated December 2, 1941, to Recommendation No. 8, 6 F.R. 6329) are hereby amended, effective immediately and until further notice, to read as follows:

§ 1504.2 Use of blending agents. All persons, natural or artificial, engaged directly or indirectly in the production or manufacture of aviation gasoline or in the production or manufacture of gasolines containing blending agents of a petroleum origin, such as but not limited to, Iso-octanes, including alkylates, hot acid octanes, and hydrocodimers, Iso-pentanes, and Neo-hexanes, shall cease to use such blending agents except for the production and manufacture of 100-octane aviation gasoline or such other aviation gasolines as may hereafter be designated by the Office of the Petroleum Coordinator generally or in specific instances which, in the opinion of said Office, do not adversely affect or conflict with the war effort. (President's letter, May 28, 1941, 6 F.R. 2760)

§ 1504.4 Base stock of aviation gasoline of 85.0 octane number or less. All grades of gasoline used for aviation purposes having an octane number of 85.0 or less, as determined by the 1-C aviation method, shall be produced by the addition of tetraethyl lead to a clear gasoline having an octane number not greater than 67.0 as determined by the 1-C aviation method, except as may otherwise be designated by the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense in special cases which, in the opinion of said Office, do not adversely affect or conflict with the war effort. [Recommendation No. 36]

PART 1505—TRANSPORTATION

ALLOCATION OF TANKER TONNAGE, DISTRICT ONE

To the Transportation Committee for District One and to all persons, natural or artificial, owning, operating, chartering tankers or otherwise utilizing tanker space in District One:

The diversion for war and other essential purposes of a part of the American tanker fleet normally in Atlantic Coast service and the loss through war action of other tankers of that fleet has resulted in a shortage of tanker tonnage available for the transportation of petroleum and pertoleum products on the Atlantic Coast. Because of the exigencies of warfare, the efficiency of operation of the tankers remaining in this service has been reduced and the regularity of sailing schedules has been impaired. These factors threaten, unless abated, to result in a scarcity of petroleum and petroleum products in areas of the Atlantic Coast states dependent chiefly upon tanker transportation for petroleum.

It is imperative in the national interest that all steps be taken which will cause the most efficient utilization and operation of available tanker tonnage in order to render such threatened shortage less acute and, in so far as is not inconsistent therewith, to provide equitable sharing of available tanker tonnage among all affected units of the petroleum industry.

Therefore, pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, I do hereby recommend that immediately and until further notice:

*§§ 1505.55 to 1505.59, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in the President's letter of May 28, 1941, to the Secretary of the Interior (6 F.R. 2760).

§ 1505.59 Administration. In carrying out the duties, responsibilities, and functions under this Recommendation and any approved plan authorized herein, the Tanker Managing Subcommittee shall consult with the other committees and subcommittees in District One and with the committees in the other Districts to the extent that plans or activities hereunder may affect such other Districts, and to this end all such committees and subcommittees shall supply the Tanker Managing Subcommittee with such information, material and assistance as may be necessary and desirable to carry into effect the provisions of this Recommendation. The Tanker Managing Subcommittee shall maintain such staff and appoint such persons as it finds necessary to carry out its duties, responsibilities and functions under this Recommendation. The Transportation Committee or the said Subcommittee may propose from time to time to the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense or to the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator changes in the membership of the said Subcommittee and may submit nominations for new members. The Tanker Managing Subcommittee shall coordinate its activities under this Recommendation with the policies of the Tanker Coordinating Board established by the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense.*

R. K. DAVIES,

§ 7.14 Naval aviators. (a) Naval aviators of the Marine Corps Reserve, who are former aviation cadets, are eligible for appointment to the Regular Marine Corps, under the provisions of the Naval Aviation Personnel Act of 1940, in such numbers as the President may authorize and the authorized number of commissioned officers of the Marine Corps is increased accordingly.

(b) Such officers, on 30 June of the calendar year in which appointed, must have completed not less than 18 months of continuous active service next following the completion of their active duty as aviation cadets undergoing training and be less than twenty-six years of age. They must also establish their moral, physical, mental and professional qualifications to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy. They will be appointed in the Regular Marine Corps in the same grade occupied by them in the Marine Corps Reserve at the time of such appointment and will take precedence in such grade in accordance with the provisions of Article 13–41 (2), M.C.M.

(c) A board will be convened each year at Headquarters Marine Corps for the purpose of selecting recommended applicants for appointment in the Regular Marine Corps under the provisions of the Naval Aviation Personnel Act of 1940.

(d) To be eligible for consideration each applicant must meet the age and service requirements stated above and must be recommended therefor by his present commanding officer. Such recommendation must include a specific notation as to the moral and mental fitness of the applicant as determined from personal interviews. No applicant selected shall be appointed in the Marine Corps until he shall have successfully passed a physical examination before a board of naval medical examiners.

(e) In computing the pay of officers so appointed, credit for longevity shall be given them for all service, including service as aviation cadets, with which they have heretofore been credited.

(f) Each officer so appointed to the grade of second lieutenant and each officer so appointed to a grade above that of second lieutenant, shall, respectively, become eligible for promotion or for consideration by a selection board as of the date the line officer next junior to him at the date of appointment becomes so eligible.

(g) In applying the provisions of General Order No. 117 to officers so appointed, the phrase "marriage within two years subsequent to original commission" in paragraph 1 (b) shall be interpreted to mean two years from the date entering upon active duty undergoing training as aviation cadets. (54 Stat. 865) [Art. 13–182 M.C.M.]

§ 7.15 Duty on aircraft. The number of officers and enlisted men of the Marine Corps detailed to duty in aircraft shall after July 12, 1921 be in accordance with the requirements of naval aviation as determined by the Secretary of the Navy. (42 Stat. 141; 34 U.S.C. 732)

§ 7.16 Oath. The officers and enlisted men of the Marine Corps shall take the same oaths, respectively, which are provided by law for the enlisted men of the Army. (R.S. 1609; 34 U.S.C. 694)

§ 7.17 Care of insane. The Secretary of the Navy may cause persons in the Marine Corps who become insane while in the service to be placed in such hospital for the insane as in his opinion will be most convenient and best calculated to promise a restoration of reason. (R.S. 155; 39 Stat. 309; 34 U.S.C. 595)

§ 7.18 Marine band. The band of the United States Marine Corps shall consist of one leader with pay and allowances of a captain, one second leader, ten principal musicians, 25 first class, 20 second class, and ten third-class musicians. A member of the band shall not as an individual furnish music or accept an engagement to furnish music when such furnishing of music places him in competition with any civilian musician or musicians, and shall not accept or receive remuneration for furnishing music except under special circumstances when authorized by the President. (39 Stat. 612, 43 Stat. 1724, 44 Stat. 565; 34 U.S.C. 701) [Art. 25–131 M.C.M.]

§ 7.19 Deserters. (a) It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States or of any State, Territory, or District to arrest offenders, to summarily arrest a deserter from the Marine Corps and deliver him into the custody of the naval authorities. (35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1011)

(b) The President is authorized to remove the charge of desertion from the record of an enlisted man where he had subsequent honorable service in the World War, but no back pay or allowance or pension for service prior to the World War shall thereby accrue. (42 Stat. 1270; 34 U.S.C. 1017)

Sections 7.21 to 7.25 are amended to read as follows:

§ 7.22 Classes. The Marine Corps Reserve is divided into the Fleet, Organized, Volunteer, and Limited Service Marine Corps Reserve. (52 Stat. 1175; 34 U.S.C. 853a; Public Law 408, approved Jan. 20, 1942) [Art. 13–20 M.C.M.] The Fleet Marine Corps Reserve is composed of enlisted men transferred thereto after 16 or 20 years naval service and ex-officers and ex-enlisted men of the Regular Marine Corps who have been honorably discharged therefrom after not less than four years' service therein. (52 Stat. 1178; 34 U.S.C. 854 [Art. 13–20 M.C.M.] The Organized Marine Corps Reserve consists of officers and enlisted men required to perform annual training and other duties and be available for immediate mobilization, and assigned to organized units. (52 Stat. 1185; 34 U.S.C. 855p) [Art. 13–20 M.C.M.] The Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve is composed of those members of the Marine Corps Reserve not assigned to the Fleet, Organized or Limited Service Reserve, and who are qualified or partially qualified for prescribed mobilization duties. (52 Stat. 1185; 34 U.S.C. 855s) [Art. 13–20 M.C.M.] The Limited Service Marine Corps Reserve consists of men enlisted for duty as guards at naval shore activities within the continental limits of the United States to replace men qualified for combat duty. Men so enlisting are required to be physically qualified although they are not required to measure up in all respects to standards required for men subject to combat duty. (Public Law 408, approved January 20, 1942)

§ 7.23 Citizenship. Members of the Reserve must be male citizens of the United States or of the insular possessions. (52 Stat. 1176; 34 U.S.C. 853b) [Art. 13–50 M.C.M.]

§ 7.24 Rank and grade. There are allowed in the Reserve the various ranks and grades corresponding to those in the Regular Marine Corps, plus the rank of aviation cadet. (49 Stat. 156, 52 Stat. 1175, 53 Stat. 820; 34 U.S.C. 842 and 853a)

§ 7.25 Appointments as commissioned officers.—(a) Meritorious noncommissioned officers. Meritorious noncommissioned officers of the Regular Marine Corps and Marine Corps Reserve may be commissioned second lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve, depending on the needs of the service, provided they meet the following conditions:

(1) Be over 20 and not over 27 years of age when commissioned.

(2) Have served one year in the Marine Corps on the date of appointment. Only service in the Regular Marine Corps or on active duty in the Marine Corps Reserve will be credited in computing this length of service.

(3) Be a citizen of the United States or of its insular possessions and a noncommissioned officer.

(4) Be recommended for a reserve commission by his commanding officer.

(5) Be qualified for a commission as established by standing in his community, character, appearance, manner and bearing, and capacity for leadership.

(6) Have the physical qualifications prescribed for officers of the Regular Marine Corps.

(7) Present satisfactory evidence of educational qualifications as prescribed for noncommissioned officer applicants for regular commissions.

(b) Graduates of platoon leaders' classes. Graduates of platoon leaders' classes may qualify for commission by the successful completion of the senior course and:

(1) Make application, in writing, for appointment to commissioned rank in the Marine Corps Reserve.

(2) Furnish documentary evidence of graduation with a degree from college. Graduates who do not possess a degree from college must meet the educational qualifications prescribed for noncommissioned officer applicants for regular commissions.

(3) Furnish birth certificate or sworn affidavit of parents showing date and place of birth.

(4) Furnish a report of physical examination.

(c) Any specially desirable or qualified candidates for commission who do not meet the foregoing requirements, and whose services are required, may be appointed not above the rank of major, upon specific recommendation of the Commandant of the Marine Corps for assignment to the special duty for which qualified. [Art. 13–51 M.C.M.]

Section 7.27 (Enlistments) is amended by amending paragraphs (c) and (d), deleting paragraphs (h) and (k) and renumbering (i) and (j), to (h) and (i) respectively.

(c) The physical requirements for enlistment in or assignment to the Fleet, Organized, or Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve will be the same as those prescribed for enlistment in the Regular Marine Corps, except that waivers may be granted by the Commandant of the Marine Corps for enlistment in the Volunteer and Limited Service Marine Corps Reserve in the case of applicants whose physical defects are not such as to prevent them from performing limited duty on shore in the United States.

(d) To be acceptable for first enlistment in the Marine Corps Reserve, applicants must not be less than 17 or more than 35 years of age, except that in cases where the applicant has served honorably in the Regular Marine Corps and in other exceptional cases, the upper age limit may be waived by the Commandant of the Marine Corps. An applicant under 21 years of age is required to furnish the written consent of his parent(s) or guardian(s). With the exception of men enlisted for the Limited Service Marine Corps Reserve, men over 35 years of age will not be reenlisted after 3 months expiration from date of discharge, unless in special cases, the age limit is waived by the Commandant of the Marine Corps.

* * * * *

Section 7.28 (Aviation cadets) is added.

§ 7.28 Aviation cadets. (a) Aviation cadets shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Navy from male citizens of the United States under such regulations as he may prescribe. (49 Stat. 156, 53 Stat. 820; 34 U.S.C. 842) An applicant must be not less than 20 years at the time of appointment in the Marine Corps Reserve, and not over 27 years of age at the time the training course is completed; be unmarried during the first two years of training; agree to remain on active duty for four years; agree to maintain flying efficiency by associating himself with a Marine Corps Reserve aviation unit, after completing his training and required active duty; be physically, mentally, morally, and psychologically qualified; and submit five letters of recommendation signed by persons of recognized standing in the community in which the applicant resides.

(b) While on active duty undergoing training, aviation cadets will receive pay at the rate of $75 per month, which pay shall include extra pay for flying risk as provided by law, plus a subsistence allowance at the rate of $1 per diem. (49 Stat. 157; 34 U.S.C. 843) During their period of active duty aviation cadets will be issued Government life insurance in the amount of $10,000, the premiums of which shall be paid by the Government. Upon discharge or completion of active duty aviation cadets will have the option of continuing such policies at their own expense. (49 Stat. 157; 34 U.S.C. 849).

SUPPLIES AND SERVICES

§ 7.50 Authorized purchases. (a) No contract or purchase shall be made unless it is authorized by law, or is under an appropriation adequate to its fulfillment, except for clothing, subsistence, forage, fuel, quarters, or transportation, which, however, shall not exceed the necessities of the current year. (R.S. 3732; 34 Stat. 255; 41 U.S.C. 11) No officer of the Marine Corps shall accept voluntary service for the Government or employ personal service in excess of that authorized by law, except in case of emergency involving loss of life or destruction of property. (R.S. 3679; 33 Stat. 1257, 34 Stat. 48; 31 U.S.C. 665)

(b) Persons from whom purchases not authorized. Officers will not purchase supplies for the Marine Corps from any other person in the military or naval service, nor contract with any such person to furnish supplies or service to the Corps, nor make any Government purchase or contract in which such person shall be admitted to share or receive benefit except as a member of an incorporated company. (34 U.S.C. 1200, Art. 11) [Art. 18–2 M.C.M.]

(c) Advance of public moneys. No advance of public money shall be made in any case whatever. And in all cases contracts for the performance of any service, or the delivery of articles of any description, for the use of the United States, payment shall not exceed the value of the service rendered, or of the articles delivered previous to such payment. Partial payments not in excess of value of work done may be made during progress of work on contracts. (37 Stat. 32; 34 U.S.C. 582)

§ 7.51 Specifications of proposals. Information in regard to supplies or services for which proposals have been invited will be furnished, on application, to all persons desiring it, but no person belonging to or employed in the military or naval service will render assistance in the preparation of proposals. (R.S. 3716; 26 Stat. 197, 27 Stat. 243, 27 Stat. 724; 34 U.S.C. 561)

§ 7.52 Specifications of supplies. (a) Bidders for supplies will be informed of the kind, quantity, quality, sizes, dimensions, etc., of articles desired, the place, time, and rate of delivery, conditions of payment, and the date, hour, and place appointed for the opening of proposals. They will be furnished with such specifications as have been adopted and will be permitted to examine the standard samples at the places where deposited. [Art. 18–21 M.C.M.]

(b) In order that bidders may be fully informed of the basis on which the purchasing officer intends to make the award, there will be indicated on each request for proposals by entering thereon "Award will be made by item" or "Award will be made either by item or for the lot, as may be most advantageous to the Government," according to which of these methods it is intended to follow.

(c) Time of delivery. When proposals for bids inform prospective bidders that time of delivery will be considered an important factor in making awards, and a higher bidder is awarded the contract because of proposing to make delivery within a shorter period of time than the low bidder, and the contractor is delinquent in making delivery within the specified time, there will be deducted from the contract price a proportionate amount of the difference between the low bid and the accepted bid, based on the ratio between the number of days' delay in making delivery to the difference in time stated in the accepted figure and the low figure. For example: John Doe Co. bids $50 on an item and proposes to effect delivery within 10 days; James Smith Co. bids $60 on the same item and proposes to effect delivery within 4 days. The bid of the latter is accepted, but this firm effected delivery 5 days beyond the specified time. There should be deducted five-sixths of $10 as actual damages, there being a difference of $10 in price and 6 days in time of delivery, and the contractor was 5 days delinquent. (9 Comp. Gen. 65) [Art. 18–21 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.53 Repairs to motor vehicles and other mechanical devices. Bids for repairs to motor vehicles which involve both spare parts and labor should be drawn to include an itemized list of prices of spare parts which it is estimated will be required, with the understanding that only such parts as are actually used will be paid for, and an hourly rate for the labor not exceeding an aggregate maximum therefor. No aggregate amount will be stated for spare parts and only such of the repair parts listed as are actually used will be vouchered for payment. (Comp. Gen. A–30702, Feb. 28, 1930.) The same method will be followed in connection with obtaining bids and vouchering accounts covering repairs to electric refrigerators and other mechanical devices. Bids must include the provisions of the 8-hour-labor law in accordance with an act approved June 19, 1912. (37 Stat. 137–38, 39 Stat. 1192; 40 U.S.C. 324–26) [Art. 18–22 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.54 Bidders for labor. Bidders for labor will be informed of the nature and extent of the services required and where they are to be performed. They will be furnished with or allowed to examine plans and specifications of all work upon which they desire to bid and in general will be furnished with any information needed to enable them to act understandingly. [Art. 18–24 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.55 Duplicate proposals. When the amount involved will probably exceed $500, the purchasing officer will require bidders to submit their proposals in duplicate, in strict accordance with the requirements of the advertisement or specifications. When the amount involved is not likely to exceed $500, bidders need not be required to submit their proposals in duplicate. However, a duplicate copy, complete except as to signature of the bidder, will be prepared by the purchasing officer in all cases to be attached to the memorandum copy of the voucher when forwarded to the disbursing officer for payment. Proposals should make specific reference to the advertisements, if any, and to any plans or specifications which may have been furnished. [Art. 18–25 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.56 Method of signing proposals. Each proposal should give the full business address of the bidder and be signed by him with his usual signature. Proposals by partnerships should be signed with the partnership name by one of the members of the partnership, followed by the signature and designation of the person signing. Proposals by corporations should be signed with the name of the corporation, followed by the signature and designation of the president, secretary, or other person authorized to bind it in the matter. A proposal signed by a person who affixes to his signature the word "president," "secretary," "agent," or other designation, without disclosing his principal, may be held to be the proposal of the individual signing. If the signature to a proposal is that of an officer, attorney, or agent of a corporation, or of an attorney or agent of a firm or individual, the officer who opens such proposal should, before considering it, satisfy himself that the signer is vested with sufficient authority to act for his principal, and unless fully satisfied on this point should require him to file evidence of his authority to do so. [Art. 18–26 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.57 Unit price of proposals. In proposals numbers and prices will be expressed in figures, and will ordinarily provide for both unit price and extension of each item. The unit price will govern in case of error. It will be sufficient if specifications are referred to and are declared to form a part of the proposal. [Art. 18–27 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.58 Erasures or interlineations. Erasures or interlineations should be explained by the bidder, in the proposal, over his signature. [Art. 18–28 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.59 Guarantying proposals. (a) Every proposal exceeding $500 in total amount shall be accompanied by a guaranty (in duplicate) executed by an authorized bonding company or two responsible persons, or in lieu of such guaranty, by a certified check payable to the order of the Secretary of the Navy, for 25 percent of the full amount of the proposal, unless the bidder has an approved annual guaranty on file in the office of the Quartermaster, and no such proposal unaccompanied by the required guaranty or certified check will be considered. The guaranty must be made out and executed, with the proper justification, in the form shown on Standard Form 24 or Standard Form 31. Neither bidders nor their employees, agents, or partners will be accepted as guarantors. (R.S. 3719–20; 29 Stat. 136, 34 Stat. 841, 36 Stat. 951; 34 U.S.C. 562 to 564)

(b) Custody and disposition of United States bonds, notes, and certified checks. (1) Certified checks furnished in lieu of other form of guaranty shall be retained in the custody of the purchasing officer and shall not be negotiated even in case of default, nor taken into the official Treasury accounts, except by direction of the Quartermaster. United States bonds or notes furnished in lieu of other form of guaranty shall be forwarded immediately to the Quartermaster for deposit with the Treasurer of the United States.

(2) If the officer who opens the bids does not consummate the purchase, such guaranties will be forwarded with the proposals to the office actually consummating the purchase.

(3) Certified checks received with bids which are rejected shall be returned to the unsuccessful bidders without delay after award of the items on their bids.

(4) A certified check received with the bid which is accepted shall be retained by the purchasing officer until the covering contract and surety bond are in hand; then it shall be returned without delay to the proper bidder. However, if the bidder so requests, such certified check may be retained and be applied as part of the requisite bond on his contract, provided the regulations promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury, as set forth in Treasury Department Circular No. 154, are complied with.

(5) Certified checks may be returned to bidders by hand-to-hand delivery, receipts to be taken therefore, and in case of delivery by mail, proper record will be maintained. Certified checks returned by mail need not be registered. [Art. 18–29 M.C.M.*]

§ 7.60 Delivery of proposals. (a) Proposals, with their guaranties, will be securely sealed in suitable envelopes, endorsed and addressed as required by the advertisement, and must be in the possession of the officer addressed before the hour appointed for the opening.

(b) Proposals received prior to the time of opening will be securely kept. The officer whose duty it is to open them will decide when that time has arrived. No proposals received thereafter will be considered, except that when a proposal arrives by mail after the time fixed for the opening, but before the award is made, and it is clearly shown that the nonarrival on time was due solely to delay in the mails, for which the bidder was not responsible, such proposal will be received and considered. (R.S. 3718, R.S. 3714; 19 Stat. 249, 26 Stat. 197, 27 Stat. 243, 27 Stat. 724, 42 Stat. 24; 34 U.S.C. 560–61) [Art. 18–30 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.61 Right to withdraw bid. A bidder has a right to withdraw his bid at any time prior to the time fixed for opening. Where there is a mistake in a proposal submitted and notice thereof is given and request for withdrawal made by the bidder after bids have been opened, but before award is made, and the difference in the bids received is sufficient to put the contracting officer on notice as to the probability of a mistake in the low bid, the request for withdrawal may not be granted and award made to the next lowest bidder. For the purpose of determining the correction of withdrawal of such bid before acceptance on the basis of a mistake alleged after the opening of bids the evidence of mistake must be such as to show conclusively that a mistake was made, of what it consists, and how it occurred, requiring the immediate presentation of such convincing proof of the existence and character of the error as to leave no room for doubt that there was in fact a bona fide mistake in the bid sought to be corrected or withdrawn and to remove any reasonable suspicion that the claim of error is for the purpose of obtaining some undue advantage or of avoiding the consequence of an ill-advised bid. Such facts will be submitted to the General Accounting Office via the Quartermaster for determination as to whether the erroneous bid may be withdrawn, but in urgent cases where the Government's needs will not permit of the delay incident to such procedure the bid should be accepted and the bidder instructed to perform services, leaving the matter of price to be determined subsequently by the Comptroller General. (8 Comp. Gen. 397) [Art. 18–31 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.62 Items involving tax. (a) Proposals for the purchase of motor fuels, lubricants, and other items which usually involve a tax will contain the following clause: "The prices herein quoted are net prices exclusive of any State or local tax imposed on the purchase or sale of the product herein named, the United States not being liable directly or indirectly for the payment of such tax." (Panhandle Oil Co. v. State of Mississippi, 277 U. S. 218)

(b) In the purchase, for exclusive Government use, of motor fuels, lubricants, or other commodities which are subject to Federal, State, or local taxes, the following standard forms have been prescribed and will be used by personnel traveling on official business in Government-owned motor vehicles; No. 1094—United States Government Tax Exemption Certificate; No. 1094a—Cover of United States Government Tax Exemption Certificate Book; No. 1094b— Tabulation sheet; and No. 1094c—United States Government Tax Exemption Identification Card. If the merchandise purchased is not subject to any tax, or if subject only to the Federal tax and such tax is included in the price paid, these forms should not be used; nor should they be used by officers, enlisted men, or civilian employees when performing travel by their personally owned motor vehicles for which a mileage allowance is authorized.

(c) In order to secure exemption from a tax in the purchase of motor fuels, etc., for exclusive Government use, the purchaser should be properly identified by means of Standard Form 1094c, United States Government Tax Exemption Identification Card.

(d) Standard Form 1094 will be used in all cases where a State or local tax is attached at the time of sale, and will indicate, in the space provided for such purpose, whether the tax is included or excluded from the purchase price. If excluded, the form will be properly completed and given to the vendor for his use in claiming exemption from payment of the tax to the State or local taxing agency. If included, the signature of the vendor will be obtained and the form transmitted with the cash-payment voucher, Form NMC–727, to the disbursing officer who advanced funds for the purchase. Standard Form 1094 may also be used when the merchandise purchased is subject to Federal Tax and such tax is excluded from the price paid. A separate certificate will be prepared for each kind of tax involved (Federal, State, local, etc.).

(e) When Standard Form 1094 is received by a disbursing officer because of payment of a State or local tax, as provided by paragraph (d) of this section the disbursing officer will bill the State or local taxing agency for refund of the taxes paid. Upon receipt of refund, the amount involved will be taken up in the disbursing officer's accounts and credited to the appropriation charged with the expenditure, making proper reference on the collection voucher to the voucher on which payment for the merchandise was made. In the event the disbursing officer fails to secure refund of the amount of taxes paid, he will insert the number of the voucher covering payment for the merchandise in the space provided in the lower right-hand corner of the tax-exemption certificate and transmit the form, with all correspondence relating thereto, to the General Accounting Office, for use by that office in securing refund.

(f) The above forms may be obtained by requisition to the Quartermaster, and care will be exercised to prevent their unauthorized use. A strict record of the forms by serial number will be maintained, and semi annual reports will be made to the Quartermaster on September 30 and March 31, showing the balance of United States Government Tax Exemption Certificates and United States Government Tax Exemption Identification Cards on hand at the beginning of the period, the number of each received during the period, the number of each issued during the period, and the balance on hand at the end of the period.

(g) In addition to the above forms, receipts in triplicate on Form NMC–867 will be obtained in connection with all cash purchases, the original to be attached in support of the original cash payment voucher, Form NMC–727, and the duplicate and triplicate copies attached to the duplicate and triplicate copies of the cash payment voucher.

(h) Standard Form 1094 may also be used where purchases are made under contract providing for deliveries extending over a period of time, in which case a certificate may be issued by the purchasing officer and given to the contractor to support invoices covering actual deliveries of the commodity and in the quantity stated. [Art. 18–32 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.63 Opening of proposals. Proposals will be opened and read aloud at the time and place appointed for the opening (bidders having the right to be present), and each proposal will then and there be numbered and entered on an abstract, the items being entered in the order in which they appear on the proposals. If the number of proposals is large, those relating to specific articles or classes of articles may be entered on separate abstracts. The number of each proposal, with the quantities and prices of articles offered and dates of delivery, will appear in the proper columns, and a copy of the advertisement or notice under which the proposals are received, with a copy of the specifications, if any, will be attached to the upper left-hand corner of the abstract. When two or more sheets are used for the abstract they will be properly fastened together and paged on the upper right-hand corner. (R.S. 3710; 41 U.S.C. 8) [Art. 18–33 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.64 No award. In case the Government desires to change the specifications in any manner after proposals have been received and opened, all proposals shall be rejected and new proposals, embodying the changed specifications advertised for. [Art. 18–34 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.65 Substantial compliance. Slight failures by a bidder to comply strictly with the terms of an advertisement should not necessarily lead to the rejection of his bid, but the best interests of the Government will be fully considered in making the award. Delivery of supplies of an inferior quality, under a previous agreement, by a firm, does not in itself constitute sufficient grounds for the rejection of a low bid from such firm under subsequent opening of bids and the acceptance of a higher bid. (Comp. Gen. MS. Dec. A–7852, March 16, 1925) [Art. 18–35 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.66 To lowest responsible bidder. Except in rare cases, when the United States elects to exercise the right to reject proposals, awards will be made to the lowest responsible bidder, provided that his bid is reasonable, is in accordance with specifications, and that it is to the interest of the Government to accept it. The awarding officer will, when necessary, prior to making an award, satisfy himself that the low bidder is qualified and in a position to complete the contract satisfactorily. The determination of award where discounts are offered in bids is a matter for decision by the purchasing officer. If, by reason of the offered discount, a bid is low and there appears, in the judgment of the purchasing officer, reasonable certainty that the performance of the necessary administrative duties in connection with the receipt, inspection, and payment is practicable of accomplishment, the bid should be accepted; if not, the bid should not be regarded as low. [Art. 18–36 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.67 Entries to be made on abstract. A notation indicating the accepted bid will be made on the abstract of proposals. If a bid is rejected and one at a higher price accepted, the reason for the rejection will also be noted on the abstract. When no award requiring the execution of a contract is made on a set of proposals, the reasons for rejection must be certified on rejected proposals. When contracts are made, the fact will be stated on the abstract. [Art. 18–37 M.C.M.]*

§7.68 Purchases of less than $500. (a) The purchase of supplies and the procurement of services for all branches of the naval service may be made in open market in the manner common among business men, without formal contract or bond, when the aggregate of the amount required does not exceed $500, and when, in the opinion of the proper administrative officers, such limitation of amount is not designed to evade purchase under formal contract or bond, and equally or more advantageous terms can thereby be secured. (34 Stat. 1193; 34 U.S.C. 571)*

(b) Purchases in the manner common among business men. (1) Officers appointed for Assistant Quartermaster duty only, officers serving under their direct supervision, and such other officers as are specifically designated by the Quartermaster, are authorized to make purchases of articles and to procure services on approved requisitions in a direct manner such as is common among business men.

(2) No article, material, or services may be purchased in this manner which, under other instructions, require procurement thereof from or through some other department or establishment of the Government.

(3) Services of continuous nature, such as water, electric power, etc., required from month to month will be procured under written contract in the usual manner.

(4) The limit of cost of any one item or group of items of similar material that may be so purchased is $500.

(5) The authority contained herein is not intended to be used as a means to circumvent the established methods of procurement nor to obtain special or nonstandard material in contravention of existing regulations and orders. The methods of purchase provided in § 7.70 (a) (2) and (3) will be used in all cases except those in which it is to the best interests of the Government to make the purchases in the manner common among business men.

(6) Procedure. Under this authority, the purchasing officer may purchase articles or services without advertisement and without formal bids or written awards. Bids may be obtained orally (over the counter), by telephone, by telegraph, or by written invitations. Competition should be secured whenever it is practicable to do so without delaying procurement, unduly increasing the work involved in the procurement, or otherwise obviating the benefits derived by this method of purchase. A written record showing the form of bids (oral, telephonic, telegraphic, or written) will be made of bids received and kept in files of the purchasing officer. When competition is obtained, the order will be placed with the dealer quoting the lowest price for satisfactory delivery. The order may be placed in writing, or orally (over the counter), by telephone, or by telegraph, and written confirmation is not required. Public voucher (Standard Form 1034) will be prepared, based on dealer's invoice in the prescribed manner. In the administrative certificate on the face of the public voucher, in the blank following "No." enter the figure "4"; on back of the public voucher, the "Method or absence of advertising," enter opposite "4" the words "Act of March 2, 1907 (34 Stat. 1193)." Purchases of articles of small value in the manner common among business men are not covered by written agreement, therefore, neither proposal form (NMC–26), purchase order (NMC–18 (Revised)), nor statement and certificate of award (Standard Form 1036), will be required. [Art. 18–38 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.69 Purchase over or under $500. (a) With the exception of those stations where officers are empowered to execute contracts, and unless otherwise directed, when proposals are received for one or more items and the amount of any award thereunder exceeds $500, all proposals will be forwarded to the Quartermaster with suitable recommendations for awards. The Quartermaster will make all awards thereunder and will prepare formal contract and bond for awards exceeding $500. In placing orders for deliveries under schedules where both formal and informal contracts are involved, the Quartermaster will use letters of award in making awards in all cases where the amount involved is $500 or less and the quantities covered are approximate, and will use the purchase orders (Form NMC–18), where the amount is $500 or less and the quantities covered are definite. Under such awards where it is necessary to assign contract symbol numbers the Statement and Certificate of Awards (Standard Form 1036), will be prepared, attached to the purchase order or letter of award, and forwarded direct to the General Accounting Office. Where it is not necessary to number such awards, the original order or copy of letter of award with the Statement and Certificate of award will be forwarded direct to the disbursing officer concerned for attaching to voucher and transmittal to the General Accounting Office. In such cases where awards are made by the Quartermaster, it will not be necessary for the post to attach copies of the purchase orders or letters of award in vouchering accounts for payment. These copies are to be retained for the records of the post.

(b) When no award exceeds $500, the purchasing officer is authorized to place orders. In such cases a signed copy of the purchase order prepared on NMC–18, will be sent to the successful bidder by the purchasing officer, and the original signed purchase order will be kept with the proposal or agreement.

(c) In urgent cases when the amount of any award exceeds $500 and where immediate award is necessary, the officer receiving the bids should obtain telegraphic authority from the Quartermaster to make awards, and should then forward all bids received, together with abstract of bids, and copies of all awards, to the Quartermaster for the preparation of formal contracts where required. Such letters of award involving more than $500 should state that formal contract will be forwarded by the Quartermaster.

(d) At stations, other than Headquarters, where purchasing officers are empowered to execute contracts, awards amounting to $500 or less under a schedule or set of proposals involving the execution of a contract in connection with any other item or items on the same schedule or set of proposals will be made by letter if the quantities are approximate, and by purchase order if the quantities are definite. If such awards involve more than one payment, contract symbol numbers will be assigned at the time awards are made. Copies of the letters of award, or original signed purchase orders, together with properly accomplished statement and certificate of award (Standard Form 1036), will be forwarded by letter direct to the General Accounting Office at least once a month where contract symbol numbers have been assigned, and those proposals or statement and certificates of awards which do not involve contract numbers will be attached to the vouchers covering the awards.

(e) Where several awards are made under one set of proposals covering purchases not in excess of $500, all of the proposals received from bidders will be forwarded to the disbursing officer paying the accounts immediately upon placing orders; each accepted proposal to be supported by the original signed purchase order and a statement and certificate of award (Standard Form 1036). The approved open purchase requisition or authority for purchase will be forwarded with the first set of proposals. Where only one award is made, all proposals, together with the purchase order and statement and certificate of award will be attached to the voucher when forwarded for payment.

(f) Each set of proposals with the papers pertaining thereto will be securely fastened together with a paper fastener (not pasted or otherwise permanently fastened together) before being forwarded to the disbursing officer.

(g) Purchase order.—The purchase order, Form NMC–18, when properly executed, constitutes the acceptance in cases of purchases made under written proposals and acceptance not involving the execution of a formal contract, as well as the order for the articles or services offered by the successful bidder, except where in certain cases the use of a letter of award has been authorized. It will be prepared in quadruplicate, addressed to the bidder whose bid has been accepted, and the original and duplicate signed by the purchasing officer. The original and quadruplicate must be attached to the agreement, or first voucher submitted for payment, the duplicate forwarded to the person, firm, or corporation to whom it is addressed (the vendor), and the triplicate retained. This form will also be used when emergency purchases are made on bids obtained orally, either in person or by telephone. (See sec. 7.86)

(h) In placing orders for supplies or services, the letters of award, or purchase orders, will make request on contractors that their bills be rendered in quadruplicate, or in accordance with the number of copies of the bills required. [Art. 18–39 M.C.M.]*

FORMS OF AGREEMENT

§ 7.70 Purchase of supplies or engagement for services. (a) A purchase of supplies or engagement of services will be made:

(1) By contract, reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties with their names at the end thereof. Agreements of this character only are termed "contracts" in these regulations for supplies and services. This method will, subject to such exceptions as may be duly authorized by regulations, be used when the amount involved exceeds $500, or when delivery, or performance does not immediately follow the award. (R.S. 3744; 40 Stat. 198; 41 U.S.C. 16)

(2) By less formal agreement. By written proposal and written acceptance. This method may be resorted to when delivery, or performance immediately follows award, or when specifically authorized, and when the amount involved is $500, or less.

(3) By informal agreement. This method may be used under circumstances indicated in the following paragraph if delivery, or performance immediately follows the agreement, and will include oral agreements immediately executed. (17 Comp. Gen. 302)

(b) An open-market purchase of supplies or engagement of services is one made without advertising, in the manner in which one person in civil life ordinarily purchases from another in private business, and is authorized in the following cases:

(1) In an emergency, as when the public exigencies require immediate delivery or performance, and there is not time to advertise by newspapers, posters, or circulars. (§§ 7.85 and 7.87)

(2) When it is impracticable to secure competition.

(3) When proposals have been invited, and none have been received.

(4) When proposals are above the market price, or otherwise unreasonable.

(5) As authorized by Act of March 2, 1907. (34 Stat. 1193; 34 U.S.C. 571) [Art. 18–40 M.C.M.]*

CONTRACTS

§ 7.71 Forms used. Contracts for supplies and services will be made on forms furnished by the Quartermaster's Department in cases where such forms are applicable. No deviation will be made from these standard forms, except as provided for in the directions, without prior approval of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget obtained via the Quartermaster, through the Procurement Division, Treasury Department. Where interlineations, deletions, additions or other alterations are permitted, specific notation of the same shall be entered in the blank space following the article entitled "Alterations" before signing. All conditions of the contract will be stated therein as fully and clearly as possible. [Art. 18–42 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.72 Public utility services. Contracts, whether formal or informal, will be entered into for public utility services such as telephone, gas, electric current, steam, power, and water. Standard Form 40 will be used in contracting for telephone services at all posts and stations, except those obtaining such services under agreements entered into by other departments or establishments of the Federal Government, the form to be prepared strictly in accordance with the instructions printed on the reverse thereof. Formal contracts will be executed to cover utility services when the amount during the fiscal year is likely to exceed $500 (§ 7.69 (a)), and informal contracts will be made in all cases when the amount involved is less than $500 during the fiscal year. The informal transactions may be accomplished by obtaining letters of quotation or contract forms of utility concerns properly filled in and signed by duly authorized representatives of such concerns, except in the case of telephone services which will be handled as herein explained. [Art. 18–43 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.73 With regular dealer. No person shall be received as a contractor who is not a manufacturer of, or regular dealer in, the articles which he offers to supply. A person to be a regular dealer, within the meaning of the law, must be regularly engaged in the business of buying the articles and selling the same to the general public. (R.S. 3722; 34 U.S.C. 572) [Art. 18–44 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.74 By whom made. Contracts for supplies and services will be made in the name of the United States, and will be signed by the Quartermaster or other officer designated by him. They will not be made at posts unless authorized by the Quartermaster. [Art. 18–45 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.75 How signed. (a) When a contract is entered into with a partnership, the firm name should be given in the body of the instrument, and it may be signed with the name of the firm by one of the partners, who will append his own signature over the remark "Member of firm."

(b) A contract with a corporation should have the name of the corporation written in the body of the instrument, as one of the parties thereto, and should be signed by the officer or person authorized to contract in its behalf, who should sign the corporate name and his own, followed by his official designation. Evidence of his authority to sign contracts on behalf of the corporation must be furnished and filed in the office of the contracting officer (unless already on file there) whenever the contracts amount to $500 or over. In all such cases the contract will be indorsed or stamped immediately following the signature thereto, "Authority for signature on file in the office of (official designation of contracting officer.)"

(c) When the contract amounts to less than $500, and in cases of service contracts with public-service corporations, such as telegraph and telephone companies, etc., executed by officers or officials thereof who are authorized to and do sign service contracts on behalf of such corporations with the public generally, it is not necessary to file with the contract the evidence of authority to sign called for in the preceding paragraph. In all such cases the contracting officer must satisfy himself that the person signing on behalf of the corporation is authorized to do so, and place on or attach to the contract the following certificate:

I certify that I have satisfied myself that the (officer, or official, as the case may be), who signed this contract has authority to do so, being an (officer, or official, as the case may be) who signs similar contracts on behalf of the corporation with the public generally.

§ 7.76 Distribution of copies. (a) After the contract has been executed the necessary copies will be prepared the distribution thereof made as follows: The original will be forwarded immediately to the General Accounting Office, audit division; but where it is accompanied by a bond on which an approved surety company appears as surety, it will be forwarded to the Judge Advocate General, Navy Department, for transmission by him through the section of surety bonds to the General Accounting Office; one copy will be forwarded to the Quartermaster, one to the contractor, one to the contracting officer (or officer at the place where the services are to be performed or supplies delivered, when the Quartermaster is the contracting officer), and one to the Returns Office of the General Accounting Office. Drawings or blueprints forming a part of a contract will be omitted from all contracts sent to the Returns Office of the General Accounting Office.

(b) Whenever leases, agreements, or other instruments are executed under which property is to be occupied by the Marine Corps, such leases, agreements, or other instruments will be executed in duplicate, when the lessor desires an executed copy, the original to be forwarded for file in the General Accounting Office and the executed copy, if one is required to be retained by the owner of the property affected. Copies (not necessarily signed and executed) shall be forwarded to the Judge Advocate General, Navy Department, the Quartermaster, and the disbursing officer making payments under the leases. Such additional copies as are required for local use of the office preparing the lease should also be made. The copies for the Returns Office, General Accounting Office, will be filed by the executing officer. When practicable a copy of the instrument which is forwarded for file with the Judge Advocate General shall be accompanied by a map showing in greater or less detail the location of the property affected.

(c) Whenever non-Government property is to be occupied by the Marine Corps within the continental limits of the United States, leases will be forwarded to the Quartermaster for approval, and clearance through proper channels if required. Leases, or renewals thereof, for the east coast will be executed by the Quartermaster, Headquarters. Leases and renewals for the west coast will be cleared by the Quartermaster, Headquarters, and executed by the Depot Quartermaster, San Francisco, Calif.

(d) In the case of lease of a building or part of a building, the annual rental of which is in excess of $2,000, a signed and certified statement will be furnished giving satisfactory evidence that the proposed annual rental is not in excess of 15 per centum of the fair market value of the rented premises at the date of the lease. (47 Stat. 412, 47 Stat. 1517; 40 U.S.C. 40a)

(e) Leases of property outside the continental limits of the United States will be executed without clearance, by the quartermaster officer concerned, and copies thereof will be distributed in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(f) All leases will be prepared on standard form of Government lease No. 2, and renewals thereof on Form NMC–886. [Art. 18–47 M.C.M.] *

BONDS

§ 7.77 When required. (a) Bonds for the faithful performance of contracts for supplies will be required when the consideration exceeds $500, or, in lieu thereof, a certified check payable to the order of the Secretary of the Navy, the check to be held by the officer mentioned until the requirements of the contract shall be complied with and as a guaranty for compliance with the same. (R.S. 3719; 34 U.S.C. 562)

(b) Penalty. The amount of penalty in a contractor's bond will be fixed by the contracting officer and will be in accordance with the following table:

(1) Contract over $500 up to $50,000—25 percent of the amount of the contract (but not more than $10,000).

(2) Contract over $50,000 up to $100,000—20 percent of the amount of the contract (but not more than $15,000).

(3) Contract over $100,000 up to $200,000—15 percent of the amount of the contract (but not more than $20,000). [Art. 18–49 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.78 Not required. No bond will be required when the contract is for furnishing lodging and meals to recruits and recruiting parties and rent of recruiting offices and building for other purposes. [Art. 18–50 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.79 How executed. When bonds with individual sureties are given for the faithful performance of contracts they will be made and executed with the necessary justification and certification of sufficiency of sureties, in accordance with the instruction printed on the blank forms of contractors' bonds furnished by the Quartermaster's Department. Such bonds must be executed by the contractor as principal, and by at least two responsible persons, who must be citizens of the United States, as sureties. Each must affix to his signature a seal, and each signature must be attested by at least one witness. When practicable, there will be a separate witness to each signature. [Art. 18–51 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.80 Individual sureties. (a) Each individual surety shall justify in a sum not less than the penalty of the bond.

(b) Each individual surety must justify, under oath, according to the form appearing on the bond before a United States commissioner, a clerk of a United States court, a notary public, or some other officer having authority to administer oaths generally. If the officer has an official seal it shall be affixed, otherwise the proper certificate as to his official character shall be furnished. The certificate of sufficiency must be signed by an officer of a bank or trust company, a judge or clerk of a court of record, a United States district attorney or commissioner, a postmaster, a collector or deputy collector of internal revenue, or any other officer of the United States acceptable to the contracting officer, stating that the sureties are known to him, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each is pecuniarily worth, over and above all his debts liabilities, and legal exemptions, the sum stated in his affidavit of justification.

(c) Sureties must be citizens of the United States, except that sureties on bonds executed in any foreign country, the Canal Zone, the Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Alaska, or any possession of the United States, for the performance of contracts entered into in these places, need not be citizens of the United States, but if not citizens of the United States shall be domiciled in the place where contract is to be performed. The affidavits of justification of such sureties may be taken before a notary or other officer having a seal who by the laws of the place is authorized to administer such oaths, the official seal of the notary or other officer to be affixed. The certificate of sufficiency of such sureties may be made by a United States consul or by the judge or clerk of any court in such place having a seal, the official seal of the officer or court to be affixed. The regular blank forms of bonds when used as above will be modified accordingly and the changes will be fully explained over the signatures and seals of all parties to the bond. [Art. 18–52 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.81 A firm as surety. A firm will not be accepted as surety, nor will a partner be accepted as surety for a copartner or for a firm of which he is a member. An officer or stockholder of a corporation will not be accepted as surety for the corporation unless his affidavit of justification shows that he is pecuniarily worth the amount of the bond over and above his debts, liabilities, legal exemptions, and holdings of stock of such corporation. [Art. 18–53 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.82 Sufficiency of individual guarantors or sureties. The sufficiency of individual guarantors or sureties on a bidder's guaranty or bond should be certified in the same manner as that of individual sureties on the bond of a contractor. Guarantors may, if the offer of a bidder be accepted, become sureties on his bond as contractor if they are able to qualify as such. All bidders' guaranties and bonds are to be executed in duplicate. On contractors' bonds a single copy only need be executed. [Art. 18–54 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.83 Payment of subcontractors. Before any contract exceeding $2,000 in amount for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public building or public work of the United States is awarded to any person, such person shall furnish to the United States a performance bond and a payment bond. Every person who has furnished labor or material in the prosecution of the work provided for in such contract, in respect of which a payment bond is furnished and who has not been paid in full therefor, before the expiration of a period of ninety (90) days after the day on which the last of the labor was done or performed by him or material was furnished or supplied by him, for which such claim is made, shall have the right to sue on such payment bond for the amount, or the balance thereof, unpaid at the time of institution of such suit and to prosecute said action to final execution and judgment for the sum or sums justly due him. [Art. 18–55 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.84 Suit by subcontractors. Any person who has furnished such labor or materials and has not been paid therefor may, under the conditions prescribed by 40 U.S.C. 270, obtain from the department a certified copy of the contract and bond and bring suit thereon against the contractor and his sureties for enforcement of his claim. [Art. 18–56 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.85 Corporations as individual sureties. A corporation not holding a certificate from the Secretary of the Treasury as acceptable sole surety on Federal bonds may be accepted as one of the individual sureties if guaranteeing the act of another is within its corporate powers. In such case, an excerpt from the charter granting such power, a citation of a court opinion upholding such power, or a citation of a legislative act conferring such power, should be attached to the bond. The authority of the officer executing the bond on behalf of such corporation must be shown. The requirements for justification and certificate of sufficiency, set forth in § 7.80, must be complied with. [Art. 18–57 M.C.M.] *

§ 7.86 Authority to do business with the United States. (a) Before a corporation will be accepted as a sole surety it must obtain authority in writing from the Secretary of the Treasury to do business with the United States (6 U.S.C. 8), and before it will be accepted as surety on the bond of a principal residing in a State or Territory other than the one in which it was incorporated it must comply with the requirements of 6 U.S.C. 7 as to the appointment of an agent on whom process may be served, etc. Lists of surety companies that have conformed to the requirements of these laws will be published from time to time by the Treasury Department. Such companies will be accepted as sole sureties on official, contract, and other bonds, subject, however, to the following limitations:

(1) Limitations. No company having authority, under the Act of Congress of August 13, 1894, as amended by the Act of March 23, 1910, above mentioned, to do business with the United States shall be accepted as sole surety on any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking under the Navy Department, which shall execute any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking on behalf of any individual, firm, association, or corporation, whether or not the United States is interested as a party thereto, the penal sum of which is greater than 10 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of such company.

(2) Two or more companies may be accepted as sureties on any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking under the Navy Department the penal sum of which does not exceed the limit herein prescribed of their aggregate paid-up capital and surplus. In such cases each company shall limit its liability, in terms, upon the face of the bond, to a definite specified amount, such amount to be in all cases, however, within the limitations herein prescribed. In cases where the law especially requires it every such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking shall be executed by the principal and sureties jointly and severally.

(3) No portion of any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking shall be included in determining the limitations herein prescribed which shall have been reinsured at the time of execution and delivery of the original obligation, or within 20 days thereafter, in a company authorized to do business under the acts above referred to, within the limitations herein prescribed, or in such companies and under such limitations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall have approved.

(4) No portion of any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking shall be included in determining the limitations herein prescribed upon which such company shall have been secured at the time of execution and delivery of the original obligation, by the deposit in pledge, or by conveyance in trust, for its protection of property equal in value to such excess.

(5) No portion of any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking executed on behalf or on account of a fiduciary holding property in a trust capacity shall be included in determining the limitations herein prescribed, upon which such company shall have been secured by deposit or other disposition of a suitable and sufficient portion of the estate so held that no further sale, mortgage, pledge, or other disposition can be made thereof without such company's approval, except by the decree of a court having proper jurisdiction.

(6) In determining the limitations herein prescribed the full penalty of a bond will be regarded as the liability, and no setoff will be allowed on account of any estimate of risk which is less than the full penalty of the bond except in the following cases: Appeal bonds; in which cases the liability will be regarded as the amount of the judgment appealed from, plus 10 percent of said amount to cover interest and costs. Bonds of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, and other fiduciaries; in which cases a certificate of the judge of the probate court, setting forth the measure of liability upon which he fixed the penalty of the bond, will be accepted by the department as evidence of the amount at risk when such certificate is filed with the supplement covering the bond. Credit will also be allowed for indemnifying agreements executed by sole heirs or beneficiaries of estates releasing the surety from liability: Provided, That a copy of such agreement shall, in each instance, be filed with the supplement covering such risk, together with satisfactory proof as to outstanding debts. Contract bonds given in excess of the amount of a contract; in which cases the amount of the contract will be regarded as the liability. Bonds for banks or trust companies as principals, conditioned to repay moneys on deposit, where by any law or decree of a court the amount to be deposited shall be less than the penalty of the bond; in which cases the maximum amount on deposit at any one time will be regarded as the liability. Each company will be required to report quarterly to the Secretary of the Treasury, as provided by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, every such obligation the penal sum of which is greater than 10 percent of its paid-up capital and surplus, together with a full statement of the facts which tend to bring it within the provisions of this paragraph.

(b) Every such company will be required to file with the Secretary of the Treasury, on or before the last day of January of each year, a statement of its financial condition at the close of the preceding year upon the form provided by the Treasury Department. On or before the last day of April, July, and October of each year every such company will be required to file with the Secretary of the Treasury a statement of its financial condition at the close of the preceding 3 months. With each of said statements every such company will be required to file with the Secretary of the Treasury a schedule of the single obligations which it has executed during the preceding 3 months in excess of the limitations herein prescribed, showing the manner in which each of such excess has been covered under these instructions.

(1) The amount of paid-up capital and surplus of every such company will be determined by an audit of the annual and quarterly financial statements filed with the Secretary of the Treasury or by reports upon current examinations made by the insurance departments of the several States or by such examination of the companies at their own expense as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem necessary.

(2) The qualifying powers of the respective companies will be published promptly on the 1st day of March and the 15th days of May, August, and November of each year, and the ratings of companies which fail to file or to complete their statements within the time herein provided will be omitted. The Secretary of the Treasury will keep the Navy Department advised from time to time as to the status and qualifying power of the various companies under these instructions.

(3) In the event that it becomes necessary to waive the limitations herein prescribed on any recognizance, stipulations, bond, or undertaking given to the United States, notice of such waiver and the manner which the excess is required to be covered shall in each instance be immediately transmitted by letter to the head of each of the other executive departments.

(4) Failure on the part of any company to comply with the provisions of these instructions will be considered sufficient ground for refusing further to accept such company as surety on obligations under the Navy Department during the continuance of such delinquency, and in the event of persistent failure to observe the provisions of these instructions the name of any such company will be removed from the list of sureties acceptable to the Navy Department.

(c) In case of financial embarrassment, failure, or other disqualifying cause on the part of the surety to a bond, the Secretary of the Navy will require the bond to be renewed to his satisfaction, upon notification to the principal. Official bonds may not be renewed at the will of the principal or the surety, but only with the approval of the Secretary, and the substitution of one surety for another on a bond will not be permitted except with the approval of the Secretary, or after the bond has run for a period of four years, when a renewal thereof is required by law. [Art. 18–59 M.C.M.]*

EMERGENCIES

§ 7.87 Emergency purchases. In order that the Quartermaster may keep himself advised of the condition of the appropriation, expenses should not be created without his approval or the approval of an officer of the Quartermaster's Department competent to give such approval. Emergencies may arise or conditions be such that the procurement of labor and material in the open market without the authority of the Quartermaster's Department is necessary. Such occasions are to be regarded as exigencies, and officers of the Corps, in preparing vouchers to cover such purchases, shall certify on the vouchers that an emergency existed and state the circumstances thereof, and that it was impracticable to communicate with the Quartermaster either by telegraph, telephone, or letter. An exigency is defined by the United States Supreme Court to be "an immediate pressing necessity and one requiring resort to unusual power and effort." When time will permit, the Quartermaster shall be communicated with previous to an expense being created, but telegraphic or telephonic communication should not be resorted to when the sum involved does not justify it. An emergency purchase will not be made when avoidable. [Art. 18–60 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.88 Obtaining of proposals. Before making such a purchase the officer will inform himself concerning prevailing prices by inquiry among responsible dealers in his locality, and, if practicable, obtain oral proposals either by telephone or in person. The bids should be confirmed in writing in order that the resultant agreements may be filed as required by 41 U.S.C. 20. [Art. 18–61 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.89 Minor emergency repairs to machinery. In cases of minor emergency repairs to machinery, plumbing and heating systems, etc., when it is intended to have the work done by the public works department, where an annual allotment for this purpose has not been authorized, the matter should be referred to the Quartermaster by letter or dispatch, requesting an allotment of the necessary funds, and stating nature and necessity of repairs and that work is to be performed by public works department. [Art. 18–62 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.90 An exigency must be shown to exist. (a) An exigency cannot be presumed to exist, because the statute requires evidence of its existence. An officer who has let a contract without complying with the law requiring him to advertise for bids cannot by permitting performance under it to proceed to any extent make such contract binding upon the United States.

(b) The law does not presume the continuance of the exigency, because the statute provides that it shall be met by an immediate contract. The law requiring advertisements and proposals for public contracts obviously was intended by Congress to invite competition among bidders, and to prevent favoritism and fraudulent combinations in awarding contracts. This competition in the procurement of public supplies as required by law in practice results in economy in the expenditures. [Art. 18–63 M.C.M.]*

§ 7.91 Certificate required. A certificate as to the number of bids solicited and received will be made on each voucher, and the bids received will accompany the first voucher, together with statement and certificate of award, Standard Form 1036, and original signed purchase order. If it is not practicable to obtain confirmation of oral or telephonic bids at the time of purchase, the statement and certificate of award will not be required; but the voucher, Standard Form 1034, on the reverse side, will be filled in to show the method of advertising. If the lowest bid has not been accepted the names of bidders and their prices should also be shown. (Sec. 7.70 (c)) [Art. 18–64 M.C.M.]*

DEFAULTING CONTRACTORS

§ 7.92 Purchases against the accounts of defaulting contractors. (a) The right to purchase against a contractor's account accrues at the expiration of the time limit set by the contract for the delivery of the material or performance of the services. If the right is not exercised immediately when it accrues, the effect is to extend the contract period. Thereafter, before proceeding to make purchase against the defaulting contractor's account, it will become necessary to set a new closing time for the contract and this date must allow the contractor a reasonable time in which to make delivery after notice is given. This procedure is necessary to make the contractor legally liable for any excess costs incurred in the purchase. The right of purchase should be exercised only after careful deliberation in order to avoid an injustice to the contractor and to protect adequately the interests of the Government. The following questions should be considered prior to a purchase of this nature:

(1) Is the material urgently required?

(2) Can the contractor be depended upon to deliver in time to meet the urgency?

(3) Can the materials be obtained earlier by purchase against account than from the contractor?

(b) The proposals on a purchase against an account shall bear no reference to the fact that they are to cover a purchase against an account. Proposals shall be distributed as widely as possible in order that maximum competition may be obtained, and if possible such competition shall be as wide as that on the original purchase. Where bids were invited on more than one condition of delivery in the original advertisement, supplemental bids will be invited under the same conditions of delivery.

(c) In making award the bids received should be given the same consideration as the original purchase, and care must be exercised to avoid an award without the contractor's consent, on a basis which is not in accord with the original purchases and which might relieve him from paying the excess cost.

(d) In preparation of vouchers to cover deliveries by the defaulting contractor the excess cost only of the item or items that the contractor defaulted upon will be charged to his account. The amount purchased from the contractor supplying in place of the defaulting contractor will be the actual amount that the new contractor bid.

(e) Purchasing officers shall immediately on making a purchase against account notify the defaulting contractor of the purchase and, if excess costs are involved, shall make formal request for payment, with a copy thereof to the disbursing officer paying the account. If the contractor fails to satisfy the request, the disbursing officer shall deduct the excess cost from any money due to the defaulting contractor. When money due to a defaulting contractor will not cover the excess cost of the items purchased against the contractor's account, the disbursing officer will take steps to deduct the amount from any other contracts with the contractor. When all the means described above fail to recover the excess cost, the purchasing officer will undertake collection either by depositing the guarantee furnished by the contractor or by demand on the contractor's surety.

(f) The total excess cost shall be determined on the basis of the contract class or group of items as a whole. A saving under one item or class will offset a corresponding excess cost under another item or class purchased under the same contract. Where the total cost of the purchase on account is less than the original contract price, the defaulting contractor is not entitled to a credit for the saving. (Comp. of the Treas. Dec., Sept. 6, 1913) In case of default under a contract which provides for cash discount for prompt payment, the defaulting contractor, in the absence of any provision in the contract to the effect that such discount is to be taken into account in determining the excess cost, is liable only for the amount of the open market purchase in excess of the contract unit price. (4 Comp. Gen. 807) In cases where the dealer, from whom supplies are purchased in the open market against the account of a defaulting contractor, allows a cash discount for prompt payment, the defaulting contractor will be given the benefit of such discount and will be charged only the difference between the contract price and the amount actually paid for the supplies in the open market. (16 Comp. Dec. 533)

(g) In case a contractor defaults in delivery of a part of the supplies and it is necessary to purchase in the open market against his account the excess cost, if any, between the contract and open market prices will be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a credit to "Miscellaneous receipts" by the disbursing officer paying the account. When adjustment is made by deduction from the amount due the defaulting contractor the voucher covering supplies actually furnished by the defaulting contractor will show that the contractor defaulted, also the name of the contractor from whom supplies were purchased against his account. There will also be entered separately on the voucher in the column "Differences" the following captions: "Difference in contract price—credit 'Miscellaneous receipts'" and "Amount payable to contractor." Opposite the first caption will be shown the excess cost of items procured in the open market, and opposite the second caption the net amount due the contractor. In the "Total" column will be shown the total amount chargeable to the appropriation, that is, the amount to be credited to "Miscellaneous receipts" plus the net amount due the contractor. Two Treasury Checks will be drawn in payment of the account, one in favor of the Treasurer of the United States in the amount of the excess cost and one in favor of the contractor to cover the net amount due. The amount of the check payable to the Treasury will be taken up in the disbursing officer's accounts in the same manner as other collections, shown on his schedule of collections for the period as a credit to "Miscellaneous receipts," and deposited in his official checking account with the Treasury on Form 6599.

(h) The voucher in favor of the contractor from whom the supplies were obtained in the open market should bear a notation that the supplies included therein for payment were obtained against account of defaulting contractor, giving name of defaulting contractor. The disbursing officer in paying these accounts will make cross reference by entering voucher number, month, and year in which payment was made, and name of disbursing officer. [Art. 18–88 M.C.M.]*

DECEASED PERSONS

§ 7.93 Shipment of body and effects. (a) When the unaccompanied body and effects of a deceased member of the Marine Corps are to be forwarded to the home of the deceased, shipment in the United States will be made by express, at Government expense, and the consignee notified by telegram. When men on active duty die outside the continental United States, shipment will be made via Government vessel, if practicable, otherwise by commercial carrier, and consigned to the commanding officer or the naval hospital at the post of debarkation for further shipment to destination. If there be no naval hospital at or in the immediate vicinity of that port, the shipment will be consigned to the Marine Corps depot or post quartermaster, there, except that bodies shipped to the United States from Asiatic stations will be consigned to the Commandant of the Twelfth Naval District at San Francisco, Calif. In the case of cremated remains, shipment in the United States will be made in the most economical manner other than by ordinary freight.

(b) At the request of relatives, or in the absence of such request upon the authority of the Quartermaster, the remains of officers and enlisted men that have been interred outside of the continental United States may be subsequently disinterred and shipped to the United States for reinterment in a national cemetery or at the home of the deceased. The cost of disinterment, shipment to the United States, and reinterment in a national cemetery will be borne by the Government. The expense of reinterment at the home of the deceased will be borne by the Government, subject to the provisions of § 7.94.

(c) In cases where the remains of deceased officers and enlisted men have been buried in the United States prior to receipt of requests from next of kin for shipment of remains to home of deceased, or in cases where it is impracticable to communicate with the next of kin, or where it was impracticable to ship the remains at time of death, the remains of such deceased officers and enlisted men may be disinterred and prepared for shipment and forwarded to the home of the deceased at Government expense upon subsequent request of the next of kin, and reinterment at home of deceased will be made at Government expense, as provided in 7.94, but where the remains of deceased officers and enlisted men have been buried at the place of demise or in a national or post cemetery in the United States after the next of kin has directed that the remains be not shipped home, or after reinterment after transportation from place of demise outside of the United States to a national cemetery in the United States, subsequent disinterment and shipment to home of deceased of the remains at the request of relatives will not be made at the expense of the Government.

(d) When death occurs outside the District of Columbia and burial in the Arlington National Cemetery is desired, the body should be consigned to the officer in Charge, Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va., and billed to Washington, D. C. This will obviate the necessity and delay of obtaining a permit for the transfer of the body through the District of Columbia. As soon as the body has been shipped a telegram will be sent to Headquarters, Marine Corps, and the Officer in Charge, Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va., giving the date of shipment, dimensions of outside box, number of persons in funeral party, and the date, hour, and number of train on which body will reach Washington.

(e) Whenever practicable, the shipment should be so timed as to arrive in Washington between the hours of 8 a. m. and 2 p. m., because the Government hearse is available only between those hours, should the body arrive after 2 p. m., it will have to remain at the Union Station until the following morning, when it will be removed to the Arlington National Cemetery and placed in the receiving vault pending funeral arrangements. The services of an undertaker in Washington are not required in cases of this kind, nor is there any expense attached to the opening and closing of the grave in Arlington.

(f) Under no circumstances will burial be made in Arlington National Cemetery on a Sunday or national holiday, or on Saturday after 11 a. m. (34 U.S.C. 921 to 929, 1940 Ed.) [Art. 18–71 M.C.M.]

§ 7.94 Burial expenses. (a) (1) The following reasonable and customary services will be allowed at the time and place of burial, viz:

Embalming.
Casket.
Outside box.
Undertaker's fee.
Hearse.
Carriages or automobiles (not exceeding two).
Digging of grave.
Grave space.
Minister's fee.
Cremation (in lieu of embalming and burial).

(Comp. Gen. No. A–24771, Oct. 27, 1928)

(2) The sum of $200 will be the maximum allowed for the above services in cases where the Government has not been placed to any expense; and in cases where the Government has incurred expense, such as in the preparation of the remains and the furnishing of a casket, and additional expense is incurred at the home of the deceased, a maximum of $50 will be allowed. In cases where, through unusual circumstances, either of the above amounts is necessarily exceeded, or services other than those enumerated above are procured, authority for payment must have the approval of the Quartermaster. The above amounts are exclusive of the cost of shipment of the remains of the deceased to the place of burial.

(b) Under the Act of March 3, 1905 (33 Stat. 1196), the War Department will provide the sum of $45 in each case, exclusive of cost of grave, for the burial of all honorably discharged indigent exmarines who die in the District of Columbia or immediate vicinity and are buried within said limits.

(c) The expenses incident to the preparation and burial of deceased men of the Marine Corps are payable from the appropriation "General expenses, Marine Corps," except in the cases of those who die at a naval hospital, in which case the expenses are payable from the appropriation "Care of the dead."

(d) The Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, cause to be transferred to their home at public expense the remains of civilian employees of the Navy Department or the Naval Establishment who have been ordered from their homes in the United States to duty outside the continental limits of the United States and who die while on such duty or while performing authorized travel to or from such duty.

(e) Where burial is made at place of demise, or in a post cemetery, and other means are not available, the cost of digging grave may be paid by the Quartermaster's Department.

(f) Pay for services of clergymen. Pay for services of clergymen at burials of enlisted men may be allowed when the services of a Navy chaplain are not available.

(g) The funeral expenses of reservists who die while on active or training duty, or while performing authorized travel to or from such duty, are payable from the appropriation "Care of the dead." (34 U.S.C. 921 to 929, 1940 Ed.) [Art. 18–72 M.C.M.]

DESERTERS AND STRAGGLERS

§ 7.95 Payment of reward. (a) A reward not exceeding $50 will be paid for the apprehension and delivery of a deserter, and one not exceeding $25 for the delivery of a straggler, when offered by the Commandant of the Marine Corps, the commanding officer of a post, a recruiting officer, the commanding officer of a naval vessel, or a depot quartermaster. In special cases, when by reason of the distance to be traveled the amount of the reward would not compensate, transportation may be furnished, upon order of the Commandant of the Marine Corps, to the civil officer for round trip for himself between place of arrest and place of delivery in addition to the reward.

(b) Payment of a reward for the delivery of a deserter is not authorized where no reward was offered prior to such delivery. However, in such a case the necessary expenses incurred in such delivery by the person making the same may be paid upon approval by the Commandant of the Marine Corps. (R.S. 1547; R.S. 1621) [Art. 18–75 M.C.M.]

[Docket No. B–142]

IN THE MATTER OF SAHARA COAL COMPANY, CODE MEMBER, DEFENDANT

NOTICE OF FILING APPLICATION FOR THE DISPOSITION OF COMPLIANCE PROCEEDING WITHOUT FORMAL HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the Sahara Coal Company, code member in District No. 10, defendant in the above-entitled matter, on February 16, 1942, filed herein an application dated February 14, 1942, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division for the Disposition Without Formal Hearing of Compliance Proceedings, and on February 21, 1942, filed a supplemental application dated February 19, 1942.

The Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 10 on November 12, 1941, filed a complaint in the above-entitled matter pursuant to section 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 alleging that the defendant, which operates the Sahara No. 5 Mine, Mine Index No. 156, located in Saline County, Illinois, had wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the Code promulgated thereunder, and orders, rules and regulations of the Division, to wit, sections 4 II (e) and 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (e) and Part II (i) 8 of the Code, and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by selling as washed, dried 1" stoker screenings approximately 97.7 tons of coal to Wright and Company, 407 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, on or about February 1, 1941, and approximately 94.45 tons to J. W. Peterson Coal Company, 800 West Division Street, Chicago, Illinois, on or about February 3, 1941; and by selling as washed, dried 1½" stoker screenings approximately 47.65 tons of coal to Eberhard Coal Company, 5619 Broadway, Chicago, Illinois, on or about February 3, 1941, at the effective minimum price of $1.80 per net ton established for Size Group No. 24 in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 For All Shipments Except Truck, whereas the size dimensions of said coal did not warrant that designation; that said coal should have been classified in a larger size group and sold at a correspondingly higher price than that at which it was sold; and that said transactions, therefore, constituted sales of coal at sizes which were intentionally misrepresented and at prices which were below the effective minimum prices therefor.

The above application of the defendant for disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing is based, in part, upon the following admissions, agreements, and consents:

2. Defendant admits that it has wilfully violated those sections of the Bituminous Coal Code and Rules and Regulations of the Division referred to in the complaint and admits that it sold as washed, dried 1" stoker screenings 97.7 tons of coal to Wright and Company, 407 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, said coal having been loaded into two cars on February 1, 1941, and shipped on the same date to the purchaser; it admits that it sold as washed, dried 1" stoker screenings 94.45 tons to J. W. Peterson Coal Company, 800 West Division Street, Chicago, Illinois, said coal having been loaded into two cars on February 1 and 2, 1941, and shipped on February 3, 1941, to the purchaser; it admits that it sold as washed, dried 1½" stoker screenings 47.65 tons of coal to Eberhard Coal Company, 5619 Broadway, Chicago, Illinois, said coal having been loaded into a car on February 2, 1941, and shipped on February 3, 1941, to the purchaser. The above-described coal was sold from the Sahara No. 5 Mine and transported all-rail to said purchasers at the effective minimum price of $1.80 per net ton established for Size Group 24 in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 For All Shipments Except Truck; however, due to the size dimensions of the coal, it should have been sold at not less than $1.90 per net ton, which price is the effective minimum price for Size Group No. 22 coals set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 For All Shipments Except Truck.

5. The defendant consents to the entry by the Director of an Order directing defendant to cease and desist from violations of the Code and the Regulations thereunder.

6. In the event the Director is of the opinion that proper administration of the Act requires, in addition, the entry of an order cancelling and revoking defendant's Code Membership and requiring the payment by defendant, upon restoration to Code Membership, of double the amount of the tax imposed by section 3 (b) of the Act, defendant consents to the entry by the Director of such an order.

7. In the event the Director determines to proceed in accordance with section 6 hereof, defendant states that the amount of the tax which should be imposed is $177.69 and defendant agrees to pay said tax in the sum of $177.69 within ten days after being served with an order revoking its Code Membership as a condition to restoration of such membership.

The defendant in its above supplemental application states that to the best of the defendant's knowledge and belief:

(a) It committed no other violations either before or after the violations referred to in its original application referred to in the first paragraph hereof; and

(b) No fines have been removed from 1" x 0 and 1½" x 0 screenings subsequent to October 1, 1940, and that when fines are removed resultant coal is not sold as 1" or 1½" screenings but is sold as stoker screenings in accordance with the prices specified in the price schedule.

Interested parties desiring to do so may within twenty (20) days from the date of this notice, file recommendations or requests for informal conferences in respect to the above-described application.

Dated: March 7, 1942.

Defendant having filed an answer herein denying that it wilfully violated the Code;

Pursuant to an Order of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held on December 4, 1941, before a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Albuquerque, New Mexico, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard;

Appearances having been entered at the hearing by the complainant, District Board 18, and the defendant;

The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner having been waived and the matter thereupon having been submitted to the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That, if the defendant fails to comply with this order, the Division may forthwith apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States in any district in which the defendant carries on business for the enforcement hereof, or take any other appropriate action.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Marketing Administration.

NOTICE OF REPORT AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO A TENTATIVELY APPROVED MARKETING AGREEMENT, AS AMENDED, AND A MARKETING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE FALL RIVER, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA, PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ADMINISTRATION

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations of the Surplus Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, governing proceedings to formulate marketing orders and marketing agreements, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, with respect to proposed amendments to a tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to a marketing order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to the report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0312, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Preliminary statement

The proceedings were initiated by the Surplus Marketing Administration upon receipt of a petition dated December 11, 1941, from the Fall River Milk Producers Association for a public hearing on proposals to revise upward the Class I price, to revise the Class I price applicable to milk sold outside of the marketing area, to revise the formula for the Class II price, to provide for certain changes in the classification of milk, and to revise the base-rating plan. A proposal for revision of classification was received from one handler. Following this request the Dairy Division, Surplus Marketing Administration, proposed, in addition, that the so-called new producer clause be eliminated. After consideration of the proposals, notice of the hearing was issued on January 14, 1942, and the hearing was convened on January 22, 1942.

The major issues developed in the hearing revolved around the level at which both the Class I and Class II prices should be fixed, the implications of modifying or removing the base-rating plan, the practicability of allowing milk to be transferred to Providence market as Class II, and the equity of requiring handlers to pay the Class I price for plant shrinkage associated with handling Class I milk.

It is concluded from the record that (1) the present Class I price ($3.88 per hundredweight for milk of 3.7 percent butterfat content) effectuates the policy of the act; (2) classification with respect to plant shrinkage or the transfer of milk from Fall River to Providence should not be changed; (3) revision of the base-rating plan to make it inoperative for all months of the year except April, May, and June; and (4) the deletion of the so-called new producer clause are desirable changes to make at this time.

The proposed amendments are recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions can be carried out.

This report filed at Washington, D. C., the 5th day of March 1942.

[SEAL] ROY F. HENDRICKSON,
Administrator.

PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT [1] REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE FALL RIVER, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ADMINISTRATION, UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Whereas, the parties hereto, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the said act, desire to enter into this marketing agreement, as amended.

Now, therefore, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The terms and provisions of § 947.1 through § 947.12 of Order No. 47, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, issued December 3, 1941, and as amended by Amendment No. 1, to said order, as amended, issued, effective ----------, 1942, shall be the terms and provisions of this marketing agreement, as amended, with the exception that wherever the word "order" is used the words "marketing agreement" shall be substituted therefor; and

2. The following sections shall also be a part of the marketing agreement, as amended, in addition to § 947.1 through § 947.12 of said order as amended:

§ 947.13 Liability—(a) Liability of handlers. The liability of the handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

§ 947.14 Counterparts and additional parties—(a) Counterparts of marketing agreement, as amended. This agreement, as amended, may be executed in multiple counterparts, and when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary all such counterparts shall constitute, when taken together, one and the same instrument, as if all such signatures were obtained in one original.

(b) Additional parties to the marketing agreement, as amended. After this agreement, as amended, first takes effect, any handler may become a party to this agreement, as amended, if a counterpart hereof is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement, as amended, shall take effect as to such new contracting parties at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement, as amended, shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.

§ 947.15 Record of milk handled during the month of May 1941, and authorization to correct typographical errors—(a) Record of milk handled during the month of May 1941. The undersigned certifies that he handled during the month of May 1941, ------- hundredweight of milk covered by this agreement, as amended, and disposed of within the marketing area.

(b) Authorization to correct typographical errors. The undersigned hereby authorizes Otie M. Reed, Chief, Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Administration, to correct any typographical errors which may have been made in this marketing agreement, as amended.

§ 947.16 Signature of parties. In witness whereof, the contracting handlers, acting under the provisions of the act, for the purposes and subject to the limitations herein contained and not otherwise, have hereunto set their respective hands and seals.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS [1] TO THE MARKETING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE FALL RIVER, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held in Westport, Massachusetts, on January 22, 1942, such findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the hearings on the order, and being in addition to the other findings made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of the order (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

[1] This proposed marketing agreement is prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, Surplus Marketing Administration, and has not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

[1] These proposed amendments are prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, Surplus Marketing Administration, and have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to secs. 2 and 8c (50 Stat. 246; 7 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 602, 608c), are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this amendment to said order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order, as amended by this amendment, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to handlers defined in a marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment to the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of the order as so amended, tends to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(vi) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in connection with the payments set forth in § 947.9 (d).

(vii) On or before the 11th day after the end of such delivery period, mail to all handlers and publicly announce: (a) Such of these computations as do not disclose information confidential pursuant to the act, (b) the blended price per hundredweight which is the result of these computations, (c) the Class II price, the butterfat differential, and (d) the name of the handler, the Class I price, the Class II price, and the blended prices of any milk paid for pursuant to § 947.9 (g).

11. Delete § 947.9 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 947.9 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. (1) On or before the 1st day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment to producers for the approximate value of milk received during the first 15 days of such delivery period. On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, for all delivery periods except April, May, and June of each year, except as provided in paragraph (g) of this section, each handler shall make payment for the total value of milk received from producers or associations of producers during the preceding delivery period, computed pursuant to § 947.7 (a), subject to the differential set forth in paragraph (c) of § 947.4 and paragraph (f) of this section as follows:

(i) To producers, at not less than the blended price per hundredweight computed pursuant to § 947.7 (b) (1) for the quantity of milk delivered by each producer.

(i) To producers, at not less than the blended price per hundredweight, computed pursuant to § 947.7 (b) (2), for that quantity of milk received from each producer not in excess of his base determined pursuant to § 947.8.

(ii) To producers at not less than the Class II price, for that quantity of milk received from each producer in excess of his base determined pursuant to § 947.8.

(iii) To an association of producers for milk which is caused to be delivered to a handler from producers by such association, and for which such association, collects payment, a total amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

Interpretation No. 2 of Priorities Regulation No. 1[1] as Amended

The following interpretation is hereby issued by the Director of Industry Operations with respect to § 944.14, "Inventory Restriction", of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended:

The question has been raised, in connection with various seasonal industries, whether a company which is engaged in such an industry and which normally stocks up inventory in advance of the season, is forbidden by the foregoing Regulation from doing so.

The prohibition against accepting delivery of inventory "in excess of the practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet deliveries of the products of the Person accepting delivery, on the basis of his current method and rate of operation," does not prevent the acceptance of delivery by such Person of his requirements of the inventory in question provided, (a) that such Person is not guilty of hoarding, and (b) that the deliveries accepted are no greater and no further in advance than those which he would normally accept in the ordinary course of his business to meet reasonably anticipated requirements. Furthermore, the undersigned certifies that the fabrics hereby purchased will be placed in process solely for the manufacture of agricultural bags, as defined in paragraph (b) (1) of the above Order, and that any additions to his holdings at any mill, warehouse, place of storage or bag manufacturing plant, of the fabrics hereby purchased will not increase his total holdings at said locations to an amount in excess of the aggregate yardage of Cotton Textile Fabrics Suitable for Agricultural Bags, as defined in paragraph (b) (2) of the above Order, which he will put into process within sixty days.

Duly authorized signer

Such endorsement shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and the supplier with whom the purchase order is placed that such purchase order is duly rated in accordance herewith.

(g) Reports. On or before the 15th day of March, 1942, and on or before the 15th day of each calendar month thereafter, each person with whom one or more statements have been filed pursuant to paragraph (f) hereof, shall prepare and hold for two years, subject to inspection by the War Production Board, a tabulation showing the number and kind of cotton textile fabrics suitable for agricultural bags, as defined in paragraph (b) (2) above, delivered by him during the calendar month immediately preceding. (h) Records. All bag manufacturers, dealers in bags, and users of bags affected by this Order shall maintain for a period of two years subsequent to any transaction for which certification is required, pursuant to paragraphs (e) or (f) hereof, a record of such transactions, subject to inspection at any time by the War Production Board.

(i) Appeals. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of cotton textile fabrics suitable for agricultural bags, as defined in paragraph (b) (2) above, conserved or made available, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal in writing to the War Production Board, Reference, M–107, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Communications to the War Production Board. All communications concerning this Order, or any reports required to be filed hereunder, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: "War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference M–107."

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(l) Effective date. This Order shall take effect upon the date of issuance hereof. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended December 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 107—USED TIRES AND TUBES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of used tires and tubes have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of used tires and tubes prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deems to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this Regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been prepared and is issued simultaneously herewith.[1]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 107 is hereby issued.

§ 1315.1351 Maximum prices for used tires and tubes. On and after March 16, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver and no person in the business of buying or selling used tires or tubes shall buy or receive any used tire or tube, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendices A and B hereof, incorporated herein as §§ 1315.1360 and 1315.1361; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of used tires or tubes to a purchaser if prior to March 16, 1942 such used tires or tubes had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by a seller, for shipment to such purchaser.*

§ 1315.1352 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendices A and B (§§ 1315.1360 and 1315.1361) may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1315.1353 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 107 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to any used tires or tubes, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, repair or other charge, or by tying-agreement, or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Increasing the charges for the extension of credit, or for the demounting or mounting of a tire or tube on a vehicle or rim, or for any other service over those in effect on March 7, 1942;

(2) Making any charges for the extension of credit, or for the demounting or mounting of a tire or tube on a vehicle or rim, or for any other service if no special and separate charges for such service were made by the seller on March 7, 1942;

(3) Making the terms and conditions of sale more onerous to purchasers than those available or in effect on March 7, 1942;

(4) Making any charges in addition to the maximum prices for repairs to used tires or tubes sold. The prices set forth in Appendices A and B (§§ 1315.1360 and 1315.1361) are maximum prices for used tires and tubes of the various categories, repaired, if need be, and ready for use.

(c) The purchaser shall always have the option of paying the full price in cash at the time of the purchase of any used tire or tube. He shall also have the option of receiving delivery of any used tire or tube at the seller's place of business without having it mounted on a vehicle or rim or having any other service performed.*

§ 1315.1354 Posting of prices. Every person engaged in the business of selling used tires or tubes not mounted as part of the equipment of a vehicle, shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in each establishment at which such tires or tubes are offered for sale, a statement setting forth the maximum prices which he is permitted to charge under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 107, and the conditions of sale prescribed by § 1315.1353, Evasion. For this purpose it shall be permissible to employ a copy of the lists of maximum prices printed in Appendices A and B (§§ 1315.1360 and 1315.1361) hereof, and of § 1315.1353, Evasion, hereof if such a copy is then in the hands of such person. This statement or copy shall be posted not later than 8 A. M. on March 16, 1942.

If, on March 7, 1942, the seller made special and separate charges for the extension of credit or for the demounting or mounting of a tire or tube on a vehicle or rim, or for any other service, except the making of repairs, in connection with the sale of a used tire or tube, and if he desires to continue such charges after March 16, 1942, such seller shall prepare a notarized statement listing the prices charged on March 7, 1942, for such extra service and shall post such statement not later than 8 A. M. on March 16, 1942 along with the statement or copy of maximum prices and conditions of sale required to be posted by this section.*

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of the agricultural commodities from which dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts are produced a price for their products equal to the highest of any of the following prices therefor determined and published by the Secretary of Agriculture: (1) 110 per centum of the parity price for such commodity, adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for grade, location, and seasonal differentials; (2) the market prices prevailing for such commodity on October 1, 1941; (3) the market prices prevailing for such commodity on December 15, 1941; or (4) the average prices for such commodity during the period July 1, 1919, to June 30, 1929.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 8 is hereby issued.

§ 1364.1 Maximum prices for dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts. (a) From March 23, 1942, to May 21, 1942, inclusive, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, or offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to sell or deliver dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts at prices higher than the maximum prices therefor. The provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts to a purchaser if, prior to March 23, 1942, such dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 8, the maximum price for each dressed hog or wholesale pork cut shall be the highest price at which such dressed hog or wholesale pork cut was listed in the price list or lists upon which the seller based his price quotations at the delivery point during the period March 3, 1942, to March 7, 1942, inclusive: Provided (1) That where the seller, because of unusual transportation, packaging and handling costs, customarily sold to certain buyers during the ninety day period prior to March 9, 1942 at prices higher than the list prices, he may continue to include such unusual costs as are actually incurred in the sales to those buyers; and (2) That the seller must continue to allow all the shading privileges or discounts from his price list or lists which were customary during the ninety day period prior to March 9, 1942 and which were based on cost differentials arising from low transportation or packaging costs or any other saving in the cost of handling; except that the provisions of this Proviso No. 2 of paragraph (b) shall not apply to any sales of dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation or to any purchasing agency of the armed forces of the United States.

(c) Where the seller customarily sold dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts to certain buyers during the ninety day period prior to March 9, 1942 at prices based upon market quotations rather than upon his price list or lists, the maximum prices to such buyers shall be the highest prices at which such dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts were listed in such market quotations during the period March 3, 1942, to March 7, 1942, inclusive, making adjustment for the transportation differentials which were in effect during the ninety day period.

(d) If the maximum price for any dressed hog or wholesale pork cut cannot be determined under paragraphs (b) or (c) above, the maximum price shall be the highest price at which the seller contracted or agreed, during the period March 3, 1942 to March 7, 1942 inclusive, to sell such dressed hog or wholesale pork cut to a similar purchaser in the locality of the delivery point.

(e) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraphs (b), (c), or (d) above, the maximum price shall be the highest price at which the seller contracted or agreed, during the period March 3, 1942 to March 7, 1942 inclusive, to sell such dressed hog or wholesale pork cut to a similar purchaser at the nearest delivery point, making adjustment for the differences between transportation charges from the seller's shipping point to each of the two delivery points.

(f) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraphs (b), (c), (d), or (e) above, the maximum price shall be the highest price at which any seller contracted or agreed, during the period March 3, 1942 to March 7, 1942 inclusive, to sell such dressed hog or wholesale pork cut to a buyer in the locality of the delivery point.*

§ 1364.6 Records and reports. (a) Not later than March 21, 1942 every person making sales subject to § 1364.1 above, shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a copy of each and every price list, together with all amendments thereto, used by him during the periods February 23, 1942 to February 28, 1942 inclusive and March 3, 1942 to March 7, 1942 inclusive, upon which he based his sales price quotations. He shall also submit a sworn statement certifying (1) that such copy or copies are true and correct; (2) the area or areas in which each list was applicable; (3) the period during which each such list was in effect; (4) customary deductions from and additions to the list prices, representing the cost differentials referred to in paragraph (b) of § 1364.1; and (5) whether the prices quoted in such list were delivered prices or f. o. b. seller's shipping point.

(b) Every person who files a price list with the Office of Price Administration pursuant to the provisions of the above paragraph shall attach thereto a sworn statement indicating whether any of his sales of dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts during the period March 3, 1942 to March 7, 1942 were based upon market quotations rather than on his price list or lists. Such statement shall identify (1) each purchaser to whom such a sale was made; (2) customary transportation charge differentials in sales to him; and (3) the market quotations upon which the sales to him were based.

(c) Every person making a sale of any dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts during the period March 23, 1942, to May 21, 1942, inclusive, in the course of trade or business or otherwise dealing therein, shall make and preserve for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of each such sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and seller, the quantity and weight sold, and the price charged or received therefor.

(d) Persons affected by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 8 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

§ 1364.7 Validity of price list. (a) No price list may be used as the basis for determining the seller's maximum prices under the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1364.1 of this Regulation, unless the prices contained therein reasonably approximate the prices at which the seller actually sold, during the period March 3, 1942 to March 7, 1942, inclusive, the items listed therein.

(b) If any seller who has submitted a price list or lists according to the provisions of § 1364.6 (a) is requested by the Office of Price Administration to show that such prices do so approximate his actual selling prices, he shall make such showing to the satisfaction of the Office of Price Administration within two weeks of his receipt of such request.*

§ 1364.8 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 8 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 8 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.*

§ 1364.9 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking modification of any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 8 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.*

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A complaint dated February 9, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on February 12, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 9, a district board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division alleging willful violation by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder;

It is ordered, That a hearing in respect to the subject matter of such complaint be held on April 20, 1942, at 10 a. m., at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at the Post Office Building, Owensboro, Kentucky.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Mitchell or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant, alleging willful violation by the above-named defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder as follows:

That the defendant, John A. McNulty, Jr., whose address is Owensboro, Kentucky, wilfully violated section 4 Part II (e) and (g) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and Part II (e) and (g) of the Bituminous Coal Code by selling and delivering by truck during the period August 27 through September 7, 1941, to the Daviess County Board of Education, Owensboro, Kentucky, approximately 73.36 tons of 1½" lump coal produced at the defendant's J. Lee Rudy Mine, Mine Index No. 246, located in District No. 9, Daviess County, Kentucky, at a delivered price of $2.04 per net ton, whereas said coal was classified as Size Group 6 and priced at $1.70 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 for Truck Shipments. In these transactions said defendant failed to add to the applicable minimum f. o. b. mine price an amount not less than the estimated actual cost, arrived at in good faith in a reasonable manner, of the truck transportation from the mine to the Whitesville School at Whitesville, Kentucky, and the Philpot School at Philpot, Kentucky, distances of approximately 19 and 12 miles, respectively, as required by Price Instruction 5 of Supplement No. 1 of said Schedule.

Notice is also hereby given that if it shall be determined that the Code member has wilfully committed any one or more of the violations alleged in the complaint, an order may be entered either revoking the membership of the Code member in the Bituminous Coal Code or directing the Code member to cease and desist from violating the Bituminous Coal Code and regulations made thereunder.

Dated: March 9, 1942.

[Docket Nos. A-1309, and A-1309, Part II]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 15 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 15 AND PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 15 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NOS. 1579 AND 1587 AND FOR REVISION IN THE PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NOS. 890 AND 164 IN DISTRICT NO. 15

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1309, PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1309, GRANTING CERTAIN TEMPORARY RELIEF IN DOCKET NO. A-1309, PART II AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1309, PART II

The original petition filed with this Division by the above-named party in Docket No. A-1309, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requests the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 15; a change in the county designation of Mine Index No. 890 of code member M. R. Phears in that district; and certain revisions in the price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 164 of the R. & R. Coal Co. in that district, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

As indicated in a separate order issued in Docket No. A-1309, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by petitioner except with respect to the establishment of permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 1587 of code member Pearson & Son and of Mine Index No. 1579 of code member James Trent, both in Production Group No. 3, Putnam County, Missouri, and with respect to the revisions requested relating to Mine Index Nos. 890 and 164.

On February 18, 1942, a petition of intervention was filed in this matter by District Board No. 12 praying that the permanent establishment of the price classifications and minimum prices proposed by the original petitioner for the coals of Mine Index Nos. 1587 and 1579 be denied pending final determination of related and analogous issues in Dockets Nos. A-179 and A-492, which were consolidated by the order of May 12, 1941, therein, and that the request in the original petition for a reduction of 20 cents per ton in the proposed minimum price for the mine run coals of those mines containing 30% or more screenings that will pass through a 1¼" screen also be denied.

After due consideration it appears that an adequate showing of necessity has been made and that temporary relief should be granted as to the coals of Mine Index Nos. 1587 and 1579 as prayed for by the original petitioner, in respect to the proposed price classifications and minimum prices therefor and the proposed reduction in such minimum prices for the mine run (Size Group 9) coals containing more than the said percentage of screenings. It appears, however, that the original petition does not allege sufficient facts for the granting of permanent relief in those respects, without a hearing. Moreover, it also appears that the petition does not allege sufficient facts for the granting of relief with respect to the requested change in county designation of Mine Index No. 890, the requested change in the production group number and the proposed revisions in the price classifications and minimum prices presently effective for the coals of Mine Index No. 164, without a hearing.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1309 relating to the coals of Mine Index No. 890 of M. R. Phears, Mine Index No. 164 of the R. & R. Coal Co., Mine Index No. 1587 of Pearson and Son, and Mine Index No. 1579 of James Trent be and it hereby is severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1309 and designated as Docket No. A-1309, Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1309, Part II under the applicable provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the rules of the Division be held on March 24, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Room 536, Dwight Building, in Kansas City, Missouri.

It is further ordered, That Scott A. Dahlquist or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 19, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of the original petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 15 for (1) the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 1587 of Pearson and Son and of Mine Index No. 1579 of James Trent for truck shipments and of a reduction of 20 cents per ton in the minimum price for such coals in Size Group 9 (mine run) containing 30% or more screenings that will pass through 1¼" screen; (2) for a change from Monroe (Missouri) to Ralls (Missouri) in the county designation of Mine Index No. 890 of M. R. Phears; and (3) for certain reductions in the minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 164 of the R. & R. Coal Co., for truck shipments, as follows:

	Prices

It is further ordered that temporary relief, pending final disposition of Docket No. A-1309, Part II, is hereby granted as follows: Commencing forthwith the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for Truck Shipments is supplemented to include the following price classifications and minimum prices:

PART 1086—O. D. WOOL CLIPS, O. D. WOOL RAGS AND O. D. WOOL WASTES

General Preference Order M-87 to Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of O. D. Wool Clips, O. D. Wool Rags and O. D. Wool Wastes

Whereas the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of wool for the combined needs of defense, private account, and export, rendering it necessary that all O. D. Wool Clips, O. D. Wool Rags and O. D. Wool Wastes be used in the manufacture of O. D. Wool products for the Armed Forces of the United States; and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense to control the distribution of O. D. Wool Clips, O. D. Wool Rags and O. D. Wool Wastes in the manner hereinafter in this Order provided;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1086.1 General Preference Order M-87—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(b) Additional definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "O. D. wool clips" means the clippings resulting from the manufacture of woven or knitted fabric O. D. in color, containing at least 80% wool, into articles of clothing.

(2) "O. D. wool rags" means rags that are substantially all wool, O. D. in color, that are derived from fabric, either woven or knitted, that has been used by the ultimate consumer.

(3) "O. D. wool wastes" means wool wastes of any type that are O. D. in color, resulting from any phase in the manufacture of O. D. wool products.

(4) "Dealer" means any person heretofore regularly engaged, either wholly or partly, in the business of purchasing and selling O. D. wool clips, O. D. wool rags or O. D. wool wastes.

(c) Restrictions on sales and deliveries of O. D. wool clips, O. D. wool rags and O. D. wool wastes. No person other than the War Department or the Navy Department shall hereafter sell or deliver any O. D. wool clips, O. D. wool rags or O. D. wool wastes except to Dealers or persons manufacturing O. D. wool products to fill orders of the War Department or Navy Department.

(d) Restrictions on the use of O. D. wool clips, O. D. wool rags and O. D. wool wastes. No person engaged in the manufacture of textiles, or any process thereof, shall use O. D. wool clips, O. D. wool rags or O. D. wool wastes, except in the manufacture of O. D. wool products to fill orders of the War Department or Navy Department.

(e) Required accumulations of O. D. wool clips and O. D. wool rags. Each person engaged in the manufacture of any product from O. D. wool cloth shall hereafter collect and segregate for sale and delivery pursuant to this Order all O. D. wool clips and O. D. wool rags which may be produced by him: Provided, however, That any person engaged in the manufacture of finished articles from O. D. wool cloth furnished him by the War Department or Navy Department, shall collect, segregate and return to the War Department or Navy Department, as the case may be, all such O. D. wool clips or O. D. wool rags produced by him in the performance of such contract.

(f) Appeal. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of O. D. wool clips, O. D. wool rags or O. D. wool wastes conserved, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, by letter or telegram, Ref.; M-87; setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(g) Reports and correspondence. All applications, statements or other communications filed pursuant to this Order or concerning the subject matter hereof, shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-87.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Effective date. This Order shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. PART 1114—RUBBER WORKING MACHINERY

General Limitation Order No. L-61—To Regulate Production and Distribution of Rubber Tire Retreading and Recapping Equipment

Whereas the shortage of crude rubber for military requirements and essential civilian uses has created an abnormal demand for Retreading and Recapping Equipment for rubber tires; and

Whereas the supply of existing Retreading and Recapping Equipment, if supplemented by careful selection of locations for small quantities of additional equipment, is adequate to satisfy the demand for Retreading and Recapping of Rubber Tires; and

Whereas the production for delivery of Retreading and Recapping Equipment, if unregulated, will duplicate existing facilities and thus utilize quantities of scarce and critical materials as to which defense requirements have created a shortage for defense, private account and export, and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote defense of the United States, to take the measures hereinafter set forth, and to regulate the production and delivery of Retreading and Recapping Equipment.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1114.1 General Limitation Order L–61—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Retreading and Recapping Equipment" means any mechanical device which applies uncured rubber compound (in the form of camelback, or otherwise) to rubber tires for the purpose of renewing the tire tread. The term includes parts such as holders, tables, matrices, curing rings and bands, pressure plates, molds, steam chambers, and kettle-curing devices but does not include such shop equipment as section molds, tire repair and spot equipment, tube vulcanizers, tire spreaders, buffers, spacer rings, boilers, curing rims, regroovers, mandrills, breaker screws, jacks or small shop tools such as knives, rollers, and stitchers.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture and distribution. No manufacturer of Retreading and Recapping Equipment, or parts therefor, shall produce any such equipment, or parts therefor, except to fill orders rated on a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A issued by the Director of Industry Operations; and no manufacturer or distributor of Retreading and Recapping Equipment, or parts therefor, shall sell, lease, lend, rent, deliver, or otherwise transfer, any new Retreading or Recapping Equipment, or parts therefor, except to fill orders rated on a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A issued by the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Criteria for issuing Preference Rating Certificates. In issuing ratings on Preference Rating Certificates, the Director of Industry Operations will consider the following factors, to the extent feasible, among others:

(1) The number and capacity of Retreading and Recapping Equipment facilities at present available in the particular locality.

(2) The anticipated need for Retreading and Recapping Equipment in the particular locality.

(3) The amount of camelback expected to be made available in the particular locality.

(4) The existence of orders placed prior to January 28, 1942, and the amount of work already done on these orders.

(d) Non-applicability to repair or maintenance of existing equipment. The prohibitions of paragraph (b) hereof shall not be construed to restrict the sale, lease, loan, renting, delivery or other transfer of parts to be used to repair or maintain existing equipment, or equipment delivered in accordance with the terms of this Order.

(e) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. All communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–61.

(g) Appeals. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director of Industry Operations, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–61, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (a) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Reports. Manufacturers of Retreading and Recapping Equipment shall file such monthly and other reports with the Division of Industry Operations as shall from time to time be requested by said Division.

(j) Effective date. This Order shall take effect immediately and shall continue in effect until revoked by the Director of Industry Operations. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, Jan. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 561, E.O. 9024, Jan. 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, Jan. 24, 1942, 7 F.R. 527; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., 3d Sess., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong., 1st Sess.)

PART 1118—SEXTANTS

Limitation Order No. L–58

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of sextants for defense, for private account and for export; and the following Order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1118.1 Limitation Order No. L–58—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Dealer" means any person who, prior to the effective date of this Order, was engaged as a part of a regular business in the selling of new or used sextants.

(b) Control of imports. From and after the effective date of this Order no person shall import any sextant into the United States from Great Britain unless the importation thereof has been approved by the Lend-Lease Administration under the terms of the Eden White Paper.

(c) Prohibition of sales. From and after the effective date of this Order no person shall sell, deliver, transfer or otherwise dispose of any sextant except:

(1) To the Army or Navy of the United States, United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard; or to any other department or agency of the United States.

(2) To a purchaser who files with the transferor of such sextant, a certificate from the United States Coast Guard stating that such purchaser is in immediate and legitimate need of and is entitled to obtain, a sextant;

(3) To a Dealer;

(4) To any person pursuant to a specific order of the Director of Industry Operations.

No person other than those specified above shall buy, or accept delivery or transfer of any sextant.

(d) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this Order shall keep and preserve for not less than 2 years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales.

(f) Reports. All persons affected by this Order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this Order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representative of the War Production Board.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this Order, or who by any Act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this Order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any Material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Appeal. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action, if any, as it deems appropriate by the amendment of this Order or otherwise.

(j) Communications. All communications concerning this Order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–58.

(k) Effective date. This Order shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, amended Dec. 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Sections 1351.252, 1351.254, 1351.258, 1351.259 (c) and 1351.261 (b), (c), and (d) are hereby amended; new paragraphs (f), (g), and (h) are added to § 1351.261; new § 1351.260a is added; and § 1351.259 (b) is revoked, as set forth below.

§ 1351.252 Exempt sales. Sales of tea, blended or unblended, in packages of less than half chest lots shall be excepted from the operation of this Schedule.

§ 1351.254 Permission to carry out contracts entered into prior to February 3, 1942. Any person who, prior to February 3, 1942, has entered into a contract of sale or other firm commitment calling for the delivery or transfer after that date of tea at prices higher than the maximum prices established by Revised Price Schedule No. 91 may petition the Office of Price Administration for permission to deliver such tea at its actual cost. Such petition shall be made and filed pursuant to the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 [3] issued by the Office of Price Administration and shall be supported by affidavits setting forth (a) the name and address of the buyer and seller; (b) the quantity, type, and grade of tea involved; (c) the cost of that tea to the applicant; (d) the price contracted for with the buyer; and (e) the delivery date provided for in the contract. Permission will be granted only when necessary to protect the applicant against loss in the disposition of inventory acquired prior to February 3, 1942, at prices higher than the established maximum prices and held by the applicant on that date. Such application must be filed with the Office of Price Administration on or before April 1, 1942. No permission will be granted, in any case, to make delivery of tea on or after June 1, 1942, at prices higher than the established maximum prices.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Price Schedule No. 91, or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

The doors and other openings thereof must lead into a public street or into the yard connected with the industrial alcohol plant, or into an elevator shaft or common passageway partitioned off from all other rooms or buildings, and leading either directly or through another elevator shaft or similar passageway to the street or yard.

(b) Where not located on industrial alcohol plant premises—(1) Premises owned by proprietor unencumbered or consent of owner is obtained. If the bonded warehouse is not located on the premises of an industrial alcohol plant and the land and buildings are owned by the proprietor in fee simple, unencumbered, or if not so owned and the consent of the owner or encumbrancer or lien holder, as the case may be, has been procured, the bonded warehouse must be completely separated from contiguous premises by unbroken partitions of substantial construction extending from the ground to the roof in a direct vertical line. The doors must lead into a public street or into the yard connected with the warehouse.

(2) Premises covered by bond, Form 1604. If the condition of the title to the bonded warehouse premises is such that indemnity bond, Form 1604, may be filed in lieu of the consent of the owner or encumbrancer or lien holder, the bonded warehouse may consist of a room or floor of a building, in which case it must be completely separated from all other rooms or floors of the building by solid, unbroken floors and walls of substantial construction extending from the ground or floor to the roof or ceiling. The doors and other openings must open into a public street or into the yard connected with the warehouse, or into an elevator shaft or common passageway, partitioned off from the bonded warehouse and other businesses and leading either directly or through another elevator shaft or similar passageway to the street or yard. Where the door of the warehouse opens into a common passageway, as provided above, the partitions forming the common passageway shall be solid materials or expanded metal or woven wire of not less than 9 gauge nor more than 2-inch mesh, and shall extend from the floor to the ceiling or roof, but doors may be provided therein if they do not permit interior communication with a rectifying plant or tax-paid bottling house in the same building contrary to the provisions of § 182.10. Common passageways shall be used exclusively as a means of communication.* (Secs. 3101, 3112, I.R.C.)

The inlet and outlet pipe connections of each weighing tank must be fitted with valves so constructed that they can be secured with Government locks, and any other openings in such tanks must also be so constructed that they can be closed and similarly locked. The district supervisor will have the calibration of each weighing tank verified by a Government officer.* (Secs. 2808, 2823, I.R.C.)

§ 182.66 Test weights. The proprietor shall provide a set of ten 50-pound cast-iron test weights, which shall be certified by the National Bureau of Standards or State departments of weights and measures as conforming to class "C" requirements of the National Bureau of Standards. If the proprietor has provided such test weights at an industrial alcohol bonded warehouse or denaturing plant operated by him on the same premises, or at a rectifying plant, etc., on contiguous premises, he need not provide a separate set of weights for the industrial alcohol plant. All test weights shall be placed under the control and in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger in charge, who shall keep them under Government lock when not in use.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.67 Furnace doors, steam and fuel lines. The door of every furnace of every still or boiler located on the industrial alcohol plant premises must be so constructed that it may be closed and locked with a Government lock in such a manner as will effectually prevent it from being opened and a fire lighted in the furnace or under the boiler: Provided, That where the stills are heated with steam and it is necessary to use the boilers for the generation of steam for other purposes during periods when distilling operations are suspended, the doors of the furnaces of such boilers need not be equipped for locking when the pipe lines used to convey steam from the boilers to the stills are provided with valves equipped for locking with Government locks at the point where they enter each still. Where the boilers used for generating steam for the operation of the industrial alcohol plant are located off the industrial alcohol plant premises, the pipe line used to convey the steam to the industrial alcohol plant premises, the with a valve so constructed that it may be locked with a Government lock, either at the point where it enters the premises or at the point of entrance to the still. If the stills are operated with fuel conveyed to them by pipe line, such pipe line must likewise be equipped for locking.* (Ser. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.70 Cookers and mash tubs. Cookers and mash tubs must be so placed as to be easily accessible and subject to ready examination by Government officers. Each such cooker or mash tub must have painted thereon its designated use, as "Cooker" or "Mash Tub," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons.*

§ 182.71 Fermenters. Each fermenter must be constructed of wood, metal, concrete, or other suitable material, and so arranged as to permit examination of every part thereof. Each fermenter must have plainly and legibly painted thereon in oil colors the word "Fermenter," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons, depth in inches, and, if of uniform dimensions and standing on end, the capacity per inch of depth. Where such tanks are of irregular dimensions the proprietor shall furnish the district supervisor a table, in duplicate, showing the capacity of the tank for each inch of depth. The district supervisor will retain one copy of the table and forward the other to the storekeeper-gauger, who will retain the same in the Government office. The proprietor shall provide an accurate measuring rod marked in inches, or a steel tape, suitable for use in determining the contents of such tanks. When deemed necessary, the accuracy of the proprietor's calibration of fermenters will be verified by Government officers.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

able measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated. There must be painted on each tank the words "Washwater Receiving Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. The outlet valve must be equipped for the reception of Government lock. Such tanks, if connected with low-wine tanks, stills, or other distilling apparatus, shall be connected by means of fixed metal pipe lines for the purpose of transferring the washwater.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.73 Stills. The stills must be of substantial construction and must have a clear space of not less than 1 foot around them. The steam or fuel line to each still shall be equi; ped with a valve so constructed that it may be locked with a Government lock as provided in § 182.67, when the still is registered "Not for use." The drain and wash-out pipes of stills must also, wherever practicable, be equipped with valves so constructed that they may be locked with Government locks. If there is a furnace under the stills or doublers, the door thereto must, as provided in § 182.67, be so constructed that it may be secured with a Government lock. There must be a clear space of not less than 2 feet around every doubler and condenser or worm tank. The doubler and worm tanks must be elevated not less than 1 foot from the floor. Every still must be numbered, commencing with number 1, according to the flow of the alcohol, and have painted thereon its designated use, such as "Beer Still," "Doubler," "Rectifying Column," etc., and its number. The capacity in wine gallons of pot stills and doublers, the capacity in wine gallons of the charge or top chamber of charge chamber stills, and the maximum spirit producing capacity for a period of 24 hours, determined in accordance with § 182.915, of continuous stills, shall be marked on such stills. Where the still is insulated or the manufacturer's serial number is otherwise obscured, such number and capacity will likewise be painted on the covering of the still.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.74 General requirements for tanks and other equipment. All tanks used as receptacles for spirits between the outlet of the first condenser or worm and the receiving tanks shall be constructed of metal, and shall be of uniform dimensions from top to bottom, and each such tank shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated. All tanks must be so constructed as to permit examination of every part thereof, and so arranged as to leave an open space of not less than 3 feet between the top and the roof or floor above. Where tanks are equipped with manholes or valves in the top, which are required to be locked with Government locks, suitable walks or landings with steps or stairways leading thereto must be provided near the top of such tanks in order that ready access may be had by Government officers to the manholes. District supervisors may require such walks or landings, with steps or stairways leading thereto, to be installed at plants now operating, where the tanks have manholes or valves in the top, which are required to be locked with Government locks, and the present method of gaining access to the top of the tanks is hazardous or unsafe to Government officers who are required to open and close the locks on such manholes or valves or to inspect the contents of the tanks from time to time. All tanks, such as low-wine tanks, high-wine tanks, heads and tails tanks, fusel oil tanks, distilled water tanks, and similar equipment, shall each have plainly and legibly painted thereon its designated use, serial number, and capacity in wine gallons. Manheads, inlets, and outlets of the tanks and all necessary openings in the distilling apparatus and equipment, except column stills, whereby access may be had to the alcohol, must be provided with facilities for locking with Government locks: Provided, That distilled water storage tanks need not be so equipped unless a pipe line is connected therewith for the conveyance of distilled water to contiguous establishments, as provided in § 182.76. All openings in tanks and other distilling apparatus and equipment, which are not absolutely necessary and which can be permanently closed without interference with plant operations, shall be closed by brazing, welding, or otherwise securely fastening and sealing. Tanks used as receptacles for alcohol must not be permanently connected with pipe lines used for the conveyance of air, distilled water, or other substances than alcohol.

(a) Measuring devices. All tanks used as receptacles for alcohol shall be equipped with floats and counterweights and a proper scale whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated, except that tanks located in a locked room may be equipped with suitable and accurate glass gauges: Provided, That the use of other suitable and accurate measuring devices may be authorized by the Commissioner upon application of the proprietor. The openings in the tanks for cords or wires for floats and counterweights must be no larger than are absolutely necessary to accommodate the cords or wires. Where tanks equipped with floats and counterweights are in a locked room, the scale should be extended to the outside of the room to permit ascertainment of the contents of the tank and thus guard against overflow without the necessity of opening the door of the room. Where tanks in a locked room are equipped with glass gauges, a properly barred and secured window must be provided in the wall or door to permit reading the gauge.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.75 Fusel oil tanks. Fusel oil tanks must be constructed and equipped in accordance with the provisions of § 182.74 and each such tank must have painted thereon the words "Fusel Oil Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. Tanks for the temporary storage of fusel oil, after the same has been tested, need not be enclosed in a room or building, but must be located on the industrial alcohol plant premises. Fusel oil tanks shall not be connected with any pipe line used for the conveyance of alcohol. The pipe lines connecting the tanks in which fusel oil is collected during the course of distillation with the stills must be constructed and arranged in accordance with the provisions of § 182.82. Where fusel oil is to be transferred by pipe line from the tanks in which collected to storage tanks pending removal, such pipe lines must also be constructed in accordance with the provisions of § 182.82. Pipe lines connected with fusel oil tanks must be provided with valves so arranged as to control the flow of fusel oil both into and out of the tanks, and so constructed that they may be secured with Government locks.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.76 Distilled water storage tanks. Distilled water storage tanks shall be so located that their contents may be readily inspected by Government officers, and each such tank shall have painted thereon the words "Distilled Water Storage Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. Where distilled water is to be conveyed by pipe lines to contiguous establishments operated under the internal revenue laws and regulations, the storage tanks from which the distilled water is to be conveyed must be so constructed that any necessary openings therein may be closed and secured with a Government lock. The pipe line must be an independent one, without any connection with any other pipe, tank, vessel or utensil on the industrial alcohol plant premises: Provided, That where distilled water is to be so conveyed from two or more distilled water storage tanks, the pipe line may be connected with such tanks by permanent manifold connections. The pipe line must be constructed of metal and exposed to view throughout its entire length. The valves, flanges, and other connections in such pipe line on the industrial alcohol plant premises must be brazed, welded, or otherwise secured in such a manner that the pipe line and its connections cannot be detached or altered without showing evidence of tampering.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.77 Try boxes. Try boxes must be provided and so constructed as to permit reading the proof of the alcohol, as well as the temperature, without unlocking the same. Such boxes shall be substantially constructed and shall be equipped for locking with a Government lock. Each try box must be provided with an overflow pipe to permit by-passing of the alcohol around the valves controlling the flow from the try box to the low or high wine tanks or the receiving tanks. The overflow pipe shall be brazed or welded to the pipe line leading to the low or high wine tanks or the receiving tanks.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.78 Tanks in wine room. Where low wines, high wines, and unfinished alcohol are produced, suitable tanks for the reception of such alcohol, low wines, and high wines must be provided in the wine room or building. The tanks shall be constructed and secured in conformity with the provisions of § 182.74. Each such tank shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words "Low Wine Tank," "High Wine Tank," or "Unfinished Alcohol Tank," as the case may be, followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. These tanks shall be connected by means of fixed metal pipe lines with the stills or the charge or feed tanks thereof, in which the alcohol is to be redistilled. The pipe lines connected with such tanks shall be provided with valves to control the flow of alcohol into and out of the tanks and such valves shall be so constructed that they may be closed and secured with Government locks.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.79 Chemical receiving tanks. If liquid chemicals are produced in the industrial alcohol plant in connection with the production of ethyl alcohol as a by-product, a sufficient number of receiving tanks for the deposit of each kind of chemical produced must be provided, and the same shall be constructed and secured as prescribed in § 182.74, and such tanks must be located in the wine room or building, or elsewhere on the industrial alcohol plant premises, but not necessarily within a room or building, and each such tank shall have painted thereon the name of the chemical to be deposited therein, and the words "Receiving Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.80 Receiving tanks. The proprietor must provide in the receiving room receiving tanks of sufficient capacity to hold at least the maximum quantity of alcohol that can be distilled during a day of 24 hours. Receiving tanks must be constructed and arranged in conformity with the requirements of § 182.74, and, in addition thereto, such tanks must be elevated not less than 18 inches from the floor and so separated that Government officers may pass completely around each. Each receiving tank must be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated, and shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words "Receiving Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. Pipe lines connected with receiving tanks must be brazed, welded, or otherwise secured and sealed, to the tanks in such a manner that they cannot be detached or altered without showing evidence of tampering. Pipe lines for the conveyance of air, distilled water, or other substances than alcohol may not be permanently connected with receiving tanks.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.81 Stopcocks of receiving tanks. The stopcocks which control the flow of alcohol into the receiving tanks must be so arranged that the alcohol may be run into any of the tanks, and if the stopcocks are in the receiving room, they must be controlled by rods, the handles of which must extend into the distilling building or through the wall to the outside of the receiving room and be under Government lock. If such stopcocks are outside of the receiving room, they must be securely boxed and the box locked with a Government lock. If the stopcocks or the handles thereof are located in the distilling building, each such stopcock or handle shall be securely locked with a Government lock, but need not be enclosed within a box. The storekeeper-gauger will keep the keys to the Government locks which control the stopcocks of receiving tanks in his possession. The flow of the alcohol from one tank to another will, however, be changed by the proprietor under the immediate supervison of the storekeeper-gauger.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, I.R.C.)

§ 182.82 Pipe lines. The distilling apparatus and equipment must be closed and continuous, commencing with the first still in which the vapors rise and continuing with securely closed vessels and pipes to the receiving tanks in which the finished product is deposited. All such pipe lines must be of a fixed and permanent character, constructed of metal, and so arranged as to be exposed to view throughout their entire lengths. All valves, unions, flanges, and other detachable connections in the pipe lines of the distilling equipment from the point where the vapors rise in the first or beer still to the receiving tanks must be so secured by brazing, welding, fastening and sealing, or locking with Government locks as to effectually prevent disconnection and access to the alcohol. Pipe lines from the receiving room to tanks in an industrial alcohol bonded warehouse or denaturing plant on the industrial alcohol plant premises or to a rectifying plant on contiguous or nearby premises (as authorized by § 182.82a) shall be constructed and secured in a like manner and similarly exposed to view throughout their entire lengths: Provided, That such pipe lines may be connected with weighing tanks by means of flexible metal hose with the ends brazed or welded to the inlet or outlet of the tank and to the pipe line, or by means of short, detachable hose connections if the end of the pipe line is fitted with a valve so constructed that it may be secured with a Government lock. The pipe line may likewise be connected with railroad tank cars by short, detachable hose connections.

(a) Preparation for sealing. Where flanges, unions, valves, and other detachable connections in the pipe lines are not secured by welding or brazing, and are not to be secured by Government locks, they must be prepared by the proprietor for sealing with "cap" seals. Flanges, unions, and valves will be prepared for sealing, in accordance with the following instructions:

(1) Sealing flanges. Flanges may be prepared for sealing by one of the following methods:

(i) By applying a "castle" nut with a hole drilled through the bolt, so the sealing wire may be passed through like a cotter pin, two such nuts being applied to each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such nuts and bolts will be applied at approximately equal distances apart;

(ii) By drilling a small hole through both nut and bolt, two such bolts and nuts being drilled for each flange, opposite each other; or

(iii) By drilling a hole through the corner of the head of the bolt and one through the corner of the nut so the two will be sealed together, two such bolts and nuts being drilled for each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such nuts and bolts will be applied at approximately equal distances apart.

(2) Sealing unions. Unions will be prepared for sealing by enclosing the same in a metal box with holes for the sealing wire.

(3) Sealing valves. Small gate and globe valves may be prepared for sealing by enclosing the packing nut and hood with a metal band or strip drawn tightly around the flange and fitted for the reception of the sealing wire, or by drilling a hole in the packing nut so that sealing wire may be passed through and drawn around the pipe and sealed. Where valves have large flanges, such flanges may be sealed in the same manner as other flanges.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.82a Pipe lines to rectifying plants. The Commissioner may, in his discretion, authorize the installation of a pipe line for the transfer of alcohol in accordance with §§ 182.574a to 182.574g, from the weighing tank in an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse, after tax-payment, to storage tanks in a rectifying plant for use in rectification and bottling, when such rectifying plant is contiguous to, or is in the immediate vicinity of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse. The Commissioner will determine from all the circumstances in each case whether the rectifying plant is in the immediate vicinity of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse.

(a) Application and sketch. The proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse who desires to install a pipe line for the transfer of tax-paid alcohol to a contiguous rectifying plant, or rectifying plant in the immediate vicinity of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse, must file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor, setting forth the relative position of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse and the rectifying plant; the proprietorship thereof, and a full description of the proposed pipe line, including all connections with tanks, etc. There must be attached to each copy of the application, a sketch, showing the proposed pipe line throughout its entire length, including its connections with the weighing tank in the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse and the storage tank in the rectifying plant. The sketch shall also show the relative location of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse and the rectifying plant, the exact distance between the two premises, and any intervening buildings and the use of such buildings.

(b) Action on application. Upon receipt of the application, the district supervisor will make such inquiry as he may deem necessary to determine whether the revenue will be endangered and the propriety of granting the permission sought, and will then forward all copies of the application to the Commissioner with his recommendation thereon together with a statement of his findings and conclusions. The Commissioner will indicate his approval or disapproval on all copies of the application and return two copies to the district supervisor, who will retain one copy and forward one copy to the applicant.

(c) Construction. The pipe line shall be constructed in accordance with § 182.82 and kept painted in accordance with § 182.83. The weighing tank with which the pipe line is connected, either directly or by manifold, shall conform with the requirements of § 182.65, and shall have securely affixed thereto a board at least 10 by 12 inches in size for attaching the certificates of tax-payment in accordance with § 182.574d. A separate and permanent pipe line must be installed to each rectifying plant to which it is desired to transfer alcohol. Such pipe line shall not be connected with any other pipe line, tank, vessel, or utensil on the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse or rectifying plant premises other than the weighing tank in the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse and the storage tank in the rectifying plant, except that the pipe line may be connected with a weighing tank in the rectifying plant where it is desired to gauge the alcohol prior to deposit in the storage tank. Where alcohol is to be conveyed from two or more weighing tanks, or to two or more rectifying plants, or both, the pipe line, or lines, may be connected with the weighing tank, or tanks, by manifold connections so arranged as to control the flow of alcohol from each weighing tank and into each pipe line. There shall be painted on each pipe line extending to and from the manifold a number corresponding with the serial number of the weighing tank or the registry number of the rectifying plant with which the pipe line is connected. Where there are separate pipe lines leading directly from the weighing tanks to two or more rectifying plants, the registry number of the rectifying plant to which each pipe line leads, shall be painted thereon. Registry numbers of rectifying plants painted on pipe lines shall be preceded by the letter "R," as "R–37."

(d) Form 1431, plat and plans. If the application is approved, the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse will, upon installation of the pipe line, file application, Form 1431, and plat and plans (original, amended, or supplemental, as the case may be), showing the pipe line, its connections, intervening premises, etc., in the same manner as required by paragraph (a) of this section.

(e) Change in proprietorship. Where a change occurs in the proprietorship of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse or the rectifying plant in connection with which a pipe line for the transfer of tax-paid alcohol has been installed and approved, a new application must be filed by the proprietor and approved by the Commissioner before any alcohol may be transferred by the pipe line.* (Secs. 2823, 2829, 3101, 3106, 3124 (a) (2), I.R.C.)

All other items which are correctly set forth in prior applications, and in which there has been no change since the last preceding application, may be incorporated in the amended or supplemental application by reference to the respective application previously filed. § 182.118 New applications may be required. The Commissioner or the district supervisor may at any time, in his discretion, require the filing of new applications on Form 1431, together with any additional information that may be desired.* (Sec. 3114 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.119 Consent, Form 1602. Where the proprietor is not the owner in fee of the lot or tract of land on which the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is situated, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other lien, or is not the owner of the distilling apparatus and equipment, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other lien, he must file the written consent of the owner and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, conditional sales vendor, or other lienor, that the premises or property may be used for the purpose of distilling alcohol or the storage of alcohol, subject to the provisions of law, and expressly stipulating that the lien of the United States for taxes and penalties shall have priority over any right, title, or interest of the person giving the consent, and that in the case of the forfeiture of the premises or property, or any part thereof, the title to the same shall vest in the United States, discharged from any such right, title, or interest, except that where such consent cannot be obtained, the proprietor may file in lieu of such consent, an indemnity bond, Form 1604, as hereinafter provided. This consent shall be executed on Form 1602, "Consent," in triplicate, in accordance with the instructions printed thereon, duly acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, properly recorded, and submitted to the district supervisor with the application, Form 1431, and made a part thereof. The acknowledgment and certificate of recordation shall be executed on all three copies of the form. A new consent will be required for each year beginning on the 1st day of January, unless the consent is given for a definite period of time exceeding one year, in which event the consent should be given in terms to expire at the beginning of an annual period, January 1. If after such consent is filed, the premises are extended and the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is not the owner in fee unencumbered of the additional premises, or additional apparatus and equipment are installed and the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse or the party who executed the consent then in effect is not the owner thereof unencumbered, a consent on Form 1602 must be filed for such additional premises or apparatus and equipment. A new consent will also be required whenever there is a change of proprietorship, including a succession for a temporary period by a lessee or fiduciary, unless the consent procured by the predecessor specifically covers operation of the premises by his successor or assigns. In the event of failure of such consent, the proprietor will be no longer qualified, unless an indemnity bond on Form 1604 is filed.* (Sec. 2815(b)(1), I.R.C.)

§ 182.120 Permission required for filing bond, Form 1604. Where the proprietor cannot obtain the written consent of the owner of the fee of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises, and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, or other person having a lien thereon, or where he cannot obtain such consent of the owner of the apparatus and equipment, and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, conditional sales vendor, or other lienor, and desires to file an indemnity bond, Form 1604, in lieu of such consent, he shall file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for permission so to do.* (Sec. 2815 (b) (1), I.R.C.)

§ 182.121 Application. The application shall contain (1) an accurate description of the lot or tract of land on which the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is situated, and of the buildings, and the distilling apparatus and equipment thereon; (2) a full and clear statement of the condition of the title to the premises and apparatus and equipment, including the name and address of the owner and of all mortgagees, judgment-creditors, conditional sales vendors, and other persons having liens thereon, the kind, date, and amount of each encumbrance and the balance due thereon, and, in the case of apparatus and equipment purchased under a conditional sales contract, or other form of title retaining contract, the purchase price and the balance due; and (3) a full and clear statement of the reasons why the applicant cannot obtain the prescribed written consent. The district supervisor and Commissioner will take action on such application in accordance with the provisions prescribed in §§ 182.262–182.309.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.122 Bond, Form 1604. If the application is approved by the Commissioner, the applicant shall execute bond on Form 1604, "Indemnity Bond," in triplicate, in conformity with the provisions of §§ 182.184–182.205, and file the same with the district supervisor. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the industrial alcohol plant or, except as provided in paragraph (a), the bonded warehouse is situated, and the buildings, apparatus, and equipment thereon: Provided, That the maximum penal sum of the bond shall be $50,000 for an industrial alcohol plant, or an industrial alcohol plant and bonded warehouse situated on the same premises, and $10,000 for a bonded warehouse situated elsewhere. If such bond is filed in less than the maximum penal sum and the value of the premises, buildings, or apparatus or equipment is increased by additional land, buildings, or apparatus or equipment, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided further, That if such increase in value is less than $500, no additional bond will be required, nor will an additional bond be required in excess of the maximum penal sums specified herein. In the event of the failure of bond on Form 1604, the proprietor will be no longer qualified unless a new and satisfactory bond is filed, or consent, as required by § 182.119 is obtained.

(a) Bonded warehouse consisting of a portion of a building not on the premises of an industrial alcohol plant. Where a bonded warehouse consists of a portion of a building not located on the premises of an industrial alcohol plant, the penal sum of bond, Form 1604, covering such bonded warehouse, shall be in a sum equal to the proportionate appraised value of the building as the space occupied by the warehouse is to the entire space of the building, but not in excess of the maximum sum specified herein. For example, if the warehouse occupies 10 per cent of the space of a building, the penal sum of the bond shall be in a sum equal to 10 per cent of the appraised value of the entire building, but not in excess of the maximum specified herein.* (Secs. 3103, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.123 Appraisal. The appraisal to determine the penal sum of the bond on Form 1604 shall be made by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor. The appraisers shall render to the district supervisor a report, in duplicate, showing separately the value of the land and buildings and the apparatus and equipment, and containing a full and clear statement of the methods employed by them in determining their valuations. Where the value of the property is clearly in excess of the maximum penal sum of the required bond, it will be sufficient for the appraisers to determine such fact, rather than the precise value of the property. In such cases, the value of the property may be specified in the appraiser's report as "more than $50,000" or "more than $10,000," as the case may be. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the applicant or permittee, unless it is made by Government officers.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.124 Certificate of title. The proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse shall submit a certificate and, when required, an abstract, in triplicate, of the title to the premises, prepared by a person authorized by the laws of the State in which the premises is located to prepare such documents. The document must contain an accurate description of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises corresponding to that set forth in the application, Form 1431, and any liens or other encumbrances on the property must be fully described. Such certificate shall accompany the application, Form 1431, and be made a part thereof.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.126 List of stockholders. In the case of corporations and similar legal entities, there must be submitted with Form 1431 at the commencement of business and annually thereafter on May 1 a list of the names and addresses of all stockholders and other persons interested in the corporation or other legal entity and the amount and nature of the stock holding or other interests of each, whether such interest appears in the name of the interested party or in the name of another for him: Provided, That, where more than 100 persons are interested in the corporation or other legal entity as stockholders or otherwise, there need be furnished only the names and addresses and the amounts and nature of the stock holding or other interest of the 100 persons having the largest ownership or other interest in each of the respective classes of stock or other interest, except where more complete information shall be specifically required by the Commissioner: Provided further, That where there has been no change in the stockholders and other persons interested in the corporation or other legal entity, or in the extent of the stock holding or other interest of such persons, the proprietor may furnish on May 1 of each year a certified statement, in triplicate, to that effect in lieu of the prescribed list. Where a corporation operates two or more industrial alcohol plants, bonded warehouses or denaturing plants or other plants situated in the same supervisory district, or wholly owns one or more subsidiaries operating plants under the internal revenue laws and regulations so situated, and in connection with qualifying for the operation of one of such plants files a list of stockholders and other persons interested, as prescribed herein, the filing of an additional list for each plant will not be required, provided that in lieu of such additional list there is submitted with the application, Form 1431, a certificate, in triplicate, definitely identifying the corporation and plant with whose application the list of stockholders and other persons interested is filed, and giving the date of the filing thereof.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

Such powers of attorney will be executed on Form 1534, in triplicate, and submitted to the district supervisor.*

§ 182.130 Execution of power of attorney. Where the principal giving the power of attorney is an individual, it must be executed by him in person, and not by an agent. In the case of a copartnership or association, powers of attorney authorizing one or more of the members, or another person, to execute documents on behalf of the copartnership or association must be executed by all the members constituting the copartnership or association. However, if one or more members less than the whole number constituting the copartnership or association have been delegated the authority to appoint agents or attorneys in fact, the power of attorney may be executed by such member or members, provided it is supported by a duly authenticated copy, in triplicate, of the document conferring authority upon the member or members to execute the same. Where, in the case of a corporation, powers of attorney are executed by an officer thereof, such documents must be supported by triplicate copies of the authorization of such officer so to do, certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation, under the corporate seal, if any, to be true copies.*

§ 182.131 Duration of power of attorney. Powers of attorney authorizing the execution of documents in behalf of a person engaged in, or intending to be engaged in, the business covered by a basic permit issued pursuant to application, Form 1431, shall continue in effect until written notice, in triplicate, of the revocation of such authority is received by the district supervisor, unless terminated by operation of law.*

§ 182.132 Bond, Form 1432–A. Every person filing an application for a basic permit to operate an industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant, upon filing his application, Form 1431, and before issuance of basic permit pursuant thereto, and before proceeding with such business, shall execute a bond on Form 1432–A, "Bond for Industrial Alcohol Plant, Bonded Warehouse, or Denaturing Plant," in triplicate, in conformity with the provisions of §§ 182.184–182.205, and file the same with the district supervisor.* (Secs. 3100, 3101, 3102, 3114 (a), I.R.C.)

Where permittees change labels which have been previously approved, or provide new labels for products, the formula for which has been previously approved, samples of the changed or new labels or facsimiles thereof (or sketches, subject to the filing of the actual labels, if approved) must be submitted, attached to Form 1479–A, in quadruplicate, to the Commissioner for approval. In such cases, the formula need not be restated on Form 1479–A, but the form should be marked "For label approval only" and should give the name under which the preparation was previously approved, the laboratory number of the approved sample, if any, and the date of approval. The approval of the article or preparation by the Commissioner will be based on laboratory examination of the finished product, ingredients, formulas and processes. Such approval shall mean only that the sample, formula, or process has been approved as conforming to the standards of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and such approval shall in no way require the district supervisor to issue a basic permit to use specially denatured alcohol in such process, formula, or preparation. No permit shall be issued to use specially denatured alcohol unless the processes, formulas, preparations, labels, and advertising matter, when required to be submitted to the Commissioner, have been approved by him. § 182.198 Deposit of collateral. Bonds or notes of the United States or other obligations which are unconditionally guaranteed as to both interest and principal by the United States, may be pledged and deposited by pricipals as collateral security in lieu of individual or corporate surety. District supervisors on receiving such bonds or notes, or other obligations, pledged and deposited by principals as collateral security in lieu of surety, shall deposit such securities in accordance with the requirements of Department Circular No. 154, revised (31 CFR, Part 225).* (Sec. 1126, 44 Stat. 122; Sec. 7, 49 Stat. 22; 6 U.S.C. 15)

§ 182.199 Consents of surety. Consents of surety to a change in the terms of a bond must be executed on Form 1533, "Consent of Surety to Change in Terms of Bond," in as many copies as are required in the bonds which they affect, by the principal and all sureties with the same formality and proof of authority to execute as are required for the execution of bonds. Form 1533 will be used by obligors on collateral bonds as well as those on surety bonds. The Form 1533 must properly identify the bond affected thereby and state specifically and precisely what is covered by the extended terms thereof. If the surety is a corporation, the consent may be executed by an agent or attorney in fact duly authorized so to do by power of attorney filed by the surety with the appropriate district supervisor through the office of the Commissioner, or the consent may be executed by the home office officials of such corporate surety; except that, in cases where the saving of time is an element, the consent may be executed by an agent or attorney in fact where the home office officials, by specific direction, order its execution. A copy of such specific direction should be attached to each copy of such consent.* (Secs. 3070, 3114 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.200 Approval required. No individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, intending to commence or to continue in a business covered by these regulations, shall commence or continue such business until all bonds in respect to such business required by any provision of law or regulations have been approved.*

§ 182.201 Authority to approve. District supervisors are authorized to approve or disapprove all bonds and consents of surety filed by an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association relating to the conduct of a business pursuant to the provisions of these regulations: Provided, That bonds, Form 1432–A, Form 1604, and Form 1617, and consents of surety extending the terms of such bonds, will be approved or disapproved by the Commissioner.* (Sec. 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.202 Cause for disapproval. Bonds or consents of surety submitted by any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, in respect to a business covered by these regulations may be disapproved if the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association giving the same, or owning, controlling, or actively participating in the management of such business of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association giving the same, shall have been previously convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of any fraudulent noncompliance with any provision of any law of the United States, if such provision relates to internal revenue or customs taxation of distilled spirits, wines, or fermented malt liquors, or if such an offense shall have been compromised with the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association upon payment of penalties, or otherwise.

(a) Situation of premises. The bond may also be disapproved if the situation of the premises covered by the bond is such as would enable the principal to defraud the United States.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.203 Additional or strengthening bonds. In all cases where the penal sum of a bond on file and in effect is not sufficient, computed as prescribed by law and regulations, the principal may give an additional or strengthening bond in a sufficient penal sum, provided the surety thereon is the same as on the bond already on file and in effect; otherwise a new bond covering the entire liability will be required. Such additional or strengthening bonds being filed to increase the bond liability of the principal and the surety, they are in no sense substitute bonds, and the district supervisor will refuse to approve, or recommend the approval of, any additional or strengthening bond where any notation is made thereon, intended, or which may be construed, as a release of any former bond, or as limiting the amount of either bond to less than its full penal sum. Additional or strengthening bonds must show the current date of execution and the effective date in the blank spaces provided therefor. Such bonds must have marked thereon, by the obligors at the time of execution, "Additional Bond" or "Strengthening Bond."* (Secs. 3070, 3114 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.204 New or superseding bonds. The principal on any bond filed pursuant to these regulations may, at any time, substitute a new bond therefor. A new bond may be required at any time in the discretion of the Commissioner or district supervisor. A new bond shall be required immediately in case of death or insolvency of an individual surety, or the insolvency of a corporate surety. Executors, administrators, assignees, receivers, trustees, or other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, continuing or liquidating the business of the principal, must execute and file a new bond or obtain the consent of the surety or sureties on the existing bond or bonds. When, in the opinion of the Commissioner or district supervisor, the interests of the Government demand it or in any case where the security of the bond becomes impaired in whole or in part for any reason whatever, the principal will be required to give a new bond. Where a bond is found to be not acceptable, the principal shall be required to file immediately a new and satisfactory bond, or discontinue business forthwith.

(a) Liability under superseding bond. The inventories and records of the principal as to the quantity of alcohol, specially denatured alcohol, and recovered denatured alcohol and articles in his possession or in transit on the effective date of any substituted, superseding, or additional bond given under these regulations shall be conclusive and binding upon the obligors on such bonds for the purpose of fixing and determining liability thereunder.* (Secs. 3070, 3114 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.205 Termination of superseded bonds. Where a new bond is submitted by the principal to supersede a bond or bonds then in effect, and such superseding bond has been approved, notice of termination of the superseded bond may be issued and as provided in §§ 182.310–182.321. Superseding bonds must show the current date of execution and the date they are to be effective, and each such bond shall have marked thereon, by the obligors at the time of execution "Superseding Bond."

§ 182.232 Amendments—(a) Increase in the quantity of alcohol or denatured alcohol to be used or withdrawn. In any case where, after operations have been commenced, it is found that the quantity of alcohol or denatured alcohol authorized to be produced, received, withdrawn, or used, as the case may be, is not sufficient to meet the demands of the permittee, an amended basic permit may be issued in accordance with the conditions prescribed for the issuance of the original basic permit, upon the filing of application for an increased quantity, if the bond on file is sufficient to cover the increased quantity or an additional or new bond is filed in a penal sum sufficient to cover the tax on the total quantity authorized to be produced, received, withdrawn, or used, as the case may be, under the amended permit.

(b) Other changes. An amended basic permit may be issued to cover other changes in the terms and conditions of the original permit, upon the filing of application therefor, under the same conditions as those prescribed for the issuance of the original permit.*

§ 182.233 Recalled for correction. Whenever (1) it shall be discovered that these regulations containing any mistake as to kind or quantity of alcohol or denatured alcohol authorized to be produced, received, withdrawn, or used, or alcoholic preparations or articles authorized therein, or conferring privileges, or a combination of privileges, which may not properly under the laws and regulations be conferred or combined, or any other material mistake relating to the privileges authorized thereby, or (2) a formula of denatured alcohol authorized by the permit is rescinded or its use in the manufacture of an article authorized by the permit is discontinued, or a prescribed formula or approved process for the manufacture of an article is changed or rescinded, the Commissioner, or district supervisor who issued such basic permit, or his successor, shall serve on the permittee a written order for such permit to be returned to the district supervisor within 10 days for correction. If the permittee fails to return such permit for correction within the time specified from the date of service of such order upon him, revocation proceedings shall be initiated immediately for revocation of such permit.*

Renewal of Permits

§ 182.234 Permits to be renewed annually. All permittees other than the United States or any governmental agency thereof, desiring to continue in the business covered by the basic permit after December 31, are required to file application and procure permit so to do pursuant to the requirements of these regulations: Provided, That where a basic permit is issued after August 31, such permit shall continue in force and effect until December 31 of the next succeeding calendar year, unless otherwise provided in the permit.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

(2) Change in officers or directors of a corporation. The provisions of paragraph (1) are applicable to changes in officers or directors of a corporation or similar legal entity, and failure to notify the district supervisor of the changes or to discontinue operations upon disapproval of the change, or to make a change in the officers or directors satisfactory to the district supervisor, will amount to, and constitute, the surrender to the United States of the basic permit.

(3) Sale or transfer of business. The sale or transfer of the business or any part thereof; or the sale, pledge, or other disposition of stock or other interest, in the case of a corporation or association, which results in transferring the control and management of the business; or in the case of a co-partnership, the withdrawal of one or more members of a copartnership or the taking in of a new partner, whether active or silent, or the bankruptcy or adjudicated insolvency of one or more of the partners, will amount to, and constitute, the surrender to the United States of the basic permit.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.237 Death, insolvency, or bankruptcy of permittee. In the event of the death, insolvency, or bankruptcy of the permittee, if his property and estate, in connection with which such permit was issued, should pass to his successor or legal representative, or, in the event that such property of the permittee should otherwise, by operation of law or the order of any court, as a result of insolvency, bankruptcy, etc., pass to any receiver, trustee, or other fiduciary, such action automatically terminates the basic permit issued to the deceased, insolvent, or bankrupt, as the case may be.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.238. By whom may be revoked. The authority and power of revoking basic permits issued pursuant to the provisions of these regulations is conferred upon the Commissioner and upon the district supervisor of any supervisory district in which such basic permit was issued.* (Secs. 3114, 3121 (b), 3170, I.R.C.)

(c) Execution and disposition. The order, Form 1430 or 1430–A, shall be executed in quadruplicate. The original copy will be served on the permittee, one copy placed in the official file containing certificate of manner of service, one copy included in the record of the case, and the remaining copy will be placed in the file of such orders maintained in the district supervisor's office.* (Secs. 3114, 3121 (b), 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.243 Time and place of hearing. The citation shall direct the permittee to appear before a designated hearing officer at a time and place named therein, to show cause why his permit should not be revoked. The district supervisor may, for cause, refuse to issue any purchase or withdrawal permit during such period. In the case of carriers, transportation of tax-free or specially denatured alcohol by the carrier may be similarly suspended or restricted.* (Secs. 3114, 3121 (b), 3170, I.R.C.)

(a) Surrender without stipulation. Any other surrender of a permit, pending hearing on citation, shall be treated as a waiver of a hearing, as above provided, and an order of revocation may be entered accordingly.

(b) Surrender before citation. If a permittee surrenders his permit before citation, in any case where the evidence, in the opinion of the district supervisor, or Commissioner, warrants citation for revocation, such citation shall be issued and the permittee shall at the same time be notified that he may file a formal waiver, as above provided. § 182.249 Hearing. Unless waived by the permitee, or postponed, or transferred to another place, by a written agreement signed by the permittee and the attorney representing the United States and approved and filed by the hearing officer, or the Commissioner, or district supervisor, or by order of the hearing officer, Commissioner, or district supervisor, for good cause shown by either party, the hearing shall be held at the time and place stated in the citation, by the hearing officer named in the citation, or any other duly designated and appointed hearing officer assigned to hold such hearings.* (Secs. 3114, 3121 (b), 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.250 Evidence at hearing. The hearing officer shall, at the beginning of the hearing and throughout the proceedings, require that the parties attempt to arrive at such stipulations as will eliminate the necessity of taking evidence with respect to facts concerning which there is no substantial dispute. The evidence introduced at the revocation hearing on behalf of the United States or the permittee must consist of affidavits, depositions, duly authenticated copies of records and documents, and oral testimony of witnesses. Affidavits should not be used if the personal attendance of the affiant as a witness is reasonably possible, and the hearing officer may require a showing that the personal attendance of the affiant is not reasonably available before admitting an affidavit in evidence. When the record is made to show that the personal attendance of the witness is not reasonably possible, or such witness will not execute an affidavit or sign a written statement, the official report of the investigator or inspector of the results of his investigation in that particular regard, identified by him as a witness at such hearing, as having been made immediately following the investigation, may be introduced in evidence.

(a) Further evidence. Before closing a hearing the hearing officer shall definitely inquire of each party whether he has any further evidence to offer, which inquiry and the response thereto must be shown in the record.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.251 Stenographic report of testimony—(a) Stenographic record. A stenographic record shall be made of the testimony and proceedings, including stipulations and admissions of fact (but not arguments of counsel), at all revocation hearings and hearings on disapproval of applications for basic permits. § 182.252 Arguments and briefs. At the conclusion of the testimony the hearing officer may hear arguments of counsel for the Government and for the permittee and may limit the time of such arguments at his discretion, and may also allow briefs to be filed on behalf of either party and fix a time within which the same shall be filed.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.253 Findings of the hearing officer. Within a reasonable time after the conclusion of a hearing, the hearing officer shall render written findings of fact, in which he shall state briefly the issues of fact involved in the hearing, his conclusions thereon from the evidence adduced, and a summary of the evidence offered by both parties, and immediately transmit the original thereof, together with the original transcript of record, to the district supervisor or Commissioner, as the case may be.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.254 Order revoking permit or dismissing proceedings. If the Commissioner or district supervisor, as the case may be, after consideration of the record of evidence taken at the hearing, approves the findings and conclusions of the hearing officer he shall make an order revoking the permit or dismissing the proceedings in accordance therewith. If he disapproves such findings or conclusions, he shall make such findings and order as in his opinion are warranted by the law and facts of the case. An original copy of the order made by the Commissioner or district supervisor, and a copy of the findings of the hearing officer, if they are approved, or a copy of the findings of the Commissioner or district supervisor, if the findings of the hearing officer are disapproved, shall be forwarded to the permittee or his attorney of record in the proceedings.

(a) Notice to Commissioner. When the district supervisor makes an order revoking a permit, he will furnish a copy of the order to the Commissioner. for a reconsideration of such order, on one or more of the following grounds:

(1) The order is contrary to law, or

(2) Is not supported by the evidence, or

(3) Because of newly discovered evidence which the permittee, with due diligence, was unable to produce at the hearing.

If the application is based on grounds (1) or (2), the permittee shall specify therein, by reference to the record, in what respects the order is contrary to law or is not supported by the evidence, as the case may be. If the application is based on ground (3), the permittee shall summarize therein the newly discovered evidence and set forth why he was unable to produce such evidence prior to the closing of the record.

(b) Time of hearing. The Commissioner or district supervisor, with whom such application is filed, may hear the application on a date and at a place to be fixed by him. The Commissioner or district supervisor, as the case may be, after hearing such application, may either affirm the order of revocation previously made, or may vacate and set aside such order and dismiss the proceedings or order a new hearing of the evidence before a designated hearing officer.

(c) Permit privileges. During the period above provided for filing application for reconsideration, and until final order is duly made after such reconsideration, if such application is filed within the time provided therefor, the permit involved shall continue in force and effect, except as to restrictions on withdrawals or transportation as may be ordered by the Commissioner or district supervisor, as provided in § 182.245.* (Secs. 3114, 3121 (b), 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.256 Proceedings when violation occurs outside of district where permit was issued. If violations which furnish the basis for proceedings to revoke permits are alleged to have occurred at a place not within the district where the permit was issued, the citation shall be issued by the district supervisor of the district having jurisdiction of the place where the violation occurred and the hearing shall be held by a hearing officer designated by him.

(a) Certified transcript of proceedings. In all such cases, upon the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall make findings of fact, as provided in § 182.253, and the district supervisor of the district in which the hearing is held shall forward to the district supervisor of the district in which the basic permit was issued a complete and duly certified transcript of the entire record of such proceedings and the findings of the hearing officer.

(b) Review of transcript and record. The district supervisor of the district in which the permit was issued shall immediately upon the receipt of such transcript review the said findings and record and issue an order revoking the permit or dismissing the proceedings, as the facts and the law may warrant.* (Secs. 3114, 3121 (b), 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.257 Appeal to the Commissioner. Appeal to the Commissioner is not required. However, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, in order to insure uniformity of administrative action, entertain an appeal, after review and reconsideration as provided in § 182.255, from an order of revocation of a basic permit by a district supervisor, if filed with the Commissioner within 10 days of the date of the final order.

(a) Petition. The petition for review must set forth facts tending to show action of an arbitrary nature, or of a proceeding and action contrary to law or regulations. No objection to the final order of the district supervisor will be considered by the Commissioner unless such objection was urged before the district supervisor in the permittee's application for reconsideration, or unless reasonable grounds for failure to urge such objections are set forth in the petition for review.

(b) Permit privileges. If such request is filed within the required time, the permit involved shall continue in force and effect until the final order by the Commissioner, except as to such restrictions upon withdrawals or transportation as may be imposed by the district supervisor, as provided in § 182.245.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.258 Review by court of equity. If the Commissioner or district supervisor makes an order revoking a permit and the permittee intends to have such action and order reviewed on appeal by a court of equity, as provided in the law, the Commissioner or district supervisor, upon request therefor, will have prepared, in triplicate, a complete transcript of the record of the revocation proceedings, including all exhibits introduced at such hearing, the findings of fact and conclusions upon which the revocation was based, and the order of revocation.

(a) Certification. The Commissioner or district supervisor, as the case may be, will certify as to the correctness of such transcript of the record and furnish two copies thereof to the permittee or his attorney of record, and one copy to the attorney who will represent the United States in the review of such case in such court.

(b) Court may issue restraining order. Under the law, the court may, in its discretion, affirm, modify, or reverse the finding of the Commissioner or district supervisor, as the facts and law of the case may warrant, and during the pendency of such proceedings may restrain the manufacture, sale, use, or other disposition of alcohol, denatured alcohol, or articles.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.259 Disposition of alcohol or specially denatured alcohol after revocation. When any basic permit is finally revoked, all alcohol or specially denatured alcohol in transit and in possession of the permittee, by virtue of such permit, may continue to be lawfully possessed by him for a period of 60 days after such revocation, but only for the purpose of making lawful disposition thereof, pursuant to proper permit therefor, which the permittee shall do within said period.

(a) Other permits. After revocation of a basic permit no permits to withdraw alcohol or specially denatured alcohol will be issued on which the permittee is named as vendor, vendee, or carrier, except such as may be necessary and proper in order to dispose of the stock of alcohol or specially denatured alcohol in transit and in possession of such permittee.

§ 182.263 Changes in partnership. The withdrawal of one or more members of a partnership or the taking in of a new partner, whether active or silent, shall constitute a change in proprietorship. Likewise, the bankruptcy or adjudicated insolvency of one or more of the copartners results in a dissolution of the partnership and, consequently, a change in proprietorship. Where such a change in proprietorship of the premises occurs, the successor must qualify in the same manner as a new applicant for basic permit, except that the successor may adopt the plat and plans (if any), of the predecessor as provided in § 182.262 (b) (5).*

§ 182.264 Reincorporation. Where a corporation operating under a basic permit issued in accordance with law and these regulations is reorganized and a new charter or certificate of incorporation is secured, the new corporation must qualify in the same manner as a new applicant for basic permit, except that the new corporation may adopt the plat and plans (if any), of the predecessor as provided in § 182.262 (b) (5).*

Changes in Stockholders, Officers, and Directors of Corporation

§ 182.265 Transfer of control and management. The sale or transfer of the capital stock of a corporation holding a basic permit under these regulations does not constitute a change in the proprietorship. However, if any sale, pledge, or other disposition of the capital stock results in transferring the control and management of the business of the corporation, such action shall, ipso facto, constitute the surrender to the United States of the basic permit, and application on the appropriate form, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor for an amended basic permit. Mere changes in stockholders of corporations not constituting a change in control and management will not require the filing of an application for an amended basic permit and need not be reported.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.266 Changes in officers and directors. Where there is a change in the officers or directors of a corporation, the district supervisor must be furnished extracts, in triplicate, of the minutes of the meetings showing such changes.*

Change in Location, Premises, Construction, Apparatus, etc.

§ 182.267 Change in location. Where there is a change in the location of the premises covered by the basic permit, the permittee must comply with all applicable provisions of §§ 182.7–182.163, inclusive, except that in lieu of the filing of a new bond, if required, the permittee may furnish a consent of surety, Form 1533, in accordance with § 182.199, extending the terms of the bond given for the former location to cover operation at the new location.*

§ 182.268 Changes in premises. Where the premises of an industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant, are to be extended or curtailed, the proprietor must file with the district supervisor an amended application on Form 1431, in triplicate, and an amended plat of the premises as extended or curtailed. If the plans are affected by the extension or curtailment, they must also be amended. The additional premises covered by an extension may not be used for permit purposes, and the portion of the premises to be excluded by a curtailment may not be used for other than permit purposes, prior to the approval of the application, plat, and plans, if required, filed in connection therewith.

(a) Indemnity bond, Form 1604. In the case of an extension of the premises of an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse or if the value of such premises is increased by the addition of buildings, equipment, etc., where an indemnity bond, in less than the maximum penal sum, has been filed in lieu of the consent of the owner or of any encumbrancer, a new or additional indemnity bond, on Form 1604, must be filed in accordance with § 182.122.

(b) Consent, Form 1602.—Where the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is the owner in fee unencumbered, or has procured the consent of the owner or of any encumbrancer, of the premises, and such premises are extended to include additional land, the proprietor, if he is not the owner in fee unemcumbered of the extended premises, must procure the consent of the owner or of any encumbrancer of such extended premises, and the buildings, apparatus, and equipment thereon, in accordance with § 182.119, or in lieu thereof file an indemnity bond on Form 1604, in accordance with § 182.122.* (Secs. 3103, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.269 Changes in construction and use. Where a change is to be made in the construction of a room or building of an industrial alcohol plant, bonded, warehouse, or denaturing plant, not involving an extension or curtailment of the premises, or where a change is to be made in the use of any portion of such premises, the permittee shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor, pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes. Upon approval of the application, the changes will be made under the supervision of a Government officer, unless they are of such a nature as, in the opinion of the district supervisor, do not require such supervision. Upon completion of the changes, the permittee must file an amended application on Form 1431, and amended plans.*

§ 182.270 Indemnity bond covering changes in buildings. If buildings on industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises, or on premises which have been eliminated from the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises, are to be demolished or altered in such a manner as to decrease the value of the property, and a lien for taxes exists on such property under section 3112, I.R.C., the permittee, if (1) the owner of the fee unencumbered, or (2) consents in accordance with § 182.119 are necessary and have been obtained, must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond, Form 1617, in triplicate, in a penal sum equal to the decrease in the value of the property: Provided, That if such decrease in value is less than $500, no indemnity bond will be required.

(a) Appraisal. The amount of the decrease in value of the property subject to the Government's lien, which will be caused by the demolition or alteration of buildings, shall be determined by appraisal by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor. The appraisers shall render to the district supervisor a report, in duplicate, of their appraisal, which shall include information as to the methods employed by them in determining their valuations. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the permittee, unless made by Government officers.* (Secs. 3103, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.271 Changes in equipment. Where changes are made in the apparatus and equipment of an industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant, or in the denatured alcohol recovery system at a denatured alcohol user's premises, the permittee shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes: Provided, That emergency repairs may be made under the supervision of the Government officer, where one is assigned to the premises, without prior approval of the district supervisor. Where such emergency repairs are made, the permittee shall file immediately a report thereof, in triplicate, with the district supervisor. Changes covered by an approved application will also be made under the supervision of the Government officer, where one is assigned to the premises. Upon completion of any change made under his supervision, the Government officer will authorize the removal of the dismantled equipment, and the use of the new or repaired equipment, and submit a report, in triplicate, of the changes to the district supervisor.

(a) Installation of additional equipment—(1) Consent, Form 1602. Where the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is the owner in fee unencumbered, or has procured the consent of the owner or of any encumbrancer, of the premises, apparatus and equipment thereon, and additional apparatus and equipment are installed, the proprietor, if he is not the owner in fee unencumbered of the additional apparatus and equipment, must procure the consent of the owner or any encumbrancer, in accordance with § 182.119, or in lieu thereof file an indemnity bond, Form 1604, equal to the appraised value of the entire premises, including the additional apparatus and equipment, in accordance with § 182.122.

(2) Bond, Form 1604. If such proprietor has filed an indemnity bond, Form 1604, in lieu of the consent of the owner or any encumbrancer, in accordance with the provisions of § 182.122, and the value of the premises is increased by the installation of additional apparatus or equipment, an additional or new bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required, in accordance with provisions of § 182.122.* (Secs. 3103, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.272 Indemnity bond covering removal of equipment. If apparatus or equipment on industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises on which a lien has attached, under section 3112, I.R.C., for taxes on alcohol produced or stored, which has not been tax-paid or withdrawn for a tax-free purpose, is to be removed from the premises without replacement thereof with apparatus or equipment that will become a real fixture in law of an equal or greater value than the apparatus or equipment to be removed (1) where the proprietor is the owner of the premises in fee unencumbered, whether the property is realty or personalty; (2) where consents in accordance with section 182.119 are necessary and have been obtained, whether the property is realty or personalty; and (3) where an indemnity bond, Form 1604, is on file and the property is personalty; the permittee must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond on Form 1617, in triplicate, in a penal sum equal to the value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed or equal to the excess in value of the old apparatus or equipment to be removed over the value of the new apparatus or equipment to be substituted therefor: Provided, That if such value, or difference in value, as the case may be, is less than $500, no indemnity bond will be required. The value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed, or the difference between the value of such apparatus or equipment and the value of the apparatus or equipment to be substituted therefor, will be determined by appraisal in the manner prescribed in § 182.270 (a).* (Secs. 3103, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.273 Amended application and plans covering changes in equipment. Upon completion of the changes in equipment, the permittee must file an amended application and amended plans (if required) except that in the case of minor changes, such as general repairs, changes in pipe lines, or the addition or removal of a tank, an amended application and amended plans (if required) need not be filed immediately: Provided, That the Commissioner or district supervisor may, at any time, in his discretion, require the filing of an amended application on the appropriate form and amended plans (if required by these regulations) covering such minor changes. Where an amended application and amended plans are not filed immediately upon completion of minor changes in equipment, the permittee must include such changes in the next amended application and plans filed by him.*

Change in Title to Industrial Alcohol Plant or Bonded Warehouse Property or the Encumbrance Thereof

§ 182.274 Change of title. Where the title to the lot or tract of land upon which an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is located is changed by sale, judicial or otherwise, or where there is any change in the ownership of the premises or the apparatus or equipment, subsequent to the approval of bond, Form 1432–A, the permittee is no longer qualified. If the permittee desires to qualify for further operation when such a change occurs, he must file an amended application, Form 1431, together with the necessary consent, Form 1602, or, in lieu of such consent, an indemnity bond, Form 1604. In addition to such amended application and consent, Form 1602, or indemnity bond, Form 1604, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, require the permittee to file a new bond, Form 1432–A.* (Secs. 3103, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.275 Encumbrance. If, subsequent to the approval of the bond, Form 1432–A, the lot or tract of land upon which the industrial alcohol plant, or bonded warehouse, is situated, or any part thereof, or any of the apparatus or equipment becomes subject to, or encumbered by, any mortgage, judgment, or other encumbrance, the permittee must immediately file (1) an amended application, Form 1431, (2) consent on Form 1602, or indemnity bond, Form 1604, in lieu of such consent, and (3) a consent of surety on his present bond, Form 1432–A, or a new bond, Form 1432–A, in lieu of such consent.* (Secs. 3103, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING ALTERNATE OPERATION OF INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL PLANT AS REGISTERED DISTILLERY OR FRUIT DISTILLERY

tillery or fruit distillery, operations as an industrial alcohol plant must be suspended as hereinafter provided, and the proprietor must qualify under the regulations governing the production of distilled spirits (other than alcohol) (Regulations 4 (26 CFR, Part 183)) if he desires to operate a registered distillery, and under the regulations governing the production of brandy (Regulations 5, (26 CFR, Part 184)) if he wishes to operate a fruit distillery.*

§ 182.277 Approval before resumption. The qualifying documents required to be filed by the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant when operations of the industrial alcohol plant are to be resumed, following the suspension of operations as a registered distillery or a fruit distillery, must be approved before actual resumption of operations.*

§ 182.278 Where operation of bonded warehouse or denaturing plant on premises continued—(a) Suspension. Where a bonded warehouse or denaturing plant is located on the industrial alcohol plant premises and the permittee desires to continue to operate the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant on such premises while the industrial alcohol plant is operated alternately as an industrial alcohol plant and as a registered distillery or fruit distillery, he must, upon suspension of the industrial alcohol plant, comply with the following requirements:

(1) Two plats required. Designate the plat on file which depicts the entire industrial alcohol plant premises, including the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant, as "Plat A," and file a new plat, which will be designated "Plat B," depicting the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant and any other portion of the industrial alcohol plant premises not to be operated as a part of the registered distillery or fruit distillery. When "Plat B" has been previously filed, it may be adopted in accordance with the procedure in paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

(2) Amended application, Form 1431. File with the district supervisor an amended application, Form 1431, in triplicate, stating therein the purpose of the application to be "Temporary discontinuance in order that the industrial alcohol plant may be operated as a registered distillery" (or fruit distillery, as the case may be), and give the date of discontinuance. The bonded warehouse or denaturing plant, and any portion of the industrial alcohol plant premises not to be operated as a part of the registered distillery or fruit distillery must be described in such amended application, and the description thereof must correspond with the depiction of the premises on "Plat B."

(3) Registry of stills. Register the stills "Not for use" on Form 26, in triplicate, in accordance with § 182.432.

(4) Notice of suspension, Form 124. File with the district supervisor Form 124, "Notice of Suspension," in triplicate, in accordance with § 182.423.

(5) Materials and unfinished alcohol. If distilling materials are transferred to the successor, or if unfinished alcohol is to be retained in the industrial alcohol plant pending resumption of operations as such, comply with the requirements of §§ 182.439 to 182.441.

(b) Resumption. Where operation of the plant as a registered distillery or fruit distillery has been suspended, and operation thereof as an industrial alcohol plant is to be resumed, the permittee must comply with the following requirements:

(1) Amended application, Form 1431. File with the district supervisor an amended application on Form 1431, in triplicate, stating therein the purpose of the application to be "Resumption of operations following discontinuance as registered distillery No. -------- by ----------" (or fruit distillery, as the case may be), and give the date of the discontinuance. The industrial alcohol plant premises must be described (by proper reference to prior application, if desired) in such amended application to correspond with the depiction thereof on "Plat A," provided the depiction of the premises on such plat is correct.

(2) Adoption of plat and plans. File with the district supervisor a certificate, in triplicate, conforming to the provisions of § 182.262 (b) (5), adopting "Plat A" and the plans of the industrial alcohol plant, or submit new plat and plans.

(3) Registry of stills. Register the stills "For use" or "Not for use," as the case may be, on Form 26, in triplicate, in accordance with § 182.432.

(4) Bond or consent of surety. File a new bond, Form 1432–A (and Form 1604, if required), or a consent of surety, Form 1533, in triplicate, to continue in effect the bond (or bonds) in force at the time operation of the plant as an industrial alcohol plant was suspended: Provided, That in lieu of filing a separate consent of surety each time operation of the plant as an industrial alcohol plant is resumed, after suspension of operations as a registered distillery or fruit distillery, a blanket consent of surety on each bond may be filed to cover all alternate operations of the plant as an industrial alcohol plant. Such blanket consent of surety may be executed in the following form:

To continue in effect the said bond whenever operation as an industrial alcohol plant is resumed from time to time, pursuant to application on Form 1431 filed by the principal, following suspension of operations as registered distillery No. ------ by --------- (Name of distiller or distillers)
---------- (or fruit distillery, as the case may be).

(5) Consent of owner or lienor. File a new consent of the owner or lienor on Form 1602, in triplicate, in accordance with § 182.119, if the industrial alcohol plant is operated as a registered distillery or fruit distillery by a person other than the permittee (unless the consent procured by the permittee names each grantee who is to operate the premises or his successors or assigns), or if since operations as an industrial alcohol plant were suspended there has been any change in the title to the industrial alcohol plant premises or apparatus or equipment, or if such premises or apparatus or equipment has become encumbered by any mortgage, judgment or other lien, or if there has been installed new apparatus or equipment not owned by the permittee free of encumbrances. If such consent on Form 1602 cannot be obtained, an indemnity bond, Form 1604, in lieu thereof, must be filed, as provided in § 182.122.

(6) Notice of resumption. File with the district supervisor Form 125, "Notice of Resumption," in triplicate, in accordance with § 182.429.

(7) Materials. If distilling materials are received by a transfer from the predecessor, comply with the requirements of §§ 182.440 and 182.441.* (Secs. 2815 (b) (1), 3103, 3112 (a), 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.279 Where bonded warehouse or denaturing plant is discontinued or eliminated from industrial alcohol plant premises—(a) Suspension. Where a bonded warehouse or denaturing plant is located on the industrial alcohol plant premises and the permittee desires to discontinue the operation of such warehouse or denaturing plant or to eliminate the same from the industrial alcohol plant premises, he must, upon suspension of the industrial alcohol plant preparatory to operation of the plant as a registered distillery or fruit distillery, comply with the provisions of § 182.278 (a), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

(1) Discontinuance of warehouse or denaturing plant. If the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant is to be discontinued, all alcohol or denatured alcohol, as the case may be, stored therein must be lawfully removed therefrom and the warehouse or denaturing plant discontinued in accordance with the provisions of §§ 182.280–182.281.

(2) Elimination of warehouse or denaturing plant from premises. If the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant is to be eliminated from the industrial alcohol plant premises, the proprietor must file application, Form 1431, for basic permit, bond, Form 1432–A, and plat and plans of the warehouse or denaturing plant premises, and otherwise comply with the provisions of these regulations respecting the establishment and operation of bonded warehouses or denaturing plants.

(b) Resumption. Where operation of the plant as a registered distillery or fruit distillery has been suspended, and operation thereof as an industrial alcohol plant is to be resumed, the permittee must comply with the provisions of § 182.278 (b) (3), (4), (5), (6), and (7), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

(1) Amended application, Form 1431. File an amended application, Form 1431, in triplicate, describing (by proper reference to prior application, if desired) the industrial alcohol plant premises as such premises are to exist, stating therein the purpose to be "Resumption of operations following discontinuance as registered distillery No. ------ by ----------"
(or fruit distillery, as the case may be), and giving the date of the discontinuance.

(2) New plat. File a new plat, in triplicate, conforming to the requirements of §§ 182.206–182.219, unless the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant is to be again located on the industrial alcohol plant premises, in which event the permittee may adopt the plat of the industrial alcohol plant premises previously filed. If the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant has been eliminated from the industrial alcohol plant premises, the premises as thus curtailed will be depicted on the new plat. If the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant has been discontinued and the buildings which constituted the same are to be retained on the industrial alcohol plant premises and used for other than bonded warehouse or denaturing plant purposes, the new plat will show the designated use of the former bonded warehouse or denaturing plant buildings and depict the industrial alcohol plant premises as thus changed.*

DISCONTINUANCE OF BONDED WAREHOUSE OR DENATURING PLANT

§ 182.280 Discontinuance by Commissioner—(a) Bonded warehouse. Whenever, in the opinion of the Commissioner, any industrial alcohol bonded warehouse is unsafe or unfit for use, or the alcohol therein is liable to loss or great wastage, he may discontinue such warehouse and require the alcohol therein to be transferred to such other warehouse or to a denaturing plant as he may designate, and within such time as he may prescribe. Such transfer shall be made under the supervision of the district supervisor, or of such other officer as may be designated by the Commissioner, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the owner of the alcohol. Whenever the owner of the alcohol fails to make such transfer within the time prescribed, or to pay the just and proper expense of such transfer, as ascertained and determined by the Commissioner, such alcohol may be seized and sold by the collector in the same manner as goods are sold upon distraint for taxes, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the payment of the taxes (if any) due thereon and the cost and expenses of such sale and removal, and the balance paid over to the owner of the alcohol.

(1) Suspension. Whenever operations shall have been suspended at any bonded warehouse for a continuous period of six months and the quantity of alcohol remaining in the warehouse does not exceed 5,000 proof gallons, the Commissioner may, in such case, discontinue such warehouse and require the alcohol therein to be transferred to other warehouses as above provided.

(2) Recommendation of district supervisor. Transfers of alcohol from bonded warehouses under the foregoing provisions shall be made to other bonded warehouses established in accordance with the requirements of these regulations and shall be made upon the recommendation of the district supervisor who shall report the facts fully in each case to the Commissioner and he shall also recommend transfer to a bonded warehouse most convenient and accessible to the owner of the alcohol.

(b) Denaturing plant. The Commissioner may likewise discontinue any denaturing plant where operations have been suspended for a period of six months, or where the alcohol and denatured alcohol stored therein are liable to loss or great wastage. When a denaturing plant is so discontinued, the proprietor shall transfer the alcohol and denatured alcohol stored therein to another denaturing plant or, in the case of denatured alcohol, to a qualified dealer.* (Secs. 2874, 3116, I.R.C.)

§ 182.281 Discontinuance by proprietor. If the proprietor of an industrial alcohol bonded warehouse or denaturing plant intends to discontinue the premises after all alcohol or denatured alcohol deposited therein has been lawfully removed therefrom, he will file Form 1431, in triplicate, with the district supervisor, stating therein the purpose of the form to be "Discontinuance of warehouse" (or denaturing plant, as the case may be) and giving the date the discontinuance is to be effective. The proprietor will furnish in connection with such form a statement as to whether there is any alcohol or denatured alcohol in transit to the premises and whether there are any outstanding withdrawal permits, Forms 1436, 1463, and 1464, for the transfer of alcohol to the warehouse or alcohol and specially denatured alcohol to the denaturing plant and will secure the return of all such withdrawal permits and will submit all such permits and his basic permit to the district supervisor for cancellation.*

ACTION BY DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

Original Establishment

§ 182.282 Investigation of applicant—(a) Violation record. Before approving or recommending approval of any application filed by any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, the district supervisor will cause such inquiry or investigation to be made as may be deemed necessary to ascertain whether such individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, or any person owning, controlling, or actively participating in the management of the business, has been convicted of, or has compromised, an offense of the nature specified in § 182.106 (b), or is precluded by the provisions of § 182.106 (a) from receiving a permit.

(b) Qualifications. The district supervisor shall make a thorough investigation to determine the applicant's qualifications to hold a permit and whether he is entitled to the confidence of the Department.

(c) Industrial alcohol plants and bonded warehouses. The district supervisor's inquiry and investigation under paragraphs (a) and (b), in connection with an application on Form 1431 for permit to operate an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse, in conjunction with which an application was filed for permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, shall include the procurement of sufficient information to pass upon the application for permit under such Act. (Where such information indicates that the latter application should be approved, the issuance of the permit will be withheld pending approval of the qualifying documents required by these regulations.) Where sufficient evidence is developed by investigation to justify disapproval of such latter application, action will be taken in accordance with the provisions of regulations issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. Action on and disposition of Form 1431 will be in accordance with the provisions of §§ 182.282–182.302.

(d) Disapproval of application. Where record is found of a violation or offense which precludes the issuance of a permit under § 182.106 (a) or the district supervisor finds, from facts sufficient to warrant such findings, that the applicant is not entitled to the confidence of the Department, he shall, without reference to the Commissioner, note his disapproval on all copies of the application with brief statements of his reasons therefor and return to the applicant by registered mail one copy of the disapproved application, together with one set of the supporting documents and all copies of the bond, without action thereon. The district supervisor shall forward one copy of the disapproved application and one set of the supporting documents to the Commissioner, and retain the remaining papers in his file.

(e) Reference to Commissioner. Where record is found of the conviction or compromise of an offense specified in § 182.106 (b), the district supervisor will forward a full report thereof, with his recommendation, to the Commissioner for consideration before approving or disapproving, or recommending the approval or disapproval of, the application for basic permit. The Commissioner will review the report and advise the district supervisor whether, insofar as the violation record is concerned, the application may be approved. Upon receipt of such advice from the Commissioner, the district supervisor will approve or disapprove, or recommend approval or disapproval of, the application, in accordance with §§ 182.290 and 182.291.* (Secs. 3103, 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.283 Fence application. Where a special application for approval of a fence or wall around an industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant premises is submitted and such application conforms to the requirements of these regulations, the district supervisor will, if he finds that the construction and maintenance of such fence or wall would not endanger the revenue or prevent ready access to the plant or warehouse by Government officers, note his approval on all copies of the special application, return one copy to the applicant, retain one copy, and forward one copy to the Commissioner with the application, Form 1431, bond, and other qualifying documents. If the district supervisor finds that the construction and maintenance of such fence or wall is not necessary to afford protection from trespassers, or that the revenue would be endangered thereby, he will note his disapproval on the special application and return all copies to the applicant with a statement of the reasons for disapproval.*

§ 182.284 Indemnity bond application. In the case of an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse, when an application for permission to file an indemnity bond, Form 1604, in lieu of the written consent of the owner of the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises or apparatus or equipment, or of any mortgagee, judgment - creditor, conditional sales vendor, or other person having a lien thereon, is submitted by the applicant and such application conforms to the requirements of these regulations, the district supervisor will cause an investigation to be made of the facts upon which the application is based, and will designate two or more competent persons to make an appraisal of the value of the lot or tract of land on which the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is situated, the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse, the buildings, and apparatus and equipment. The appraisal shall be made as provided in § 182.123. Upon receipt and examination of the appraisal and investigation reports, the district supervisor will endorse his recommendation on the application and forward all copies thereof, together with the original report of the appraisal and a copy of the report of the investigation, to the Commissioner. Where the application is approved by the Commissioner, the district supervisor will, upon receipt of the approved copies thereof from the Commissioner, forward one copy to the applicant and retain one copy. If the application is disapproved, the district supervisor will, upon receipt of the same from the Commissioner, return all copies to the applicant with advice as to the reasons for disapproval.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.285 Examination of other qualifying documents. The district supervisor will examine the application, plat, plans, bond, consent (Form 1602), if any, or indemnity bond, Form 1604, in lieu thereof, and other documents required by these regulations of persons making application for basic permits to determine whether they have been properly executed, and whether they reflect compliance with the requirements of the law and regulations. Where any required document has not been filed, or where errors or discrepancies are found in those filed, or where the documents filed do not reflect compliance with these regulations, action thereon will be held in abeyance until the omission, or error, or discrepancy has been rectified, and there has been full compliance with all requirements.*

§ 182.286 Investigation—(a) Inspection of premises. When the required documents have been filed in proper form, the district supervisor will assign an inspector to examine the premises, buildings, apparatus, and equipment, and determine whether they conform with the description thereof in the application, plat, and plans, if any, and whether the construction and measures of protection afforded meet the requirements of the law and regulations. The inspector will observe particularly the manner in which the rooms or buildings on the premises are separated from each other and from other premises, means of communication, ingress and egress, adequacy of protection afforded windows, doors, and other openings, construction of apparatus and equipment, and the suitability of the Government office, or facilities, if such are required. The inspector will also make careful inquiry respecting the applicant's title to, or interest in, the apparatus and equipment in the case of industrial alcohol plants or bonded warehouses in order to determine whether proper consents on Form 1602 of the owner and of any mortgagees, judgment-creditors, other lienors, conditional sales vendors, or lessors have been procured and submitted by the applicant. To this end, the inspector should require the applicant to submit for examination invoices, bills of sale, conditional sales contracts, or other commercial papers, for verification of the statements made on Form 1431 respecting his title to, or interest in, the apparatus and equipment. Where the inspection discloses minor irregularities in the qualifying documents or in the construction, the inspector will, at the time of their discovery, direct the attention of the applicant to the same in order that the applicant may correct the defects before completion of the inspection. Upon completion of the inspection, a report thereof will be submitted to the district supervisor.

(b) Qualification of applicant to use specially denatured alcohol. The district supervisor shall detail an officer or officers to inspect the premises of the applicant for permit to use specially denatured alcohol to determine whether the premises and storeroom are suitable for the business to be carried on and meet the requirements of the regulations. This investigation shall include a careful inquiry into the character of the applicant. His previous busines experience must be carefully inquired into and should the officers find that the applicant is not reasonably qualified to do or engage in the busines proposed, recommendation for approval shall not be made. Inquiry should also be made of reputable firms, persons and associates who have knowledge of the particular line of business being inquired into and who are familiar with the general requirements of the trade in their respective territories, for the purpose of ascertaining the facts necessary to determine whether the applicant is proceeding in good faith in a lawful business enterprise. The premises where the business is to be conducted shall also be made the subject of careful and detailed inquiry and approval of any application shall be withheld as to any building or rooms not of a character generally regarded as suitable for a manufacturing business of the kind for which the application is made. Such premises shall be substantially constructed and approval shall not be given to buildings of insecure construction where there is a likelihood of theft. Examining officers will be held strictly accountable for the recommendation of approval of only such premises as are suitable for the business to be carried on, and, except in the case of very small operations, as would be generally satisfactory to strictly commercial or industrial establishments and in locations that would commend themselves to any prudent business man. The manufacturing supplies and equipment should be ample for the business to be conducted. Where toilet articles or various liquids such as deodorants or sprays are to be manufactured, there shall be on hand raw materials, manufacturing apparatus, and packages for the finished product in a value which, in the opinion of the district supervisor, evidences the bona fides of the proposed business and which is commensurate with the volume of business the applicant proposes to conduct. The applicant must submit a detailed inventory of all raw materials, such as oils and chemicals, of all manufacturing apparatus such as tanks, pumps, filters, and filling machines, all packages on hand in which the finished product is to be sold, and the inventory must be verified item by item. In case of doubt as to appraisal of particular items, advice of disinterested persons who have knowledge of these particular lines of business shall be sought.* (Sec. 3114, I.R.C.)

§ 182.287 Report of inspection. The report of the inspection shall describe separately all irregularities and discrepancies found during the course of the inspection, and shall include a complete statement describing all unusual or special conditions. Where irregularities were corrected during the inspection, the report will indicate the corrections so made. The report need not set out in detail each description as set forth in the application, plat and plans, if any. The description of buildings and equipment in the report should be general and brief. However, construction, equipment, signs, etc., which are not in conformity with law and regulations, will be completely descriped. If there are any pipe lines or other connections or openings between the bonded premises and other premises, the same shall be described in detail. There shall be further embodied in the repor a statement as to whether or not another business is being conducted, or is intended to be conducted, on the bonded premises or in the buildings thereon.*

§ 182.288 Inaccurate documents and defective construction—(a) Inaccurate documents. Where the district supervisor's examination, or the inspector's report, discloses discrepancies in the qualifying documents, the inaccurate or incomplete documents will be returned to the applicant for correction. A record will be kept of all bonds so returned.

(b) Defective construction. Where it is found that the construction of the premises or its equipment does not conform to the requirements of the law and regulations, the district supervisor will inform the applicant concerning the defects, and further action will be held in abeyance pending correction thereof.*

§ 182.289 Other causes for disapproval. The district supervisor will not approve, or recommend approval of, any application or bond, where the location and use to be made of the premises do not conform to the provisions of §§ 182.7–182.14, or where the premises are so situated as to enable the person filing the application and bond to defraud the United States.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.290 Authority to approve—(a) By district supervisor. District supervisors are authorized to approve applications for basic permits and bonds relating to (1) the use of tax-free alcohol (except by the United States or governmental agency thereof), (2) dealing in specially denatured alcohol, (3) use of denatured alcohol (including the recovery of specially or completely denatured alcohol, or articles in the form of denatured alcohol), (4) the transportation of tax-free or specially denatured alcohol, (5) the exportation of alcohol or specially denatured alcohol, (6) the removal of alcohol to customs manufacturing bonded warehouses, and (7) the withdrawal of alcohol tax-free for use on vessels and aircraft. § 182.292 Disapproval of qualifying documents—(a) By Commissioner. In the case of an industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant, if the district supervisor finds that the applicant has not complied in all respects with the requirements of the law and regulations, or that the situation of the premises is such as would enable the applicant to defraud the United States, or that the application or bond should be disapproved under § 182.282 (e), he will note his recommendation for disapproval on the application, Form 1431, bond, Form 1432–A, and consent, Form 1602 (if any), or indemnity bond, Form 1604, filed in lieu of such consent, and will forward to the Commissioner for final action such copies of the qualifying documents as are required to be so forwarded by the preceding section in the case of recommendation for approval, together with a copy of all inspection reports. In such cases, the district supervisor will notify the permittee by letter and attach one copy of such letter to the qualifying documents.•

§ 182.296 Indemnity bond, Form 1617. In the case of an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse, where changes, to be made in the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises, buildings, or former industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse premises, buildings, or equipment or apparatus, are such as to require the filing of an indemnity bond on Form 1617, as provided in §§ 182.270 and 182.272, the district supervisor will, upon receipt of a satisfactory bond, note his recommendation for approval thereon and forward all copies thereof to the Commissioner accompanied by the original of the report submitted by the designated appraisers. § 182.315 Application of surety for relief from bond. A surety on any bond required by these regulations may at any time in writing notify the principal and the district supervisor in whose office the bond is on file that he desires, after a date named, which shall be at least 60 days after the date of notification, to be relieved of liability under said bond. The notice shall be executed in triplicate by the surety, who shall deliver one copy to the principal, and the other two copies to the district supervisor, who will retain one copy and transmit the remaining copy to the Commissioner. If such notice is not thereafter in writing withdrawn, the rights of the principal as supported by said bond shall be terminated on the date named in the notice, and the surety shall be relieved (1) in the case of a bond supporting the basic permit from liability for alcohol produced or withdrawn, or denatured alcohol received or withdrawn, or articles manufactured with such denatured alcohol wholly subsequent to the date named in the notice, (2) in the case of indemnity bonds, Form 1604, or Form 1617, from liability for alcohol produced, received, or withdrawn at the industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse wholly subsequent to such date, and (3) in the case of export bonds (Forms 1495, 1496, 1497, and 1498), bonds covering transportation to customs manufacturing warehouse (Forms 1459 and 1460), and bonds covering withdrawals for use on vessels and aircraft (Forms 1660 and 1661) from liability for alcohol withdrawn for export or for transportation to a customs manufacturing warehouse, or for use on vessels and aircraft, as the case may be, wholly subsequent to such date. If the principal fails to file a valid superseding bond prior to the date on which the surety desires to be relieved from liability under the bond, the surety, notwithstanding his release from liability as specified in conditions (1), (2), and (3) above, shall continue to remain liable under the bond for all alcohol, denatured alcohol, or articles on hand or in transit to the principal on said date, until the same has been lawfully disposed of or a new bond has been filed by the principal covering the same. This notice may not be given by an agent of the surety unless it is accompanied by a power of attorney duly executed by the surety, authorizing him to give such notice, or by a verified statement that such power of attorney is on file with the Department. The surety must also file with the district supervisor an acknowledgment or other proof of service of such notice on the principal.*

§ 182.316 Application for notice of termination. Where the permittee has filed a proper superseding bond in lieu of a previously filed bond to support a basic permit, or indemnity bond (Form 1604 or 1617), or has discontinued business in accordance with the requirements of these regulations, or where, in the case of direct export bonds, transportation for export bonds, bonds covering transportation to customs manufacturing bonded warehouses, and bonds covering withdrawals for use on vessels and aircraft, there has been compliance with the provisions of §§ 182.312, 182.313, 182.314, or 182.314a, as the case may be, and the principal or surety desires to secure notice of termination of the bond for which the principal no longer has any use, application therefor, in writing, will be made to the district supervisor. The application will be made in duplicate where it is desired to secure the issuance of notices of the termination of bonds supporting the basic permit or indemnity bond (Form 1604 or 1617).*

§ 182.317 Action on application for notice of termination of bond supporting basic permit, Form 1433. When an application for notice of termination, as to a bond supporting a basic permit, Form 1433, to operate an industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant is filed with the district supervisor in a case where a superseding bond has been approved, or the principal has discontinued business, as provided in § 182.310, the district supervisor will, before forwarding the application to the Commissioner, make a complete examination of records to determine whether there is any liability then due and payable outstanding against the bond. He will also ascertain from the collector of internal revenue whether there are any outstanding, unpaid assessments or demands for taxes, penalties and interest, on alcohol or denatured alcohol under the bond. If it is found that violations of law or regulations occurred during the period covered by the bond, and that penalties incurred or fines imposed have not been paid, or that outstanding assessments, or demands for payment of taxes, chargeable against the bond have not been paid, or otherwise settled, the district supervisor will recommend disapproval of the application, unless the liability is settled. The district supervisor will retain one copy of the application and forward one copy to the Commissioner with his recommendation. The district supervisor will not issue notice of termination of any bond supporting a basic permit on Form 1433 until he has been notified of the Commissioner's approval of the application therefor.*

§ 182.318 Action on application for notice of termination of indemnity bonds. When an application for notice of termination of an indemnity bond, Form 1604, as to future operations of an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse is filed with the district supervisor in a case where a superseding bond has been approved, or the principal has discontinued business, as provided in § 182.311, the district supervisor will take action in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 182.317, in the case of an application for termination of the bond supporting a basic permit on Form 1433. When an application for notice of termination of an indemnity bond, Form 1617, covering changes in buildings or equipment is filed with the district supervisor, he will make a complete inquiry to determine whether all alcohol, the tax on which constituted the lien in relation to which the bond was given, has been tax-paid or removed for a lawful tax-free purpose, and will forward one copy of such application to the Commissioner with his recommendation for approval or disapproval, determined according to the results of his inquiry, and will retain the remaining copy. The district supervisor will not issue notice of termination of any indemnity bond until he has been notified of the Commissioner's approval of the application therefor.*

§ 182.319 Action on application for notice of termination of other bonds—(a) Bonds supporting other basic permits. When an application for notice of termination of bonds on Forms 49, 1448, 1475, and 1480, as to future operations, is filed with the district supervisor, he will take action thereon in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 182.317: Provided, That the district supervisor, instead of forwarding the application to the Commissioner with his recommendation, will approve or disapprove the application.

(b) Export bonds, transportation for export bonds, bonds covering transportation to customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, and bonds covering withdrawals for use on vessels and aircraft. When an application for notice of the termination of export bonds (Forms 1495 and 1497), transportation for export bonds (Forms 1496 and 1498), bonds covering transportation of alcohol to the customs manufacturing bonded warehouse (Forms 1459 and 1460), and bonds covering withdrawals for use on vessels and aircraft (Forms 1660 and 1661) is filed with the district supervisor, he will examine his records to determine whether the required evidence of foreign landing or loss at sea, or clearance, or deposit in the customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, or use, as the case may be, of the alcohol withdrawn under the bond has been filed, and if there were deficiences, whether notice of the termination of the liability therefor has been received from the Commissioner.*

§ 182.320 Notices, Forms 1490 and 1491. Upon receipt of advice from the Commissioner of his approval of an application for the issuance of notice of the termination, as to liability for future transactions, of a bond supporting a basic permit, Form 1433, to operate an industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant, or of an indemnity bond, Form 1604, as to liability for future operations of an industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse ,the district supervisor will execute Form 1490, "Notice of Bond Termination," where a superseding bond has been approved, or Form 1491, "Notification of Release of Bond," where the principal has discontinued business, in quadruplicate (in quintuplicate if there are two sureties), and will forward the original to the Commissioner, one copy to each obligor on the bond, and retain one copy on file with the bond to which it relates. Similar action will be taken by the district supervisor upon receipt of advice from the Commissioner of his approval of an application for notice of termination of an indemnity bond on Form 1617. If the district supervisor approves an application for notice of termination of bonds on Forms 49, 1448, 1475, and 1480, as to future operations, he will execute Form 1490 or Form 1491, as the case may be, as provided above. Where an application for the issuance of notice of the termination of a direct export bond, transportation for export bond, bond covering transportation to a customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, or bond covering withdrawal for use on vessels and aircraft, has been filed with the district supervisor, and he has found that there has been compliance with the provisions of §§ 182.312, 182.313, 182.314, or 182.314a, as the case may be, he will issue Form 1490 or Form 1491, as provided above.*

§ 182.321 Release of collateral. The release of collateral pledged and deposited with the United States to support bonds required by these regulations will be in accordance with the provisions of Department Circular 154, revised (31 CFR, Part 225), subject to the conditions covering the issuance of notices on Forms 1490 and 1491 of the termination of such bonds. Unless a superseding bond has been approved, the release of the security in the case of such bonds will not be authorized until all alcohol or denatured alcohol or articles produced or withdrawn, while such bonds were in force and effect, have been lawfully disposed of. Accordingly, collateral may not be released while any alcohol or denatured alcohol or articles remain an outstanding charge against a bond supporting a basic permit or indemnity bond, Form 1604. When an application for release of collateral deposited in support of a bond supporting a basic permit on Form 1433, or an indemnity bond, Form 1604, is received by the district supervisor, he will determine whether all outstanding liabilities have been settled, and unless a superseding bond has been approved, whether all alcohol or denatured alcohol produced, withdrawn, used, etc., while the bond was in effect has been lawfully disposed of, and will forward the application to the Commissioner with his recommendation. Collateral pledged and deposited to support an indemnity bond, Form 1617, covering changes in industrial alcohol plant or bonded warehouse buildings or equipment may be released pursuant to authorization of the Commissioner, upon approval of a superseding bond or upon lawful removal of all alcohol, the tax on which constituted the lien in relation to which the bond was given. Upon approval of an application for the issuance of notice of termination of a bond supporting basic permit on Form 1433, or indemnity bonds (Form 1604 or 1617) supported by collateral security, the Commissioner will fix the date or dates on which a part or all of the security may be released. In fixing such date, the Commissioner will satisfy himself that the interest of the Government will not be jeopardized. The date of release for collateral supporting a bond on Form 1432-A will ordinarily be fixed at not less than 6 months from the date of determination that there is no outstanding liability against the bond, and collateral pledged for other bonds will ordinarily be released upon issuance of notice on Form 1490 or Form 1491. Collateral pledged and deposited to support a bond supporting a basic permit on Form 1433, or indemnity bond (Form 1604 or 1617), will not be released by the district supervisor unless the Commissioner has authorized such action. At any time prior to the release of collateral security, the district supervisor may, in his discretion and for proper cause, further extend, or, in the case of a bond supporting a basic permit on Form 1433, or indemnity bonds (Form 1604 or 1617), recommend further extension of the date of the release of such security for such additional period of time as, in his judgment, may be appropriate. Collateral pledged and deposited in support of bonds on Forms 49, 1448, 1459, 1460, 1475, 1480, 1495, 1496, 1497, 1498, 1660, and 1661, may be released by the district supervisor without prior authorization of the Commissioner.* (Sec. 1126, 44 Stat. 122 (6 U.S.C. 15))

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS REGARDING OPERATIONS

§ 182.322 Compliance with requirements of law and regulations. Under no circumstances will a person conduct any operations in connection with the production, storage, tax-payment, or denaturation of alcohol, or use tax-free alcohol or deal in or use specially denatured alcohol, or transport tax-free or specially denatured alcohol, or recover denatured alcohol, or articles in the form of denatured alcohol, until compliance with all the requirements of law and these regulations, and the application, bond (if required) and supporting documents have been approved and a basic permit issued pursuant thereto, in accordance with the provisions of these regulations.* (Secs. 3114, 3115, I.R.C.)

§ 182.323 Prohibited hours of operation—(a) Industrial alcohol plant. The proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant may conduct any and all operations in connection with mashing, fermentation, and distillation in his plant on Sundays the same as on week days. All operations in connection with the gauging, drawing off, or removal of alcohol from the receiving room or the wine room will be conducted during the regular business hours of the industrial alcohol plant, except when specifically approved by the district supervisor: Provided, That no alcohol may be gauged, drawn off, or removed from the receiving room or the wine room on Sunday or at night, but spirits in the wine room may be returned to the distilling building for redistillation at any time.

(b) Bonded warehouse or denaturing plant. All operations at a bonded warehouse or denaturing plant shall be conducted during the regular business hours of such warehouse or plant, except when specifically approved by the district supervisor: Provided, That no alcohol, including denatured alcohol, may be entered into or removed from a bonded warehouse or denaturing plant, nor may any other operations be conducted thereat, on Sunday or at night.

(c) Users and dealers in specially denatured alcohol. Whenever a person qualified to use or to deal in specially denatured alcohol, or recover denatured alcohol or articles in the form of denatured alcohol, proposes to operate at hours other than between 7 o'clock a. m. and 6 o'clock p. m., or on Sundays and legal holidays, a notice of intention so to do shall be first submitted to the district supervisor and his approval therefor obtained.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.324 Records. All forms of record and report necessary to carry into effect the law and these regulations, and all the requirements and instructions contained on such forms are hereby made a part of these regulations.

(a) Records to be kept three years. Except as provided in § 182.648, all records, including copies of all daily and monthly reports, required to be kept by law and these regulations, must be retained by the proprietor, permittee, or other person charged with keeping or maintaining the same, available for inspection by Government officers for a period of three years: Provided, That the district supervisor or the Commissioner may require records, copies of which are not filed in the office of the district supervisor or the Commissioner, such as the manufacturing and sales records of users of specially denatured alcohol, and the receipt and disposition records of dealers in and users of completely denatured alcohol, proprietary anti-freeze solutions, proprietary solvents, lacquer thinners, and ethyl acetate, to be kept for an additional period of not exceeding three years in any case where he deems such retention necessary or advisable.

(b) Inspection of premises and records. All persons conducting a business under a basic permit issued pursuant to these regulations shall permit any internal revenue officer to inspect, at any reasonable hour, the premises, equipment, stocks, and the records required by law and regulations.

(c) Final reports. The monthly reports for the month in which business is discontinued, shall be marked "Final."* (Sec. 3601, I.R.C.)

OPERATION OF INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL PLANTS

§ 182.325 Manufacture of industrial alcohol. Alcohol may be produced at industrial alcohol plants operated under the provisions of these regulations, from any raw materials by any process suitable for the production of alcohol. At plants where the alcohol is abstracted from liquids such as beer, ale, porter, or wine, such liquids will be regarded as distilling material. Fermented malt liquor may be received from a contiguous brewery where the residue containing less than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume is to be returned to the brewery to be used in the manufacture of cereal beverages.

(a) Tax on alcohol, lien for tax, etc. All alcohol produced in an industrial alcohol plant is subject to tax as soon as the alcohol comes into existence as such, whether it be subsequently separated as pure or impure spirit, and the tax on the alcohol becomes a first lien on the alcohol and the premises and plant in which such alcohol is produced or stored, together with all improvements and appurtenances thereunto belonging and in any wise appertaining. The provisions of §§ 182.478 to 182.487 relative to the tax on alcohol, lien for tax on alcohol, and sales of alcohol are applicable to proprietors of industrial alcohol plants.* (Secs. 3104, 3106, 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.326 Distilled spirits. Where it is desired to produce distilled spirits (other than brandy), the industrial alcohol plant must be discontinued, in accordance with §§ 182.276–182.279 of these regulations, and established and operated as a registered distillery, in accordance with Regulations 4 (26CFR, Part 183) governing the production of distilled spirits (other than brandy).*

§ 182.327 Brandy. Where it is desired to produce brandy under Regulations 5 (26 CFR, Part 184) governing the production of brandy at fruit distilleries, under the exemptions from law afforded fruit distillers by virtue of section 2825, I.R.C., the industrial alcohol plant must be discontinued, in accordance with §§ 182.274–182.279 of these regulations and established and operated as a fruit distillery in accordance with Regulations 5. Brandy may be produced at registered distilleries established and operated under Regulations 4. Where brandy is so produced at a registered distillery, it must be reduced to not more than 159 degrees of proof before removal from the cistern room, and the production of brandy will be subject to all the requirements of said regulations governing the production of other spirits at registered distilleries.*

§ 182.328 Experimental operations. Persons authorized by the Commissioner to conduct experimental operations for a temporary period of time in connection with the production of alcohol are required to submit such reports and maintain such records as the Commissioner shall, in each case, prescribe.

(a) Denaturation or use of alcohol produced. The alcohol produced in an experimental industrial alcohol plant shall be disposed of or denatured with such denaturing materials and quantities thereof as may be authorized by the Commissioner, under such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by the Commissioner. Alcohol so denatured shall be used or disposed of in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner in each case.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.329 Chemical plant producing alcohol as a by-product. When, in connection with chemical or other process, ethyl alcohol is produced as a by-product, the proprietor must qualify the premises as an industrial alcohol plant. In such cases, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, permit such variation in the usual mode of operation as may be necessary for the particular type of plant, where such may be done without jeopardy to the revenue. At such plants, the Commissioner may require the proprietor or the storekeeper-gauger to make such tests of the materials distilled as he may deem necessary to secure a proper control and check of the processes employed.

(a) Exception. A manufacturer holding a permit authorizing the use and recovery of denatured alcohol, who uses denatured alcohol in the production of chemicals, which do not contain specially denatured alcohol and which in turn are used on the permit premises in the production of other chemicals, resulting in the production of ethyl alcohol as a by-product, will not be required to qualify the premises as an industrial alcohol plant. In such case, the alcohol will be redenatured and accounted for in the same manner as recovered alcohol is required to be redenatured and accounted for by these regulations.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.330 Redistillation. Proprietors, in the operation of industrial alcohol plants, are exempt from the provisions of law which declare that every person shall be regarded as engaged in the business of rectifying who rectifies, purifies, or refines distilled spirits or wines by any process other than original and continuous distillation through continuous closed vessels and pipes until the manufacture thereof is complete.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.331 Commencement of operations: notice, Form 125. Before commencing operations at the industrial alcohol plant, the proprietor shall file with the district supervisor notice on Form 125, in triplicate, specifying the date on which he desires to commence operations. This notice must be filed in time to enable the district supervisor to assign one or more storekeeper-gaugers to the industrial alcohol plant. If the application, Form 1431, bond, Form 1432–A, and supporting documents have been approved and basic permit, Form 1433, has been issued, and the storekeeper-gaugers assigned to the industrial alcohol plant have found the plant and equipment in proper condition, the proprietor may commence operations at the time specified in the notice.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.332 Assignment of storekeeper-gaugers. One or more storekeeper-gaugers must be assigned to, and on duty at, each industrial alcohol plant before the proprietor can commence operations. In determining the number of storekeeper-gaugers to be assigned to each industrial alcohol plant, the district supervisor will take into account the distilling equipment and the process to be used, the quantity of alcohol to be produced daily, and the number of hours the industrial alcohol plant will be operated each day. When notices of commencement of operations are received, the district supervisor will assign the storekeeper-gaugers in time to prevent unnecessary delays to proprietors.*

§ 182.333 Examination of plant. Upon assignment to an industrial alcohol plant intending to commence operations, or to resume operations after an extended suspension, the storekeeper-gaugers will, prior to the actual commencement of operations, examine the industrial alcohol plant, the apparatus and equipment, the receiving room, etc., and determine that all valves, flanges, and other connections which would afford access to the alcohol are properly equipped for locking or are brazed, or welded, or otherwise secured and sealed, and that all doors and other openings in the receiving room and wine room are protected in the manner prescribed by these regulations. The storekeeper-gauger will apply Government locks (unless previously attached) wherever the same are required, and will complete Form 125, in triplicate, deliver one copy to the proprietor and forward the original and one copy to the district supervisor. The district supervisor will retain one copy and forward the original to the Commissioner.*

§ 182.334 Supervision of operations. The storekeeper-gauger will have supervision of the industrial alcohol plant to which he is assigned, under the direction of the district supervisor. The storekeeper-gauger will see that the operations of the industrial alcohol plant conform to the requirements of the law and these regulations and will, in the course of his daily duties, carefully observe the character and condition of all connections, pipes, tanks, vessels, stills, and other equipment used for conveying alcohol in the course of distillation to see if they are continuous and closed as required and whether access can be gained to the alcohol in the storekeeper-gauger's absence. The storekeeper-gauger will promptly report to the district supervisor any industrial alcohol plant operations or condition of apparatus and equipment not conforming to the law and regulations.*

Distilling Materials

§ 182.335 Weighing materials received. Proprietors will weigh or, in the case of liquids, weigh or measure all materials received on the industrial alcohol plant premises intended for use in the production of alcohol. They will prepare weight or quantity slips of all such materials received and furnish signed copies to the storekeeper-gauger. The receipt of the materials will be recorded by the proprietor on Form 1442, "Proprietor's Report of Operations."* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.336 Storage of materials. All grain received on the industrial alcohol plant premises will be stored in the meal or storage room bins or granary, unless it is to be used immediately. Molasses and other liquid fermenting materials will be stored in proper tanks provided for the purpose, unless they are to be used immediately.*

§ 182.337 Fermented malt liquor or wine. Proper facilities must be provided for the storage of fermented malt liquor or wine where such material is received from a contiguous brewery or winery, as the case may be, for the purpose of determining the quantity and alcoholic content of the materials received and used. Material storage tanks must be constructed as provided in § 182.68 of these regulations.

(a) Residue of fermented malt liquor may be returned to brewery. The residue of fermented malt liquor used as a distilling material may be returned by pipe line to the brewery to be used in making cereal beverages containing less than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume by means of a separate pipe line having no connection with the pipe line used for the conveyance of fermented malt liquor from the brewery to the industrial alcohol plant: or such residue may be returned to the brewery by means of unstamped packages unlike those ordinarily used for containing fermented malt liquor. All of the residue returned to the brewery shall be measured and tested as to alcoholic content in the industrial alcohol plant in measuring tanks in the same manner as provided herein for the measuring of the fermented malt liquor transferred to the industrial alcohol plant. The quantity of residue returned to the brewery will be entered on Form 1442.* (Sec. 3104, I.R.C.)

§ 182.338 Supervision of material room. No materials shall be received on the premises of any industrial alcohol plant, or used for the production of alcohol, or for any other purpose, or removed from the premises, except when the storekeeper-gauger is present on the industrial alcohol plant premises. The storekeeper-gauger will unlock the material room bins or tanks at such time, after the commencement of operations, each day as may be necessary for the proprietor to have access thereto and will lock them when access for the day is no longer required, thus giving employees of the plant access for the removal or deposit of materials or for other necessary purposes under his general supervision. When materials are received by chute or pipe line from adjacent premises, such chute or pipe line must be kept locked at all times with Government locks, except when necessary to be opened for the transfer of materials.*

§ 182.339 Storekeeper-gauger's record of materials received. Storekeeper-gaugers will record on Form 1452–A, "U. S. Storekeeper-Gauger's Report of Operations at Industrial Alcohol Plant," and Form 1452–B, "U. S. Storekeeper-Gauger's Summary of Operations at Industrial Alcohol Plant," all materials received on the premises intended for use in the production of alcohol. Entries will be made from the proprietor's weight or quantity slips. The storekeeper-gauger will verify such slips by comparison with the proprietor's commercial records and his Form 1442.*

§ 182.340 Weighing materials used. The proprietor will weigh, or in the case of liquids, weigh or measure, all materials used in the production of alcohol. He will prepare weight or quantity slips of all such materials and will furnish signed copies to the storekeeper-gauger. The materials used will be recorded by the proprietor on Form 1442.* (Sec. 3103. I.R.C.)

§ 182.341 Use other than the production of alcohol. Where materials are used in preparing distilling material primarily for the production of substances other than ethyl alcohol, such as butyl alcohol, isopropyl alcohol, acetone, etc., which distilling material produces a small amount of ethyl alcohol, the quantity used in such special distilling materials must be determined separately from the quantity used in materials for the production of ethyl alcohol solely. Separate records on Forms 1442, 1452–A, and 1452–B will be kept for each process or fermentation, showing the materials used and the resulting production of ethyl alcohol and chemicals therefrom.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.342 Storekeeper-gauger's record of materials used. The storekeeper-gauger will report on Form 1452–A and Form 1452–B all materials used in the production of alcohol. Entries will be made from the proprietor's weight or quantity slips. The storekeeper-gauger will verify such slips by comparison with the proprietor's commercial records and his Form 1442. The quantity of residue returned to a brewery will also be entered by the storekeeper-gauger on his Form 1452–A and Form 1452–B.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.343 Proprietor's material slips. Each proprietor will have printed, in uniform size, slips which show the date, name, number, and location of the industrial alcohol plant, the kind and quantity of materials received and used, and the serial numbers of the fermenters filled, together with such other information as may be required. Where different types of distilling materials are produced, separate entries shall be made, showing the quantity of material, type of mash or distilling material, and serial numbers of fermenters for each type. The term "type of mash" means the materials from which the mash is made, as molasses, wheat, corn, rye, etc. Material slips will be prepared, in duplicate, and will be filed chronologically by months by both the proprietor and storekeeper-gauger and will be retained at least one year.*

§ 182.344 Storekeeper-gauger's verification. The storekeeper-gauger will from time to time personally verify the accuracy of the proprietor's determination of the weight or quantity of materials received and used.*

§ 182.345 Removal or destruction of fermenting or distilling material.—(a) Sale or transfer of fermenting material. If fermenting material is stored on the premises and it is desired to remove the same or any portion thereof from the premises for any purpose whatever, the storekeeper-gauger shall be notified by the proprietor, prior to the removal of such materials, of the name and address of the consignee, the kind and quantity to be removed, and the reasons therefor. The quantity thus transferred will be entered on the appropriate records by the proprietor and the storekeeper-gauger.

(b) Destruction of distilling material. Distilling materials must not be destroyed until permission therefor has been obtained from the district supervisor and the same has been inspected by a Government officer, unless destruction without supervision is authorized by the district supervisor. If the material is found by an inspecting Government officer to be useless for distillation, he will supervise destruction thereof and submit a written report of his action to the district supervisor. The destruction of the material will be entered by the proprietor on Form 1442 and by the storekeeper-gauger on his Form 1452-B.

(c) Destruction of fermented malt liquor and wine. Fermented malt liquor and wine which have become unfit for distillation shall not be destroyed until inspected by a Government officer and a chemical analysis is made pursuant to the instructions of the district supervisor. If destruction is authorized, entries on the appropriate forms will be made by the proprietor and storekeeper-gauger.* (Secs. 3030, 3150, I.R.C.)

Yeasting

§ 182.346 Materials for yeast mash. Materials capable of producing alcohol which are used in preparing yeast mash will be weighed or measured by the proprietor, who will furnish weight or quantity slips to the storekeeper-gauger and make proper record on Form 1442. If the materials used in a yeast mash have been included in the materials weighed or measured by the proprietor for use in the production of the main mash, a notation should be made on the slip to that effect and no entry will be made on Forms 1442 and 1452-A. Such weight or quantity slips will be filed by the storekeeper-gauger for record and reference purposes.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.347 Materials for yeast culture. The proprietor will not be required to furnish weight or quantity slips to the storekeeper-gauger of materials used in preparing pure yeast cultures or jug yeast which is added to the yeast mash or to report the same on Form 1442. The pure yeast cultures or jug yeast may be prepared and held for use as needed.*

Mashing Operation

§ 182.348 Proprietor's notice of change in materials and strength of beer. The proprietor may mash grain, molasses, or other fermenting materials covered by his application, Form 1431, in any quantity, proportion, or strength that he may desire, within the maximum specified in such application, provided he shall give written notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the plant of the quantity of each kind of material which he proposes to mash and the strength of the beer. When desiring to change the quantity or kind of material or strength of the beer, he shall, before making such change, give written notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge. Where the proprietor intends to mash different kinds of materials than those covered by Form 1431 or a larger quantity of the specified materials than the maximum indicated by such form, he must also comply with the requirements of § 182.109. If the proposed change in mashing is such that either a smaller or larger number of storekeeper-gaugers may be required to supervise operations, the proprietor shall give notice thereof to the storekeeper-gauger in charge in sufficient time for the district supervisor to reassign the unneeded officers or to assign additional officers to the plant.*

§ 182.349 Presence of storekeeper-gaugers required. Any mashing or distilling in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger from the premises is prohibited. The special attention of the proprietor is directed to the penalties imposed by law for mashing, distilling, or removing alcohol in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger.* (Secs. 3103, 3115, I.R.C.)

Fermenting

§ 182.350 Frequency of filling tubs. Proprietors of industrial alcohol plants are not restricted as to the period of fermentation nor as to the frequency or extent of the filling of the fermenting tubs. The proprietor must, however, give notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the quantity of each kind of material which he proposes to mash and the strength of beer, as provided in § 182.348, and when he intends to mash different kinds of materials than those covered by Form 1431, or a larger quantity of the materials specified on the form than the maximum indicated thereon, he must file an amended application on Form 1431, as provided in § 182.109* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.351 Quantity of mash and beer determined. Storekeeper-gaugers assigned to industrial alcohol plants will determine the number of gallons of mash in each fermenter at the time of filing and the quantity of beer in each fermenter after fermentation is complete.*

§ 182.352 Test of beer and slop. At the time of distillation, the proprietor will thoroughly agitate the contents of each fermenter and the storekeeper-gauger will then take a sample of beer or other distilling material from each fermenter to determine the alcoholic content of the beer or other distilling material. He will also take daily several representative samples of slop or spent beer after the same has come from the still and determine the alcoholic content of each sample. He will make the test of beer or other distilling material and slop and compute the calculated yield, in accordance with the instructions on Form 1452-B.*

Distillation

§ 182.353 Continuous process required. The process of distillation employed must be such that the alcohol will pass through continuous closed stills, pipes and vessels from the time the vapors rise in the first still until the finished alcohol is deposited in the receiving room in locked receiving tanks provided for that purpose. The proprietor may, in the course of manufacture, carry his product through as many distilling operations as he may desire, provided the process is closed and continuous. Distilling processes are deemed to be continuous where the alcohol is carried through the various steps from the beer still to the receiving tanks as expeditiously as normal, efficient plant operation will permit in the manufacture of a finished product of standard quality. The collection of high and low wines and unfinished alcohol for the purpose of redistillation is not deemed to be a break in the continuity of the distilling process, but such alcohol when so collected should not be held indefinitely in the wine room. The distilling process is held to be completed when the alcohol is deposited in the receiving tanks.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.354 Gauging of high wines and low wines. At industrial alcohol plants where high wines and low wines in the course of distillation are run from the beer still into tanks in the wine room for temporary deposit preparatory to completing the distillation thereof, the storekeeper-gaugers shall promptly gauge (measure and proof) the high wines or low wines in such tanks and make proper entry on Form 1452-A.*

§ 182.355 Redistillation of alcohol—(a) Special permission must be obtained from the Commissioner. The Commissioner may, in his discretion, provided he deems it proper so to do and subject to such conditions and restrictions as he may impose, authorize the transfer of alcohol from a bonded warehouse to the industrial alcohol plant on the same premises for redistillation. In making request for such special authorization the applicant will submit to the district supervisor, for transmission to the Commissioner, a statement, in triplicate, showing the quantity, source and condition of the alcohol, and the necessity for redistillation.

(b) Records and reports.—The alcohol thus transferred for redistillation will be weighed and proofed and the number of proof gallons will be entered as a special entry on Form 1442 under the heading "Statement of Materials Received." Report of the return and redistillation of the alcohol will also be made on Forms 1452-A and 1452-B and on the warehouse record.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.356 Distillation of liquid chemicals. If, in the production of ethyl alcohol, other liquid chemicals are produced, such as butyl alcohol, isopropyl alcohol, acetone, ether, etc., each such chemical or product must be deposited in separate receiving tanks provided therefor, in order that the daily production thereof may be gauged and appropriate entries made on Forms 1442 and 1452-A, kept in accordance with § 182.341. The daily inventory shall be made by the proprietor in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger.

(a) Disposition. All chemicals drawn from the receiving tanks shall be gauged (weighed or measured) by the proprietor in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger. Removal of such chemicals will be in such containers as the proprietor may desire. The kind and quantity of chemicals gauged and removed from the premises will be reported on Forms 1442, 1452-A, and 1452-B.

(b) Marking of containers. The containers in which chemicals are removed from industrial alcohol plant premises shall have marked thereon the registry number, name and address of the proprietor, the kind of chemical and the quantity in wine gallons in such package.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

Locking of Plant

§ 182.357 When to be locked. Whenever alcohol is contained at any place in the industrial alcohol plant other than under Government lock in the receiving room or the filled package storeroom therein, the industrial alcohol plant building or portion thereof in which such alcohol is contained must be kept securely locked by the proprietor in the absence of himself or his agents. The locks used by the proprietor to secure doors, windows or other openings of the plant, buildings or portions thereof in which alcohol is so contained must be such as will, in the opinion of the district supervisor, safeguard the alcohol against illegal removal during the absence of the proprietor or his agents.*

§ 182.358 Keys of plant locks. The proprietor shall furnish the district supervisor as many keys to the locks provided for securing the entrance door or doors of the plant, buildings, or portions thereof, which are required to be locked by the proprietor, as may be deemed necessary by the district supervisor from time to time in order that the plant or any portion thereof may be accessible at any time to Government officers authorized to enter and inspect the premises.*

Deposit of Alcohol in Receiving Tanks

§ 182.359 Immediate deposit required. All finished alcohol must be deposited in receiving tanks in the receiving room immediately upon completion of manufacture. The quantity of finished alcohol produced will be determined and entered daily on Forms 1442 and 1454 or 1488 (if any) and Form 1452-A as indicated by the headings of the columns and the instructions on the forms. Where the production of more than one day is run into the same tank, the operation must be so conducted that the production of a full day or days may be measured. The practice of entering in the records the quantity of alcohol deposited in the warehouse or transferred to the denaturing plant on a given date as the production of that date, or a preceding date, when not in accordance with the facts must not be followed. The quantity noted as the production of a particular date must, in fact, be the quantity actually produced on that date.*

§ 182.360 Receiving tanks not to be used for storage. Receiving tanks are not intended to be used for storage purposes and the retention of alcohol in such tanks for an indefinite period will not be permitted.*

Comparison of Actual Yield with Calculated Yield

§ 182.361 Abnormal differences to be investigated. The storekeeper-gauger will compare the quantity of alcohol produced and deposited in the receiving tanks with the calculated yield for the respective fermenters. Where the difference between the calculated yield and the actual yield is more than that determined by experience to be the normal difference for the particular plant, the storekeeper-gauger assigned to supervise distilling operations and the storekeeper-gauger in charge will make a thorough inquiry to determine the reason or reasons therefor and will make a full report of their findings on Form 1452-B. Where the facts warrant, the officers will make a report by letter to the district supervisor and will make reference on Form 1452-B to such letter. If the findings of the officers do not fully explain the discrepancy, the district supervisor will cause such further investigation to be made as may be deemed advisable.*

Supervision of Receiving Room

§ 182.362 In charge of storekeeper-gauger. The receiving tanks and the receiving room shall be under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger designated for that duty. The doors and other openings of the receiving room will be locked at all times when alcohol is in such room, except when alcohol is being drawn off or other necessary work is being done by the proprietor under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. The entrance door will be locked on the outside with a Government seal lock and other doors will be locked on the inside with Government locks, as provided in § 182.30. The openings in the receiving tanks, including the inlets and outlets thereof, will also be kept locked with Government locks at all times, except the inlets of tanks being filled and the outlets of tanks being emptied, and the manheads when alcohol is being agitated and reduced preparatory to withdrawal. The receiving room must not be opened or allowed to remain open, nor may any person other than a Government officer be permitted in the receiving room, except when the designated storekeeper-gauger is on duty; nor will the keys to the Government locks be entrusted at any time to the proprietor or any person in his employ, but will be retained at all times in the possession of the designated storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will promptly report any lack of security of the receiving room to the storekeeper-gauger in charge.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

Collection and Removal of Distilled Water

§ 182.363 Collection. If distilled water is collected at the industrial alcohol plant, it must be run into storage tanks provided in accordance with § 182.76, and retained therein until drawn off and removed as hereinafter provided.*

§ 182.364 Removal. Distilled water may be drawn off into barrels or other containers prior to removal from the plant premises: Provided, That such water may be transferred off the plant premises to contiguous plants operated under internal revenue laws including tax-paid bottling houses by means of an independent pipe line constructed and installed in accordance with the provisions of § 182.76. Distilled water must under no circumstances be drawn off or removed through the receiving room, bonded warehouse or denaturing plant. Barrels or other wooden containers in which alcohol or other distilled spirits were previously packaged may not be used for the removal of distilled water, unless the barrels are coated or lined inside with glue, paraffin, or other similar substance.

(a) Marking of packages. If distilled water is drawn into packages for removal from the plant premises, such packages must be marked by the proprietor with his name, plant number, location (city or town and State), the words "Distilled Water" and the date of removal in distinct and legible letters.

(b) Supervision of removal. All distilled water when drawn into packages for removal or when removed by pipe line must be inspected by the storekeeper-gauger and removed under his immediate supervision. The storekeeper-gauger will enter all removals of distilled water on Form 1452-B as indicated by the columns and lines provided therefor and in accordance with the instructions on the form.*

Collection and Removal of Fusel Oil

§ 182.365 Receiving tanks. If fusel oil is collected at the industrial alcohol plant, it must be run into locked receiving tanks provided therefor and retained therein until tested and removed from the plant premises for transfer to storage tanks.*

§ 182.366 Storage. Where fusel oil is transferred from the tanks in which it is collected in the course of distillation to storage tanks for temporary storage pending removal from the plant premises, it must be tested again immediately before being drawn into shipping containers, or removed by pipe line.*

§ 182.367 Washing and purifying. The fusel oil-alcohol mixture must be thoroughly washed and purified with water to separate the oil and alcohol mixture before the oil is removed from the tanks in which it is deposited or stored.

(a) Disposition of washwater. The washwater used for washing and purifying the oil may be conveyed directly to the still or run into a receiving tank, or it may be run into the sewer or otherwise destroyed on the premises. If the washwater is run into a receiving tank, it will be handled the same as washwater from carbon dioxide. (See § 182.391.)*

§ 182.368 Instruments for testing fusel oil. Fusel oil must be substantially free of alcohol before being removed from the premises. The proprietor shall provide a test tube and salt solution for use by the storekeeper-gauger in determining whether the fusel oil is substantially free of alcohol.*

§ 182.369 Description of test tube and salt solution—(a) Test tube. The test tube shall be of glass, bulb-shaped, and closed at one end, having a graduated scale marked upon the glass in degrees from 0 near the top to 100 near the swell of the bulb. The bulb shall hold three times as much liquid as that portion of the test tube which is graduated from 0 to 100.

(b) Saturated salt solution. The saturated salt solution to be furnished by the proprietor is a solution of common table salt (NaCl) in water, containing all the salt which the water is capable of dissolving.*

§ 182.370 Sample and test—(a) Sample. Before the fusel oil is removed from the tanks in which it is deposited or stored, it must be thoroughly washed and purified, after which the proprietor will thoroughly mix the oil and the storekeeper-gauger will take a sample for testing in accordance with paragraph (b).

(b) Test. The test tube will be filled with the saturated salt solution to the 100 mark and fusel oil will be added until the tube is filled to the 0 mark. The fusel oil and salt solution shall then be thoroughly mingled by violently agitating the contents of the tube for several minutes. If, after sufficient time has been allowed for the fusel oil to separate fully from the salt solution and resume its position at the top of the tube, the scale shows that not more than 10 degrees (10 percent) of the fusel oil has disappeared, or has been dissolved in the salt solution, the fusel oil shall be passed as removable, that is to say, containing so small a quantity of alcohol as to remove all possibility of recovering the same, but if over 10 degrees of the fusel oil disappears, the fusel oil shall not be considered as sufficiently free of alcohol and may not be removed in that condition. A reading of 10 degrees (10 percent) would indicate that the fusel oil contains 10 percent of alcohol. When the fusel oil is found upon test by the storekeeper-gauger not to be removable, a sample shall be taken and submitted to the branch laboratory for analysis, unless the proprietor is agreeable to further washing and purifying the fusel oil. If a sample is submitted and the report of the chemist substantiates the finding of the storekeeper-gauger, the fusel oil must be further washed and purified and tested before being removed from the premises.*

§ 182.371 Removal—(a) Containers. Removable fusel oil may be drawn off into barrels, drums, or similar packages, or into tank cars. Packages containing such fusel oil shall be marked by the proprietor with his name, plant number, location (city or town and State), the words "Fusel Oil," and the date of removal in distinct and legible letters. When removal is made in tank cars, the proprietor will affix to the route board of each car a label containing such data.

(b) Pipe lines. Pipe lines constructed in conformity with the provisions of § 182.98 may be used for the purpose of transferring fusel oil from the industrial alcohol plant to contiguous premises operated by the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant. Fusel oil thus transferred shall be weighed or measured by volume in a tank equipped with suitable scales or a measuring device on the industrial alcohol plant premises. The valve in the pipe line shall be closed and locked with a Government lock at all times when it is not in use.

(c) Supervision. All fusel oil must be removed under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

(d) Record of removal. The proprietor will enter the quantity of fusel oil removed from the premises on his Form 1442. The storekeeper-gauger will enter all removals of fusel oil and the percentage of loss shown upon the test thereof on Form 1452–B, as indicated by the columns and lines provided therefor on the form.*

Production and Removal of Butyl Alcohol

§ 182.372 Receiving tanks. If butyl alcohol is produced at the industrial alcohol plant, it must be run into locked receiving tanks provided therefor and retained therein until tested and removed from the plant premises or transferred to storage tanks. The daily production of butyl alcohol must be determined and appropriate entries made on Forms 1442 and 1452–A, kept in accordance with § 182.341. The daily inventory shall be made by the proprietor in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger.*

§ 182.373 Storage tanks. Where butyl alcohol is transferred from the receiving tanks in which it is run in the course of distillation to storage tanks for temporary storage pending removal from the plant premises, it must be tested again immediately before being drawn into shipping containers or removed by pipe line.*

§ 182.374 Instruments for testing butyl alcohol. Butyl alcohol must be substantially free of ethyl alcohol before being removed from the premises. The proprietor shall provide a test tube and salt solution for use by the storekeeper-gauger in determining whether the butyl alcohol is substantially free of ethyl alcohol.*

§ 182.375 Description of test tube and salt solution—(a) Test tube. The test tube shall be of glass, bulb-shaped, and closed at one end, having a graduated scale marked upon the glass in degrees from 0 near the top to 100 near the swell of the bulb. The bulb shall hold three times as much liquid as that portion of the test tube which is graduated from 0 to 100. The test tube shall be similar to the one used for testing fusel oil.

(b) Saturated salt solution. The saturated salt solution to be furnished by the proprietor is a solution of common table salt (NaCl) in water, containing all the salt which the water is capable of dissolving. The storekeeper-gauger shall dilute the solution with an equal quantity of water before using it in his test.*

§ 182.376 Sample and tests—(a) Sample. Before the butyl alcohol is removed from the tanks in which it is deposited or stored, the proprietor will thoroughly mix the contents and the storekeeper-gauger will take a sample for testing in accordance with paragraph (b).

(b) Test. The test tube will be filled with the half (50 per cent) saturated salt solution to the 100 mark, and butyl alcohol will be added until the tube is filled to the 0 mark. The butyl alcohol and salt solution shall then be thoroughly mingled by violently agitating the contents of the tube for several minutes. If, after sufficient time has been allowed for the butyl alcohol to separate fully from the salt solution and resume its position at the top of the tube, the scale shows that not more than 5 degrees (10 per cent) of the butyl alcohol has disappeared, or has been dissolved in the salt solution, the butyl alcohol shall be passed as removable, that is to say, containing so small a quantity of ethyl alcohol as to remove all possibility of recovering the same, but if over 5 degrees of the butyl alcohol disappears, the butyl alcohol shall not be considered as sufficiently free of ethyl alcohol and may not be removed in that condition. A reading of 5 degrees would indicate that the butyl alcohol contains 10 per cent of either acetone or ethyl alcohol, or a mixture of the two. When the butyl alcohol is found upon test by the storekeeper-gauger not to be removable, a sample shall be taken and submitted to the branch laboratory for analysis, unless the proprietor is agreeable to further purifying the butyl alcohol. If a sample is submitted and the report of the chemist substantiates the finding of the storekeeper-gauger, the butyl alcohol must be further purified and tested before being removed from the premises.*

§ 182.377 Removal—(a) Containers. Removable butyl alcohol may be drawn off into barrels, drums, or similar packages, or into tank cars. Packages containing such butyl alcohol shall be marked by the proprietor with his name, plant number, location (city or town and State), the words "Butyl Alcohol," and the date of removal in distinct and legible letters. When removal is made in tank cars, the proprietor will affix to the route board of each car a label containing such data.

(b) Pipe lines. Pipe lines constructed in conformity with the provisions of § 182.98 may be used for the purpose of transferring butyl alcohol from the industrial alcohol plant to contiguous premises operated by the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant. Butyl alcohol thus transferred shall be weighed or measured by volume in a tank equipped with suitable scales or a measuring device on the industrial alcohol plant premises. The valve in the pipe line shall be closed and locked with a Government lock at all times when it is not in use.

(c) Supervision. All butyl alcohol must be removed under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

(d) Record of removal. The proprietor will enter the quantity of butyl alcohol removed from the premises on his Form 1442. The storekeeper-gauger will enter all removals of butyl alcohol and the percentage of loss shown upon the test thereof on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B, as indicated by the columns and lines provided therefor on the form.*

Production and removal of acetone

§ 182.378 Receiving tanks. If acetone is produced at the industrial alcohol plant, it must be run into locked receiving tanks provided therefor and retained therein until tested and removed from the plant premises or transferred to storage tanks. The daily production of acetone must be determined and appropriate entries made on Forms 1442 and 1452–A, kept in accordance with § 182.341. The daily inventory shall be made by the proprietor in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger.*

§ 182.379 Storage tanks. Where acetone is transferred from the receiving tanks in which it is run in the course of distillation to storage tanks for temporary storage pending removal from the plant premises, it must be tested again immediately before being drawn into shipping containers or removed by pipe line.*

§ 182.380 Instruments for testing acetone. Acetone must be substantially free of ethyl alcohol before being removed from the premises. The proprietor shall provide a graduated glass cylinder with ground glass stopper, having a capacity of 100 cubic centimeters with 1 cubic centimeter graduations and a 10 cubic centimeter glass pipette with 1 cubic centimeter graduations, for use by the storekeeper-gauger in determining whether the acetone is substantially free of ethyl alcohol.*

§ 182.381 Reagent. The branch laboratory performing the chemical work for the district supervisor's office will furnish the storekeeper-gauger with a reagent for testing the acetone. The reagent will be prepared by dissolving 0.3 gram of potassium dichromate in 100 cubic centimeters of a 1 per cent (by volume) sulphuric acid solution.*

§ 182.382 Sample and test—(a) Sample. Before the acetone is removed from the tanks in which it is deposited or stored, the proprietor will thoroughly mix the contents and the storekeeper-gauger will take a sample for testing in accordance with paragraph (b).

(b) Test. Fifty cubic centimeters of the acetone sample will be placed in the glass-stoppered cylinder to which will be added, by use of the pipette, 4 cubic centimeters of the reagent. The solution will then be mixed well and let stand for a few minutes to determine the presence of alcohol. The reagent will produce a yellow color. The presence of ethyl alcohol in the acetone will cause the yellow color to fade to a milky white. Pure acetone reacts slowly; at least half an hour's standing is required to produce a change of color. At temperatures above 50 degrees Fahrenheit acetone solutions containing 2 per cent or more of ethyl alcohol will fade in about 5 minutes, and at temperatures below 50 degrees Fahrenheit the reaction time is about 15 minutes. If the yellow color of the sample fades to a milky white in about 5 minutes, where the temperature is above 50 degrees Fahrenheit, or in about 15 minutes, where the temperature is below 50 degrees Fahrenheit, the acetone shall not be considered as sufficiently free from ethyl alcohol and may not be removed in that condition. The reaction within the above ranges (about 5 to 15 minutes) would indicate that the acetone contains 2 per cent or more of either ethyl alcohol or butyl alcohol, or a mixture of the two. When the acetone is found upon test by the storekeeper-gauger not to be removable, a sample shall be taken and submitted to the branch laboratory for analysis, unless the proprietor is agreeable to further purifying the acetone. If a sample is submitted and the report of the chemist substantiates the finding of the storekeeper-gauger, the acetone must be further purified and tested before being removed from the premises.*

§ 182.383 Removal—(a) Containers. Removable acetone may be drawn off into barrels, drums, or similar packages, or into tank cars. Packages containing such acetone shall be marked by the proprietor with his name, plant number, location (city or town and State), the word "Acetone," and the date of removal in distinct and legible letters. When removal is made in tank cars, the proprietor will affix to the route board of each car a label containing such data.

(b) Pipe lines. Pipe lines constructed in conformity with the provisions of § 182.98 may be used for the purpose of transferring acetone from the industrial alcohol plant to contiguous premises operated by the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant. Acetone thus transferred shall be weighed or measured by volume in a tank equipped with suitable scales or a measuring device on the industrial alcohol premises. The valve in the pipe line shall be closed and locked with a Government lock at all times when it is not in use.

(c) Supervision. All acetone must be removed under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

(d) Record of removal. The proprietor will enter the quantity of acetone removed from the premises on his Form 1442. The storekeeper-gauger will enter all removals of acetone on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B, as indicated by the columns and lines provided therefor on the form.*

Production and Removal of Ether

§ 182.384 Receiving tanks. If ether is produced at the industrial alcohol plant, it must be run into locked receiving tanks provided therefor and retained therein until tested and removed from the plant premises or transferred to storage tanks. The daily production of ether must be determined and appropriate entries made on Forms 1442 and 1452–A, kept in accordance with § 182.341. The daily inventory shall be made by the proprietor in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger.*

§ 182.385 Storage tanks. Where ether is transferred from the receiving tanks in which it is run in the course of distillation to storage tanks for temporary storage pending removal from the plant premises, it must be tested again immediately before being drawn into shipping containers or removed by pipe line.*

§ 182.386 Instruments for testing ether. Ether must be substantially free of alcohol before being removed from the premises. The proprietor shall provide two or more graduated glass cylinders with ground glass stoppers, having a capacity of 25 cubic centimeters, with one-fifth cubic centimeter graduations similar to that described as No. 4413 in Arthur H. Thomas & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., catalogue, for use by the storekeeper-gauger in determining whether the ether is substantially free of alcohol.*

§ 182.387 Reagent. The branch laboratory performing the chemical work for the district supervisor's office will furnish the storekeeper-gauger with a reagent, "Fuchsine," for testing the ether.*

§ 182.388 Sample and test—(a) Sample. Before the ether is removed from the tanks in which it is deposited or stored, the storekeeper-gauger will take a sample for testing in accordance with paragraph (b).

(b) Test. Twenty-five cubic centimeters of the ether sample will be placed in the glass-stoppered cylinder to which will be added a small lump or crystal (not larger than one-half the size of a pea) of fuchsine. The cylinder must be thoroughly dry before using; otherwise the fuchsine will dissolve and the test will be meaningless. Invert the cylinder several times to mix, removing the stopper after each inversion to allow the pressure to escape. Let the sample stand for a period of 15 minutes to determine the presence of alcohol. Caution: Always remove the stopper after inverting the glass cylinder so that the pressure formed will not blow it out, thus causing injury. Replace the stopper at once. Do not open ether near a flame. The presence of alcohol in the ether will cause a pink color to develop. If the sample contains 5 per cent or more of alcohol, a deep pink color will develop. The presence of smaller percentages of alcohol in the ether will cause color to develop to a less degree and no color will develop if the ether is free of alcohol. If a pink color is developed, a control sample will be prepared immediately by placing 1.25 cubic centimeters of alcohol in one of the graduated glass cylinders and filling the cylinder to the 25 cubic centimeter mark with previously tested alcohol-free ether, then adding a small lump of fuchsine, mixing and letting stand for 15 minutes in the manner prescribed above. If the sample being tested develops a deeper pink color than the control sample, it would indicate that the ether contains more than 5 per cent of alcohol, and the ether shall not be considered as sufficiently free of alcohol and may not be removed in that condition. When the ether is found upon test by the storekeeper-gauger not to be removable, a sample shall be taken and submitted to the branch laboratory for analysis, unless the proprietor is agreeable to further purifying the ether. If a sample is submitted and the report of the chemist substantiates the finding of the storekeeper-gauger, the ether must be further purified and tested before being removed from the premises.*

§ 182.389 Removal—(a) Containers. Removable ether may be drawn off into barrels, drums, or similar packages, or into tank cars. Packages containing such ether shall be marked by the proprietor with his name, plant number, location (city or town and State), the word "Ether," and the date of removal in distinct and legible letters. When removal is made in tank cars, the proprietor will affix to the route board of each car a label containing such data.

(b) Pipe lines. Pipe lines constructed in conformity with the provisions of § 182.98 may be used for the purpose of transferring ether from the industrial alcohol plant to contiguous premises operated by the proprietor of the industrial alcohol plant. Ether thus transferred shall be weighed or measured by volume in a tank equipped with suitable scales or a measuring device on the industrial alcohol plant premises. The valve in the pipe line shall be closed and locked with a Government lock at all times when it is not in use.

(c) Supervision. All ether must be removed under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

(d) Record of removal. The proprietor will enter the quantity of ether removed from the premises on his Form 1442. The storekeeper-gauger will enter all removals of ether on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B, as indicated by the columns and lines provided therefor on the form.*

Production and Removal of Other Chemicals and Products

§ 182.390 Procedure. All other liquid chemicals and products produced and removed at industrial alcohol plants shall be inspected by the storekeeper-gauger and removed under his immediate supervision, and subjected to such tests as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.*

Recovery and Removal of Carbon Dioxide

§ 182.391 Procedure. Carbon dioxide may be recovered from fermenters and removed from the plant premises provided it is first throughly washed or scrubbed and purified in the fermenting room or building to remove the alcohol therefrom. Where carbon dioxide is recovered, the washwater may be collected in a receiving tank. After the quantity and alcoholic content are determined by the storekeeper-gauger, it may be transferred from pipe lines to a mash tub or fermenter or to a beer well. An approved ebulliometer shall be used in determining the alcoholic content of the washwater. Where the washwater is transferred to the fermenter for mixing with the beer, the transfer must be made prior to the testing of the beer by the storekeeper-gauger at the time of distillation. Where the washwater is transferred to the beer well, the number of gallons and the alcoholic content thereof will be interlined on Form 1452–A and included in determining the calculated yield. The date, the number of gallons, the alcoholic content and the disposition of such washwater will be repoted by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1452–B under "Special Operations or Conditions." If the washwater is not utilized in the manufacture of alcohol, it will be run into the sewer or otherwise destroyed on the premises under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.*

Samples of Alcohol

§ 182.392 Unfinished alcohol. The proprietor may take samples of alcohol in the course of distillation and prior to its deposit in the receiving room. The size and number of samples must be restricted to the minimum necessary to determine the quality of the alcohol being produced.*

§ 182.393 Finished alcohol. The proprietor may take from the receiving room of the industrial alcohol plant like samples of alcohol for chemical analysis or organoleptic examination only.*

§ 182.394 Application. When the proprietor desires to procure such samples, he shall make application, in triplicate, to the district supervisor. The application should specify the reasons why the samples are desired, the number and size of the samples to be taken, and the place or places of removal. Where it is desired to take samples from the plant regularly for the purpose specified, the application may be made for that purpose. No samples may be taken until the application is approved: Provided, That in cases of emergency the storekeeper-gauger in charge may permit the proprietor to take samples of unfinished alcohol, prior to application to the district supervisor, where such samples are necessary for control purposes, subject to prompt report thereof being made to the district supervisor.*

§ 182.395 Approval of application. The district supervisor must satisfy himself as to need for the number of samples desired and the legitimacy of the purpose for which they are to be used before approving the application. If the district supervisor approves the application he will return one copy to the applicant, forward one copy to the storekeeper-gauger at the plant, and retain the other copy in his office.*

§ 182.396 Removal under supervision. All samples of finished and unfinished alcohol must be taken under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.*

§ 182.397 Label. Each bottle containing a sample must have affixed thereto by the proprietor a label showing the name of the proprietor, the kind or grade of alcohol, the word "Sample," and a statement that the alcohol is for analytical or organoleptic examination. The label may contain such other identifying data as the proprietor may desire to place thereon.*

§ 182.398 Office record. The storekeeper-gauger will keep an office record of the samples taken, giving the date, number, quantity in wine gallons, and the proof. The storekeeper-gauger will also report the total number and the quantity in wine and proof gallons of samples taken at the plant during the month on Form 1452–B under "Special Operations and Conditions."*

§ 182.399 Disposition of samples. The samples must be used solely for chemical analysis or organoleptic examination. They may not be furnished to salesmen and dealers for advertising or soliciting purposes. When such is authorized in the approved application, the proprietor may furnish a sample of not exceeding 1 pint to a purchaser where the alcohol has been sold subject to approval as to quality. Remnants or residues of samples taken from the industrial alcohol plant or receiving room remaining after analysis or examination, and which are not desired to be retained as laboratory specimens or for further analysis or examination, must be returned to vessels in the distilling system or receiving tanks unless the condition of the remnants or residue is such as to render them unsuitable for such disposition. If such remnants or residues of samples are unsuitable for return, they should be destroyed in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger.*

Tax-payment, Removal, and Transfer of Alcohol From Receiving Room

§ 182.400 Authorized removals. Alcohol produced at industrial alcohol plants, after deposit in the receiving tanks, may be:

(1) Transferred by means of pipe lines to storage tanks in a bonded warehouse on the bonded premises where produced, or to alcohol storage tanks or mixing tanks in a denaturing plant located on the bonded premises where produced.

(2) Drawn into tank cars or other approved containers and transferred to any bonded warehouse for storage therein, or to any denaturing plant for denaturation.

(3) Withdrawn upon payment of tax without being entered into a bonded warehouse.

(4) Tax-paid and transferred by pipe line to a rectifying plant on contiguous or nearby premises, as authorized by §§ 182.574a to 182.574g.

(5) Removed for lawful tax-free purposes.* (Secs. 2885, 2891, 3106, 3107, 3108, I.R.C.; sec. 309 (a), Tariff Act of 1930; 19 U.S.C., Sup., 1309, as amended by sec. 3, Act of July 22, 1941 (Public Law 187, 77th Congress))

§ 182.401 Approved containers, marks, brands, etc. The containers into which the alcohol may be drawn must conform to the requirements and be marked and branded and stamped in accordance with the provisions of §§ 182.506 to 182.536, inclusive.*

§ 182.402 Procedure and reports. The procedure prescribed in §§ 182.470–182.652 in respect to the filling, gauging, and marking of packages and the removal of alcohol at bonded warehouses, will be followed when packages are filled or alcohol is removed for shipment or transfer to the denaturing plant directly from the receiving tanks. Report of the gauge of packages filled will be made in accordance with §§ 182.470–182.652. Alcohol removed directly from the receiving tanks for shipment or transfer will be regarded as having been constructively warehoused, and all records of production, depositing, and withdrawal of such alcohol will be made in accordance with §§ 182.470–182.652 as for alcohol actually entered into warehouses in original packages or in storage tanks.*

§ 182.403 Receiving room considered as warehouse. If the proprietor operates a bonded warehouse on the premises of the industrial alcohol plant, the receiving room thereof shall be deemed to be a part of such warehouse for the purpose of direct removals of alcohol from the receiving room.*

Drawing Off, Gauging, and Removal of Alcohol

§ 182.404 Drawing off alcohol. When alcohol is to be drawn from a receiving tank, the storekeeper-gauger will see that the valve in the pipe line controlling the flow of alcohol into the tank is closed and locked before the alcohol in the tank is reduced and proofed and that such valve remains closed and locked until the alcohol has been removed. Whenever alcohol is to be drawn from receiving tanks or transferred into or out of other tanks secured with Government locks, the storekeeper-gauger will open and close the locks, but it shall be the duty of the proprietor to manipulate the stopcocks or valves controlling the flow of the alcohol. The storekeeper-gauger assigned to the receiving room is required to be present and personally supervise the drawing off of all alcohol in the receiving tanks, the marking and branding of all packages of alcohol filled therefrom, and the stamping of all packages tax-paid directly from the receiving room. He will also see that all mechanical duties connected with such operation are properly performed, as provided herein and in the Gauging Manual. (26 CFR, Part 186).*

§ 182.405 Gauging of alcohol. All alcohol drawn from receiving tanks will be carefully gauged by the proprietor in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger and reported on Forms 1442 and 1454. Alcohol drawn into barrels, drums, or similar packages, shall be gauged in accordance with the rules prescribed in the Gauging Manual. Alcohol to be transferred by pipe line from receiving tanks shall also be gauged in accordance with the rules prescribed in the Gauging Manual; the weight of the alcohol will be determined by means of weighing tanks, as provided in § 182.407. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the gauge (proof, weight, and gallonage) of all alcohol, as determined by the proprietor.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.406 Time of removal from receiving room. The alcohol must be removed from the receiving room directly to the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant on the same premises on the same day it is drawn from the receiving tanks, except where it is drawn into approved containers for tax-payment or for exportation or other lawful tax-free purpose without being entered into warehouse or is drawn into such containers for transfer to a bonded warehouse or denaturing plant off the industrial alcohol plant premises, the same may be placed in a filled package storeroom within the receiving room, provided in accordance with § 182.31, and permitted to remain therein for such period as may be reasonably necessary to accomplish tax-payment, tax-free removal, or transfer in bond, but not more than three days, except in cases of emergency, and then only with the approval of the district supervisor. While alcohol is stored in such filled package storeroom it will be kept securely locked at all times, except when necessary to be opened for the deposit or removal of alcohol. The entrance door will be secured with a Government seal lock, the key to which will remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.407 Weighing alcohol removed by pipe line. Where alcohol is to be removed by pipe line, the same will be weighed in a weighing tank before removal from the receiving room, except that where alcohol is transferred by pipe line from the receiving tanks to a bonded warehouse or denaturing plant on the industrial alcohol plant premises, and no weighing tank is provided in the receiving room, the alcohol may be run into weighing tanks in the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant, respectively, and weighed therein. The alcohol must, in any event, be weighed once in connection with its transfer to the bonded warehouse or the denaturing plant. Where alcohol is transferred from receiving tanks to tank cars, one or more weighing tanks must be provided in the receiving room and all alcohol removed by pipe line must be weighed in such weighing tanks, and the correct weight will be recorded by the proprietor on the appropriate forms. The storekeeper-gauger will balance the scales upon which the weighing tank is mounted before the alcohol is run into such tank. Scales used for weighing alcohol in lots of not over 500 gallons will be tested from time to time under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger, by means of test weights, provided in accordance with § 182.66. Such scales will be tested by placing the prescribed test weights on the scales and checking the weight registered on the beam or dial of the scales. The test weights will then be removed without disturbing the beam or dial and the weighing tank filled with alcohol or water to the same weight, whereupon the test weights will again be placed upon the scales, the alcohol or water being retained in the tank and the weight registered on the beam or dial checked. This operation will be continued until the scales have been checked in 500-pound notches at all weights for which the scales are used. Storekeeper-gaugers will, from time to time, check the gallonage indicated by scales used for weighing alcohol in larger lots against the gallonage indicated by volumetric determination of the contents of the tank. Such volumetric determination will be made by (1) accurately ascertaining the proof and temperature of the alcohol, and the depth of the liquid in the tank by means of a steel tape, (2) multiplying the depth in inches by the capacity of the tank for 1 inch of depth, and (3) correcting the volume to 60 degrees Fahrenheit in accordance with Table No. 7 of the Gauging Manual. The corrected wine gallonage thus determined can then be compared with the wine gallons indicated by the scales. The storekeeper-gauger will not permit the use of any scales found to be inaccurate.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.408 Pipe-line removals. A pipe line used for the transfer of alcohol from the receiving room to storage tanks in a bonded warehouse, or to a denaturing plant on the industrial alcohol plant premises, or to railroad tank cars for shipment, must conform to the requirements of § 182.82, except that alcohol may be transferred into a tank car by means of a hose connection where the same is in full view of the Government officer throughout its entire length. The valves on such pipe line shall be kept closed and locked at all times, except when necessary to be opened for the transfer of alcohol. The keys to all locks on the valves of pipe lines shall remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger. Alcohol may be transferred by pipe line only under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.*

Losses of Alcohol

§ 182.409 Losses in industrial alcohol plant. The tax on alcohol lost in an industrial alcohol plant by evaporation or other shrinkage, leakage, casualty or unavoidable cause during distillation, redistillation, withdrawal, piping, shipment, storage, packing, transfer, or recovery, may be remitted provided the manufacturer establishes that the alcohol was not diverted to any illegal use and that he is not indemnified against the loss by a valid claim of insurance. The procedure prescribed in §§ 182.470–182.652, will be followed when such losses occur.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.410 Losses in receiving tanks. The provisions of §§ 182.470–182.652 concerning the allowance for losses in storage tanks in bonded warehouses, and other applicable provisions thereof, are extended, insofar as applicable, to receiving tanks in industrial alcohol plants.*

§ 182.411 Claim for losses. Claims for the remission of tax on alcohol lost in the industrial alcohol plant or from receiving tanks will be filed with the district supervisor of the district in which the industrial alcohol plant is located. Such claim should be filed within 30 days after the loss is discovered and the procedure concerning claims shall be in accordance with the provisions of §§ 182.470–182.652 concerning claims for losses.*

§ 182.412 Records. Where alcohol is lost or destroyed on the industrial alcohol plant premises, appropriate entry and report of such loss or destruction will be made by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1452–B, and by the proprietor on Form 1442, Form 1454, or Form 1488 (if any).*

Alcohol Produced and Not Accounted For

§ 182.413 Commissioner to make assessments. Under the law it is the duty of the Commissioner to inquire and determine whether the proprietor has accounted for all the alcohol produced by him. If the Commissioner finds that the proprietor has not accounted for all the alcohol produced by him, he shall, from all the evidence he can obtain, determine what quantity of alcohol was actually produced by such proprietor and make an assessment at the rate imposed by law for the difference between the quantity reported and the quantity shown to have been actually produced.* (Secs. 3103, 3640, I.R.C.)

§ 182.414 Storekeeper-gauger to report deficiencies. The storekeeper-gauger, upon completion of his monthly report, Form 1452–B, will compare the calculated yield for that month with the actual production. He will give a complete statement on such form, under "Special Operations or Conditions," in respect to any material deficiency in the calculated production or any loss of beer or alcohol by casualty or otherwise. He will likewise report any unusual or peculiar conditions that may obtain at the plant.*

§ 182.415 District supervisor's examination of returns. Upon receipt of the proprietor's monthly return, Form 1442, and the corresponding report of the storekeeper-gauger, Form 1452–A, and Form 1452–B, the district supervisor will examine them to determine whether the proprietor has accounted for all the alcohol produced by him during the month. If he finds that the proprietor apparently has not accounted for all the alcohol produced by him, he shall make such investigation as he may deem necessary and determine from all the evidence he can obtain the quantity of alcohol actually produced by the proprietor.* (Secs. 3103, 3640, I.R.C.)

§ 182.416 Use of materials not reported. If the district supervisor should find that the proprietor has received on his premises materials which have not been accounted for, or has used materials which have not been reported as used, and has produced alcohol which has not been reported, the quantity of alcohol produced and not reported should be determined from all the evidence that can be obtained, including evidence of the normal actual yield of alcohol from such materials at the particular plant.* (Secs. 3103, 3640, I.R.C.)

§ 182.417 Alcohol produced and not reported. If it is found that all the materials received have been accounted for and all the materials used have been reported, but that the proprietor has not accounted for all the alcohol produced, the quantity actually produced should be determined from all the evidence that can be obtained. The evidence that alcohol has been produced from materials reported used and has not been accounted for by the proprietor should be direct and positive.* (Secs. 3103, 3640, I.R.C.)

§ 182.418 Notice to proprietor. If it is determined that the proprietor has not accounted for all the alcohol produced by him, the district supervisor will, unless the interests of the Government require an immediate assessment, notify the proprietor of the proposed assessment and afford him an opportunity to submit, within 30 days, or such further time as the district supervisor may consider reasonable, evidence showing why the proposed assessment should not be made.* (Secs. 3103, 3640, I.R.C.)

§ 182.419 Nature of evidence. The evidence submitted by the proprietor should be in the form of affidavits and certified documents.*

§ 182.420 Consideration of proprietor's response. If the proprietor responds to the notice and submits evidence bearing on the merits of the proposed assessment, the district supervisor will give due consideration thereto and make such further investigation as he may deem advisable. If, after consideration of all the facts, the district supervisor finds that tax is due, he will report the same to the Commissioner, in accordance with the prescribed assessment procedure. If the district supervisor finds that tax should not be assessed, he will forward the affidavits and other documents submitted by the proprietor, together with investigation reports, if any, to the Commissioner with his recommendation thereon.* (Secs. 3103, 3640, I.R.C.)

§ 182.421 Claim for remission. Where the proprietor claims pursuant to notice of proposed assessment, that the alcohol produced and not accounted for was actually lost in the process of manufacture, he will apply for remission of the tax on such alcohol, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 182.470–182.652.*

§ 182.422 Proprietor's failure to respond. If the proprietor fails to respond to the notice of the proposed assessment within the time specified, the district supervisor will report to the Commissioner, in accordance with the prescribed assessment procedure, the amount found due for assessment.* (Secs. 3103, 3640, I.R.C.)

Suspension of Operations

§ 182.423 Notice, Form 124. Any proprietor desiring to suspend operations for an indefinite period or for a definite period of seven days or more at his industrial alcohol plant shall give notice on Form 124, "Notice of Suspension," in triplicate, stating when he will suspend operations. The notice will be delivered to the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the plant.

(a) Completion of operations required. Except as provided in section 182.428, before the industrial alcohol plant may be suspended, all distilling material and all unfinished alcohol must be distilled and all alcohol produced must be run into the receiving tanks: Provided, That where alcohol is held in the wine room for redistillation, and the industrial alcohol plant is to be suspended for a temporary period of not more than seven days and is not to be operated by another proprietor or as a registered distillery or fruit distillery during such period, the district supervisor may, where in his opinion such may be done without jeopardy to the revenue, permit such alcohol to be retained in tanks in the wine room of the industrial alcohol plant during the period of temporary suspension, if both the tanks and the wine room are kept locked with Government locks: Provided, further, That where the industrial alcohol plant is to be operated temporarily as a registered distillery or fruit distillery, unfinished alcohol may be held under Government lock in unfinished alcohol tanks in the wine room, as provided in § 182.439 (a). The district supervisor may also in his discretion authorize the retention of unwashed fusel oil in locked tanks during the period of such temporary suspension.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.424 Date of suspension. The proprietor will fix in the notice the time when all the beer, or other distilling material, on the plant premises will be distilled and all alcohol in the industrial alcohol plant will be run into the receiving tanks in the receiving room, or into unfinished alcohol tanks in the wine room, as provided in § 182.423 (a).*

§ 182.425 Locking furnace doors, etc. When notice of suspension is given by the proprietor, the storekeeper-gauger will, at the time fixed in the notice, lock the furnace door of each still or the control valve in the pipe line conveying steam or fuel to each still, and will supervise the disconnection of the distilling machinery and the removal to the bonded warehouse or the receiving room of some portion of such machinery necessary to distillation. The locks used in securing furnace doors or the control valves in steam or fuel lines will be taken from such other place in the industrial alcohol plant where the locks are not necessary while the plant is suspended as may be designated by the district supervisor. In lieu of removing a portion of the distillery apparatus to the bonded warehouse, receiving room or other secure place, the district supervisor may require two of the ports (manheads) of each column still to be locked open by passing a chain or two iron straps through the ports and around the outside of the still, and locking the chain or straps in place.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.426 Officer's certificate of suspension. The officer will certify on each copy of Form 124 to the action taken by him and will furnish one copy of the form to the proprietor and forward the remaining copies to the district supervisor, who will forward one copy to the Commissioner. The district supervisor may relieve any officer assigned to the plant from duty thereat during the period of suspension.*

§ 182.427 Mash, wort, or beer at suspended plant forbidden. Except as provided in the following section, no proprietor may, after the time fixed in his notice, Form 124, for suspension of work at the industrial alcohol plant, carry on the business of distilling on the said premises, or have mash, wort, or beer fermented or in the process of fermentation, or other distilling material, in his plant or on any premises connected therewith, or have in his possession or under his control any mash, wort, or beer, or other distilling material, with intent to distill the same on said premises.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.428 Suspension caused by unavoidable accident. In case of accident necessitating suspension of the plant for an indefinite period or for a definite period of seven days or more, the proprietor should, if possible, distill all the beer, or other distilling material, and unfinished alcohol on hand before filing notice of suspension. Should the accident be of such a nature as to render this impossible, the proprietor will immediately give notice of suspension on Form 124, in triplicate, as provided in § 182.423. The storekeeper-gauger will then lock the furnace doors of the stills or the control valves in the steam or fuel lines leading to the stills, and supervise the disconnection and removal of distilling machinery, as provided in § 182.425. The officer will then certify on Form 124, in triplicate, to the action taken by him and state the kind and quantity, if any, of mash, beer, wort, or other distilling material, or unfinished alcohol on hand at the time of suspension and will furnish one copy of the form to the proprietor and forward the remaining copies to the district supervisor, who will forward one copy to the Commissioner. The district supervisor may relieve any officer assigned to the plant from duty thereat during the period of suspension.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

Resumption of Operations

§ 182.429 Notice, Form 125. No proprietor may carry on the business of distilling after the time stated in his notice of suspension, Form 124, until he shall have given another notice on Form 125, "Notice of Resumption," in triplicate, to the district supervisor, stating the time he will resume operations. This notice should be forwarded in sufficient time to reach the district supervisor a sufficient time in advance of the date it is desired to resume operations to enable the district supervisor to assign a storekeeper-gauger to remove the locks and supervise operations. This notice should ordinarily reach the district supervisor at least 48 hours in advance of the date the proprietor desires to resume operations. The district supervisor will designate an officer to remove the locks and other fastenings placed on the equipment at the time of suspension and to supervise the connection of machinery on the date specified in the Form 125. Where the suspension was caused by accident and beer, or other distilling material, or unfinished alcohol remain on hand, the designated officer will determine whether the same kind and quantity of beer, or other distilling material, or unfinished alcohol reported on Form 124 as on hand at the time of suspension are on hand at the time of resumption, less natural evaporation.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.430 Officer's certificate of removal of locks and fastenings. The officer will certify on Form 125, in triplicate, to the action taken by him, and to the kind and quantity, if any, of beer, or other distilling material, or unfinished alcohol on hand at the time of such resumption, and will furnish one copy of Form 125 to the proprietor and forward the remaining copies to the district supervisor, who will forward one copy to the Commissioner.*

§ 182.431 Unauthorized removal of locks and fastenings. No revenue officer or other person may remove Government locks and fastenings and permit connection of the machinery where an industrial alcohol plant has been suspended, except by direction of the district supervisor, pursuant to notice of resumption.*

Registry of Stills "For Use" and "Not for Use"

§ 182.432 Registry on Form 26. Every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still set up must register the same with the district supervisor for the district in which it is located. This registry must be made on Form 26, in triplicate, immediately the still is set up. When the proprietor intends to use the still he must register it "For use," and when he intends to discontinue use of the still he must register it "Not for use." It will not be necessary to so register the still because of temporary suspensions. This registry will also be made on Form 26, in triplicate, with the district supervisor as in the case of original registry. The district supervisor will, upon approval of the form, retain one copy, forward one copy to the Commissioner, and return the remaining copy to the proprietor. The proprietor will retain his copy at the industrial alcohol plant available for inspection by Government officers.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.433 Alternate use of stills. Where the proprietor has two or more stills and intends to discontinue the use of one or more of them and to continue the use of the others, he must immediately register the still, or stills, he does not intend to use "Not for use." * (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

Operations by Proprietor Under Different Trade Names or Styles

§ 182.434 Commencement of operations. Whenever the proprietor desires to operate his industrial alcohol plant under a trade name or style which has not been previously approved, he must secure approval thereof in the manner prescribed by § 182.261 prior to commencement of operations thereunder. Thereafter, whenever he desires again to operate under such trade name or style, he shall file with the district supervisor Form 1431, in skeleton form, prior to commencement of operations thereunder.*

§ 182.435 Disposition of materials in process. Whenever the proprietor desires to operate his industrial alcohol plant under a trade name or style other than the trade name or style under which he is then operating, and has complied with the above provisions, he will not be required to complete the distillation of mash, beer, or other distilling material, and unfinished alcohol in the process of manufacture before commencing business under such other trade name or style.*

§ 182.436 Finished alcohol. All finished alcohol remaining in the receiving room at the time the change in trade name or style becomes effective must be marked and removed in the trade name or style under which it was finished. All finished alcohol produced from mash, beer, or other distilling material, and unfinished alcohol remaining on hand at the time the change in trade name or style becomes effective must be marked and removed in the trade name or style under which it is finished. The proprietor will report the deposit and removal of such finished alcohol on Form 1442 on the same lines covering its manufacture. Similar entries will be made by the storekeeper-gauger on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B.*

§ 182.437 Records. Separate records on Forms 1442 and 1454 and 1488 (if any) will not be required for operations under each trade name but the proprietor must note on such records the trade names or styles under which he operated during the month and the dates of operations under each. The storekeeper-gauger will make a similar notation on his record, Form 1452–A. Where alcohol is produced under a trade name, the proprietor and the storekeeper-gauger must show on their records both the real name of the actual producer and the trade name under which the alcohol was produced.*

Alternate Operation as Registered Distillery or Fruit Distillery

§ 182.438 Qualifying for alternate operation. Whenever an industrial alcohol plant established or operated under these regulations is to be operated alternately as such and as a registered distillery or fruit distillery, the procedure prescribed in §§ 182.276–182.279 for effecting such change in the type of plant must be complied with.*

§ 182.439 Completion of operation required. When an industrial alcohol plant is to be operated as a registered distillery or as a fruit distillery, the business of producing alcohol must be completely finished by the person or persons first carrying on the business and the plant duly suspended before it can be operated as a registered distillery or a fruit distillery. Except as provided in paragraph (a), all unfinished alcohol, including high wines and low wines, must be redistilled and run into the receiving tanks before the change in type or plant becomes effective, and such alcohol, together with all other alcohol in the receiving room at the time of the change, must be drawn off, gauged, and removed by the outgoing proprietor before spirits are run into the receiving room by the successor.

(a) Retention of unfinished alcohol. If the change in type of plant is to be temporary only, the outgoing proprietor may retain unfinished alcohol under Government lock in unfinished alcohol tanks in the wine room until the plant is again operated by him as an industrial alcohol plant under these regulations: Provided, That such proprietor furnishes a duly executed consent of surety, Form 1533, in triplicate, continuing liability on his bond, Form 1432–A, for the tax on such unfinished alcohol retained on the premises, notwithstanding the change in the type of plant.*

§ 182.440 Transfer of materials, etc. The outgoing proprietor may transfer to his successor materials on hand, including mash and beer, or other distilling material, in process, at the time the change in the type of plant takes place, but no alcohol may be so transferred except the residue of alcohol in the stills which it is not practicable to completely boil out: Provided, however, That materials not usable and residue of alcohol in stills not producible under the law at the succeeding type of plant may not be transferred to the successor. Where such materials and residue of alcohol are not transferable, all mash and beer must be distilled, all basic materials must be removed from the premises, and the stills and other vessels must be completely cleared of alcohol, and such alcohol removed to the receiving tanks, unless retained in unfinished alcohol tanks under Government lock in accordance with § 182.439 (a), before the change in the type of plant becomes effective. All such alcohol transferred to the receiving tanks must be drawn off, gauged, and removed by the outgoing proprietor. When it is again desired to resume operations as an industrial alcohol plant under these regulations, the business of producing distilled spirits or brandy, as the case may be, must be similarly finished and the registered distillery or fruit distillery suspended in accordance with governing regulations.*

§ 182.441 Transfer agreement, Form 1614. Where the outgoing proprietor and his successor so arrange for the transfer of distilling materials, the outgoing proprietor will file with the district supervisor six copies of Form 1614, "Transfer Agreement," duly executed by himself and the prospective successor. The form will be filed in sufficient time to permit consideration thereof in connection with the transferor's notice of suspension of operations and the transferee's qualifying documents. The district supervisor will forward the two originals of Form 1614 to the Commissioner and, upon receipt of notice of the Commissioner's approval of the transferee's qualifying documents, will forward one copy to the transferor and one copy to the transferee. The district supervisor will retain two copies, one for the file of the transferor and one for the file of the transferee.*

§ 182.442 Locking of furnace doors not required. In cases of alternate operation of the industrial alcohol plant as a registered distillery or fruit distillery without lapse of time, it will not be necessary for the storekeeper-gauger to lock the furnace doors of the stills or the control valves in pipe lines which convey steam or fuel to the stills or to require disconnection of the distilling machinery.*

§ 182.443 Completion of records. The outgoing proprietor will complete his records, Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any), and the storekeeper-gauger his records, Form 1452–A and Form 1452–B, as to the removal of basic materials from the premises, or the transfer of basic materials and mash and beer or other distilling material in process to the successor, as the case may be, and as to production and removal from the receiving room of all alcohol produced by him. The actual date of the entry of the deposit of the finished alcohol in the receiving room and the actual date the alcohol is removed from the receiving room will be given in the respective columns of all forms. If unfinished alcohol is retained on the premises in locked tanks, as provided in § 182.439 (a), the proprietor will enter the quantity thereof on Form 1442, with explanatory notation that the same is unfinished alcohol temporarily retained on the premises pending resumption of operations as an industrial alcohol plant. The storekeeper-gauger will make similar entry on his Form 1452–B, with an explanatory notation in the statement of special operations or conditions. The proprietor and storekeeper-gauger will continue to file monthly reports on Forms 1442 and 1452–B, respectively, accounting for such unfinished alcohol during the period it is retained on the premises. Where the plant is operated as an industrial alcohol plant in two or more periods during the same month by the same proprietor, the operations of such proprietor will be recorded on the same Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any) and the same Forms 1452–A and 1452–B, by the storekeeper-gauger, but appropriate notations will be made on the separating lines to show the dates the industrial alcohol plant was operated as a registered distillery or fruit distillery and the names under which it was operated.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.444 Records of successor. The succeeding proprietor will enter all materials, including those in process received from his predecessor on Form 1598 if the plant is to be operated as a registered distillery, or on Form 15 if the plant is to be operated as a fruit distillery. The materials will also be entered on Form 1592 if the industrial alcohol plant is to be operated as a registered distillery. If materials are transferred when the plant is again operated as an industrial alcohol plant, appropriate entry thereof will be made on the records of the transferor and the transferee and the storekeeper-gauger.* (Sec. 2841 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.445 Disposition of alcohol. When a change in the type of plant takes place, the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the plant will see that all unfinished alcohol, except the residue of alcohol in stills where the same is to be transferred to the successor as provided in § 182.440, is distilled and transferred to the receiving room, unless retained in locked, unfinished alcohol tanks, in accordance with § 182.439 (a), before the plant is operated as a registered distillery or fruit distillery. Upon transfer of all alcohol to the receiving room or deposit in locked, unfinished alcohol tanks as herein provided, the plant may be operated as another type of plant but alcohol transferred to the receiving room must be drawn off, gauged, marked, and removed by the outgoing proprietor in the name under which it was produced before any spirits are deposited in the receiving room or withdrawn from the distillery by the successor.*

§ 182.446 Alternate operations by same proprietor. Where the plant is to be operated alternately as an industrial alcohol plant under these regulations and as a registered distillery or fruit distillery by the same proprietor, the procedure will be the same as in the case where the succeeding type of plant is to be operated under a different proprietorship, except that in lieu of the submission of a transfer agreement on Form 1614, the proprietor will, where distilling materials are to be transferred to himself at the succeeding type of plant, request authority on Part I of the form to make such transfer.*

Change in Proprietorship

§ 182.447 Completion of operations required. When a succession, or actual change, in the person or persons operating the industrial alcohol plant shall take place, other than a change brought about by operation of law, as by the appointment of an administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary, the business of producing alcohol must be completely finished by the person or persons who have been carrying on the business, and the operations suspended before the business shall be undertaken or begun by the succeeding proprietor, unless by an agreement between the outgoing proprietor and the successor it shall be arranged to transfer from the former to the latter, at midnight of a certain day, all mash and beer, or other distilling material, on hand, and all unfinished alcohol outside the receiving room at that hour; and provided that, in either case, the application, bond and other qualifying documents of the successor have been approved by the Commissioner and a basic permit issued to take effect on the day next succeeding that at the close of which the transfer is made. Such documents should, therefore, be submitted to the district supervisor and by him forwarded to the Commissioner in sufficient time to permit such approval and issuance of basic permit for the date desired. The successor shall not commence operations until all documents required for his qualification as proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant have been approved by the Commissioner, and a basic permit has been issued. All finished alcohol on hand in the receiving room at the time of the change must be drawn off, gauged, marked, and removed by the outgoing proprietor in the name under which it was produced before any alcohol is deposited in the receiving room or withdrawn from the industrial alcohol plant by the successor.*

§ 182.448 Transfer agreement, Form 1614. Where the outgoing proprietor and the successor so arrange for the transfer of all mash and beer, or other distilling material, and all unfinished alcohol on hand, the outgoing proprietor will file with the district supervisor six copies of Form 1614, "Transfer Agreement," duly executed by himself and the prospective successor. The form will be filed in sufficient time to permit consideration thereof in connection with the transferor's notice of suspension or discontinuance of operations, and the transferee's qualifying documents. The district supervisor will forward the two originals of Form 1614 to the Commissioner and, upon receipt of notice of the Commissioner's approval of the transferee's qualifying documents, will forward one copy to the transferee and one copy to the transferor. The district supervisor will retain two copies, one for the file of the transferor and one for the file of the transferee.*

§ 182.449 Locking of furnace doors not required. In such cases of succession or change in the operations of an industrial alcohol plant without lapse of time, it will not be necessary for the storekeeper-gauger to lock the furnace doors of the stills or the control valves in pipe lines which convey steam or fuel to the stills, or to disconnect the distilling machinery.*

§ 182.450 Records. The outgoing proprietor shall enter on his records, Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any), all materials and all unfinished alcohol outside the receiving room transferred to his successor, who shall in turn enter such items on his records as received from his predecessor. Where the change in proprietorship is of a permanent nature, the outgoing proprietor shall complete Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any) and submit a final report on such forms to the district supervisor. Appropriate notations will be made on such final reports showing the change in proprietorship and the date thereof. Where the plant is operated under alternating proprietorships, each proprietor shall keep a separate record on Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any). When operations are conducted by the same proprietor in two or more periods during the same month, the operations by such proprietor will be entered on the same Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any), appropriate notations being made on the separating lines to show the names of the alternating proprietors and the dates the industrial alcohol plant was operated by them. At the end of the month reports will be submitted to the district supervisor on such forms in accordance with §§ 182.455 to 182.461, inclusive. The storekeeper-gauger will keep records and render returns on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B in accordance with the procedure prescribed herein for the keeping of records and rendering of reports by the proprietor.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.451 Succession by fiduciary. Where a change in proprietorship is brought about by operation of law, the administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary may not continue the business until the required qualifying documents have been filed and approved and a basic permit issued. In the case of such change, the fiduciary shall make appropriate notation on Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any) of his succession and the date thereof, and the storekeeper-gauger will make a similar notation on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B.*

Storekeeper-Gauger's Records and Reports

§ 182.452 Form 1452–A. The storekeeper-gauger shall keep a daily record of the industrial alcohol plant operations on Form 1452–A, "U. S. Storekeeper-Gauger's Report of Operations at Industrial Alcohol Plant." Entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines and in accordance with the instructions on the form. A monthly report shall be rendered on Form 1452–A, in duplicate, to the district supervisor on or before the 5th day of the succeeding month. The district supervisor will, after audit and not later than the last day of the succeeding month, forward one copy to the Commissioner and will retain the remaining copy.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.453 Form 1452–B. The storekeeper-gauger shall, in addition to keeping record and rendering a report on Form 1452–A, keep a record and render a report on Form 1452–B, "U. S. Storekeeper-Gauger's Summary of Operations at Industrial Alcohol Plant." Entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines and in accordance with the instructions on the form. The officer will report any special operations or conditions that may occur and any unusual or peculiar conditions that may obtain at the plant. The summary return shall be rendered, in duplicate, to the district supervisor on or before the 5th day of the succeeding month. The district supervisor will after audit and not later than the last day of the succeeding month, forward one copy of the return to the Commissioner and will retain the remaining copy.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.454 System of filing. The storekeeper-gauger's monthly records on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B will be filed together in chronological order by months and in bound form as a permanent record in the storekeeper-gauger's office, and kept available for inspection by internal revenue officers.*

Proprietor's Records and Reports

§ 182.455 General. The proprietor of every industrial alcohol plant shall keep a monthly record on Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if a bonded warehouse is not maintained on the industrial alcohol plant premises), in triplicate, as hereinafter provided. All of the information called for in each form, as indicated by the headings of columns and lines of the form and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by these regulations, will be given. Entries will be made on the forms on the day on which the transactions occur, except that summary entries will be made at the close of the month.

(a) Failure to keep records or allow inspection. Failure to keep the records and files or to make and file reports as and when required, or to furnish verified copies of files and records when requested, or to promptly allow inspection to be made upon proper request therefor, will be sufficient grounds for citation and revocation of the proprietor's basic permit.* (Secs. 3103, 3121 (c), 3171, I.R.C.)

§ 182.456 Form 1442. The proprietor of every industrial alcohol plant shall keep a record on Form 1442, "Proprietor's Report of Operations," showing the kind and quantity of fermenting or distilling materials received and fermented or mashed or distilled each day. The saccharine content of molasses mashed must be entered when the same is available. The alcohol content of fermented liquor, wine, or other distilling materials must be shown, and the same shall be determined from samples taken under such conditions as will afford a proper test of the particular lot or lots distilled. If carbon dioxide or fusel oil washwater is transferred to the beer well for distillation, the quantity and alcohol content shall be entered on Form 1442 as a special entry. Where chemicals such as isopropyl alcohol, butyl alcohol, acetone, ether, or other products are produced in connection with the production of ethyl alcohol, the quantity produced and removed from the premises will be entered on Form 1442. Where, pursuant to special permission from the Commissioner, alcohol is transferred to the industrial alcohol plant for redistillation from a bonded warehouse on the plant premises, the quantity in proof gallons will be entered as a special entry on Form 1442 under the heading "Statement of Materials Received."* (Secs. 3103, 3171, I.R.C.)

§ 182.457 Form 1454. The proprietor shall keep a record on Form 1454, "Receiving Tank Report," showing the quantity of alcohol produced and deposited in each tank daily and the amount remaining therein at the close of the month, as determined by actual inventory. The daily totals of alcohol reported removed from receiving tanks on this form must agree with the quantities so reported on corresponding days on Form 1443–A or Form 1488. Losses in receiving tanks shall be subject to the provisions of § 182.472–182.652.* (Secs. 3103, 3171, I.R.C.)

§ 182.458 Form 1488. The proprietor of every industrial alcohol plant in connection with which a bonded warehouse is not maintained shall keep a record on Form 1488, "Proprietor's Report of Alcohol Produced and Disposed of," of all alcohol produced and disposed of in such plant. All alcohol produced and deposited in the receiving tanks shall be inventoried daily and reported in the spaces provided therefor each day on the Form 1488.* (Secs. 3103, 3171, I.R.C.)

§ 182.459 Signing of reports. The reports must be signed in the same manner as the application, Form 1431, except that in the case of a corporation, the affixing of the corporate seal will not be required. Each report must be verified under oath (or affirmation) by the proprietor or his authorized agent at the plant. Where the reports are signed by an agent, proper power of attorney authorizing the agent to execute the reports for the proprietor must be filed on Form 1534, in triplicate, in accordance with the provisions of § 182.129.*

§ 182.460 Disposition of forms. The proprietor will deliver all three copies of the forms, duly subscribed and sworn to, to the storekeeper-gauger on or before the 5th day of the month succeeding that for which the forms are rendered. The storekeeper-gauger will examine the forms, and if they are complete in every respect, and the quantities shown on hand at the end of the month are correct, he will initial all copies of the forms, return one copy of each form to the proprietor, and forward two copies of each form to the district supervisor. The district supervisor will, after audit of the forms and not later than the last day of the month succeeding that for which the forms are rendered, forward one copy of each form to the Commissioner.*

§ 182.461 Filing of forms. The proprietor shall file Forms 1442, 1454, and 1488 (if any), separately in chronological order by months and in bound form, as a permanent record available for inspection by Government officers at any reasonable time.*

Purchase of Distilled Spirits Abandoned to the United States

§ 182.462 Purchase. Distilled spirits abandoned to the United States may be sold, without payment of the internal revenue tax, to a proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant for denaturation, or redistillation and denaturation, in cases where by reason of the quality of the spirits, or other cause, they cannot be sold for an amount equal to the tax thereon.* (Sec. 3074, I.R.C.)

§ 182.463 Receipt at denaturing plant. When such spirits are purchased and are to be denatured without redistillation,

§ 182.464 Receipt at industrial alcohol plant. When spirits so purchased are to be redistilled prior to denaturation, they should be received at the industrial alcohol plant, where they will be redistilled and transferred to the denaturing plant promptly. The spirits will be kept separate from other spirits in the industrial alcohol plant not intended for denaturation. The receipt of the spirits at the industrial alcohol plant and their redistillation and transfer to the denaturing plant will be reported by the proprietor on the industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, and denaturing plant records, Forms 1442, 1454, 1488 (if any), 1443–A, 1468–A and by the storekeeper-gauger on Forms 1452–A and 1452–B, with proper explanatory note.°

§ 182.465 Use for denaturation only. Spirits so purchased may not be used for any purpose other than denaturation. If it is necessary to enter the spirits into the bonded warehouse, either at the time of receipt or in transfer from the industrial alcohol plant to the denaturing plant, they must be kept separate and apart from other spirits and must be transferred expeditiously to the industrial alcohol plant or denaturing plant, as the case may be.° (Sec. 3074, I.R.C.)

General Provisions Relating to Industrial Alcohol Plants

§ 182.466 Production of mash, wort, or wash. No mash, wort, or wash, or other distilling material, fit for distillation or for the production of spirits or alcohol shall be made or fermented in any building or on any premises other than a distillery or industrial alcohol plant duly authorized according to law, except for the manufacture of fermented liquors or for the manufacture of vinegar.° (Sec. 2834, I.R.C.)

§ 182.467 Sale or removal of mash, wort, or wash; distillation. No mash, wort, or wash, or other distilling material, made or fermented in any distillery or industrial alcohol plant, shall be sold or removed therefrom before being distilled; and no person other than an authorized distiller or proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant shall, by distillation or by any other process, separate the alcoholic spirits from any fermented mash, wort, wash, or other distilling material, except for the manufacture of vinegar.° (Sec. 2834, I.R.C.)

§ 182.468 Operation in officer's absence. No permittee or person employed at any industrial alcohol plant shall use or cause or permit to be used, any material for the purpose of making mash, wort, or beer, or other distilling material, or for the production of alcohol, in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger or person designated to act as storekeeper-gauger, nor shall any alcohol be removed from the plant in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger.°

§ 182.469 Removal of alcohol at night and on Sunday. The removal of any package of alcohol from any industrial alcohol plant, bonded warehouse, or denaturing plant premises at night or on Sunday will not be permitted. Except as provided in § 182.323 (a), removals shall be made only during the regular business hours of the industrial alcohol plant.° (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

OPERATION OF INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL BONDED WAREHOUSES

General

§ 182.470 Control of warehouse. Every industrial alcohol bonded warehouse established pursuant to the provisions of law and of these regulations shall be under the control of the district supervisor of the district in which the warehouse is located.° (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.471 Assignment of storekeeper-gaugers. Where a bonded warehouse has been established in accordance with the requirements of these regulations, the district supervisor will assign one or more storekeeper-gaugers to the warehouse before the proprietor can commence operations. In determining the number of storekeeper-gaugers to be assigned to a bonded warehouse the district supervisor will consider the number and size of the rooms or buildings comprising the warehouse, the number of packages or quantity of alcohol to be received and removed daily, and whether the warehouse is located on or is contiguous or adjacent to the premises of an industrial alcohol plant or denaturing plant. When the storekeeper-gauger assigned to an industrial alcohol plant can also perform the necessary service at the bonded warehouse operated in connection with such plant, no storekeeper-gauger shall be assigned directly to the warehouse, but where actually necessary such assignment will be made.° (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.472 Examination of warehouse. Upon assignment to a bonded warehouse intending to commence operations, the storekeeper-gauger will, prior to actual commencement of operations, examine the warehouse and its equipment and will determine that all valves, flanges and other connections which would afford access to the alcohol are properly locked, brassed, welded or otherwise secured and sealed, and that all doors and other openings are protected in the manner prescribed by these regulations. The storekeeper-gauger will apply Government locks wherever the same are required.°

§ 182.473 Custody of warehouse. The bonded warehouse shall be in charge of the storekeeper-gauger and shall be in the joint custody of the storekeeper-gauger and the proprietor thereof and kept securely locked and shall at no time be unlocked or opened or remain open, except in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger or other person who may be designated to act for him. The keys to all Government locks shall remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger, except that where no storekeeper-gauger is regularly assigned to the warehouse such keys shall remain in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger at the industrial alcohol plant or having charge of the warehouse or in the custody of the district supervisor or other person designated by him. The storekeeper-gauger having custody of the keys will not at any time permit them to go into the possession of any other person, except the district supervisor or an officer authorized by the district supervisor or the Commissioner to receive them.° (Sec. 3103 (I.R.C.)

§ 182.474 Admittance of proprietor. The proprietor shall, upon request, at reasonable times have admittance, in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger, to the warehouse and the alcohol deposited therein and may, in connection with the storekeeper-gauger, except as provided in section 3121 (c), I.R.C., refuse admittance to any person not an internal revenue officer. The proprietor may have access to the alcohol at any reasonable time in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger for the purpose of making repairs or to take any necessary measures to prevent waste by leakage or for other legitimate purposes.°

§ 182.475 Warehouse to be kept locked. The outside doors of the warehouse shall be locked with Government locks and kept locked at all times, except when alcohol is being entered into or removed from the warehouse or where it is necessary for the proprietor to have access to the warehouse for the purpose of making repairs or for other legitimate purposes. When business is finished for the day, the doors, windows, and shutters shall be closed and securely fastened by the proprietor and wherever required, locked by the storekeeper-gauger. The warehouse shall not be opened on Sunday or at night, except in cases of emergency and then only with the approval of the district supervisor: Provided, That where the alcohol is in imminent danger of loss by fire, flood, or other casualty, and it is impracticable to first obtain authorization from the district supervisor for the opening of the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger may, upon the request of the proprietor, open the warehouse for the purpose of preventing loss of the alcohol, but a report thereof must be made immediately, by telephone or telegraph where possible, to the district supervisor: And provided further, That where the alcohol is in imminent danger of loss by fire, and it is impracticable to first communicate with the district supervisor or the storekeeper-gauger, city and State fire officers may break open the warehouse for the purpose of preventing loss of the alcohol, but a similar report thereof must be made immediately to the district supervisor.°

§ 182.476 Supervision of operations. The storekeeper-gauger will have charge of the bonded warehouse to which he is assigned, under the direction of the district supervisor. The storekeeper-gauger will see that the operations conform to the requirements of the law and these regulations, and will, in the course of his daily duties, carefully observe the character and condition of all connections, pipes, tanks, or vessels used for conveying alcohol to see if they are closed as required, and whether access can be gained to the alcohol in the storekeeper-gauger's absence. The storekeeper-gauger will promptly report to the district supervisor any operations or condition of apparatus and equipment not conforming to these regulations.°

§ 182.477 Operations requiring immediate supervision. Immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger is required:

(1) Whenever alcohol is entered into or withdrawn from the warehouse;
(2) Whenever alcohol is transferred from one building to another;
(3) Whenever alcohol is being bottled;
(4) Whenever alcohol is drawn from warehouse storage tanks into packages;
(5) Whenever a change of package is made for exportation or to prevent loss by leakage or for other authorized purposes;
(6) Whenever samples of alcohol are obtained from tanks or packages;
(7) Whenever alcohol in original packages or tanks is reduced in proof;
(8) Whenever alcohol in the bonded warehouse is by reason of other circumstances exposed to loss;
(9) Whenever alcohol is being proofed, weighed, or stamped; or
(10) Whenever otherwise required in the regulations of this part.

Tax on Alcohol

§ 182.478 Rate of tax. The law imposes a tax on distilled spirits, including alcohol produced in or imported into the United States at the rate of $4 on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid when withdrawn from bond.° (Sec. 2800 (a) (1), I.R.C., Supp., as amended by Sec. 533, Act of Sept. 20, 1941 (Public law 250, 77th Cong.).)

§ 182.479 Attachment of tax. Under the law, the tax attaches to alcohol as soon as it comes into existence as such, whether it be subsequently separated as pure or impure spirit.° (Secs. 2800 (c), 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.480 Persons liable for tax. Section 2800 (d), I.R.C., provides that every proprietor or possessor of, and every person in any manner interested in the use of, any still, distillery, or distilling apparatus shall be jointly and severally liable for the taxes imposed by law on alcohol produced therefrom. Section 3112 (a), I.R.C., provides that all proprietors of industrial alcohol plants and bonded warehouses shall be jointly and severally liable for any and all taxes on any and all alcohol produced thereat or stored therein.°

Lien for Tax on Alcohol

§ 182.481 Tax to be first lien. The tax on alcohol becomes, under the law, a first lien on the alcohol and the premises and plant in which such alcohol is produced or the warehouse where stored, together with all the improvements located on such premises.° (Secs. 2800 (e), 3112 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.482 Extinguishment of lien. Any lien under section 3112 (a), I.R.C., on any land, or any building thereon, shall be held to be extinguished if (1) such land and buildings are no longer used for distilling or storage of alcohol; (2) there is no outstanding liability for taxes and penalties imposed by law on the alcohol produced or stored therein; and (3) no litigation is pending in respect to any such tax or penalty.° (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.483 Certificate of discharge of lien. Any person claiming any interest in any such land or building may apply to the district supervisor for a duly acknowledged certificate to the effect that such lien is discharged, and, if the Commissioner determines any such lien is extinguished, the district supervisor shall issue such certificate, and any such certificate may be recorded.° (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.484 Assessments become lien. If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount (including any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition to such tax, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to such person.

(a) Release of lien. Certificates of release of assessment items may be procured from the collector of internal revenue in accordance with section 3673, I.R.C., and regulations thereunder.° (Secs. 3670, 3673, I.R.C.)

Sales of Alcohol

§ 182.485 Exemption from special tax liability. In view of the exemption provided by law, the proprietor of a bonded warehouse may sell or offer for sale tax-paid alcohol in the tax-paid storeroom provided in connection with such bonded warehouse without being required to pay such special tax as wholesale or retail liquor dealer, provided the sales are made from the bonded warehouse. If tax-paid alcohol is sold elsewhere, the proprietor engaging in the traffic will not be entitled to the exemption but will be subject to the special tax imposed by law.

(a) Limitation of exemption. The tax-paid storeroom provided in connection with the bonded warehouse is covered by the basic permit required to be held by the proprietor of a bonded warehouse and, accordingly, the above exemption is held applicable to alcohol tax-paid in such bonded warehouse and stored in the tax-paid storeroom provided in connection therewith. Such tax-paid alcohol so stored may not be transferred to another similar tax-paid storeroom established in connection with another bonded warehouse nor will the above exemption apply to any premises to which such tax-paid alcohol may be transferred.° (Secs. 1650 (a), (b), 3103, 3250 (a) (1), (b) (1), I.R.C.)

§ 182.486 Bulk containers. Under the regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR, Part 3), proprietors of industrial alcohol plants and bonded warehouses may sell or dispose of alcohol in bulk, that is, in containers having a capacity in excess of 1 gallon (1) to distillers, internal revenue bonded warehousemen, and proprietors of industrial alcohol plants and bonded warehouses, including those operating tax-paid bottling houses; (2) to proprietors of denaturing plants; (3) to proprietors of class 8 customs bonded warehouses (imported spirits only); (4) to rectifiers; (5) to winemakers (for fortification of wine); (6) for exportation; (7) to any agency of the United States or any State or political subdivision thereof; (8) for industrial use as follows: for experimental purposes, and for use in the manufacture (a) of medicinal, pharmaceutical, or antiseptic products, including prescriptions compounded by retail druggists, (b) of toilet products, (c) of flavoring extracts, sirups, or food products, or (d) of scientific, chemical, mechanical or industrial products; provided such products are unfit for beverage use.° (Sec. 6, 49 Stat. 985 (27 U.S.C., Sup., 206).)

§ 182.487 Retail containers. Except as provided in § 182.486, proprietors of bonded warehouses may sell or dispose of alcohol only in containers having a capacity of 1 gallon or less. All such containers having a capacity of one-half pint or more, except those containing anhydrous alcohol and tax-free alcohol, must conform to the requirements of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175).° (Sec. 6, 49 Stat. 985; 27 U.S.C., Sup., 206; sec. 2871, I.R.C.)

Sufficiency of Bond

§ 182.488 Storekeeper-gauger to be informed. Where the warehouse bond is in an amount less than the maximum penal sum prescribed by these regulations, and the basic permit, Form 1433, limits the quantity of alcohol that may be on hand, in transit, and unaccounted for at any one time, the district supervisor will inform the storekeeper-gauger in charge of such limitation, and the storekeeper-gauger will see that the quantity of alcohol deposited in the warehouse does not exceed that authorized by the bond and basic permit.°

Receipt of Alcohol

§ 182.489 By pipe line from industrial alcohol plant on premises. If the bonded warehouse is located on the premises of an industrial alcohol plant, the alcohol produced at such plant may be transferred from the receiving tanks to storage tanks in the bonded warehouse by means of pipe lines.

(a) Supervision of pipe-line transfers. The transfer of alcohol by pipe line from the receiving room to storage tanks in the bonded warehouse will be under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving room and the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger supervising the deposit of the alcohol in the warehouse storage tanks will see that the outlet and all other openings of the tanks affording access to the alcohol are closed and locked and that the valves in the pipe line are so adjusted as to control the flow of alcohol into the tank. When the alcohol has been deposited in the tank, the inlet will be immediately closed by the proprietor and locked by the storekeeper-gauger. The valves on the pipe lines and the openings of tanks containing alcohol shall be kept closed and locked at all times, except when necessary to be open for the transfer of alcohol. Whenever alcohol is transferred into or out of storage tanks or weighing tanks, the storekeeper-gauger will open and close the locks but it shall be the duty of the proprietor to manipulate the stopcocks or valves controlling the flow of the alcohol.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.490 In packages from industrial alcohol plant on the same premises. Where alcohol is received in casks, drums, or similar containers for deposit from an industrial alcohol plant on the same premises, the packages will be transferred from the receiving room to the bonded warehouse under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving room and the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the bonded warehouse.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.491 From another bonded warehouse. Upon receiving Form 1440, with Form 1439, covering alcohol transferred in bond from another bonded warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving warehouse will compare the two forms and deliver Form 1440 to the proprietor of that warehouse. When the alcohol is received at the warehouse, the shipment will be exemanied by the proprietor and the storekeeper-gauger, in accordance with §§ 182.492 and 182.493.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.492 Examination of packages. Alcohol received in drums, cans, and similar containers need not be gauged upon receipt unless so desired by the proprietor. Where packages are received bearing evidence of having sustained losses in transit, the following procedure will be observed in examining the packages:

(1) Weigh and proof each package which appears to have sustained a loss by casualty or theft while in transit.

(2) Examine the condition of each such package.

(3) The storekeeper-gauger will make a full report of the loss to the district supervisor setting forth the quantity lost from each package, the condition of the package, and the apparent cause of the loss.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.493 Examination of tank car. When a railroad tank car is received, it will be examined, and if the car bears evidence of loss by leakage, theft, or otherwise, or if the gauge of its contents discloses a loss or shortage, the storekeeper-gauger will make a report of the loss to the district supervisor similar to that required when packages which have sustained a loss in transit are received. (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.494 Deposit in receiving warehouse. Upon completion of the examination of the containers, the proprietor will accurately determine the quantity received and will check in the receipt of the alcohol against Form 1440 in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger and will execute the certificate of receipt on both copies of the form, and will note thereon and on Form 1443–A, or Form 1443–B, any loss or deficiency in the shipment. The proprietor will then file one copy of Form 1440 as a permanent record, as provided in § 182.643 (a), and at the close of the day will deliver the other copy with Form 1441 to the storekeeper-gauger for transmittal to the district supervisor of his district. On the day of receipt of the alcohol, the storekeeper-gauger shall fill in the certificate of receipt on Form 1439, noting any losses and discrepancies. Where a loss in transit is sustained the storekeeper-gauger will report the total loss and, in the case of packages, the loss from each package. The receipted form shall be forwarded to the district supervisor of the district from which the alcohol was shipped.* (Secs. 3101, 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.495 Method of deposit—(a) Alcohol received in packages. Alcohol received in packages may be deposited in the warehouse in the packages in which it is received, or the contents of the packages may be dumped into storage tanks if report is made thereof on Forms 1440, 1443–A, and 1443–B, as provided in §§ 182.643, 182.645, and 182.646. If packages of alcohol containing exactly 1, 2, 5, and 10 wine gallons are received, the warehouse must be equipped with scales capable of weighing in terms of ounces, from which the weight, to hundredths of a pound, can be calculated in accordance with the Gauging Manual.

(b) Alcohol received in tank cars. Alcohol received in tank cars must be deposited, after gauging, in warehouse storage tanks. If it is desired to receive alcohol in bond in railroad tank cars, proper railroad siding facilities must be provided at the bonded warehouse. When alcohol is received in tank cars, the seals must not be broken or any alcohol removed, except in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the bonded warehouse.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.496 Return of unused alcohol withdrawn free of tax. As provided in § 182.664, where tax-free alcohol lawfully in possession of a permittee authorized to use the same is found to be unsuitable for use, or where such permittee discontinues the use thereof, or where for any other legitimate reason such permittee desires so to do, such alcohol may be returned to the bonded warehouse for lawful disposition: Provided, That the proprietor of such bonded warehouse consents to such return and permission therefor is, in each instance, first obtained from the district supervisor of the district from which the tax-free alcohol is to be returned. If the bonded warehouse is situated in another district, the district supervisor authorizing the return will forward a copy of his letter of authority to the district supervisor of such other district. Notation of such return on Form 1443–B will be made as provided in § 182.646.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

Samples

§ 182.497 General. The proprietor may take samples of alcohol from storage tanks and other containers in the warehouse, for the purposes specified in §§ 182.393 to 182.399, inclusive, subject to the procedure prescribed in such sections.*

Removal of Alcohol From Receiving and Storage Tanks

§ 182.498 Gauge on withdrawal. Where alcohol is drawn into drums, barrels, or similar containers from receiving and storage tanks, the packages shall be gauged in accordance with the provisions of the Gauging Manual (26 CFR, Part 186). Where alcohol is drawn into tank cars, or is transferred by pipe lines as authorized by these regulations, such alcohol shall be gauged in accordance with the rules prescribed in these regulations and in the Gauging Manual; the weight of the alcohol will be determined by means of weighing tanks, as provided in § 182.407. Alcohol may be drawn from receiving and storage tanks only under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

(a) Fractional parts of a gallon. All fractional parts of a gallon less than one-tenth, shown in the Gauging Manual, shall be disregarded in gauging alcohol. For example, a package of 190 degrees proof alcohol, weighing 326 pounds net, shall be reported on Form 1440 as containing 47.90 wine gallons and 91.10 proof gallons. A package containing 190 degrees proof alcohol, weighing 340 pounds, shall be reported as containing 50 wine gallons and 95 proof gallons.

(b) Details of gauge. The details of all alcohol gauged in the bonded warehouse shall be recorded by the proprietor on Form 1440, as hereinafter provided.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.499 Gauging to be done by proprietor. All alcohol drawn from receiving and storage tanks will be proofed and weighed by the proprietor and the packages marked, in accordance with the provisions of this article, in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the proof, weight, and gallonage of all alcohol and will see that the instructions in the Gauging Manual respecting the proofing of alcohol are strictly followed in order that the proof may be accurately determined.

(a) Gauging instruments. The proprietor shall provide, at his own expense, accurate and standard hydrometers, hydrometer cups, and thermometers for the purpose of gauging alcohol.* (Secs. 2808, 3101, 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.500 Testing of scales. The storekeeper-gauger shall balance the scales before either empty or filled packages are weighed, and will frequently test by means of test weights, provided in accordance with § 182.66, the accuracy of such scales. During the process of weighing, he shall verify the weight of each package.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.501 Inspection of tank car. When it is desired to transfer alcohol in bond in a railroad tank car, the storekeeper-gauger will first inspect the car to see that the dome may be locked with a seal lock when closed and that all other openings to or from the car may be closed and securely fastened on the inside or locked in like manner. If the car is not so constructed, the officer will not permit it to be filled.* (Secs. 3101, 3107, 3108, I.R.C.)

§ 182.502 Filling of tank car. The tank car must be filled in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger. The pipe line from the weighing tank to the tank car must be in full view of the officer and must not be connected or used except in his presence. The officer will seal-lock the car as soon as it is filled. The proprietor will enter on Form 1440, covering the gauge of the alcohol, the symbol and serial number of the car, the serial number of the lock seal or seals, the destination and the date of shipment; for example: "Withdrawn in U. P. tank car number 1643, lock seal number 46457 for transfer to Ind. Alc. Bonded Whse. No. 56, New York, N. Y. Billed out 4:30 p. m., May 1, 1941." The lock seal numbers will also be entered on Form 1439.* (Secs. 3101, 3107, 3108, I.R.C.)

§ 182.503 Transfer by pipe line to denaturing plant—(a) To be weighed in warehouse. Where alcohol is to be transferred by means of pipe lines to a denaturing plant situated on the same premises with the bonded warehouse, such alcohol shall be carefully proofed and weighed in weighing tanks in the bonded warehouse immediately before transfer: Provided, That if the denaturing plant is equipped with weighing tanks, the alcohol transferred to the denaturing plant by pipe line may be weighed in the denaturing plant instead of in the bonded warehouse.* (Secs. 3101, 3108, I.R.C.)

§ 182.504 Filling approved containers. Alcohol may be drawn into drums, barrels, or other containers conforming to the specifications prescribed in §§ 182.506 to 182.513, inclusive, for storage or for direct entry and withdrawal from the bonded warehouse.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.505 Supervision of drawing off, gauging, etc. The procedure prescribed in §§ 182.404 and 182.408, in respect to the supervision and weighing of alcohol removed from receiving tanks, shall be followed when alcohol is removed from warehouse storage tanks.*

Approved Containers

§ 182.506 Drums or barrels. Alcohol may be drawn into drums or barrels of any desired capacity, but packages may be tax-paid only in the sizes for which tax-paid stamps are provided. Metal drums used to ship alcohol in bond or for tax-free purposes must be substantial and so constructed that all openings therein may be sealed.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.507 Tin, glass, or similar containers. Alcohol may be packaged in containers of tin, glass, or similar substance, but such containers, in order to better insure safe transportation, must be completely encased in wood, fiberboard, or other approved material, in such a manner that the surface of the actual container is not exposed. The opening in the package must be entirely covered by the casing. The marks and stamps required to be affixed to such a package must be applied to an exposed surface of the case. The case must be so constructed as to insure that the portion of the case containing the marks and stamps will remain securely attached to the inner container until all of the alcohol has been removed therefrom: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply to cases of bottled alcohol, filled in accordance with §§ 182.510 and 182.537 to 182.544. A statement reading "Do Not Remove Inner Container Until Emptied," or of similar import, shall be placed on the portion of each such case containing the marks and stamps. Before any such cases are used, two sample or specimen cases or models thereof, with the inner container, must be submitted to the Commissioner for approval. If the cases are approved, the Commissioner will retain one, and forward the other to the district supervisor of the district in which the bonded warehouse is located.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.508 Steel containers. Upon approval by the Commissioner, alcohol may also be packaged in steel containers of not less than 24-gauge, or other metal containers of similar strength, having a capacity of not more than 10 wine gallons. The marks and brands and stamps shall be placed in a separate panel on the side of the container.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.509 Small packages containing exactly 1, 2, 5, and 10 wine gallons. Where it is desired to market packages of alcohol containing exactly 1, 2, 5, and 10 wine gallons, which would require weighing in terms of pounds and ounces, the proprietor shall provide scales which will weigh accurately to ounces, from which the weight to hundredths of a pound can be calculated. Where such packages are filled, the ounces will be reduced to hundredths of a pound and the weight in pounds and hundredths marked on the packages.

(a) Table for filling and marking. The following table will serve as a guide in the filling and marking of the packages of 1, 2, 5, and 10 wine gallons capacity where the weights have been determined in ounces:

Type of container	Weight of contents	Weight to be marked on package	Contents in wine gallons	Proof gallons
190 PROOF ALCOHOL
	Lbs. Ozs.	Pounds
1 wine gallon	6 13	6.81	1	1.90
2 wine gallons	13 10	12.62	2	3.80
5 wine gallons	34 00	34	5	9.50
192 PROOF ALCOHOL
1 wine gallon	6 13	6.81	1	1.90
2 wine gallons	13 9	13.56	2	3.80
5 wine gallons	33 13	33.81	5	9.60
10 wine gallons	67 10	67.63	10	19.20
200 PROOF ALCOHOL
1 wine gallon	6 10	6.62	1	2
2 wine gallons	13 4	13.25	2	4
5 wine gallons	33 1	33.06	5	10
10 wine gallons	66 2	66.12	10	20

Where packages filled contain over 10 wine gallons and show a fraction of 0.98 or 0.99 of a wine gallon, such fraction may be called a whole gallon and the package so marked, if desire, as a package containing 24.99 wine gallons may be marked 25 wine gallons.

(b) Packages of other proof or size. Where packages of other proof or size are filled, the following rule may be used for ascertaining the weight of the alcohol to be placed in and marked on the package: Divide the number of gallons representing the quantity of alcohol to be placed in the contained by the fractional part of a gallon equivalent to 1 pound, to obtain the weight of the alcohol in pounds and fractions of a pound to two decimal places. Reduce the decimal fraction of a pound to ounces by multiplying by 16, calling any fraction of an ounce a whole ounce. The pounds and ounces thus obtained will determine the point to which the alcohol must be weighed to produce the results desired. In order, however, to mark the weight on the package in pounds and fractions of pounds, it will be necessary to reduce the ounces to express same in fractions to two decimal places. The fraction of a gallon equivalent to 1 pound at any given proof will be ascertained by reference to table No. 4 of the Gauging Manual. For example, where it is desired to fill a 1-gallon can of 194 proof alcohol with precisely 1 wine gallon, the weight of the alcohol to be placed in the can will be determined as follows:

Weight of alcohol 6 lbs., 12 ozs.
Weight to me marked on can 6.75 lbs.

(c) Transfer to other warehouses. Packages of alcohol so filled and marked may not be transferred in bond to other bonded warehouses unless such warehouses are equipped with scales capable of weighing in ounces.*

§ 182.510 Cases containing one-half pint to 1-gallon bottles. Original packages of alcohol filled at industrial alcohol bonded warehouses may consist of cases containing one-half pint, 1-pint, 1-quart, or 1-gallon bottles (liquid measure), as follows: 32 one-half pint bottles; 48 one-half pint bottles; 16 1-pint bottles; 24 1-pint bottles; 12 1-quart bottles; 1 1-gallon bottle; or 3 1-gallon bottles. When alcohol is bottled for immediate withdrawal free of tax for use of the United States or a governmental agency thereof, or for export, it may be placed in bottles and cases of any desired size, provided each case is marked as required by § 182.519 (b).

(a) Construction of cases. Bottled alcohol shall be placed in cases of secure and substantial construction, which meet the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Commission regulations and the official freight and express specifications, and which adequately protect the bottled alcohol against breakage and theft during storage and transportation. The construction and method of sealing or fastening of the cases shall be such as will effectively prevent pilfering or access to the contents without such destruction of the case as will render it unfit for use and will result in ready detection. The tops and bottoms of fiberboard cases shall be secured by stapling or gluing the flaps, and the manufacturer's joint of the case shall be securely fastened. Wooden cases shall be secured by metal straps or heavy wires, in addition to being securely nailed.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.511 Railroad tank cars. Alcohol may be drawn into railroad tank cars for removal but only in case the warehouse and the premises of the consignee are equipped with suitable railroad siding facilities.

(a) Manhole covers and outlet valves. The dome or manhole covers on all railroad tank cars used for shipping alcohol in bond shall be equipped with facilities for locking with a seal lock when closed, and the outlet valves and all other openings to or from the cars shall be so constructed that they may be closed and securely fastened on the inside or locked in like manner. If the car is not so constructed, the storekeeper-gauger will not permit it to be filled.

(b) Construction of route board. Railroad tank cars used for the transportation of alcohol, whether in bond, tax-free, or tax-paid, must be equipped with a route board at least 10 by 12 inches in size to which the prescribed stamp or certificate can be attached. Such board shall be of substantial material and shall be fixed permanently and securely to the tank cars of alcohol shipped in bond bolts, nutted and riveted, battered or welded.

(c) Seal locks; proprietor to furnish. Seal locks for the locking of railroad tank cars of alcohol shipped in bond shall be furnished by the shipper, and the seals for the same will be furnished by the Government. As soon as the tank car is filled the storekeeper-gauger shall attach the lock to the car. The key of each seal lock so used will be forwarded, on the day of shipment, by the storekeeper-gauger to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the bonded warehouse or denaturing plant to which the alcohol is consigned. Upon arrival at destination of a tank car containing alcohol shipped in bond, the seal must not be broken nor alcohol removed except in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse or denaturing plant. All locks and keys in such cases shall be returned by such storekeeper-gauger to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the bonded warehouse from which the shipment was made at the expense of the proprietor of the receiving warehouse or denaturing plant.* (Secs. 3101, 3107, 3108, I.R.C.)

§ 182.512 Tank ships and barges. Alcohol may be shipped in bulk by means of tank ships or barges pursuant to special permission first obtained in each instance from the Commissioner and subject to such limitations and conditions as may be imposed by him. Such shipments may be made only where the premises of both the consignor and consignee are equipped with suitable dock facilities, and where the alcohol is run directly from the tank ship or barge into suitable storage tanks on the consignee's premises.* (Secs. 3101, 3107, 3108, I.R.C.)

§ 182.513 Pipe-line removals. Pipe lines may be used for the transfer of alcohol to a denaturing plant located on the same premises, or, after tax-payment, to a rectifying plant or contiguous or nearby premises (as authorized by §§ 182.574a to 182.574g). Pipe lines may also be used to transfer alcohol to railroad tank cars for shipment. Such pipe lines must conform to the requirements of § 182.82, except that alcohol may be transferred into a tank car by means of a hose connection where the same is in full view of the Government officer throughout its entire length. The locking of valves and the supervision of removals shall be in accordance with § 182.489.* Secs. 3101, 3107, 3108, I.R.C.)

§ 182.514 Tank wagons and tank trucks prohibited. The transportation of alcohol in tank wagons or tank trucks will not be permitted.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

Marks, Brands, and Stamps

§ 182.515 General. The determination and marking of the weight (tare) on empty packages will be done immediately preceding the filling of the same in all cases: Provided, That the tare of a number of packages may be ascertained and marked before any are filled, but not exceeding the number which are to be filled on the same day or the following day. If the packages are not to be filled until the following day, they must be kept in the receiving room or bonded warehouse after being weighed and marked. All packages of alcohol when filled shall be further marked as provided in these regulations and in the Gauging Manual; and where such are tax-paid, the tax-paid stamps shall be affixed thereto and canceled in the manner prescribed in these regulations and in such Manual.* (Sec. 3101, I.R.C.)

§ 182.516 Proprietor to mark and brand packages. The proprietor shall have the prescribed marks and brands placed upon the package by stenciling, printing, cutting, burning, or embossing. The height of the letters and figures must be large enough to be easily read and, when printed or stenciled, shall be in permanent ink and in a color distinctly in contrast to the color used as a background.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.517 Description of material from which produced. Packages of alcohol, when withdrawn from bonded warehouse tax-paid for other than industrial or tax-free use, must have stenciled thereon the work "Alcohol," followed by a word or phrase descriptive of the material from which produced, such as "Alcohol—Grain," "Alcohol—Cane," "Alcohol—Fruit Products," "Alcohol—Distilled from Grain," "Alcohol—Distilled from Cane," or "Alcohol—Distilled from Fruit." Alcohol in containers of a capacity of 1 wine gallon or less, except anhydrous or tax-free alcohol, will be deemed to be for nonindustrial use.* (Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 982, 27 U.S.C. Sup. 206)

§ 182.518 Numbering of packages. Where packages of alcohol are filled from receiving tanks in industrial alcohol plants and from storage tanks in bonded warehouses located on the same premises, only one series of numbers will be used. Packages filled from storage tanks in the bonded warehouse shall be given a serial number in sequence to the serial numbers of the packages filled from the receiving tanks. At a bonded warehouse not operated in connection with an industrial alcohol plant packages shall be numbered in serial order as filled from the storage tanks. Packages filled with alcohol will be serially numbered beginning with number 1 for the first package filled and continuing in regular sequence: Provided, That the series in current use at existing alcohol plants and bonded warehouses will be continued. Where there is a change in the trade name or style or in the proprietorship of the business, the series in use at the time of such change will be continued. A new series will be used where there is a change in the type of plant; but use of the prior series will be resumed when the plant is again operated as an industrial alcohol plant. When the serial numbers of packages filled have reached the number 1,000,000, the proprietor may, if he so desires, begin a new series, commencing with number 1, preceded or followed by a letter to distinguish it from the prior series as 1A, 2A, etc., and when the number 1,000,000 so distinguished is again reached, the proprietor may begin another series distinguished by the second letter of the alphabet, as 1B, 2B, etc., and subsequent series, distinguished by other letters of the alphabet in order, may likewise be commenced.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.519 Marks and brands—(a) Drums, barrels, etc. Alcohol withdrawn into drums, barrels, or other approved containers shall be weighed and proofed by the proprietor. Such proprietor shall have marked upon the head of each package, in the order named, the gross weight, tare, net weight in pounds and half pounds, wine gallons, proof, and proof gallons, retaining fractions of gallons in all instances. The name of the proprietor of the warehouse at which the package is filled; the number of the warehouse, the city or town and State in which the plant is located, and the date the package was filled shall also be marked on the package. In addition to the foregoing, the word "Alcohol" must also appear on the heads of all packages of more than 30 wine gallons capacity, in letters of not less than 1 inch in height. On packages of 30 wine gallons or less such letters shall not be less than three-fourths of an inch in height. On small containers, the required markings shall be placed on the side of the container. In addition to the foregoing, each package shall be serially numbered in accordance with § 182.518. There shall also be placed upon the Government head or side of each container, by printing, stenciling, or labeling, a statement to the effect that all marks and stamps must be destroyed immediately the container is emptied.

(b) Cases of bottled alcohol. Each package containing alcohol in bottles shall bear all the marks required by §§ 182.517 and 182.518, inclusive, except the gross weight, tare, and net weight, it not being necessary to ascertain such. The number and capacity of the bottles shall, however, be shown on each package. The warehouse stamps and marks shall be placed on one side.* (Secs. 2808, 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.520 Previously marked packages and cases. Empty packages and cases marked in accordance with regulations heretofore in effect may continue to be used until the existing supply is exhausted, and, where necessary, the district supervisor may permit an additional number of packages and cases marked in accordance with such regulations to be used pending the securing of new stencils or other marking devices.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.521 Tank cars. Each railroad tank car used to transport alcohol must have permanently and legibly marked or painted thereon its number, capacity in wine gallons, and the name or symbols of the owner. If the tank car consists of two or more compartments, each compartment must be identified by a letter of the alphabet, such as "A," "B," etc., and the capacity in wine gallons of the compartment must be marked thereon.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.522 Regauge marks. If a package is regauged, the proprietor will stencil on the side of the metal package next to the bunghole, in the order named, the gross weight, tare, net weight, wine gallons, proof, and proof gallons, determined at the time of withdrawal. In the case of barrels, the proprietor will cut the above data, in the order named, on the stave to the right of the bungstave of each package withdrawn beginning at the middle and extending toward the Government head.* (Secs. 2803, 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.523 Marks on packages repackaged or re-marked—(a) Repackaged. Where alcohol in packages in a bonded warehouse is repackaged because of loss or other valid reason, the new packages shall be properly marked, as in the case of original containers, and record made of the transaction, as required by §§ 182.643 (h) (1), 182.644 (e) (1), and 182.645 (d) (1).

(b) Re-marked. Where packages of alcohol are received in bond from another bonded warehouse and are re-marked with the marks of the receiving warehouse, the packages shall be renumbered and re-marked the same as original packages filled at the receiving warehouse and proper record made of the transaction, as required by §§ 182.643 (h) (2), 182.644 (e) (1), and 182.645 (d) (1).* (Secs. 2808, 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.524 Other marks. The marks required to be on packages by these regulations must be placed on the Government head of a package or side of a case, and no other marks may be shown, with the exception of those required or authorized to be affixed by Federal law and regulations. All marks required by these regulations on Government heads of packages or sides of cases must be in a color distinctly in contrast with the color of the background on which they are placed.

(a) Brand or trade names. The proprietor may show on the Government head, or end of packages, the brand or trade name, provided the brand or trade name will not interfere with or detract from the required Government markings.

(b) Caution notice, etc. Caution notices, etc., required by Federal law and regulations, may be placed on the Government head of packages, or side of cases, but such notices must be so placed as to not obscure the markings prescribed by these regulations and the Gauging Manual.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.525 Stamp numbers. When alcohol is withdrawn tax-paid, or tax-free for export, transfer to customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, or for use on vessels and aircraft, the serial number of the tax-paid stamp or export stamp and the date of withdrawal shall be marked on the package or case immediately below such stamp.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.526 Withdrawn for tax-free use or for export—(a) Tax-free use. When alcohol is withdrawn free of tax from a bonded warehouse for scientific purposes, use of hospitals, etc., or for use of the United States, there shall be stenciled on the Government head of each package or side of each case in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height the date and purpose of withdrawal, such as "Hospital Use," "Scientific Purposes," "Use of U. S.," etc., and the symbol and serial number of the permit authorizing the withdrawal, in addition to the other marks and brands required by these regulations.

(1) Tank cars. When alcohol is withdrawn in tank cars for use of the United States or a governmental agency thereof, there shall be attached to the route board of the tank car, a label showing the name, registry number, and location (city or town and State) of the bonded warehouse, and the name and address of the Government establishment to which the alcohol is consigned, followed by the permit number under which the alcohol is withdrawn, the words "For use of U. S." and the date of withdrawal. The label, which shall be furnished and attached by the proprietor, shall be in substantially the following form:

Shipped by Standard Alcohol Co.,
B. W. 271, Baltimore, Md.
To U. S. Navy Yard,
Washington, D. C.
US–TF–71
For use of U. S.
Aug. 15, 1941.

(b) For export. When alcohol is withdrawn for exportation, the word "For Export" and the names of the ports from and to which the alcohol is to be exported, and the number of the export permit, as for example "For Export, New York to Lisbon, Permit AX–NY–15," shall also be marked on each package or case in letters not less than one-half inch in height.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.527 Stamps—(a) Affixing. Tax-paid, transfer, warehousing, and export stamps shall be securely affixed to the Government head of packages on side of cases with a good adhesive, and, when affixed to wooden packages or cases, with a tack or staple in each corner of the stamp. Transfer stamps shall be similarly affixed to the route board of railroad tank cars.

(b) Cancellation. After the stamp is affixed, it must be immediately canceled. For this purpose, the proprietor shall use a stencil of brass or copper in which shall be cut at least five fine parallel waved lines, long enough to extend not less than three-fourths of an inch beyond the top and bottom of the stamp. This plate must be imprinted with a black, durable, coloring material over and across the stamp. The stencil plate shall be so set as to bring the five parallel waved lines across the stamp at such points as will least obscure the data thereon. The coloring material will be so applied with the brush as to make the cancellation lines distinct, without smearing or spreading over the stamp. To this end, the cutting of the lines in the stencil shall be kept clean, and the coloring material must be kept in proper condition to make a distinct and durable mark, without smearing or spreading.

(c) Covering. After the stamp has been canceled, it must be covered with a coating of transparent shellac, lacquer, or varnish, to protect it against moisture, alteration and removal. Transfer and warehousing stamps, which are not required to be "scalped," may be coated over with a glue that does not discolor the stamps and that affords protection against moisture, alteration, and removal equal to that afforded by shellac, lacquer, or varnish.* (Sec. 3301, I.R.C.)

§ 182.528 Illustrations of marks and stamps. The following cuts illustrate the prescribed marks and stamps and the suggested order and manner in which they should be placed on packages:

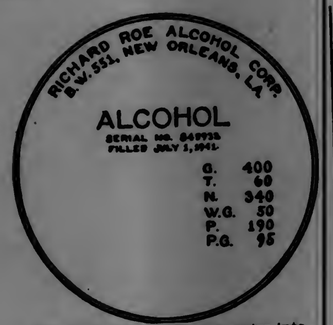

FIG. 1.—Marks on filling or entry into warehouse.

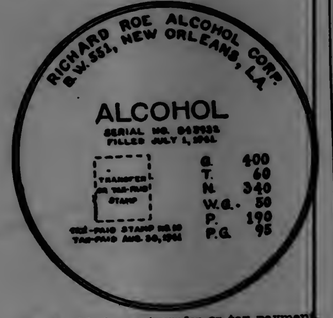

FIG. 2.—Marks on transfer or tax-payment.

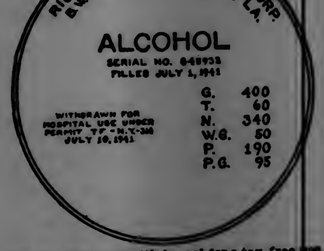

FIG. 3.—Marks on withdrawal for a tax-free use.

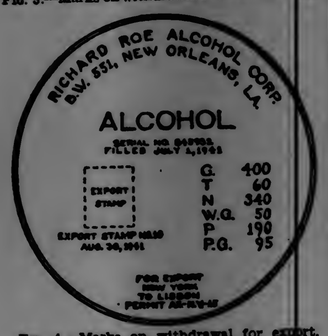

FIG. 4.—Marks on withdrawal for export.

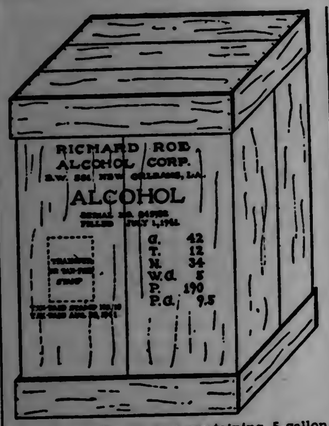

FIG. 5.—Marks on case containing 5-gallon can.

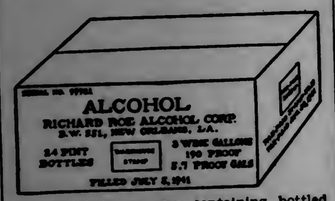

FIG. 6.—Marks on case containing bottled alcohol.

Where packages are transferred in bond to another warehouse and withdrawn from such warehouse bearing the marks of the warehouse at which they were filled, the name, registry number, and location of the warehouse from which the packages are withdrawn, as "Standard Alcohol Co., BW 17, Baltimore, Md.," shall be stenciled or otherwise marked on the package, as illustrated below:

FIG. 7.—Marks on transfer or tax-payment at warehouse other than that at which filled.

§ 182.529 Verification of marks, brands, and stamps. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the gross weight, tare, net weight, wine gallons, proof, and proof gallons marked on packages by comparison with the reports prepared by the proprietor, and shall satisfy himself of the accuracy and correctness of the marks, brands, and stamps (if any) on each package.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.530 Obscurity of stamps, etc. The stamps, marks, and brands required by law and regulations to be applied to packages of alcohol are designed to bear witness of the legality of the alcohol which they cover and they should not be obscured in any manner or covered by the encasing of the package bearing the same, but should at all times be in such condition as to admit of ready examination by Government officers.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

§ 182.531 Imitation stamps, labels, trade marks, or caution notices. Any person who affixes, or causes to be affixed, to any package containing alcohol any imitation stamp or other label, device, or document, either designed as a trade mark, caution notice, caution, or otherwise, and which shall be in the similitude or likeness of, or which have the semblance or general appearance of any internal revenue stamp required by law to be affixed to or upon any packages containing alcohol, is liable to severe penalties, and in addition the package with its contents shall be forfeited to the United States.* (Sec. 2869, I.R.C.)

§ 182.532 Packages to be stamped. With the exception of tax-paid alcohol in railroad tank cars, which must bear a certificate of the proper collector showing tax-payment, or in cases or packages, withdrawn for scientific, mechanical, or hospital purposes, etc., or use of the United States, the several States and Territories and municipal subdivisions thereof, and the District of Columbia, and where such use is indicated on the container, every package of alcohol lawfully upon the market must bear a stamp, or stamps, of one of the prescribed classes.* (Sec. 3103, I.R.C.)

Obliteration of Marks and Stamps and Transportation of Empty Packages

§ 182.533 Obliteration of stamps and marks and brands on empty packages. When packages of alcohol are emptied, all stamps and marks and brands required to be placed thereon must be completely effaced and obliterated. Where a portion of a stamp is cut out for submission to the district supervisor when packages are dumped for rectification or for bottling, the remnant remaining affixed to the package must be completely effaced and obliterated when the package is emptied. Any empty package from which the marks, brands, or stamps have not been effaced or obliterated is declared to be forfeited and any internal revenue officer will seize the same wherever found.* (Sec. 2866, I.R.C.)

§ 182.534 Failure to efface or obliterate marks, brands, and stamps. Any person who shall fail to efface or obliterate marks, brands, or stamps at the time of emptying packages of alcohol, or who shall receive any such emptied package or any part thereof having thereon such marks, brands, or stamps, with intent to transport the same, or who shall transport the same or knowingly aid or assist therein, or who shall remove any stamp from the package without defacing or destroying the same at the time of such removal, or aid or assist therein, or who shall have in his possession any such stamps so removed or who shall have in his possession any canceled stamp or any stamp which has been or purports to be used, is deemed guilty of a felony and is punishable by fine and imprisonment.* (Sec. 2866, I.R.C.)

§ 182.535 Intent of law. It shall be understood that the intent of the law is to require that the marks, brands, and stamps on any package of alcohol shall be effaced, obliterated, and destroyed at the time the package is emptied and the responsibility of doing this is placed upon the person emptying it. The terms "efface and obliterate" must be understood to mean a complete destruction so as to leave no part or portion of the marks, stamps, or brands legible or intelligible. Persons who have possession of, deal in, or engage in the transportation of emptied alcohol packages will be held to understand their liability if they violate the law; the penalties, though severe, must be enforced; and ignorance of the law, negligence or carelessness on the part of themselves or their subordinates shall not be deemed sufficient excuse.* (Secs. 2868, 2867, 3323, I.R.C.)

§ 182.536 Transportation of emptied packages. Any person or transportation company who shall receive or transport or have in their possession with intent to transport or to cause or procure to be transported any emptied package or any part thereof having thereon any brand, mark, or stamp required to be placed on packages containing alcohol is liable to a penalty of $300 for each such package or part of such package; and any boat, railroad box car, or other vehicle and all horses or other animals used in carrying or to transport the same are to be forfeited.* (Sec. 2866, I.R.C.)

Bottling of Alcohol in Bonded Warehouse

§ 182.537 Bottling conducted under supervision. The entire operation of bottling alcohol in a bonded warehouse, the filling and stamping of the bottles and the casing of the bottles, will be performed by the proprietor of the warehouse under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.*

§ 182.538 Liquor bottles. The proprietor must comply with the provisions of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175) respecting the use of liquor bottles when bottling alcohol.* (Sec. 2871, I.R.C.)

§ 182.539 Warehousing stamps. Except when alcohol is bottled for export, an engraved case warehousing stamp with the serial number printed thereon shall be attached to each case containing bottled alcohol, and there shall be affixed to each bottle placed therein a bottle warehousing stamp bearing the same serial number as the case stamp.* (Sec. 3300, I.R.C.)

§ 182.540 Procurement and issuance of stamps—(a) Procurement. Warehousing stamps are supplied to collectors of internal revenue in the same manner as other stamps. District supervisors will obtain supplies of such stamps from the collectors as desired. When necessary, the district supervisors shall forward one or more books of each denomination to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the bonded warehouse.

(b) Issuance. The storekeeper-gauger will issue warehousing stamps as needed. All of the necessary entries on the stamps shall be made by the storekeeper-gauger or by the proprietor under his supervision. Proper entries shall also be made on each stamp stub and, when all the stamps in a book have been used, the storekeeper-gauger shall forward the stub book to the district supervisor. The stamps shall be used consecutively, affixing the one bearing the lowest serial number to the first case filled and the serial number thereof shall be reported on Form 1440 on the same line with the serial number of the case. The stamps must be signed by the storekeeper-gauger in charge. Facsimile signatures of storekeeper-gaugers may be affixed by the use of hand stamps, provided care is taken to use such ink as will neither fade nor blur.*

§ 182.541 Manner of affixing stamps—(a) Case stamps. The case warehousing stamp shall be affixed and canceled in accordance with §§ 182.527 and 182.528.

(b) Bottle stamps. The bottle stamps must be securely affixed to the bottles with the use of a good adhesive. The adhesive used must be in proper liquid condition, and care must be taken to cover the entire back of the stamp with the adhesive, and to press the whole surface of the stamp firmly against the surface of the bottle sufficiently long to cause the entire surface of the stamp to adhere securely to the bottle. The stamp must pass over the mouth of the bottle, extending an approximately equal distance on two sides of the bottle. The stamp must be affixed in such manner that upon opening the bottle a portion of the stamp will be left attached thereto until emptied.* (Sec. 3301, I.R.C.)

§ 182.542 Concealing or obscuring bottle stamps. No part of the bottle stamp shall be concealed or obscured by any label or other covering, except that a cup may be placed over the opening of the bottle, or the bottle may be placed in a carton, as hereinafter provided. Seals made of cellulose or other material which are shrunk or otherwise fitted over the necks of the bottles and cover the stamps must be sufficiently transparent to permit the stamps to be plainly seen and the data thereon easily read. No cup or cap may be placed over the opening of a bottle and cover the stamp, unless such cup or cap is transparent, or is so placed on the bottle that it may be readily removed at any time without injury to the stamp, and the arrangement is such that the ends of the stamp will be plainly visible when the cap or cup is in place. Cartons or other coverings of bottles of alcohol are permitted, if so made that they may be opened and closed without being torn or broken. Sealed cartons or other coverings may not be used unless transparent, or unless openings therein permit the data on the stamp and the indicia and penalty clause required by Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175) on the bottle to be plainly seen and read.* (Secs. 2871, 3301, I.R.C.)

§ 182.543 Affixing bottle stamp over cup or cap. The bottle stamp may be affixed over a cup or cap placed over the opening of the bottle, provided the arrangement is such that the stamp will be torn apart or destroyed when the cup or cap is unscrewed or removed or destroyed. Where it is desired to affix the bottle stamp over a removable cup or cap, the cup or cap must be securely screwed or fastened over the opening of the bottle, and must be of such size and construction that the stamp will pass over the top and extend beyond the cup or cap for such length that each end of the stamp may be securely affixed to the surface of the bottle. The stamp must be securely affixed with a strong adhesive to both the cup or cap and the bottle. Where it is desired to affix the stamp over a cap or seal made of cellulose or other similar adhesive material which is so shrunk or otherwise fitted over the neck of the bottle as to be unremovable without being destroyed, and is of such size and construction that the stamp will not extend beyond such cap or seal to permit each end to be affixed to the surface of the bottle, it will not be necessary for the ends of the stamp to be affixed to the surface of the bottle, provided the cap or seal is affixed to the bottle in such manner that when the bottle is opened the stamp will be torn apart and a portion of the cap or seal and stamp will remain attached to the bottle. In any case where there is doubt as to the propriety of the use of any cup or cap, the bottle and cup or cap should be submitted to the district supervisor for a ruling thereon.* (Sec. 2301, I.R.C.)

§ 182.544 Bottling alcohol after tax-payment. Where the proprietor of a bonded warehouse desires to bottle alcohol after payment of the tax thereon, he must comply with the provisions of Regulations 11 (26 CFR, Part 189), concerning the location, construction, equipment, etc., and operation of tax-paid bottling houses.*

Changes in Packages

§ 182.545 Repackaging. Packages of alcohol in bonded warehouses may be repackaged in order to prevent loss or for other valid reason. The new packages must be properly marked, as in the case of the original packages, and proper record made of the transaction. The transfer of the contents of the old packages to the new packages shall be made by the proprietor under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

(a) Entire contents to be repackaged. The entire contents of a package must be repackaged. Notation should be made on Form 1440, covering the entry gauge of the original package that its contents have been repackaged into another package or packages, giving the serial numbers of the recasked packages and the date of the repackaging. The recasked packages should be gauged and notation made on Form 1440 covering such gauge that they were filled from other packages, giving the serial numbers of the original packages: Provided, That where it is desired to recask only a portion of the contents of the package, the package should be dumped into a storage tank and proper notation thereof made on Forms 1440, 1443–A, and 1443–B.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

§ 182.546 Changes in packages for export. In the event of a change in a package for export, all the required marks and brands, including the results of regauging, which must be made under any circumstances, shall be placed on the new package.* (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

Removal of Alcohol from Warehouse

§ 182.547 Authorized removals. Alcohol may be removed from bonded warehouses in accordance with the procedure prescribed in these regulations, for the following purposes:

(1) Transferred in bond to another bonded warehouse.
(2) Transferred to a denaturing plant for denaturation.
(3) Withdrawn upon payment of tax.
(4) Withdrawn tax-free for scientific purposes, use of hospitals, States, etc.
(5) Withdrawn for use by the United States or governmental agency thereof.
(6) Withdrawn for exportation.
(7) Transferred to customs manufacturing bonded warehouses.
(8) Withdrawn tax-free for use on certain vessels and aircraft.

• (Secs. 2885, 2891, 3070 (a), 3103, 3107, 3108, I.R.C.; sec. 309 (a), Tariff Act of 1930; 19 U.S.C., Sup., 1309, as amended by sec. 3, Act of July 22, 1941 (Public Law 187, 77th Cong.))

§ 182.548 Transportation—(a) In bond. Alcohol shipped in bond to another bonded warehouse shall be transported to the premises of the receiving warehouse by the proprietor of the shipping warehouse; or by a railroad or steamship company, or an express company operating thereon; or by a motor carrier who holds a permit to transport tax-free or specially denatured alcohol or who has qualified with the Interstate Commerce Commission as a "self insurer"; or by other carriers, including motor and barge lines, who are actively and regularly engaged in the legitimate business of transportation and who possess adequate facilities to insure safe delivery at destination of any alcohol transported by them, and who are approved by the district supervisor.

(b) Tax-free. Alcohol withdrawn free of tax for denaturation, export, transfer to customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, use on vessels and aircraft, use of the United States or any governmental agency thereof, the several States and Territories or any municipal subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, hospitals, sanatoriums, colleges, laboratories, scientific purposes, etc., must be transported to the premises of the consignee or, if withdrawn for export, to the port of export, by the proprietor of the bonded warehouse or a carrier holding permit on Form 145 to transport tax-free alcohol: Provided, That the consignee may transport the alcohol from the premises of the delivering carrier at the place of destination to his own premises or in the case of export, or use on vessels and aircraft, to the point of lading.

(c) Method of transportation. Alcohol shipped in bond or tax-free in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b), must be transported by the proprietor of the bonded warehouse or the authorized carrier personally, or by some person regularly and exclusively in their employ, and the right to the possession of any vehicle used for such transportation must be vested in the vendor or carrier.

(d) Responsibility for delivery. The consignor will be responsible for proper delivery of alcohol shipped in bond or tax-free to an authorized carrier, or to the premises of the consignee when delivery is made by the consignor. The consignee will likewise be responsible for the proper delivery to his permit premises of alcohol shipped to him in bond or tax-free and transported by him from the premises of the authorized carrier. Failure to make such delivery will be deemed to be grounds for citation for revocation of the basic permit of the person responsible for the proper delivery of the alcohol.

(e) Certificate in bill of lading, waybill, etc. When alcohol is transported by a carrier, as authorized herein, the proprietor of the shipping warehouse shall include in his bill of lading, waybill, express receipt, etc., a statement to the following effect: "Before making delivery, the agent of the delivering carrier at destination must have received from the consignee a certified copy of the withdrawal permit authorizing this shipment."

(1) Exception; written statement. Where no bill of lading is issued, as in the case of delivery by local express company, a written statement to the above effect, signed by the shipper, shall be delivered to the carrier.• (Secs. 3070 (a), 3107, 3108, 3114, I.R.C.)

Regauge of Alcohol

§ 182.549 Regauge of alcohol in packages. Packages of alcohol in bonded warehouses may be withdrawn on the original gauge made at the time of filling where there is no reason to believe that the data shown on the original gauge differs from the present contents of the packages and the proprietor of the warehouse does not desire to regauge the same. Where the proprietor or storekeeper-gauger believes that the present contents of the packages may differ from the data shown on the original gauge, a regauge will be made. The results of the regauge shall be placed on the packages in accordance with the provisions of § 182.522, and notation on the records must be made as hereinafter provided.• (Sec. 2808, I.R.C.)

Transfer of Alcohol in Bond Between Bonded Warehouses

§ 182.550 General. Alcohol may be transferred in bond from any bonded warehouse in original packages or other approved containers, after the same has been correctly weighed and proofed to determine the exact contents of each package, unless withdrawn on the original gauge, to another bonded warehouse as hereinafter provided.• (Sec. 3107, I.R.C.)

§ 182.551 Application and withdrawal permit, Form 1436—(a) Application. Where the proprietor of the bonded warehouse desires to procure alcohol from another bonded warehouse, he will file application on Part I of Form 1436, "Application for Withdrawal Permit," in duplicate, with the district supervisor for withdrawal permit to procure alcohol. The names, warehouse numbers, and addresses of the warehouses from which alcohol will be procured will be stated in the application. Where the bond, Form 1432–A, filed by the proprietor covering the receiving warehouse is in less than the maximum penal sum, the application should be for a fixed number of proof gallons to be withdrawn during a calendar month, which amount shall not exceed the quantity authorized in the applicant's basic permit, Form 1433, to be on hand, in transit, and unaccounted for at any one time.

(b) Withdrawal permit. If the application is approved by the district supervisor, he will issue a withdrawal permit on Part II of the Form 1436. If the applicant's basic permit on Form 1433 for his bonded warehouse limits the quantity of alcohol that may be on hand, in transit, and unaccounted for at any one time, the quantity authorized by the withdrawal permit on Form 1436 to be withdrawn during any calendar month, shall not exceed such quantity specified in the applicant's basic permit. The district supervisor will forward the original copy of the withdrawal permit to the applicant and will retain the duplicate copy for his files. If the shipping warehouse is located in another supervisory district, a copy of the withdrawal permit, and any renewals or amendments thereof, will be prepared on the prescribed form and transmitted by the district supervisor issuing the same to the district supervisor of the district from which shipments are to be made. When the proprietor of the receiving warehouse desires to procure alcohol, he will forward the original of the withdrawal permit to the proprietor of the bonded warehouse named therein from whom he desires to procure the alcohol. Upon shipment, the proprietor of the shipping warehouse will enter the shipment on the permit and return it to the consignee, unless he has been authorized by the consignee to retain the permit for the purpose of making future shipments. No alcohol may be shipped by a consignor named in the withdrawal permit until such permit is in his possession. Except as provided in paragraph (d), further like transfers may be made under such permit during the term for which it is issued.

(c) Carrier to be furnished copy of Form 1436. Where the alcohol is to be delivered by a person other than the vendor, the consignee shall procure from the district supervisor a certified copy (or copies, if delivery is to be made by more than one carrier), on the prescribed form, of the withdrawal permit, Form 1436, and shall file the same with the delivering carrier's agent at destination. Application for such certified copy or copies shall be made by the permittee to the district supervisor by letter, specifying the name of the delivering carrier. Where such delivering carrier is known at the time Form 1436 is filed, the application should accompany such form.

(d) Expiration or termination of permit. Upon expiration of a withdrawal permit it shall be returned to the district supervisor for cancellation. Where the permit is in the possession of a consignor on the date of expiration, such consignor shall return it to the permittee for surrender to the district supervisor. Should a basic permit, Form 1433, held by a person to whom withdrawal permit, Form 1436, was issued, be terminated, surrendered, or revoked, the proprietor of each bonded warehouse named as vendor in such withdrawal permit shall, upon notice from the district supervisor, make no further shipments thereunder, and if such withdrawal permit is in his possession, he shall return it to the district supervisor for cancellation.• (Secs. 3101, 3107, I.R.C.)

§ 182.552 Application for renewal of withdrawal permit. Applications on Part I of Form 1436 for renewal of withdrawal permits must be submitted by the permittee to the district supervisor not less than one month prior to the date of expiration of the permit to be renewed, in order that the renewal permit may be issued and become available for withdrawals by the 1st day of the calendar month following the date of expiration of the permit to be renewed. Application for renewal of withdrawal permits shall be executed in conformity with § 182.551 (a).•

§ 182.553 Renewal of withdrawal permit, Form 1436 Withdrawal permits on Part II of Form 1436 shall remain in force for the calendar year or for the term of the basic permit, Form 1433. A renewal permit must be procured for each year, commencing with January 1, after the expiration of the original permit. The provisions of § 182.551 (b) shall be applicable to the issuance of renewal permits.•

§ 182.554 Quantity procurable under withdrawal permits. Where the permittee's basic permit, Form 1433, limits the quantity of alcohol that may be on hand, in transit, and unaccounted for at any one time at the bonded warehouse, he shall in procuring alcohol from another bonded warehouse deduct the quantity on hand, in transit, and unaccounted for from the quantity so limited in his basic permit, and if the available balance is less than the quantity procurable under the withdrawal permit during the calendar month, give his order for an amount not exceeding the available balance. For this purpose, alcohol shall be deemed to be unaccounted for when disposed of or lost otherwise than as provided by these regulations. Failure on the part of permittees to observe the foregoing requirements concerning withdrawals will be regarded as sufficient grounds for citation for revocation of their basic permits.• (Secs. 3101, 3107, I.R.C.)

§ 182.555 Transfer stamps. An industrial alcohol transfer stamp shall be attached to each container of alcohol transferred in bond from one bonded warehouse to another such warehouse, or to a denaturing plant not on the same premises with the bonded warehouse. Such transfer stamp must be effaced and obliterated when the package is finally withdrawn or emptied at the receiving bonded warehouse or denaturing plant. The storekeeper-gauger shall issue transfer stamps as needed and all necessary entries thereon shall be made by the storekeeper-gauger or by the proprietor under his immediate supervision. Proper entries shall also be made on each stamp stub and, when all the stamps in a book have been used, the storekeeper-gauger shall forward the stub book to the district supervisor. Transfer stamps will be furnished by collectors to district supervisors upon request. District supervisors may supply storekeeper-gaugers in charge at bonded warehouses with sufficient quantities of such stamps to enable shipment in bond to be made from such warehouse without unnecessary delay. The transfer stamps must be signed by the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the bonded warehouse. Facsimile signatures of storekeeper-gaugers on stamps may be affixed by the use of hand stamps, provided care is taken to use only such ink as will neither fade nor blur. The stamps shall be affixed, canceled, etc., in accordance with §§ 182.527 and 182.528.• (Sec. 3300, I.R.C.)

§ 182.556 Report of gauge, Form 1440. The proprietor will prepare Form 1440, in quadruplicate, giving the details of the re-gauge, or original gauge, if withdrawn on such gauge, of the alcohol. The proprietor will deliver all copies of the form to the storekeeper-gauger in charge, who shall upon shipment forward one copy to the supervisor of the district in which the shipping warehouse is located, and two copies, with one copy of Form 1439, to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving warehouse, and return the remaining copy to the proprietor of the shipping warehouse, who shall file the same as a permanent withdrawal record, as provided in § 182.643 (b).• (Secs. 3101, 3107, I.R.C.)

§ 182.557 Report of shipment, Form 1439. When alcohol is transferred in bond to another bonded warehouse, the proprietor shall, at the time of shipment, prepare Form 1439, in duplicate, if shipment is made to a warehouse located within the same district, or in triplicate, if shipment is made to a warehouse located in another district, and immediately deliver all copies thereof to the storekeeper-gauger in charge, who shall, on the same day, forward one copy to the supervisor of the district from which the alcohol is shipped, one copy to the supervisor of the district to which the alcohol is shipped (where shipment is to another district), and the remaining copy to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving bonded warehouse, who, upon receipt of the alcohol, will dispose of the form in accordance with § 182.494.• (Secs. 3101, 3107. I.R.C.)

Withdrawal for Denaturation

§ 182.558 General. Alcohol may be withdrawn free of tax for denaturation in an approved denaturing plant, as hereinafter provided.• (Secs. 3070 (a), 3101, 3108 (a), 3114 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.559 Transfer to denaturing plant on same premises. Alcohol may be withdrawn from a bonded warehouse and transferred to a denaturing plant located on the same premises, without the necessity of procuring withdrawal permit, Form 1463. Alcohol may be so transferred by pipe line or in approved containers. Where the bond for the denaturing plant is in an amount less than the maximum penal sum prescribed by these regulations, and the basic permit, Form 1433, for the denaturing plant limits the quantity of alcohol that may be received in the denaturing plant during a calendar month, no larger quantity of alcohol than that covered by the bond or authorizing by the basic permit may be transferred to the denaturing plant. Storekeeper-gaugers will see that such limitations are observed.• (Secs. 3070 (a), 3101, 3108 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.560 Shipment to denaturing plant located on other premises. Alcohol may be withdrawn from a bonded warehouse for shipment to a denaturing plant located on other premises only pursuant to withdrawal permit, Form 1463, authorizing such shipment. Alcohol may be so shipped in tank cars, drums, or other approved containers. Such shipments may not be made until the proprietor of the bonded warehouse has received from the denaturer the withdrawal permit, Form 1463, naming him as vendor, and then only in the quantity specified in the withdrawal permit. Upon shipment the proprietor of the bonded warehouse will enter the shipment on the permit and return it to the denaturer, unless he has been authorized by the denaturer to retain the permit for the purpose of making future shipments.

(a) Form 1439. When alcohol is shipped to a denaturing plant located on other premises, the proprietor of the warehouse shall prepare Form 1439, in duplicate, if shipment is made to a denaturing plant located in the same district, or in triplicate, if shipment is made to a denaturing plant located in another district, and immediately deliver all copies thereof to the storekeeper-gauger in charge, who shall, on the same day, forward one copy to the district supervisor of the district from which the alcohol is shipped, one copy to the district supervisor of the district to which the alcohol is shipped (where shipment is to another district), and the remaining copy to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the denaturing plant.• (Secs. 3070 (a), 3101, 3108 (a), 3114 (a), I.R.C.)

§ 182.561 Gauging, marking, and stamping upon withdrawal. When alcohol is transferred by pipe line, or shipped in tank cars, to a denaturing plant, it will be run into a weighing tank and weighed and proofed by the proprietor, in accordance with §§ 182.405 and 182.407. When alcohol is transferred or shipped to a denaturing plant in other approved containers, the proprietor will regauge the packages, unless withdrawn on the original gauge, and will mark each package in accordance with §§ 182.518 to 182.524, inclusive: Provided, That where packages are transferred to a denaturing plant on the same premises the regauged markings prescribed by § 182.522 need not be placed upon the packages: And provided further, That where packages are filled from the receiving tanks of the industrial alcohol plant or from storage tanks in the bonded warehouse for transfer to the denaturing plant located on the same premises, and the alcohol is to be denatured immediately in such packages and the location of the receiving room, bonded warehouse and denaturing plant is such that the packages are transferred from the receiving room or bonded warehouse to the denaturing plant in the immediate personal presence of the storekeeper-gauger and under his constant observation, the district supervisor may authorize the data, which these regulations require to be marked upon the Government head or side of the package, to be placed upon a label attached to the head or the side of the container, in lieu of being printed, stencilled, or cut thereon. Such label shall be destroyed when the contents of the package are denatured. A transfer stamp must be affixed to each package shipped to a denaturing plant not located on the same premises, as required by § 182.555. Transfer stamps need not be affixed to packages transferred to a denaturing plant on the same premises.

(a) Form 1440. The proprietor will prepare Form 1440, in quadruplicate, giving the details of the regauge, or original gauge if withdrawn on such gauge, of the alcohol. The collector will fill in all the required data in the blank spaces on the certificate, except those provided in the lower left corner for the verification of the storekeeper-gauger, and date and sign the certificate in the same manner as a tax-paid stamp is required by § 182.564 to be filled in, dated, and signed. If the tank car is received without the certificate attached thereto, the vendee shall note such fact on the bill of lading and immediately notify the district supervisor, who will cause such inquiry to be made respecting the shipment and receipt of the car as he may deem appropriate. Where a tank car with the certificate missing is received by a plant where a storekeeper-gauger is assigned, such storekeeper-gauger will furnish a complete report to the district supervisor.*

§ 182.573 Vendee's use of Form 1440. The Form 1440 sent to the vendee by the vendor shall be attached to the storage tank in the rectifying plant, tax-paid bottling house, or premises of other vendee authorized to receive the alcohol. § 182.597 Release of alcohol. After the packages have been properly stamped, marked, and branded, the storekeeper-gauger will approve the proprietor's application on Form 1440 to withdraw the packages, and will release the alcohol for delivery to the exporter named in the application. Upon removal of the alcohol from the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his report of removal on Form 1456.* (Secs. 2885, 2886, I.R.C.)

§ 182.598 Delivery to carrier. If the alcohol is withdrawn from a bonded warehouse located elsewhere than at the port of exportation, the exporter will deliver the shipment to a carrier for transportation to the port of exportation. He shall procure two copies of the bill of lading covering such transportation and deliver both copies thereof to the storekeeper-gauger at the bonded warehouse. The alcohol must be consigned to the collector of customs of the port of export and must be properly described in the bill of lading by serial numbers and quantity.* (Secs. 2885, 2886, I.R.C.)

§ 182.600 Exportation through border ports. In case of exportation through a border port to a contiguous foreign territory, the bill of lading will cover the transportation of the alcohol to its destination and must show the routing, particularly as to the carrier which will deliver the shipment for customs inspection at the border. The shipment must be consigned in care of the collector of customs or deputy collector of customs at the border port. The exporter shall deliver two copies of the bill of lading to the storekeeper-gauger at the bonded warehouse.* (Secs. 2885, 2886, I.R.C.)

§ 182.601 Disposition of forms. When the packages of alcohol have been delivered and the exporter has furnished copies of the bill of lading, the storekeeper-gauger will forward immediately a complete set of the Forms 1440 and 1456 and bill of lading to the district supervisor and a complete set to the collector of customs at the port of exportation and return the remaining copies of Forms 1440 and 1456 to the proprietor of the warehouse, who will retain them thereat as a permanent record in accordance with § 182.643.* (Secs. 2885, 2886, 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.603 Proceedings at port of export—(a) Export entry; alcohol withdrawn for direct export. When alcohol withdrawn for direct export arrives at the port of export, the exporter or his agent shall file immediately with the collector of customs an export entry, Form 691, in duplicate. The collector of customs will compare the same with the application for withdrawal, Form 1456, received from the storekeeper-gauger of the bonded warehouse from which the alcohol was withdrawn for exportation and if the description of the alcohol in the export entry agrees with that given in the application for withdrawal, he shall execute Part 2 of both copies of Form 691, directing the surveyor of the port to inspect the packages described in the application and to supervise the scalping and destruction of export stamps thereon (as provided in paragraph (e) of this section) and the lading of spirits covered by the application.

(b) Alcohol withdrawn for transportation for export. In the case of alcohol withdrawn for transportation for export, the prescribed export entry shall be signed by the exporter and formally filed with the collector of customs after the inspection and lading of the alcohol, as required by the law.

(c) Supervision of lading. Immediately upon arrival at the port of export of alcohol withdrawn for transportation for export, the exporter or his agent shall notify the collector of the port in order that the alcohol may be inspected and be under customs supervision from the time it is delivered from the cars or other conveyance in which received until laden on board the foreign bound vessel, car or other vehicle and such vessel, car, or other vehicle departs for the foreign destination.

(d) Bulk containers to be gauged. Alcohol in packages, or in cases containing metallic cans, shall be carefully gauged by a customs gauger and a detailed report of such gauge shall be made on Form 696, in duplicate. In preparing the report, the customs gauger shall make entries thereon as to each package in accordance with the column headings. A copy of the gauger's report of gauge will be attached to each copy of the entry for exportation, Form 691, and delivered to the collector of customs as provided in paragraph (g) of this section.

(e) Export stamps to be scalped and obliterated. There shall be cut out of each export stamp that portion upon which is shown the serial number of the stamp, the date of issue, the name of the collector issuing the same, the serial number of the cask or package, the contents and proof gallons, and the name of the internal revenue storekeeper-gauger. The cut-out portions of the export stamps shall then be attached to one copy of Form 691 for delivery to the collector of customs. After the export stamps have been scalped, the portions thereof remaining on each cask or package shall be obliterated.

(f) Inspection of bottled alcohol. The inspector at the port of export will in every instance carefully inspect cases containing bottled alcohol for the purpose of ascertaining whether the cases bear evidence of tampering or have sustained losses in transit due to breakage. The inspector will report on Form 691 any cases as to which a discrepancy is found, giving the serial numbers of the cases, their original contents in proof gallons, and the nature of the discrepancies as to each case.

(g) Return of inspection and lading; export bill of lading. After the alcohol has been duly laden on board the export vessel or car, the customs inspector shall execute his certificate of inspection and lading on Part 3 of Form 691 and forward all copies to the collector of customs, together with Form 696, if any, and the exporter shall file immediately one copy of the export bill of lading with the collector of customs and one copy with the district supervisor, unless, in the case of exportation through border ports, a through bill of lading was filed at the time of withdrawal from warehouse as provided in § 182.600.

(h) Certificate of clearance. Upon receipt of the duly executed forms and clearance of the vessel or car, the collector of customs will execute his certificate of clearance on Part 4 of Form 691 and will forward one copy of such form bearing the cut-out portions of the export stamps and one copy of Form 696, if any, to the district supervisor of the district in which is located the warehouse from which the alcohol was removed for exportation.

(i) Exportation in railroad cars or trucks from port of entry through another port. Where alcohol is to be exported by rail or in trucks through a frontier port and it is desired to avoid the delay of customs inspection and gauge at such port, the alcohol may be entered for exportation at an interior customs port and inspected and gauged by a customs officer at that port. The inspecting customs officer will supervise the loading of the alcohol and seal the car or truck with customs seals and note the car number or license number of the truck, as the case may be, and the serial numbers of the customs seals, if a numbered seal is used, on Part 3 of both copies of Form 691 and forward the forms to the collector of customs. The collector will forward both copies of Form 691 to the customs officer at the frontier port. If the customs officer at the frontier port finds upon arrival of the car or truck that the seals are intact and there is no evidence of tampering with the contents, he will allow the car or truck to proceed to its destination without opening. The officer will then execute his certificate of exportation by sealed cars or trucks, on Form 691 and return both copies of the form to the collector of customs at the port of entry. If, however, the customs officer finds that the seals are not intact or there is evidence of tampering with the contents, he will open the car or truck, inspect and gauge the alcohol, and make report of his gauge on Form 696, in duplicate. When the alcohol is so inspected and gauged, the customs officer will modify his report on Form 691 accordingly before executing it and will append to each copy of Form 691 a copy of his gauge on Form 696 before forwarding the forms to the collector of customs at the port of entry. Upon receipt of Form 691 and Forms 696, if any, from the customs officer at the frontier port, the collector at the port of entry will execute his certificate of exportation on Part 4 of both copies of Form 691, properly modified, and forward one copy of each form and the cut-out portions of export stamps from packages to the district supervisor of the district from which the alcohol was withdrawn from warehouse.

(j) Subsequent procedure. Where alcohol is withdrawn and shipped under an export bond, the requirements of §§ 182.604 to 182.609, inclusive, must be observed. Where the alcohol is withdrawn under a transportation for export bond, the exporter must file with the collector of customs bond on Form 693 and proof of actual landing of the alcohol at the foreign port, as provided in § 182.585.

(k) Delay in lading at port. If the exporting vessel is not prepared to receive alcohol withdrawn for export upon arrival at the port of exportation, the collector of customs may permit such alcohol to remain in possession of the transportation company for a period not exceeding 15 days. Storage elsewhere for a like cause and not exceeding the same period may be approved by the collector of customs. In the event of further delay, the facts will be reported to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who will issue appropriate instructions concerning the disposition of the alcohol.* (Secs. 2885, 2886, 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.604 Proof of landing. Every person exporting alcohol free of tax under an export bond shall file with the district supervisor, within six (6) months from the date of exportation, or such additional time as may be granted under § 182.609, evidence satisfactory to the district supervisor that the alcohol described in the application has been landed at some port outside the jurisdiction of the United States. The landing certificate must give such description as will readily identify the alcohol to which it relates.* (Secs. 2885, 3170, I.R.C.)

* (Sec. 2885, I.R.C.)

§ 182.606 Execution of landing certificate. The landing certificate shall be signed by a revenue officer of the foreign country to which the alcohol is exported, unless it is shown that such country has no customs administration, in which event the certificate shall be signed by the consignee or by the vessel's agent at the place of landing and sworn to before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths and having an official seal. Where the certificate offered is in a foreign language, a sworn translation must accompany the certificate.* (Sec. 2885, I.R.C.)

§ 182.607 Several consignments may be covered by one landing certificate. Where several consignments are made by the same shipper to the same consignee, or to a general agent, on the same date, by the same vessel or other conveyance, and to the same foreign port, such consignments may be covered by one landing certificate, provided each consignment is specifically and separately described in the certificate.* (Sec. 2885, I.R.C.)

§ 182.608 Collateral evidence of landing. Whenever an owner is unable to procure a landing certificate but is able to establish by collateral evidence the actual exportation of the alcohol and its delivery to the foreign consignee, he may file application for relief with the district supervisor holding the export bond. Such application must be under oath and must recite the facts connected with the exportation, the date of withdrawal of the alcohol from the industrial alcohol bonded warehouse for exportation, the name and registered number of the industrial alcohol bonded warehouse from which withdrawn, the serial numbers of the packages or cases, the quantity of alcohol, the name of the consignee and the name of the vessel by and the foreign port to which shipment was made. The application must set forth the reason why a landing certificate cannot be filed and must be supported by such collateral evidence of exportation and delivery to the foreign consignee as the exporter may be able to submit. The application must be submitted to the district supervisor before the expiration of the time specified in § 182.604 for furnishing evidence of landing.* (Sec. 2885, I.R.C.)

§ 182.609 Extension of time for submitting proof of landing. In case the owner, from causes beyond his control, is unable to furnish the required proof of landing within six (6) months from the date of exportation, he may make application to the district supervisor for an extension of time for the production of such evidence. Such application must state specifically the cause of failure to produce the evidence and be verified under oath. An extension of three months may be granted by the district supervisor, and, if necessary, upon a second application, an additional three months may be granted.* (Sec. 2885, I.R.C.)

§ 182.610 Records. The district supervisor will take credit as "Exported and accounted for" in his monthly report, Form 1487, for alcohol withdrawn for export under a transportation for export bond upon receipt of Form 691 from the collector of customs showing that the alcohol covered by the application was cleared from the port of exportation. Alcohol withdrawn under an export bond will be credited as "Exported and accounted for" on Form 1487 upon receipt of evidence of foreign landing. In case of a shortage, credit may not be taken for the shipment until advised by the Commissioner that the liability thereon has been terminated.* (Secs. 3170, 3953 (b), I.R.C.)

§ 182.611 Account with continuing export bonds. The district supervisor will keep an account with each continuing direct export bond, Form 1495, and each continuing transportation for export bond, Form 1496. In the account with each continuing direct export bond, the principal will be charged with the internal revenue tax on each lot of alcohol withdrawn thereunder for exportation and will receive credit for each lot concerning which satisfactory evidence of landing in a foreign country has been received. In the account of each continuing bond for transportation for export, the principal will be charged with the internal revenue tax on each lot of alcohol withdrawn under the bond for transportation for export and will receive credit for each lot concerning which evidence of clearance from the port of export is received from the collector of customs. In case a shortage in any shipment is reported, credit will be entered for the actual quantity exported or cleared for exportation, as the case may be, but no credit will be entered for the loss until advice has been received from the Commissioner of the termination of liability therefor. Upon receipt of advice from the principal that no further exportations are to be made under the bond, the district supervisor will, if there are no outstanding charges against the bond, cancel the same in the manner prescribed by §§ 182.312 and 182.313.* (Secs. 2885, 2886, 3170, I.R.C.)

§ 182.612 Loss of alcohol withdrawn free of tax for exportation. Under the provisions of section 3113, I.R.C., allowance may be made for alcohol lost by leakage, casualty, or unavoidable cause during shipment, warehousing, storage, or transfer of any such alcohol, and the Commissioner may remit any tax incurred upon such alcohol provided he is satisfied that the alcohol has not been diverted to any illegal use: Provided, also, That such allowance shall not be granted if the person claiming same is indemnified against such loss by a valid claim of insurance.*

§ 182.613 Notice to exporter. If, upon examination of Forms 691 and 696 received from the collector of customs, it shall appear that there has been a loss of alcohol from the packages while in transit from the industrial alcohol bonded warehouse from which the packages were withdrawn to the port of exportation, the district supervisor shall notify the exporter of such deficiency, giving the serial numbers of the packages from which the loss occurred, the name and registry number of the bonded warehouse from which the packages were removed, the quantity of alcohol lost from each package, and advise him of his privilege of filing a claim for the remission of the tax on the alcohol so lost, except that where the deficiency from any package does not exceed 1 proof gallon and there is no evidence indicating that the deficiency was not due to leakage or evaporation, or to loss by an unavoidable accident, no account need be taken of such deficiency.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.614 Claims for remission of tax. The exporter must file claim for the remission of tax on alcohol lost in transit for exportation with the district supervisor within 30 days from the date he is advised of the loss. Special forms for use by claimants in making claims for remission of tax are not provided. Such claims must, however, be made in affidavit form. The exporter shall furnish the following information:

(1) The name of the exporter;

(2) The serial numbers of the packages involved;

(3) The quantity of alcohol lost from each package and the total quantity of alcohol covered by the claim;

(4) The total amount of tax for which the claim is filed;

(5) The date, penal sum, and form number of the bond under which withdrawal and shipment were made;

(6) The name, registry number, and location of the bonded warehouse from which the alcohol was withdrawn;

(7) The date of the loss, if known, and the cause and nature thereof, together with all of the known facts surrounding the loss;

(8) Whether the alleged loss occurred without any fraud or negligence of the exporter, owner, carrier, or of their agents or employees, and whether claim has been made or is contemplated against said persons or any of them on account of such loss; and

(9) Whether the alcohol lost is covered by a valid claim of insurance in excess of the market value thereof exclusive of the tax. If the alcohol is insured, the statement will show the market value of the alcohol per proof gallon, the amount and date of each and every policy of insurance, the name and location of the company by which each and every policy was issued, the name and address of the bona fide owner of the alcohol and, to the best of the affiant's knowledge, whether any other person or party is indemnified against the payment of the tax sought to be remitted.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.615 Proof of loss at sea. When the exporter is unable to furnish proof of landing at a foreign port in consequence of loss at sea, he shall file with the district supervisor with whom he filed the export bond an application for relief, setting forth fully the information specified in § 182.614. Such application must be accompanied by the affidavits of two or more creditable and disinterested persons as to the loss. If the alcohol was insured, the exporter shall also file certificates by officers of the insurance company or board of underwriters that the insurance has been paid and that to the best of their knowledge and belief the alcohol was actually destroyed at sea. When obtainable, affidavits must be furnished by the master and mate of the vessel detailing the cause and extent of the loss and all of the facts and circumstances surrounding the same. Such proof shall be furnished to the district supervisor within the time specified in § 182.604 for furnishing proof of landing of the alcohol in a foreign country.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.616 Filing of proof of loss at sea in case of exportation under bond on Form 693. Where alcohol is exported under a bond furnished on Form 693, and the exporter is unable to furnish the required proof of landing at a foreign port in consequence of loss at sea, he will file application for relief and supporting evidence conforming to the provisions of the preceding section with the collector of customs with whom the bond was filed. The collector of customs will forward the application and supporting evidence to the Commissioner of Customs with his recommendation thereon.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.617 Additional evidence. The Commissioner may require such further evidence as the circumstances surrounding the case may require and the claimant, when preparing the claim, should furnish such additional evidence as may be material in the case.* (Sec. 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.618 Tax to be reported for assessment. In the event report received from the collector of customs indicates losses from packages while in transit and claim for remission of the tax thereon is not made as heretofore provided, the district supervisor will report the tax for assessment in accordance with the prescribed procedure.* (Secs. 3112 (b), 3113, I.R.C.)

§ 182.619 Shipment to American possessions. The provisions of these regulations relating to the exportation of alcohol free of tax to foreign countries and the forms prescribed for use in connection therewith shall apply to like removals and shipments to the Philippine Islands, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Panama Canal Zone. Alcohol shipped to other possessions of the United States and to Hawaii and Alaska must be tax-paid before withdrawal from bonded warehouses unless transferred in bond to industrial alcohol bonded warehouses located in one of these Territories or possessions.* (Secs. 3341 (b), 3351 (b), 3361 (b), I.R.C., Sup., and sec. 3650, I.R.C.)
